RHA looks for smart growth district to move Cooledge redevelopment along

By Adam Swift

The Revere Housing Authority is moving forward with a large redevelopment plan for its Cooledge Street site that could bring hundreds of new affordable and market-rate housing units to the site.

The RHA was before the city council last week requesting a 40R Smart Growth overlay district that would allow for the development on the site. The zoning change request will now go to the council's zoning subcommittee before coming back to the full council for possible approval.

Overall, the phased plan would add 359 public housing units to the 439 existing RHA units on the Cooledge Street parcel, as well as allow for about 900 market-rate housing units.

"It is a proposal that directly aligns with the Revere Housing Authority's master planning and long-term goals for affordable housing redevelopment in the area," said RHA Executive Director Dean Harris. "The Revere Housing Authority is being tasked with creating new additional affordable housing in the Cooledge Street area. The basis for that is we are looking to expand our 400 (plus) units of housing there and get closer to 800 units, add some market rate units,

Council vote clears way for traffic light at new Overlook Ridge intersection

By Adam Swift

The creation of new traffic patterns at the Overlook Ridge development on the Revere-Malden line have been decades in the making.

Last week, the Revere City Council approved the proposed layout of a parcel of Overlook Ridge Drive that will allow developers to move the entrance of the development on Overlook Ridge Drive at Salem Street. The new entrance would also include a new traffic signal at the drive and Salem Street. In addition, developers stated that the current entrance would be closed off, with a portion of the parcel used for commercial development.

At last week's public hearing on the request, developers stated that the approval of the parcel as a public way will open up MassWorks state funding for the project.

In addition to the Overlook Ridge Drive reconfiguration, the developers are still looking forward to the future reconfiguration of the Rte. 1 northbound ramp to the development.

"This itself is a small portion, relatively small to the entire Overlook Ridge redevelopment that has been in the process for multiple decades," said Jennifer Schultz, an attorney representing the developers. "What is really significant about our ask this evening is that this is step one in bringing the traffic and roadway mitigation improvements."

Marshall Tycher of Veris Residential said the layout approval allows for the long-awaited traffic light at the relocation of Overlook Drive on the other side of the Overlook Ridge Drive firehouse.

"We will be straightening out the drive, installing a new light, installing new MBTA bus stops on both sides of the road, connecting the pathway from the marsh up through the property," said Tycher.

Tycher said the development team will be back before the council at a future date for the plan for the improvement of the northbound exit ramps as they come off Rte. 1.

"We've talked about the benefit for Revere for a lot of years as far as the work at this intersection," said Tycher. "It obviously creates a significantly safer intersection than exists today with a light."

Several councillors raised questions about the future development of the retail parcel, noting that the developers had previously stated that they would try to bring in a small grocery store to the space.

"That is still our hope for that retail space, to get a bodega in that location," said Tycher. "We haven't begun the development of the site yet, so until we can get approvals, begin the plan and get out to market to look for a tenant, but that is the idea for the location."

Council approves funding for Garfield elevator study

By Adam Swift

The Revere City Council approved $125,000 to fund a study for new elevators at the Garfield Elementary School at its meeting last week.

Earlier this fall, the council rejected the appropriation, with several councilors noting that they were not against the study, but that it should be funded with the school district's reserve funds and not city funds from its stabilization account.

Of the three elevators currently at the Garfield school, city officials said one is not working at all while a second is not reliable.

At last week's meeting, Mayor Patrick Keefe addressed the financial aspect of the funding request for the study.

"To be quite honest, I didn't think there was going to be a whole lot of debate on this, but I do appreciate the view of the council, and I do appreciate that the council has always been very good to the school department and provided the resources to our students and to our teachers and educators and staff," said Keefe. "This request is to repair the elevators, and we typically use city funds to deal with capital improvements across the city, whether it is a city building or a school building. They all do come out of the same pot of money."

The mayor noted that resources to educate students typically come out of state Chapter 70 funds and would not be counted toward net school spending.

HONOR OUR VETERANS NOVEMBER 11

Next Wednesday, November 11, our nation will mark the 108th observance of Veterans Day, a day of solemnity and reverence that honors those who have served in our nation's military.

Veteran's Day initially was known as Armistice Day when it was enacted in 1919 to commemorate the first anniversary of the end of World War I, which occurred on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918.

Historians to this day cannot even pinpoint a rational reason for why the war began. World War I was typified by trench warfare in which neither side (the German-allied nations of Germany, Austria-Hungary, and the Ottoman Empire vs. the alliance among Great Britain, France, Russia, and the United States) accomplished anything.

The trench lines did not meaningfully shift for the entire four-year period of the war until the Allies broke through the German lines in October, 2018, with the famous American-led offensive in the Meuse-Argonne Forest proving the decisive push that brought the war to an end, a campaign that remains as the deadliest in U.S. military history with 26,277 American deaths and over 95,000 wounded.

Though the war essentially was a stalemate for four years, much of the European continent was ravaged, with 10 million soldiers and another 10 million civilians losing their lives.

More significantly, the "war to end all wars" only set the stage for an even bloodier world-wide conflagration 21 years later with the onset of WWII on September 1, 1939.

The effects of WWI continue to reverberate in our world today. The roots of today's conflicts in the Middle East can be traced to the shift in control of that part of the world in the aftermath of WWI from the Ottoman Empire (Turkey) to England in what became known as the British Mandate for Palestine.

Shortly after WWII, England relinquished control of Palestine and gave it to the newly-formed United Nations, which in turn carved out the State of Israel for Jewish refugees from Europe, ultimately leading to the displacement of almost one million Palestinians and others from their ancestral homes where they had lived for centuries.

In the aftermath of the Korean War in 1954, Armistice Day officially became known as Veterans Day to recognize all of our nation's veterans.

There are many ways that each of us can honor our vets, including attending parades and ceremonies in our communities, visiting veterans' memorials and cemeteries, volunteering with veterans' organizations, donating to veterans' causes, flying the U.S. flag, thanking a veteran for their service, or simply taking a moment to reflect on the sacrifices made by so many who have put their lives on the line to ensure that all of us can enjoy the freedoms that we enjoy as Americans today.

Veterans Day should remind us that our freedom isn't free -- and has required the personal sacrifice of millions of our fellow Americans.

HAPPY DIWALI

We'd like to offer a "Happy Diwali" to our friends and neighbors who will be celebrating this festive holiday this week.

Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is observed (with slight differences) by Hindus, Jains, Sikhs, and some Buddhists. It is celebrated by lighting oil lamps and candles to symbolize the triumph of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance.

The holiday takes place during a five-day period which begins this Friday, November 6, with the main festival occurring this Sunday, November 8, a time that coincides with the new moon (when the moon is dark).

The essence of Diwali is spiritual renewal, a time for each of us to reflect upon our shortcomings of the past year and to vow to make ourselves a better person in the year ahead.

We think all of our readers, regardless of their beliefs, would agree that is a worthy goal for all of us.

City Health Agent Nick Catinazzo declared that an apartment in a two-family home on Park Ave. was uninhabitable after hazmat crews discovered that it was infested with hundreds of thousands of cockroaches, who went scurrying down the street in packs, much to the disgust and dismay of other residents on the street as the crews emptied the apartment of furniture and other belongings of the tenant, who reportedly had abandoned the premises two weeks ago. Seven homes on the street reportedly have become infested with roaches from the apartment. The apartment was filled with dirty diapers and other filth and debris.

Revere voters gave strong support to Democrat Bill Clinton in his re-election bid by a wide margin of 10,196-3925 over Republican challenger Senator Bob Dole of Kansas. In the race for U.S. Senate, John Kerry turned aside a challenge by GOP Governor Bill Weld both statewide and in Revere by a vote of 8810-5772. Weld had the strong backing of Mayor Robert Haas and other prominent city officials.

Mayor Robert Haas said the city will be mounting an all-out effort to avoid a repeat of the serious flooding that occurred in many areas of the city last month during a period of heavy rains.

Keefe said there were also some questions from the council about the school ESSER and ARPA Covid-relief funding and if that could be used for the elevator project.

Keefe noted that some of the ESSER funds for the schools were put into capital projects, including the McKinley School project, but added that all of those funds need to be encumbered by the end of this calendar year.

Ward 5 Councillor Angela Guarino-Sawaya read a letter in support of the funding request from school committee member Aisha Milbury-Ellis.

"Maintaining safe, reliable, and accessible school facilities is essential to supporting our students, staff, and school community," stated Milbury-Ellis. "Failure to address the elevator issue may create accessibility barriers for individuals with disabilities and could raise concerns regarding compliance with applicable disability access requirements."

Ward 3 Councilor Anthony Cogliandro said he appreciated the communication from the mayor and the school committee member about the issue.

"That's really all we wanted," said Cogliandro. "We have given them so much; just a little communication back and forth is all we ask for, so I will support this this evening."

Council President Anthony Zambuto cast the lone no vote against the request, while Ward 1 Councillor James Mercurio voted present.

"I still feel, and I may be wrong, but my opinion still stands that the money from the excess fund (from the schools) could have paid for this study," said Zambuto. "We are obviously going to pay for the elevators when that comes due."

all on the approximately 40 acres of land that are over there."

Harris noted that several years ago, the city established smart growth districts on Green Street and Shirley Avenue.

"We are looking to add language into that which would create a smart growth overlay district in the Cooledge area," said Harris. "It would be an overlay district, which means that the underlying zoning would remain in place. To be eligible for this overlay, the project must include at least 20 percent deed-restricted affordable housing units or be below a certain size threshold."

The RHA plan would easily top that affordable housing requirement, Harris said.

"Smart growth encourages housing near commercial districts," said Harris. "The proposed district is less than 200 feet from Broadway, which is zoned general business and serves as the city's main street and is Revere's primary commercial district."

The RHA housing production plan states that the Cooledge Street area is undeveloped relative to surrounding neighborhoods and identifies it as an area the city should pursue for additional housing development.

In addition to the increased affordable housing units, Harris said that if the smart growth district is approved, it could open the city up for zoning incentive payments and density bonus payments.

The plan for the approximately 40-acre site calls for phased development, with current RHA residents being relocated on site while the construction on the new units is ongoing, and then being placed into the newly constructed units.

Harris noted that the current housing units are about 70 years old, and that the new units would be more modern and have better amenities. In addition, the plan calls for on-site amenities, such as a community center, that could be used by all residents of the city.

Harris said that depending upon the approval process, construction on the first phase of the project could start in about four to five years, with the construction taking place in about five phases over a 10-year timeline after that.

The affordable unit breakdown when the project is completed would be 570 family units and 220 senior and disability units. Harris said the affordable housing buildings would have a lower profile and be closer to the edges of the property, while taller market-rate housing buildings would be located closer to the center of the property.

"I fully support this project," said Ward 4 Councillor Paul Argenzio. "I know that we all talk about affordable housing and developers come up here and we try to squeeze two or three units out of them and it's not working. This is the only real, tangible project that I see that's going to infuse a large amount of affordable housing, so I think it is great and I love the design and I fully support it."

Councillor-at-Large Marc Silvestri called it a once-in-a-lifetime project and that he was excited to be part of the city council to help move it along.

Suffolk Downs, The Point Barre and Yoga announce scholarship program

Special to the Journal

The HYM Investment Group ("HYM") and The Point Barre and Yoga ("The Point") have announced the launch of the 2027 Community Wellness Scholarship Program, offering two Revere community members complimentary one-year memberships to The Point. Sponsored by HYM, the scholarship program celebrates the first anniversary of The Point's Suffolk Downs location and aims to make health and wellness more accessible to local community members.

Founded in 2017, The Point is a woman-owned yoga and barre studio that expanded to Su^olk Downs in 2025, opening its second location in the ground-floor retail space at Amaya in Beachmont Square. Serving as a gateway to the larger Su^olk Downs site, Beachmont Square is a vibrant neighborhood that brings together residential living, retail, and community spaces. Residents and visitors also have access to outdoor amenities including The Yard @ Beachmont Square, The Track at Su^olk Downs, The Dog Park, and The Amp, a 600-person-capacity outdoor amphitheater. Since opening at 56 Salt Street, The Point has become a welcoming destination for residents and visitors, o^ering a wide range of yoga, barre, and Pilates classes designed to inspire movement and mindfulness within the Revere community.

Through the Community Wellness Scholarship Program, two recipients will receive unlimited access to yoga, barre, and mat Pilates classes at The Point's Revere studio from January 1 through December 31, 2027. The scholarships are intended for individuals who would benefit from access to regular movement and a supportive community, including those who may face personal or financial barriers to participating in fitness and wellness activities.

Since its founding, The Point has created a space that fosters well-being, emotional balance, and mindfulness for people of all ages and skill levels. The studio's philosophy centers around inclusivity, offering a welcoming environment where individuals can strengthen both body and spirit. Through this partnership with HYM, The Point will extend its mission of building a supportive, connected community while providing two local Revere residents with the benefit of regular movement in their daily routine

"At The Point, we've always believed that wellness should be accessible to everyone, and that movement is about so much more than just fitness. It's about feeling good, building confidence, making connections, and being part of a supportive community. As we celebrate our first year at Suffolk Downs, we're excited to partner with HYM to give back to the Revere community and provide two individuals with the opportunity to make their health and well-being a priority. We hope this scholarship is just the beginning of something we can continue to grow each year, making wellness more accessible and bringing more people together through movement," said Angela D'Amore and Jessica Drake, Co-Owners of The Point Barre & Yoga.

"Since opening at Suffolk Downs last year, The Point has been a wonderful addition to the growing Beachmont Square neighborhood," said Thomas N. O'Brien, Managing Partner and Chief Executive Officer of HYM. "Health and wellness are integral parts of building a vibrant, connected community, and we want to help make those opportunities more accessible to local residents.

Through this scholarship program, we're proud to partner with The Point to remove barriers to participation and give Revere residents the opportunity to experience the benefits of regular movement and a supportive community."

Applications for the 2027 Community Wellness Scholarship Program will open on November 1, 2026, and close on November 30, 2026. Applicants must be 18 years or older and able to attend classes at The Point's Revere or East Boston studios. Current members and new participants are welcome to apply, and we will select recipients based on their individual circumstances, interest in participating, and the potential impact of a consistent wellness practice. The two scholarship recipients will be notified in December, and memberships will begin January 1, 2027.

while helping ensure they receive the money they are entitled to.

"Veterans have given so much in service to our state and our country, and we want to make sure they receive every dollar they are owed," said State Treasurer Deborah B. Goldberg. "By bringing our divisions together, we are doing even more to help them recover funds they may not know they are owed."

As part of the partnership, after the Veterans Bonus Division awards a wartime bonus to a veteran, the division coordinates with UCP to determine whether that recipient also has unclaimed property in Massachusetts. This proactive approach creates an additional opportunity to connect veterans with forgotten or unclaimed financial assets and help return money that rightfully belongs to them.

In addition to the cross collaboration between both departments, Unclaimed Property routinely reaches out to veterans, many of whom are no longer stationed in Massachusetts. Their last known addresses are military post offices or a local base address. In the past two years, over $298,000 has been returned to current or former military members. With a total of $2.5 million in cash and securities waiting to be reunited.

The divisions will continue working together to identify veterans who may have unclaimed property and facilitate the return of those funds, reinforcing the state's commitment to supporting those who have served.

ALL SAINT'S DAY AT IMMACUALTE CONCEPTION SCHOOL

The first and second graders at Immaculate Conception School in Revere were dressed in style on October 30 for the school's All Saint's Day Mass. The children dressed as the saint of their choosing, and led the school Mass, proclaiming the readings, bringing up the gifts and leading the Prayer of the Faithful.
Prior to the Mass, each of the 78 students was asked to choose one saint to research and write a report. They then wrote a speech based on their report and presented it, without any written notes, to the assembly, while proud family members and friends looked on.
"This was so a lot of fun," said second-grader Truly Picardi-Flahive, who dressed as Mother Theresa. "My favorite part was processing it. It made me feel really special."
"I am so proud of all of the students," stated Donis Tracy, the principal of the school.. "They all worked so hard, and were very brave to speak to stand up there and speak to all those people. Plus, their speeches were really long!." The Immaculate Conception School serves families in Revere and surrounding communities. The school teaches students in grades Preschool through Eighth grade.

TRUNK OR TREAT AT THE GARFIELD SCHOOL

ANNUAL HALLOWEEN PARTY BRINGS STUDENTS, FAMILIES, AND STAFF TOGETHER FOR A NIGHT OF FUN

The annual Trunk or Treat, a fun-filled night of costumes, candy, and Halloween spirit, took place in the Garfield School parking lot with students, families, teachers, and staff in attendance.

The popular event gave students a chance to enjoy one of the season's favorite traditions in a fun, family-friendly atmosphere. Kids dressed in their Halloween costumes—superheroes, princesses, witches, ghosts, and other creative characters—marched through lines of decorated vehicles, collecting treats.

Families and staff got into the Halloween spirit by decorating their car trunks with an array of creative displays ranging from spooky to colorful and festive. The creativity and enthusiasm of the participants made the evening a fun one for trick-or-treaters of all ages.

Beyond the costumes and candy, it was a chance for Garfield families to come together, visit with neighbors, and strengthen the bonds that make the school community special.

Events like Trunk or Treat bring together students, educators, and caregivers outside of the classroom, creating lasting memories for children and their families, and are cherished school traditions.

The Garfield School would like to thank the families, staff, and volunteers who gave of their time, creativity, and Halloween treats to make this year's celebration a success. Their ongoing involvement and support create the warm and connected school community that makes Garfield such a special place.

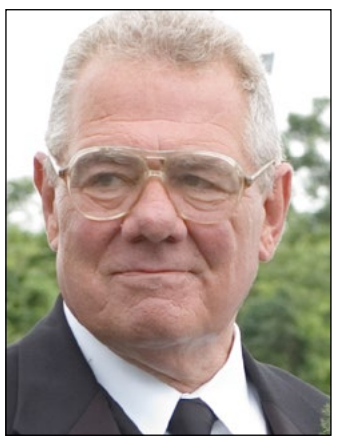
Daniel Ferrara

Jan 30, 1944 — Oct 31, 2026



Daniel Ferrara, affectionately known to many as "Danny," passed away on October 31, 2026, at the age of 82. Born on January 30, 1944 in Boston, Danny spent his entire life in Revere, where he was a cherished and familiar member of the community.

Danny built a long and successful career with American Airlines, where he served as National Regional Manager for Sales Marketing and earned the company's Salesman of the Year award more than once, a reflection of the loyalty and dedication he brought to everything he did. It was there, some 60 years ago, that he met Regina, the love of his life, and the two went on to share 57 years of marriage.

Danny's dedication to Revere went well beyond his love of the city. He gave decades of his life to serving it and held the distinction of being the longest consecutively-serving board member in the history of Revere City Hall. He served as Ward 4 Councilor from 1978 to 1981, including a term as Council President, and over the years lent his time and judgment to the Assessor's Office, the Licensing Commission, the Zoning Board, and as Civil Defense Director, and served for a time as the hearing officer for the Parking Department. Through it all, he never stopped showing up for Revere and its people.

Away from work, Danny was happiest following the things he loved. He was a passionate football fan and enjoyed watching Revere High football games every Friday night, and his loyalty extended to the BC Eagles and the New England Patriots. He took great pride in his home, giving his garden and lawn the same care and attention to detail that marked everything he did. A member of the American Legion, Danny valued camaraderie, service, and the people around him.

Above all, Danny was a devoted family man, and his family was always his greatest priority. His home was always full of warmth, and his dogs were just as much a part of the family as anyone.

Danny is lovingly survived by his wife of 57 years, Regina Ferrara; his children, Michael Ferrara and his wife, Sandra of Methuen, and Christine Ferrara and her boyfriend, Robert St. Jean, of Revere; and his cherished grandchildren, Sophia and Joey, along with Dolly, his beloved "granddog." He also leaves behind many loving relatives and dear friends.

Danny's loyalty, warmth, and love for his family and his community will be deeply missed, but the memories he made will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

A Visitation will take place on Wednesday, November 4 from 4:to 8 p.m. at Paul Buonfiglio & Sons-Bruno Funeral Home, 128 Revere Street, Revere. A Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, November 5 at 10:30 a.m. at the funeral home, followed by a Funeral Mass at 11:30 a.m. at Immaculate Conception Church in Revere. Interment will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery in Everett. Relatives and friends are kindly invited to attend. For guestbook please visit Buonfiglio.com.

Democrats swept Revere in the Presidential election Tuesday. Jimmy Carter defeated Republican incumbent Gerald Ford for President, 12,861-5957. In the contest for U.S. Congress, Edward Markey, who topped a 12-person field in the Democratic primary, handily defeated Republican Richard Daly, 16,097-1589. Revere voters gave a small margin of victory in favor of the Equal Rights for Women Amendment, which was a referendum question on the ballot, but rejected non-binding questions to ban the sale of handguns in the state and to adopt a returnable bottle bill.

Incumbent Governor John A. Volpe was the lone Republican to carry Revere in Tuesday's state election. Volpe defeated Democrat and former Attorney General Edward McCormack handily here by a vote of 10,365-7248. Volpe now will serve the first four-year term as Massachusetts governor. Revere voters favored the other Democratic candidates, Francis X. Bellotti for Attorney General and former Gov. Endicott Peabody for U.S. Senator, but they lost statewide to Eliot Richardson and Edward Brooke respectively. Secretary of State Kevin H. White was the one Democrat to win both here and state-wide in his re-election bid. In the local contests, State Senator Harry Della Russo and State Reps. Joseph J.C. DiCarlo and Ray Carey, all Democrats, were re-elected without any GOP opponents. A record turnout of 81 percent locally for a state election voted in favor of maintaining the state sales tax of three percent that was passed this year by the legislature with the strong support of Volpe, who said that the sales tax revenue will be given to the state's financially-ailing cities and towns.

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held Friday for the new Lincoln School that will consist of 30 classrooms and will replace the old school that was destroyed three years ago by a fire that had been set by a student after school hours. The project was delayed because of feuding among city officials.

A survey team from the state has recommended that the city build a new high school. A report from the Harvard School of Education made a similar recommendation in 1954, but the project never has come to fruition despite many attempts by parents and school officials.

Zoning Board approves plans for four single-family homes on Ridge Rd.

By Journal Staff

The Revere Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) held its regular monthly meeting last Wednesday, October 28, in the City Councillor Joseph A. DelGrosso City Council Chamber. On hand for the session were chair Michael Tucker and fellow members John Lopes, James O'Brien, Aklog Limeneh, and Arthur Pelton.

The first item on the agenda was an application from Eraano Investment, LLC, 42 Genessee Street, requesting a variance of the following ordinance to enable the construction of a two-family dwelling on the undeveloped lot adjacent to 42 Genessee St.:

1. Revere Revised Ordinance (RRO) Section 17.24.030 (d) with respect to the requirement that a buildable lot within the LD Zone must have an area of at least 4,000 s.f. Therefore, this is not a buildable lot for a single or two family dwelling and a single family dwelling could only be built by special permit of the ZBA if it meets the requirements of Sections 17.24.031 and 17.24.032 regarding special permit conditions for undersized lots.

Attorney Lawrence Simeone represented the applicant. He asked that the application be withdrawn, a request that the members unanimously approved without prejudice, which means that the applicant may resubmit his application at a future time.

Next up was an application from Jesus Palacios, 1 Overlook Avenue, requesting a variance of RRO Section 17.24.030(3) with respect to "no parking allowed within the rear yard" to enable him to pave three (3) parking spaces in the rear yard of 43 Tapley Ave., which is a two-family home.

Mr. Palacios appeared on his own behalf. "I just bought the property and it's very difficult to park there," said Palacios, who showed photos of his property. The area where he seeks to pave presently is covered by grass.

Nick Daher spoke on behalf of the applicant. "Tapley is a very hard street to park on," said Daher. "He is simply asking to do what many of his abutters already have done to add parking in the back. This will remove cars from on-street parking and relieve congestion for the entire street."

Daher noted that the ward councillor has been informed of the application and has not expressed any opposition. In addition, the board received an email from a person supporting the application. There were no opponents.

Lopes questioned whether parking in the rear-yard would create a safety issue. "I think this is something that the Fire Department might want to look at. I'm totally against any parking in the rear," Lopes said.

Tucker noted that it was not clear from the plans presented by Mr. Palacios that he has the necessary square footage for three parking spaces given the present location of an outdoor staircase. The board voted to allow Mr. Palacios to continue the matter to present a revised plan that would show the new location of the outdoor staircase.

The third matter on the agenda was a request from Nefta Realty Trust, LLC, c/o Ahmad Selman, 1176 North Shore Road, for variances to enable the construction of a 16-story, 240-unit residential apartment building at 6 Agawam Street and 1198 North Shore Rd.

Atty. Simeone represented Mr. Selman on this matter and asked that he be allowed to withdraw the application in order "to identify different changes that will benefit the project." The members unanimously voted to allow the application to be withdrawn without prejudice.

Stephen R. Caruso, 80 Union Street, next came before the board requesting variances to enable him to subdivide undeveloped Lots 55, 56, 623, 624, C, and D

Ridge Road, to construct four (4) single-family homes on proposed Lots 1, 2, 89A, and 92A Ridge Road.

Rick Salvo from Engineering Alliance presented the application to the board. He said that this is a change from a previous application that had been submitted to the board. The four lots contain 6,683 sq. ft., 6,970 sq. ft, 7,315 sq. ft, and 7,514 sq. ft., all of which are just short of the 8000 sq. ft. that are needed in the RB zoning district for a one-family home. Salvo added that Lots 1 and 2 need variances from the side-yard setback requirement of 20 feet.

Salvo noted each home will have a two-car garage plus two parking spaces in the driveway out front for a total of four parking spaces, thereby exceeding the required two off-street spaces required in the RB zoning district.

Salvo added that the homes will be similar to others in the neighborhood and that Ward 4 Councillor Paul Argenzio, who submitted a letter to the board, is in favor of the application.

Danielle Lozzi-Ortiz of 250 Suffolk Ave. listed a number of concerns about the project relating to the elevation, the grading, the type of retaining wall, water run-off, slope stability, and soil conditions. She noted that the elevation of the proposed project is 122 feet in height and her property is at 130 feet on the top of the hill in that neighborhood.

"I have concerns about my house falling into this new project," said Ortiz, who is a prominent realtor in Revere. "I'm not opposed to it. I'm a real estate agent, so I'm always looking for development, but I just want to make sure that they are doing the construction and excavation safely, especially where there is ledge involved.

"Drainage is an issue and it's an ongoing issue because water coming down from my backyard goes straight back," Lozzi-Ortiz added.

The members voted unanimously to approve the application.

The next meeting of the ZBA is scheduled for November 18.

Three RPS students honored with prestigious Massachusetts Academic Excellence Awards

Zoha Hassan, Samyak Maharjan and Gwen Maillard recognized for outstanding academic achievement, leadership, and community service

Special to the Journal

Three exceptional Revere Public Schools students were honored during last week's School Committee meeting with the prestigious Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents (MASS) Award for Academic Excellence, recognizing their outstanding academic achievements, leadership, and contributions to their school communities.

Superintendent Dr. Dianne Kelly presented the awards to Revere High School seniors Samyak Maharjan and Zoha Hassan and CityLab High School student Gwen Maillard, a member of the Class of 2027.

The annual awards recognize high school students who have distinguished themselves through academic excellence, leadership, service, and a commitment to making a positive difference in their schools and communities.

"We are tonight recognizing three of our most outstanding high school students, two from Revere High School and one from CityLab Innovation School," Kelly said, explaining that the recipients were selected based on recommendations from their principals and school staff.

Kelly noted that the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents determines the number of recipients based on district enrollment, with Revere eligible to recognize three students annually. The distinction honors students who have demonstrated exceptional achievement throughout their high school careers while providing meaningful recognition as they prepare for college and future opportunities.

The first recipient, Samyak Maharjan, has established an extraordinary academic record at Revere High School, maintaining a 4.74 grade point average and ranking first among 416 students in his graduating class.

"I'm grateful to have received this award," Maharjan said. "A lot of studying happens on your own, and it can feel isolating sometimes. When I'm caught up in schoolwork, I don't always stop to notice how much I've learned. Receiving the award helped me see what all those hours of work had led to."

Maharjan said he was especially grateful to his parents for the support that let him focus on his education.

"I know they put in effort that I don't always see, and I don't want to take that for granted," he said. "Their support has made so much of what I've done possible."

Maharjan has completed nine Advanced Placement courses and two dual enrollment classes while pursuing his interests in engineering, robotics, and emerging technologies.

As mechanical design and strategy co-lead in the school's robotics program, he has developed expertise in computer-aided design, fabrication, and mechanical engineering.

This past summer, Maharjan was selected as one of just 18 students nationwide for the highly competitive Broad Summer Scholars Program at the Broad Institute of MIT and Harvard, where he conducted biomedical research focused on Type 2 diabetes and personalized medicine.

He has also explored artificial intelligence, earning a best presentation award after presenting his work to Microsoft executives. Through a summer AI academy offered by Burlington Public Schools, he studied Python programming and explored ways technology can benefit communities.

Beyond academics, Maharjan serves as a STEM Center fellow, tutoring fellow students in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. He participates in Unified Robotics, serves as president of Mock Trial, and is a director for Speech and Debate.

His community involvement includes volunteering with Revere Recreation Basketball, tutoring at Beachmont Elementary School, participating in Harvard Model Congress, and assisting with the local Latin American Cultural Festival.

The second recipient, Zoha Hassan, has similarly distinguished herself through academic achievement, student leadership, and extensive extracurricular involvement.

Hassan ranks second in Revere High School's graduating class of 416 students with a 4.73 GPA, having earned straight As through-

Her accomplishments extend beyond the classroom through an internship involving the Massachusetts Executive Office of Education and the Work-Based Learning Alliance.

During the internship, Maillard served as project manager for a team responsible for developing an updated tracking system for a food bank and community resource center. She coordinated team responsibilities, managed deadlines, and helped ensure the project's successful completion.

Maillard has also participated in a summer program at George Mason University and has earned 15 college credits through CityLab's early college partnerships. Following graduation, she plans to pursue a degree in communications, building upon her interests in creativity, visual communication, and storytelling.

"I think it's important to remember to always keep pushing, even if things get difficult," Maillard said. "In the end, it's always rewarding."

Following the presentations, all three students joined school committee members for a commemorative photograph as family members, and attendees celebrated their accomplishments with applause.

Together, Maharjan, Hassan, and Maillard exemplify the academic excellence, leadership, and commitment to community that Revere Public Schools strives to foster in its students.

RHS football team pays tribute to its coach with a 21-14 win over Whittier

By Cary Shuman

On a special night that will be remembered as one of the greatest tributes to a beloved coach in Revere High School history, the Partiots defeated Whittier Tech, 21-14, before a large crowd at Harry Della Russo Stadium.

Former players coached by Lou Cicatelli, longtime friends, alumni, former coaching colleagues, and Cicatelli's proud wife and daughter were among the large crowd at the event which included a beautifully designed post-game video on the large screen inside the stadium.

RHS BOYS SOCCER WINS INAUGURAL GBL CUP; 12TH-RANKED PATS NOW AWAIT TOURNEY FOE

The Revere High boys soccer team completed a dominant Greater Boston League (GBL) season by capturing the inaugural GBL Cup last week.

Coach Gerardo Rodriguez's Patriots, who were undefeated in the GBL during the regular season to claim the 2026 GBL championship, took on Everett last Tuesday in a semifinal contest for the cup. The GBL Cup format features the top four teams from the regular season competing for the cup, with the bottom four teams competing in a consolation tournament.

The Patriots had little trouble dispatching the Crimson Tide, who were the fourth-place team in the regular season. Revere took a 2-0 lead at the half and cruised after the intermission to finish with a 5-1 victory.

Jeronimo Agudelo Alvarez scored a brace (two goals) and teammates Imran Sarhrani, Matias Rivera Mejía, and Ronald Salcedo scored a goal apiece.

Revere then met Chelsea, the second-place team in the GBL which had nipped third-place Somerville in its semifinal, in the championship contest.

The encounter with the Red Devils, who had posted six shutouts in their previous nine matches, proved to be a hard-fought affair, but the Patriots prevailed, 2-0. Agudelo Alvarez scored a goal just 30 seconds after the opening kick-off and Chelsea, which is ranked #26 in Division 2, scored an own goal to give Revere a 2-0 edge at the intermission.

A red card on a Chelsea player early in the second half left the Red Devils shorthanded for the remainder of the match and Revere went into cruise control to earn the victory..

"We are very happy with how our league run went and the league cup," said RHS head coach Gerardo Rodriguez. "We took care of business this week. Tuesday's game with Everett was very controlled. It was a much more-controlled effort than our away game with them (a 5-3 Revere win) earlier this season.

"The game with Chelsea was a bit tighter, but controlled as well," Rodriguez said. "After we scored that early goal, we managed the game really well. When Chelsea got the second half red card, that pretty much finished the game at that point. We were up 2-0 at halftime and just played the game out the second half."

Rodriguez and his crew, who finished the season with a 14-1-1 record -- their lone defeat came in the first game of the season, 3-2 to Central Catholic -- will have a few days to rest ahead of the announcement of their final seeding and first-round opponent in the upcoming MIAA Division 2 state tournament. The Patriots presently are ranked #12 in the D-2 power rankings, which will assure them of a home match in the first round. The MIAA is expected to announce the tourney brackets tomorrow (Thursday).

REVERE JUNIOR PATRIOTS 13-U TEAM COMPLETES UNBEATEN REGULAR SEASON

The Revere Junior Patriots 13-U team has wrapped up an undefeated (7-0) season in the New England Youth Football Conference.

Head coach David Spiriti's regular season champions have earned a first-round bye in the playoffs and will meet the winner of the Melrose-Wakefield game on Sunday, Nov. 15 at 5:45 p.m. at Peabody High School.

Assistant coach Chris Flint reports that the team is averaging close to five touchdowns per game. "Nate Caleb has 17 touchdowns right now – he's unbelievable," said Flint of the talented Revere eighth grader.

The leader of the high-scoring offense is quarterback Jason Lepore, who hit the first home run out of the new McMackin Park.

Also doing a great job on the coaching staff are assistant coaches Justin Short, Dave Buono, and Tim Harrity, who is vice president of Revere Youth Football and Cheer. Jenna Harrity is the president of the Revere organization.

an outstanding performance at last Wednesday's Greater Boston League (GBL) cross-country meet. Diogo sped across the 5K course at Torbert Macdonald Park in Medford in a time of 17:49 to capture second place.

Yogi's superlative effort rates as the top individual finish by a Revere boy in a league meet in decades. When Revere won the GBL Meet in 2019, Fabio Tran was the top Patriot with a third-place finish. RHS sports historians might have to go as far back as the 1970s (when the legendary Dom Finelli reigned in the GBL) or the '90s (when Sam Ros competed) to find an RHS cross-country runner who finished as high as second place in a league meet.

Sophomore teammate Kosta Stamatopoulos also clocked-in with a superb effort, taking fourth place with a time of 18:24.

Both Diogo and Kosta earned GBL All-Star status for their top-10 finishes at the league meet.

Rounding out the top-five for Revere were sophomore Emanuel Taylor, who finished 22nd with a time of 19:40; junior Luke Imperato (28th in 19:56); and junior Javier Rose (45th in 23:12).

Also competing for coach Mike Flynn's squad in the varsity race were junior Weizheng Chen (49th with a time of 24:49) and junior Noah Shanley (56th with a time of 26:00.).

Revere finished in a strong fourth-place in the team standings with 101 points. Medford ran away from the pack to capture the league title with 24 points, followed by Somerville with 79 and Chelsea with 81. Everett (128), Malden (129), Lynn Classical (190), and Lynn English (222) finished 5-8.

Patriot freshman Nicholas Rosa ran in the junior varsity race, coming across the line in 20th place with a time of 15:44 over the 2.2 mile JV course.

RHS VOLLEYBALL TEAM ENDS SEASON WITH WIN

The Revere High volleyball team ended its season on a positive note with a 3-0 victory over Medford last Friday.

Haley Peralta had a career best 18 kills with a hitting percentage of .565. Sofia Guzman had seven kills and four aces and Anna Doucette set 17 assists for her teammates.

Earlier in the week, the Lady Patriots shut out Everett for a 3-0 win. Doucette served six aces and provided nine assists. Peralta (10 kills) and Sarah Lechheb (seven kills) led the Revere offensive attack.

In between those two victories, Revere came up short to Essex Tech and Lynn Classical by scores of 3-0. In the Essex Tech match, Guzman had six kills and Perlata had three kills and three aces. The match with Classical was highlighted by Peralta with 10 kills, Guzman with six kills, and Doucette with 15 assists.

DECROSTA FINISHES 17TH AT GBL MEET

Revere High senior captain Emma DeCrosta turned in a strong performance at last Wednesday's Greater Boston League Meet to finish in 17h place with a time of 25:30.

Also competing for the Lady Patriots in the varsity race was teammate Jaelyn Torres, who finished in 34th place overall with a clocking of 28:48.

"Jaelyn ran another personal best, and continues to improve as we head into the invitational portion of the season. This is exactly what we would want to have happen," said RHS head coach Katie Sinnott. "Emma has at the GBL Meet and beat girls who had beaten her in our dual meets. She ran strong and stayed mentally tough throughout the race, overcoming a stoppage in her race for an untied shoelace."

Both Emma and Jaelyn will have the opportunity to race in some upcoming state invitationals, the closest being the Frank Mooney State Coach's Meet this Saturday, November 7.

Jiji Benkassem ran in the junior varsity race and finished in 59th place with a time of 28:35 over the shorter JV course.

"Jiji pushed herself to be our lone competitor in the JV race and stuck with it throughout. She showed great commitment throughout the season," noted Sinnott.

RHS GIRLS SOCCER READY FOR TOURNEY

The Revere High girls soccer team, which compiled a 9-7-2 record to qualify for the MIAA Division 3 state tournament, was awaiting word of its final seeding and first-round opponent this week. The MIAA is expected to make the announcement of the tourney pairings tomorrow (Thursday).

The Lady Patriots, who are ranked 64th in D-3, will be hitting the road for their preliminary-round encounter, which is expected to take place on Friday or Saturday.

Revere, which finished in sixth place in the Greater Boston League (GBL), competed in the consolation bracket of the inaugural GBL Cup this past week. The top four teams in the GBL standings played for the cup, while the bottom four teams played in a separate bracket.

Coach Ariana Rivera's squad defeated Lynn Classical, the seventh-place team, by a score of 6-1 in a semi-final match on Tuesday. In Thursday's contest with fifth-place Everett (which defeated eighth-place Lynn English), the teams battled to a 1-1 tie. The outcome was decided on penalty kicks, with Everett prevailing, 3-2.

HEAD COACH OF THE RHS PATRIOTS FOOTBALL TEAM LOU CICATELLI WINS THE FINAL HOME GAME OF HIS 23-YEAR CAREER

Last Friday night the Patriots of Revere meet the Wildcats of Whittier RVT, this was the final home game of the Patriot's Head Coach Lou Cicatelli. The Patriots did not let their coach down, defeating the Wildcats 21-14, giving the RHS Patriots a 4-4 record heading into the away Thanksgiving game against the WHS Vikings at Miller Field.

Head Coach Lou Cicatelli walked onto Della Russo Field 23 years ago as coach of the RHS Patriots, and on October 30th, 2026 he walked onto the field for the final time in his career.

Loved by players, coaches and friends, Head Coach Cicatelli taught the skills of the game, the values of teamwork, and the essentials of higher education with athletics. Coach Chic took every player under his wing, starter or not, each student athlete was his responsibility, and he took it on year after year.

The spirit and fight of Coach Lou Cicatelli will remain at Della Russo Stadium in every game the RHS Patriots play, and his memory as a Patriot and educator will long be remembered by players and coaches for years to come.

Following the game on Friday, his team, his coaches and his family celebrated the legacy with a video of his years at the helm of Patriot Football, and heartfelt congratulations from former players and coaches.

Anthony Pelatere, Reda Atoui, Jose Fuentes, and Silvio Neto and the defense made sure it would a successful finale for their coach, who will be retiring at the end of the 2026 season.

With Whittier Tech defenders bearing down on him Pelatere maintained his cool and made a sensational catch of a Fuentes pass late in the third quarter. Three plays later on fourth-down-and-1 from the three yard, Fuentes powered into the end zone behind the excellent blocking of Silvio Neto and Christopher DeAngelo.

Whittier took a 6-0 lead into the break, but some key adjustments by assistant coach Jose Escobar turned the tide Revere's way.

Joseph Angiulo, another unsung hero in victory, returned the opening kickoff of the second half 40 yards to Whittier 36-yard line. Fuentes caught the Wildcats' defense off guard with a 36-yard pop pass to Atoui for a touchdown. Emmanuel Lopera's PAT gave Revere a 7-6 lead. Lopera then boomed a 60-yard kickoff for a touchback.

Following Revere's second touchdown, Fuentes took a low snap on the PAT attempt and fired the football between two defenders to Nicholas Cespedes, who made a great catch in the end zone.

The lead grew to 21-7 on Atoui's 22-yard run, but Whittier struck quickly to close the gap to 21-14. Whittier then attempted an onside kick, and Daniel Alzate made a nifty recovery of the football to all but lock up the victory on an evening that Lou Cicatelli will treasure forever.

"The night was surreal," said Cicatelli. "I'm very thankful. Keith Correia put it all together. It was great to see a lot of my former players. That video tribute was beautifully done with Coach Donny Heres, my former player Caleb Silva, and [former AD] Shaun Hart saying some nice things. It was great. I really appreciated it. It was a special night. It made me very happy. Seeing those former players, that's what it is all about."

Reda Atoui celebrates his TD with a teammate.

Cicatelli also noted Vin Gregorio's contributions to the program through the years.

"I couldn't do this without Vinnie," said Cicatelli. "He has been with me, by my side, since I got the job. He's one of my best friends."

SENIOR/TEACHER APPRECIATION NIGHT AT DELLA RUSSO STADIUM

Last Friday night was the final home game for the RHS Football Team, and RHS Trainor Keith Correia planned 2 special events. The first at halftime was a tribute from all seniors that are part of the RHS Sports Programs showing their appreciation to a special teacher that has contributed so much in the life in the classroom and at time out as well. The second was an end of game tribute to retiring Coach Lou Cicatelli, with players, former players, coaches, family and friends.

The Revere High football team saw its 14-0 lead at halftime evaporate in the second half in a 24-14 loss at Chelmsford Friday night in the opening round of the Division 1A North sectional of the MIAA state football tournament. Anthony DeStefano scored a touchdown on a one-yard run and a 40 yard pass play from quarterback Eddie Sullivan to Oscar Lopez accounted for the second Revere TD. Badr Haou kicked both extra points. Revere suffered a major loss early in the game when star running back Victor Rivera left the game with an injury after ripping off a 30-yard run.

Hannah Fitzpatrick was the top finisher for the Revere High girls cross country team with a time of 22:11 in the Northeastern Conference League Meet Saturday morning at Bradley Palmer State Park in Ipswich. Monica Posada ran well in a time of 22:31, as did Leila Cesic with a clocking of 23:01.

The Revere High field hockey team tied Everett, 0-0, on Senior Night this past week. The Lady Patriots then fell to Peabody, 2-0, in their final game of the 2016 season. Victoria Correia and Sam Woodman played well for RHS head coach Erin Parker.'s squad.

The Revere High volleyball team turned in what head coach Brenna Suslak termed "a really great match" to earn 3-0 shutout victory over Northeastern Conference rival Lynn English. "Meaghan Gotham, Valentina Pepic, and Samantha Myrtil gave us strong hitting and serving," said Suslak. "Sophomore Emily DiGiulio's hitting game in the outside position and junior Joyce Oliveira's right side hitting game have both been very consistent and reliable Sophomore Kiana Napolitano and senior Hailey Poole have been very strong in the back row." Suslak and her crew now are awaiting word of their seedling and first-round parking in the upcoming MIAA state tournament.

An underdog Revere High football team held a 10-7 lead over a heavily-favored Peabody squad, but the Patriots eventually dropped a 20-10 decision. RHS head coach Mike Cella, who has been at the helm of the Patriot football program for 10 years, said this was the best game a Revere team has played in many years. The contest had added incentive for the Patriots because of the presence of former RHS halfback Frank Candela, who transferred to Peabody a year ago. Candela, an all-scholastic, rushed for 191 yards on 21 carries and made a 42-yard interception return. Revere's star halfback, Marc Silvestri, gained 123 yards on 23 carries. Cella added to the intensity of the battle afterwards when he was quoted as saying, "I would take Silvestri any day over Candela." Dave Caramanica scored a TD from two yards out and Ratha Mon kicked a 28 yard field goal to account for the Revere scoring.

Revere voters, 90 percent of whom turned out, gave solid backing to the Democratic candidates in Tuesday's Presidential election. Democratic challenger Adlai Stevenson carried Revere by a vote of 10,496-8516 over incumbent Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower. However, Eisenhower handily defeated Stevenson nationwide for a second term. Democrat Foster Furcolo defeated GOP opponent Sumner Whittier here, 13,764-5246, and also won statewide in the battle for governor. Democrat Edward McCormack Jr. defeated GOP candidate George Fingold for Attorney General, both here (11,778-6576) and state-wide. In local races, State Rep. Harold Canavan easily won election as the district's new State Senator, defeating GOP candidate Walter Butler. Canavan will succeed State Senator Andrew P. Quigley of Chelsea, who made an unsuccessful bid for Congress in the Democratic primary in September. In a four-way race for the city's two State Representative seats, William H.J. Rowan and Harry Della Russo received 11,423 and 10,646 votes respectively to easily defeat Joseph W. DiCarlo and Sebastiano Marino.

Miss Lorrraine Nyman, the sensational 14 year-old singer from Chelsea, will be the featured attraction at the 10th annual banquet of the Revere Memorial Hospital to be held at the Dorothy Quincy Suite in John Hancock Hall in Boston. Revere voters favored Democratic candidates in Tuesday's state election, with the exception of the contest for U.S. Senate, in which local voters gave a majority to Republican Henry Cabot Lodge, who was the lone U.S. Senator to leave the Senate to serve in the war in 1944, in his bid to return to the Senate. Lodge defeated Democratic incumbent David I. Walsh here, 7370-4769. In other contests, incumbent Democratic Governor Maurice Tobin defeated GOP challenger Robert Bradford, 6857-5519, in Revere, but Bradford won state-wide, which was indicative of the GOP sweep across the country in the mid-term election. In other contests of local interest, Democrat Joseph Melley of Chelsea defeated Republican Walter Butler for the State Senate. In the race for State Representative, Democrats Peter Jordan and William H.J. Rowan were re-elected without opposition.

Holiday meals, hold the ...

By Penny & Ed Cherubino

Each week, the Boston Globe interviews someone from the hospitality industry. It might be a chef, a restaurant owner, or a corporate executive. One question asked of these people, who devote their lives and livelihood to food, is about a food or ingredient they can't or won't eat.

How About You?

The first few times we visited a restaurant that is now on our regular rotation, the servers asked if we had any allergies or aversions. Please take a moment to list the food items you don't want to find on your holiday plate. Do you have any allergies or aversions? Now, think about how you or other gathering hosts react when someone says they are vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free, or don't eat a particular menu item.

Some take offense at the thought of accommodating this preference. Others make sure there is an alternative or say yes when a guest asks if they can bring a dish that works for them. On the evil side, some will go out of their way to "test the allergy or dietary restriction." This is dangerous and could lead to a 911 call or an emergency room visit.

Alternatives

One of our best dining pals has been vegan for the past few years. We see this as an opportunity to explore dishes we might never try otherwise. We enjoyed an all-vegan menu at an Indian restaurant together. Now we include the cauliflower dish we shared with nearly every order. She is also not as big a fan of spice as the others at the table. We specified mild spice for each dish and asked for extra spicy chutney for the rest of us.

If you want to serve an alternative main course, search online for "Vegan Thanksgiving Menus." We recommend vegan rather than vegetarian because it suits both.

One popular, easy option is a small roasted pumpkin, filled with rich vegan mushroom gravy, perfect for vegan guests, vegetarians, or anyone who doesn't like turkey. The mushroom-rich gravy is a bonus that can be used on other menu items adapted to restricted diets.

Go Ahead and Delegate

If a guest asks if they can bring something, consider delegating the vegan option to them. Often that will be the person with the dietary restriction. Remember, other hosts have likely made them feel guilty about their diet. They may suggest bringing one of their favorite entrées so they can be sure they will enjoy it. If they ask if they can bring enough to share, say yes. It will add another option for your diners to try.

Zero-Alcohol Options

Consider adding some zero-alcohol drinks to your bar. Thanks to friends who visited during their dry October challenge, we discovered a new world of alcohol-free beverages. There are entire websites dedicated to delivering these drinks since no liquor license is required to sell them.

Ed's favorite alcohol-free beer is Guinness Zero. We both love sparkling wines in this category, with our favorites being French Bloom and those from Hollow Leg Vineyard. Friends recommend St. Agrestis Phony Negroni as a great ready-to-serve non-alcoholic cocktail.

If you're attending a potluck holiday gathering, ask the organizer about dietary restrictions and offer to bring an appropriate dish. If you're bringing a bottle of something, consider making that a non-alcoholic option with the host's approval. Who wouldn't welcome a guest who helps solve holiday dietary needs?

Do you have a question or topic for Fresh & Local? Email Penny@BostonZest.com with your suggestion.

A personal pumpkin filled with rich vegan mushroom gravy would be a perfect alternative for vegan guests, vegetarians, or anyone who doesn't like turkey.

FKO raises over $100,000 at annual 'Helping Families' Gala honoring co-founder Deborah Kneeland Keegan

Special to the Journal

For Kids Only Afterschool (FKO) exceeded its fundraising goal by raising more than $100,000 at its annual Helping Families Gala on Friday, October 23, at the Hyatt Regency Boston Harbor, while also celebrating and honoring co-founder Deborah "Debbie" Kneeland Keegan for more than 40 years of leadership and service.

Proceeds from the event will benefit FKO's Helping Families scholarship fund, which provides financial assistance to families who might otherwise be unable to afford high-quality before school, afterschool, summer, and school vacation programs for their children. With more than 80% of children enrolled in FKO programs receiving some form of financial assistance and nearly 500 children across our communities awaiting financial support, the need for accessible, affordable out-of-school time programming remains significant.

The evening brought together community members, supporters, legislators, and partners to celebrate Keegan's extraordinary contributions to children, families and the out-of-school time field.

"My mother built FKO on the belief that every child deserves opportunity, regardless of their family's circumstances," said Briana Flannery, FKO Executive Director. "Forty-two years later, that belief continues to guide our work. The generosity shown at this year's gala will help us open doors for more children and families across our communities."

Deborah Keegan, co-founder.

Keegan co-founded FKO with her sister, Connie Grayson, in 1984 after recognizing the need for safe, nurturing spaces where children could learn and grow during out-of-school hours. What began as a small program serving just five children in the basement of an American Legion has grown into a thriving nonprofit organization serving more than 1,800 children annually across 18 school- and community-based locations in Chelsea, Everett, Peabody, Revere, and Winthrop.

After more than four decades as Executive Director, Keegan transitioned from the role in January 2026 and now serves as Strategic Advisor, continuing to support FKO's mission and advocacy efforts. Her influence extends beyond the organization through decades of work advancing access, inclusion, workforce development, and recognition of out-of-school time programming as an essential part of children's development and family well-being.

Reflecting on her career, Keegan has credited FKO's dedicated staff, families, community partners, and supporters with helping bring the organization's founding vision to life: creating places where every child feels seen, valued, and empowered to discover their potential.

Guests enjoyed an evening of dinner, drinks, raffles, a silent auction, and a live auction, along with a special performance by FKO children from the Lafayette School in Everett and interactive play stations that offered a glimpse into the creativity, curiosity, and experiences at the heart of FKO's programs.

FKO extends its sincere thanks to the gala sponsors, donors, attendees, volunteers and community partners whose generosity made the event possible. Special recognition and gratitude go to United Way of Massachusetts Bay, Salem Five, and Massport for their generous support and continued investment in FKO's mission.
