Revere recovers well after first major snowstorm of 2022

By Cary Shuman

After receiving close to two feet of snow during a blizzard that began late Friday night and continued through Saturday, the City of Revere has recovered well, and life was returning to normal following the DPW's around-the-clock snow removal efforts.

Donny Ciaramella, Revere's chief of infrastructure and engineering, said the city's four days of advance preparation for the storm resulted in no major incidents regarding flooding.

"For example, we had accumulated 900 tons of salt for our sanders at the DPW site, and 250 tons at our off-site, so we didn't have a traffic jam inside the DPW Yard," said Ciaramella.

With weather forecasters predicting the Nor'easter days in advance (and to their credit, they were accurate), Ciaramella said storm preparations began last Tuesday and continued through Friday evening.

"On Friday, we coordinated efforts with the DCR to shut the floodgates on Winthrop Parkway," related Ciaramella. "Exactly at midnight, those gates were shut in preparation of the tidal surges that we were getting. There were some astronomical high tides, and the tidal surges ranged from four to five feet. So on a high tide of 10 feet, you have to add that four-to-five-foot surge, and anything over 12-13 feet

Health Board recommends masks in all indoor spaces

Staff Report

The Revere Board of Health held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday, January 27, in the City Council Chambers. In attendance at the meeting were the board's new chairperson, Dr. Drew Bunker, and fellow members Dr. Craig Costanza and Nezha Louaddi.

The principal action taken by the Board was the approval of an advisory recommendation urging businesses to implement a mask requirement for customers and employees in all indoor settings in the city. The advisory also urges all citizens to wear N-95 or KN-95 masks.

Revere presently has a mask requirement for municipal and school buildings and either a vaccine or testing requirement for city and school employees.

Michael Wells, the city's Health Agent/Director of Inspectional Services, presented the proposed advisory recommendation to the board members.

Lauren Buck, the city's Director of Public Health, informed the board members of the masking and vaccine requirements for nearby communities. Boston for example, has a mask requirement and a vaccination requirement for indoor spaces. Other communities have masking requirements only for public indoor spaces.

However, said Buck, "This order is only an advisory recommendation, not a mandate." Buck pointed out that masking is the best means for preventing the spread of COVID-19 in a business setting, but emphasized, "We have to start living with this and normalizing it a little bit more. A mask mandate does not seem like the right move for Revere businesses today."

"We don't have the resources to enforce a mask mandate," added Wells. "A mask mandate would put businesses in a bind with regard to uncooperative customers. A mandate really is not enforceable. We can't be out there in the role of the mask police."

Wells noted however, that any business on its own may require that masks be worn by its employees and patrons.

"This is a good measure and other communities have mask mandates. We wear them in our clinical setting," said Bunker, who is a doctor with a local practice. "The data and evidence prove that masks prevent the spread of the disease in enclosed settings."

The board members then unanimously approved the advisory recommendation.

Earlier in the meeting, Buck presented the monthly report from the Suffolk Downs site looking to become an outdoor entertainment venue

By John Lynds

In a Notice of Intent (NOI) filed recently with the Boston Conservation Commission (BCC), owners of the defunct Suffolk Downs thoroughbred racetrack are looking to create an interim outdoor entertainment venue that would operate through 2025.

HYM Investment Group, who is redeveloping the entire 170 acre site into a mixed-use development over the next two decades, looks to be capitalizing on the success of last summer's move to open the historic racetrack oval to the public this summer. HYM also ran a successful drive-in movie program during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic.

"The proposed project is located on the Boston portion of the Suffolk

Downs Redevelopment Site, which is located at 525 William F. McClellan Highway," read the NOI that was filed with the BCC. "The project consists of creation of an interim outdoor entertainment venue, associated infrastructure, and other related site improvements to be located in a portion of the existing infield area. The venue will consist of a grassed area with temporary stage, restrooms, and vendor booths to remain in place until late 2025. This work is located within the footprint of the site grading designed as part of plans for future redevelopment of the site, and specifically for an area that is planned for a portion of the future Central Common open space area, which grading was previously approved under Order of Conditions (OOC)

by MassDEP."

Owners had to file a NOI with the BCC because the planned entertainment venue is on land subjected to Coastal Storm Flowage, borders Vegetated Wetland (BVW), and is within the local 25-Foot Waterfront Area regulated under the city's ordinance protecting local wetlands and promoting climate change adaptation in Boston.

"The proposed work will not have an unacceptable significant or cumulative adverse effect upon the areas protected by the Ordinance," read the NOI. "Therefore, we respectfully request that the Conservation Commission issue an Order of Conditions (OOC) allowing the project to proceed."

plans, and patients to improve the quality of patient care experiences in Massachusetts. MHQP conducts the only statewide survey of patient experience in primary care in Massachusetts.

Awards were given to top overall performers in adult primary care and pediatrics in each of nine performance categories. Two CHA health centers won awards from Massachusetts Health Quality Partners (MHQP) for patient experience in primary care. CHA Union Square Family Health received an adult care distinction for Office Staff Professional Excellence, and the CHA Broadway Care Center received pediatric care distinctions for Ease of Access to Care and Patient-Provider Communications.

"Even with the tremendous challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, these teams consistently pulled together and put patients first," said Lora Council, MD, CHA's senior medical director of primary care. "This honor reflects the heartfelt work at the core of centering care around our patients' needs."

"Although the pandemic continues to have an immeasurable impact on healthcare everywhere, the 2021 winners of the 2021 MHQP Patient Experience Awards found a way to rise above this crisis and provide best-in-class patient experiences during a very challenging time," said Barbra Rabson, MHQP's president and CEO. "We are thrilled to congratulate each of them on behalf of their patients for their exceptional commitment to excellence."

Since 1995, Massachusetts Health Quality Partners (MHQP) has been leveraging its unique position as an independent coalition of key stakeholder groups (providers, payers and patients) in Massachusetts healthcare to help provider organizations, health plans and policy makers improve the quality of patient care experiences throughout the state.

Cambridge Health Alliance is an academic community health system committed to providing high-quality care in Cambridge, Somerville and Boston's metro-north communities. CHA has expertise in primary care, specialty care and mental health/substance use services, as well as caring for diverse and complex populations. It includes two hospital campuses, a network of primary care and specialty practices and the Cambridge Public Health Dept. CHA patients have seamless access to advanced care through the system's affiliation with Beth Israel Lahey Health. CHA is a Harvard Medical School teaching affiliate and is also affiliated with Harvard School of Public Health, Harvard School of Dental Medicine and Tufts University School of Medicine.

STATE DOC TO BE OUTFITTED WITH BODY CAMERA

The Executive Office of Public Safety and Security (EOPSS), in coordination with the Massachusetts Department of Correction (DOC), announced a pilot program to outfit correctional officers with Body-Worn Cameras (BWC). The DOC's first-time use of officer-worn body cameras will launch at Souza-Baranowski Correctional Center (SBCC), a maximum-security facility. EOPSS and the DOC began exploring the use of BWCs several months ago as part of continued efforts to enhance operational systems, improve safety for inmates and correctional officers, and advance transparency and accountability.

"Implementing this BWC pilot program reinforces our commitment to advancing the safety of correctional officers and those entrusted to their care. The program affords us the opportunity to explore how this technology can improve operational efficiency and enhance the value of transparency in our institutions," said Public Safety and Security Secretary Terrence Reidy.

The pilot program's objectives are three-fold:

- Enhance communication and collaboration among DOC staff.
- Support improved interactions between staff and inmates.
- Strengthen transparency and accountability.

The initial deployment of BWCs is anticipated to begin in Summer 2022 at SBCC. Once deployed, they will augment the facility's comprehensive network of existing stationary cameras.

"The Department supports implementation of the BWC pilot program to study how this advanced technology can serve an important role in correctional operations. This innovative tool has a proven track record of improving safety, providing valuable documentation for evidentiary purposes, resolving officer-involved incidents, and offering a useful training tool for the Department and its officers," said DOC Commissioner Carol Mici.

The Baker-Polito Administration will invest $1 million in a two-phase pilot program, with funding included in the Administration's Fiscal Year 2023 budget proposal. The pilot's first phase will concentrate on technology needs, including an overall assessment of the body-camera style most conducive to the environment and an analysis of the technology needed by a DOC facility to effectively administer the program.

The pilot's second phase will focus on operational implementation. A research team will evaluate the initial roll-out of the two-phased pilot program over several months. Information related to evidence collection, records retention, storage requirements and other operational matters will be assessed for best practices. Researchers will also evaluate internal data and key metrics to determine the program's effectiveness and facilitate evidence-based policy decisions regarding programmatic

CELEBRATE NATIONAL UNCLAIMED PROPERTY DAY BY VISITING FIND MASS MONEY

State Treasurer Deborah B. Goldberg and the National Association of Unclaimed Property Administrators are celebrating National Unclaimed Property Day... and you should be too!

One in ten Massachusetts residents have unclaimed money including citizens like Kelly who recently discovered how easy it was to claim her money.

"Checked my name and found money at FindMassMoney.com," said Kelly. "Once I found money for myself, I started checking my family and friends...even work colleagues! I found money for them too! With this 'found' money, we ordered take out from a local restaurant. I didn't have to cook, and we helped a struggling restaurant in our town."

The Treasury is currently holding over $3.4 billion in unclaimed property. Treasurer Goldberg urges all citizens to check the comprehensive list for all amounts at www.findmassmoney.com or call our live call center at 888-344-MASS (6277).

"Take a minute on Unclaimed Property Day to check your name like Kelly," said State Treasurer Deborah B. Goldberg. "Our team is prepared to walk you through the claims process."

Unclaimed property includes forgotten savings and checking accounts, un-cashed checks, insurance policy proceeds, stocks, dividends, and the contents of unattended safe deposit boxes. Most accounts are considered abandoned and are turned over to the state after three years of inactivity. In 2021, Treasury processed over 113,000 claims and returned over $174 million in cash and securities to its rightful owners.

There is no time limit for a person to claim this property and, in many cases, claimants will receive interest. Searching for unclaimed money is always free by using FindMassMoney.com.

DRIVER'S LICENSE BILL WINS SUPPORT OF 15 MAYORS AND MANAGERS

15 Mayors and City Managers from across Massachusetts announced their support for The Work and Family Mobility Act in a letter submitted to the Joint Committee on Transportation.

The bill, currently awaiting a report from the Committee, would allow immigrants without status to qualify for a Massachusetts Standard Driver's License, as long as there is valid proof of identity, date of birth, and Massachusetts residency.

The Act was reported favorably from the Committee on Transportation in 2020 and was poised for passage last session when the COVID-19 pandemic hit. Reintroduced this session, the bill has now earned more than 100 co-sponsors in the House and Senate, and the Driving Families Forward Coalition supporting the bill has grown to include more than 270 endorsing organizations, including community, health, faith, labor, business, and law enforcement leaders.

Mayors and Managers from Amherst, Arlington, Boston, Brockton, Brookline, Cambridge (Mayor and City Manager), Chelsea, Malden, Medford, Newton, Randolph, Revere, Salem and Swampscott joined together in support of the bill. In the letter officials noted that the proposal would greatly improve road safety and increase the ease with which law enforcement officers conduct their regular duties.

"[T]his bill would provide broad benefits to our municipalities. Our streets will be safer for everyone when all drivers have passed road tests, and vehicles are registered and insured," the letter reads, in part. "Indeed, many of our policy chiefs support the bill as a public safety tool and agree that it will enable law enforcement to better identify individuals at traffic stops or scenes of an accident"

"All Boston and Massachusetts adults deserve access to driver's licenses regardless of immigration status. I support the Family Mobility Act because it will make all of us safer," said Boston Mayor Michelle Wu.

"The Work and Family Mobility Act is a common-sense measure that will improve the safety of our streets and strengthen the ability of Massachusetts families and workers to access essential services, health care, education, and places of work," said Mayor Kim Driscoll of Salem. "Massachusetts cities and towns have consistently stepped forward to help all of our residents, and now we're calling on the legislature to do the same. This measure is endorsed by both law enforcement leaders and advocates for our immigrant neighbors. Let's make sure our Commonwealth is a place that works for and welcomes everyone by adopting this important legislation."

"Providing access to driver's licenses to immigrants makes all of our communities safer and more equitable," said Newton Mayor Ruthanne Fuller.

"Swampscott is one of the most densely settled communities in the Commonwealth. As we look to the future, it's clear we need a focus on pedestrian safety and complete streets to help balance the needs of all modes of transportation," said Sean Fitzgerald, Swampscott Town Administrator.

"Welcoming new residents, regardless of where they come from or the circumstances of their arrival, is important to the long-term economic and social well-being of Greater Boston and the entire Commonwealth," said Lizzi Weyant, Deputy Executive Director of Public Affairs and Advocacy at the Metropolitan Area Planning Council (MAPC) in Boston, which led the creation of the municipal sign-on letter sent to the transportation committee.

"The Legislature has a real opportunity to meaningfully address some of the structural barriers facing our undocumented residents," said Weyant. "This legislation gives us an opportunity to start to change the way that we treat and include vital members of our communities."

es and skills. Since the onset of the COVID-19 crisis, her work has gone into overdrive. Fatou has been answering the calls of hundreds of community members who have found themselves without an income, unable to leave their homes or in fear that they may be without shelter or food for themselves and their families. Her hard work, attitude, and commitment to the community makes her a clear choice for Public Servant of the Month.

Q: Can you tell us what you do in the City of Revere?

A: I am the Manager of Revere Community School under the Park & Recreation Department. Revere Community School is the City of Revere's adult education program offering language, skills and enrichment programs for youths and adult learners. Every year, we work with more than 1,000 individuals teaching the English and Spanish language, HiSET, citizenship, computer and job training programs. I am also a community organizer, a community leader and serve on many committees and boards in the Revere.

Q: What's your favorite part about living and working in Revere? How long have you lived here?

A: I came to Revere in 2004 as a staff member for a non-profit organization and I now call the city my home. For the past 17 years that I worked in this city, I get up every morning with hope in my heart and the energy to help people in any way I can. I love to connect with people, build new relationships and learn new things and cultures. I love this city and passionate about my work and on issues I am involved in. I love that there are so many people/colleagues in this city working to get residents connected and bring them to the table to be part of the conversation. These past 2 years, I am amazed by how residents come together to volunteer and donate food, money and clothes whenever there is need. I am grateful for the opportunity and support for the work that I do in this city and I plan to continue working hard to helping those in need and contribute to making this Revere home for everyone.

Q: What's the highlight of your career thus far and what excites you about your current work?

A: For the past 30 years, I have served in many leadership positions in Revere and the Greater Boston Area working on many issues such as education, leadership, social and economic development, domestic violence and access to housing. I am the founder and former Director of Women Encouraging Empowerment Inc., a non-profit organization in Revere working with immigrants and refugee women and their families. Before founding WEE Inc., I worked for Cooperative Economics for Women (CEW), a Boston based non-profit organization for 9 years in various capacities from trainer to program organizer and Associate Director. I have also worked for more than 8 years at HarborCOV, a domestic violence non-profit organization, counselling hundreds of abused clients and connecting them with resources.

In 2013, I started the Revere Community School with three ESOL classes and now we offer more than 80 courses to over 1,000 individuals each year. I have served on many boards and committees, such as the funding panel and Board of Directors of the Haymarket People's Fund, a philanthropy foundation for more than 8 years, where I aided in funding different community projects throughout Massachusetts. I am currently a commissioner on the Revere Housing Authority and the board Vice Presidents of WEE. I have my master's degree from Brandeis University and a post graduate diploma from Coady International at the St Francis Xavier University in Canada. I love my job and gets a lot of joy from working with and helping others. I am proud of our program and the work that we do. We are changing lives and positively impacting our community.

Q: If you could give a piece of advice to the youth of Revere, what would you tell them?

A: I value education and work a lot because I believe that no one can take your knowledge away from you. My advice to the young people of Revere is to focus on their education, interact with others and get involved in their community. There is so much joy and education in giving back to your community and making an impact. We should all strive to make this world a better place for everyone. Margaret Mead once said, "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed, citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has."

causes flooding.

"But to my knowledge, we had no flooding because of those gates being shut," said Ciaramella.

He added that the amount of snow, duration of the storm (that produced two inches of snow per hour various points), and wind conditions created "a real challenge" for the DPW crews.

"We had to stop every 5-10 minutes to clear the windshields of the truck," related Ciaramella. "Not only was there white-out conditions, there was ice that developed on the windshields that made the driving extremely difficult.

"But what also made the plowing and snow re-moval very difficult is the fact that people were not staying off the road," said Ciaramella. "They did not adhere to Gov. Baker's request to stay home. We found many people trying to leave their homes with two-wheel-drive vehicles. We encountered several vehicles being stuck in the snow."

crews returned to Winthrop Parkway with front-end loaders to remove all the snow that had accumulated in front of the floodgates on Winthrop Parkway and to reopen the gates.

Ciaramella, who was in communication with Mayor Brian Arrigo throughout the storm, was proud of his department's efforts. "I've received no calls about flooding issues, which is a tremendous achievement for the City of Revere," concluded Ciaramella, noting that the city's 30 pumping stations, 13 sanitary sewer stations, and 17 storm-water stations, were all prepped and ready for the storm. "I think we did a good job."

health department.

Buck presented some relatively good news on the COVID front. She said the city is coming down from its peak of Omicron infection rates, though the rate still is extremely high.

She said that the current seven-day case average for COVID-19 presently is 103, the highest-ever in Revere, and is attributable to Omicron. Although the positivity rate still is high, "We're on the downward slope," Buck said.

She presented a chart showing that the COVID-19 surge of last winter (which dropped significantly at the start of the summer, though rose again mid-summer) has been dwarfed by the recent Omicron wave that began to spike at Thanksgiving.

"We think we've reached the peak of the Omicron surge and it is coming down rapidly," said Buck. "However, our daily case counts still are high compared to last summer and even last winter."

Buck then presented a chart that showed the vaccination rate in the city as of January 18. She highlighted the vaccination rate for ages 5-11 which showed a vaccination rate of 38 percent with one dose and 23 percent with two doses, a big jump over the previous month.

The percent of the overall Revere population who have received a booster is only 26 percent.

"The city needs to get that rate higher," said Buck, who presented another slide that showed that persons who have received a booster are at a greatly-reduced risk both of catching COVID and suffering from severe symptoms, as compared with those who are unvaccinated or who only are double-dosed.

Buck presented the grim statistics since the start of the pandemic: The total number of confirmed cases in the city stands at 20,135. There have been 180 deaths of Revere residents attributable to COVID-19 over the past two years.

In other health news, Buck said there has been a sharp increase recently in the number of influenza cases in the city. Buck said the ages of the patients, who totaled 54 in the past month, ranged from three months to 91 years old.

Buck also summarized a report from the CDC that warned about the danger of rabies in bats and noted that three Americans have died in the past few months from the disease. All had come into contact with bats in their homes and none had received post-contact treatment for rabies.

Buck also discussed a report issued by the CDC relative to a state-mapping survey for adult physical activity prevalence outside of work hours. She said that overall, 23.3 percent of adults in Massachusetts said they do not engage in any physical activity outside of work.

Revere Society for Cultural & Historical Preservation New Year, Same Mission: Telling the Story of Our City One Artifact at a Time

By: Christina Puleo

In 1994, residents of Revere came together to form the Society for Cultural & Historical Preservation (RSCHP). They found as many significant items as possible from both the City and Public Library, hoping that their group effort would help create a place to celebrate Revere's history for years to come. In 2022 this motivation is still alive and well, and the Revere History Museum continues to be home to hundreds of local residents' stories. Whether it be honoring prominent soldiers from our city, celebrating Revere or Immaculate High's alumni, or commemorating the staple that is Revere Beach, we can be proud knowing that our community's accomplishments have not gone unnoticed or unprotected.

According to "Next Stop Revere: Historic and Cultural Resources" (a document that we encourage residents to read!), about 40% of the city's population is currently made up of immigrants. Today, as the History Museum renews its hunt for historical objects, documents, and photos, and Revere outlines its plans for growth, we need the community's help in showcasing all facets of our city's cultural past and present. For example, Revere's first inhabitants were the Pawtucket tribe. Along with the Abenaki People, they were forced to scatter throughout present day Medford and Lynn after an outbreak of small-pox. Yet we do not have many pieces in the Museum's collections to speak for this prominent event. Similarly, our beautifully diverse city now includes people from Latin America, South America, Africa, Asia, and Europe, and we want our exhibits at the Museum to reflect that as well.

Our focus for 2022 is to expand our cultural representation and education through religious and ethnic pieces donated by residents like you! Revere's demographics may be changing, but our fight to keep history alive is not. Help us foster an inclusive and representative community one artifact at a time by contacting the Revere History Museum at (781) 286-2226 or rschpmuseum@comcast.net. Check out the RSCHP Facebook page at facebook@revere-history. Thank you!

Jack Satter House Tenants Association officers installed at Jan. 27 ceremony

By Cary Shuman

Mayor Brian Arrigo and Ward 5 Councillor Al Fiore joined residents of the Jack Satter House on Revere Beach Boulevard for the Tenants Association Installation of Officers Jan. 27 in the community room at the senior residential building.

Roxanne Aiello was installed as the new president of the Tenants Association, succeeding Joanne Monteforte, who served the past two years as president.

Mayor Arrigo delivered the opening remarks. "I know we've been through an awful lot over the last few years, and I can't thank you enough for your resilience and the ability for you to adapt through these particularly crazy times," said Mayor Arrigo. "On behalf of the city I just want to thank the incoming and outgoing residents who put the time and effort in to continue to make this beautiful building the top-level living quarters that it is. We thank you for your commitment to your community in the building. I look forward to a great year ahead." Arrigo, who had taken time out from his busy, pre-snowstorm preparations, also presented citations to the officers and board members.

Like Arrigo, Fiore also drew a warm reception from the assemblage in what his first official appearance at the Satter House as the newly elected Ward 5 councillor.

Fiore told a heartwarming story in his remarks.

"About 35 years ago I cut my teeth in politics with a young man at the time who was running for the Ward 5 City Council seat, and shortly after he got elected, I went to him and I said, 'I have a friend in the Satter House that needs something'.

"He said, 'Al, what the Satter House wants, the Satter House gets'," recalled Fiore. "And that man was John Arrigo, the mayor's father."

Continuing his tale, Fiore said, "Full circle, when I saw the mayor on my way into the Satter House, and I said to the mayor, 'You've got to get that bus stop tarred and lined'. "You know what the mayor said to me: What the Satter House wants, the Satter House gets."

Executive Director Steve Post, the installing officer, thanked the officers for their dedication to their leadership positions and spoke about the past two years and the challenges faced by Satter House residents during the pandemic.

"It's hard to believe that it's been two years since our last installation," said Post. "Little did we know that when we held the last installation in January, 2020, with a beautiful banquet and the mayor in attendance, we didn't know that our lives were going to be turned upside down, experiencing a worldwide pandemic unlike anything we've seen in over 100 years.

"Last year we postponed the elections for the Tenants Association and didn't have the banquet," continued Post. "We're holding this event in the community room with a small crowd. I'm trying to be positive and think about it as a step forward. We're moving on and I'm really hopeful that this year, 2022, is going to be even better as we progress throughout the year."

'The Innocent Classroom' at Paul Revere School a model for anti-racism education

By John Lynds

Every child should know what it is like to feel innocent – to believe that this world is open to them but many times our society's stereotypes stand in the way.

"The Innocent Classroom" project, founded by Alex Pate, partners with administrators, principals, and classroom teachers to help them build relationships that liberate children of color from the power of racial stereotypes in their schools and classrooms.

Pate, who is a novelist, a poet and a college professor started this program as a part of his own reflection of his own experiences as a black child. He felt he was always seen through a filter of negative stereotypes that pervade our society.

"In his book he writes that he never felt that anyone outside of his family and friends really understood him or understood who he really was as a person," said Paul Revere School Principal Donna Bonarrigo. "So there's a classroom program that he created to train educators to help us to better understand and develop authentic relationships with our students, especially students of color and students in other marginalized groups."

Pate's project found its way into the classrooms of the Paul Revere School and is becoming a model of anti-racism training for educators in Revere.

"The Paul Revere had developed a committee on Equity and Antiracism and 14 members of the committee participated in training in order to help lead ("The Innocent Classroom" project) for the rest of the staff this year," said the Paul Revere's Kelley Williams. "So this year, moving forward we have the majority of our full-time educators participating in the first half of the training which is five sessions in total."

Paul Revere 5th grade teacher MJ Crossman said the mission of the project is to dismantle racial bias in the classroom.

"It focuses on the basic fact that every child should know what it's like to feel innocent, to believe that the world is open to them, but our society stereotypes stand in the way and that kind of manifests itself in the form of guilt," said Crossman.

Williams said Pate argues that children of color are being held in virtual bondage to the negative stereotypes that our culture developed and perpetuated about them.

"What he means by that is that children of color come into our classrooms aware that these negative narratives about them and these negative stereotypes create feelings of guilt in these students of color," said Williams. "The Innocent Classroom project trains us to recognize how these negative narratives can affect their relationships or our relationships as teachers with the students. It also aims to train teachers to truly know their students of color as individuals, freeing them of this guilt and restoring them with innocence."

Crossman said the truly beneficial part of this training is having focused attention on a relationship with a specific student.

"It kind of brings to light some of the things that you might have missed before," she said. "So it's building that authentic relationship and the goal is that this relationship frees the student from the burden of guilt that comes with a stereotype and so when they enter your classroom or the school, they know that they're in a safe space. When they are perceived as innocent, then that opens them up to be able to learn and to succeed, socially and academically."

Bonarrigo said there were a significant number of students at the Paul Revere School who did not feel connected to teachers and who did not feel understood in school.

"We felt we really, really needed some training to help us to better connect with students from diverse backgrounds," said Bonarrigo. "I think that this work has really helped us to recognize implicit bias and realize the end goal is to help students be successful in school and to realize their full academic potential. It is also connected to our strategic plan, which is to create, adapt and apply equitable practices and our hope is that this program will help us to do that."

Revere School Superin-

endent Dr. Dianne Kelly praised the program and the Paul Revere School staff.

"The Paul Revere is our innovation school and we have learned so much," said Kelly. "The teachers at the Paul Revere have pioneered (many programs) that we have then brought to other elementary schools. I want to thank the staff for not only the incredible work that they do, but also for being the sharing and caring adults who helped the rest of the district learn from their experiences. After they take trainings, such as this one, they help give us all practices that make our collective work better. So thank you."

TEACHER SHORTAGE WAS INEVITABLE

An article in the Wall St. Journal this week highlighted yet another area of a labor shortage in the country that has been fueled by the COVID-19 pandemic:

“Burned out teachers are leaving the classroom for jobs in the private sector, where talent-hungry companies are hiring them, and often boosting their pay, to work in sales, software, healthcare, and training, among other fields. The rate of people quitting jobs in education rose more than in any other industry in 2021, according to federal data. Many of those are teachers exhausted from toggling between online and classroom teaching, shifting Covid-19 protocols and dealing with challenging students, parents, and administrators. According to LinkedIn, the share of teachers on the site who left for a new career increased by 62% last year.”

It was inevitable that COVID-19 would impact the field of education.

Public school teachers have long been the most underpaid and under-appreciated groups of workers in our country.

The pay for teachers has been substandard for decades in the U.S. compared to many other countries, but the teaching profession always has attracted those who truly have a love for teaching and who have been willing to work for less pay in return for what had been a rewarding career path.

But it has been only fairly recently that teachers have become a favorite foil for the usual suspects (i.e., Republican politicians) in our overheated political environment in which teachers are deemed the enemy and not worthy of respect.

Now, thanks to COVID-19, teachers have been pushed over the edge and are leaving the profession in droves for greener pastures where their skills, abilities, and work ethic actually are appreciated.

The Wall St. Journal article goes on to say:

“The exodus is worsening a nationwide teacher shortage and proving a boon to hiring managers in industries such as IT services and consulting, hospitals, and software development. Teachers, and ability to absorb and transmit information quickly, manage stress, and multitask are high-demand skills, recruiters and careers coaches say. Classroom instructors are landing sales roles and jobs as instructional coaches, software engineers, and behavioral health technicians, according to LinkedIn.”

The Biblical admonition, “As ye sow, so shall ye reap,” finally has caught up with us -- and teachers today now are able to take advantage of another, more-modern aphorism: “Take this job and shove it.”

PRES. BIDEN’S SUPREME COURT PICK

There has been criticism from the usual suspects regarding President Joe Biden’s declared intention to choose a Black woman for the U.S. Supreme Court seat to fill that of Justice Stephen Breyer, who announced his imminent retirement last week.

We’d like to make two comments:

First, there are thousands of lawyers, of all races, ethnicities, and genders, who are qualified to be a Supreme Court judge. Statements such as those by U.S. Senator Roger Wicker of Mississippi that the selection of a Black woman constitutes “affirmative racial discrimination” are both absurd and offensive.

Second, we firmly believe that every institution in our democracy should reflect the diverse make-up of our country. It is axiomatic that the only way that the three branches of our government can be truly representative of our citizenry is to be composed of those who bring the unique life experience of every American to that institution.

We applaud Joe Biden’s commitment to broaden the breadth of our nation’s highest court by appointing a Black woman for the first time in the court’s history.

We look forward to the perspective that she will bring to the highest court in the land in this, the third decade of the 21st century, bringing us another step closer to fulfilling the promise of the words written in the Declaration of Independence 246 years ago.

TWO KINGDOMS

Dear Editor,

The Book of Ecclesiastes written by King Solomon states that “there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live.” Eccl 3:12. And that a person finds satisfaction in honest work, enjoying the fruits of labor because it is “a gift from God.” Eccl 3:14. With God, everything has meaning. He brings peace and satisfaction to one’s life.

But two Kingdoms exist in our world:

The Kingdom of light, brings clarity, order, goodness, and fosters people of integrity, character, and kindness who support life, liberty and the opportunity for the pursuit of happiness. This Kingdom of light provides guardrails to protect people from behavior that will ultimately harm them and allows people to thrive in safety and peace. Yet it graciously avails an atmosphere of mutual respect for different views and open discussions and learning experiences.

The second kingdom that appears to be more prevalent at this time in our culture is the Kingdom of Darkness. Dictated by forces of evil, it fosters greed and selfishness that lead people into bondage, chaos, division, violence, finger pointing, hatred, cancelling conservative and Christian views from being heard, encouraging harmful addictions, and even promoting the killing of life in its most innocent form, the baby in the womb!

What Kingdom do you prefer? Our two political parties have their faults because man is not perfect, but they have clearly shown me what Kingdom they seem to favor. I’m voting Republican.

America’s crumbling bridges, can we save ourselves?

Dr. Glenn Mollette

The Forbes Avenue bridge over Fern Hollow Creek in Pittsburgh’s Frick Park collapsed last Friday morning, January 28th with several vehicles, including a Port Authority bus, on the span at the time. The bridge that collapsed is known as the Fern Hollow Bridge, used by an estimated 14,500 vehicles daily. (From Pittsburgh Action 4)

Ten people were injured. No one was killed when the bridge buckled at 6:39 a.m., officials said, though four people were hospitalized with injuries that were not life-threatening. President Biden who was ironically visiting the area warned that the country might not be so lucky next time. “We don’t need headlines saying that someone was killed when the next bridge collapses,” Biden said. (Washington Post)

“The most recent report using 2021 data showed more than 43,500 of the country’s roughly 615,000 bridges were rated poor. That number is about 4,000 less than those reported to be in poor condition nationally in 2017.” (WHYY Public Broadcasting)

In the last fifty years

America has seen horrific bridge collapses.

- The Hyatt Regency Walkway, Kansas City, Missouri, 114 deaths, July 17, 1981.
- Big Bayou Canot, Outside Mobile, Alabama, 47 deaths, September 22, 1993.
- Silver Bridge. Between Point Pleasant, West Virginia and Gallipolis, Ohio, 46 deaths, December 15, 1961.
- Cypress Street Viaduct, Oakland California, 42 deaths, October 17, 1989.
- Sunshine Skyway Bridge, St. Petersburg, Florida 35 deaths, May 9, 1980.
- I-40 Bridge, Webster Falls, Oklahoma, 14 deaths, May 26, 2002.
- Cline Ave, East Chicago Indiana, 14 deaths, April 15, 1982.
- I-35 West Bridge, Minneapolis, MN, 13 deaths, August 1, 2007.
- Schoharie Creek Bridge, Fort Hunter, New York, 10 deaths, 1987.
- Sydney Lanier Bridge, Brunswick, Georgia, 10 deaths, November 7, 1972. (CNN.Com)

The cost of repairing 45,000 structurally deficient bridges, which are on average 68 years old, is $41.8 billion, using data from the US Department of Transportation. 36% of all bridges need replacing, while 22% need structural work, 19% need rehabilitation work, 18% need widening or rehabilitation and 5% need deck work. (Global Construction Review)

As we consider rebuilding our bridges and other infrastructure, we have to face our current $29 trillion gross federal debt. This is held by the public as well as by federal trust funds and other government accounts. We are our own biggest creditor with Japan being second and China third. $29 trillion is greater than the size of the economies of China, Japan, Germany, United Kingdom and India combined. This amounts to $87,000 per person in our country.

Researchers at Brown University estimate that the U.S. has spent $5.8 trillion on the war in Afghanistan and other conflicts stemming from the September 11, 2001 attacks. That includes direct and indirect spending on everything from military equipment to homeland security to death gratuities for the families or slain American service members.” (Watson.

Brown.Edu.)

Will Russia’s military maneuver on the Ukraine border cost America? Whenever there is a problem in the world we go regardless of the cost. The problem is we don’t have any money, our bridges and other infrastructure are crumbling. We are in debt and dependent on Taiwan and China to even completely build an automobile. We have become a poor nation because of our indebtedness and dependence on foreign countries. A friend of mine received his Covid-19 test in the mail last week and even it was made in China.

If we don’t rebuild our infrastructure, including regaining energy and technology independence, and manage our debt, we won’t be able to help ourselves.

Major Michael Mucci Sr., football star at Revere High and Boston College

By Cary Shuman

The City of Revere is mourning the loss of one of its greatest football players of all time, Michael C. Mucci Sr., who died on Jan. 28, 2022. He was 71 years old.

Major Michael C. Mucci Sr. had a distinguished 33-year career in the Massachusetts State Police.

In Revere, Mr. Mucci's incredible prowess on the football field was recognized very early in his life. Lifelong friends and teammates including Mike Cella, and some of the standouts that preceded and followed him at Revere High, such as Jim Del Gaizo and Joe Festa, knew that they were watching someone special perform on the field, someone who excel at the next level, which he did at Boston College.

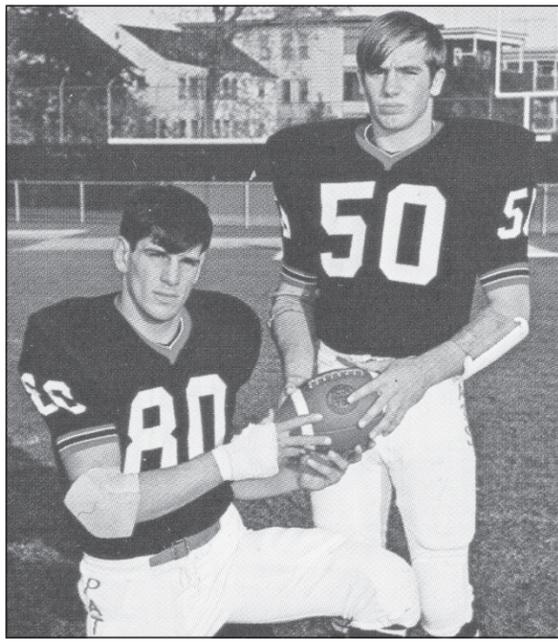

Mike Cella attended Lincoln Elementary School and Garfield Junior High with Michael Mucci Sr. and was a classmate at Revere High School, Class of 1968.

"Mike played Pop Warner and then we teamed up in football on the Garfield team," recalled Cella. "And then he and Stevie Guarino were captains in our senior year at Revere High."

Cella said that Michael Mucci was "lights out" greatness in multiple sports, though football was his best.

"Michael always had ability, he was a tremendous athlete," said Cella. "No matter what he touched, he was good at. He was a big, strong kid, with extraordinary talent. And he proved it when he went to college."

At Boston College, one of the top football programs in the Northeast, Mucci was an Honorable Mention All-American defensive player. His brilliant career earned him induction into the BC Hall of Fame. He remained dedicated to the college throughout his life, serving as president of the BC Gridiron Club and BC Varsity Club.

Mr. Mucci would return to the Revere High football program as an assistant coach when his sons, Michael Mucci Jr. and Gregory Mucci, took the field and carried on their father's incredible legacy. His daughter, Kristen Mucci, also had an excellent career as a student-athlete at Revere High.

"Mike Sr. coached with me in our program when Mike Jr. and Greg were playing football for Revere High," recalled Cella. "He brought so much knowledge to the table with his collegiate football experience. He really helped our program a lot. We were so honored to have him as part of our football program again. And his sons were terrific players. Mike Jr. and Gregory were both tremendous athletes and team leaders, and Kristen was exceptional in sports as well."

Cella said he used to enjoy seeing Michael Mucci Sr. at the class reunions, where they would reminisce with their other teammates about their football careers and playing football for Cella's father, Silvio Cella.

Former Revere High quarterback Jim Del Gaizo, who preceded Michael Mucci Sr. as a major college football prospect at Revere High, said he was saddened by his loss.

"He was a great guy and an amazing football player," said Del Gaizo, who went on to play college football at Syracuse and Tampa. "Mike was a freshman when I was a senior [at Revere High], so we were never teammates, but I knew of him and that his potential was through the roof. He was just a nice person and someone everybody liked."

All-Scholastic running back Joe Festa, Class of 1974, emerged as the next great Revere High prospect after Michael Mucci Sr. went on to star at Boston College. "When I was a kid, I used to go to the Revere High football games and watch him play," said Festa. "And I know that Michael Mucci Sr. helped Mr. Cella coach the Revere High team in my senior year. He was always a gentleman and a person that everyone respected. He was a great football player at Boston College. I extend my sincere condolences to his family on their loss."

ZBA approves conversion to a two-family residence

Staff Report

The Revere Zoning Board of Appeals held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday evening, January 26, in the City Councilor Joseph A. DelGrosso City Council Chamber.

Chairman Michael Tucker and members Aklog Limeneh, Arthur Pelton, and Hazem Hamdan were present for the meeting.

Most of the items on the board's agenda for the evening were continued at the request of the applicants. The board unanimously approved the lone application that went forward, giving approval to a request by a homeowner for a variance from the parking requirements to convert his single-family dwelling.

The agenda items for the meeting and the board's discussions and votes on each item were as follows:

Item #A-21-36:

Beth McDougal, 214 Arlington Street, Chelsea, MA 02150 requesting a variance of Section 17.16.260(F)(1) of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Revere with respect to the requirement that no accessory structure shall occupy more than 10% of the rear yard to enable the appellant to construct a 1,080 square foot accessory garage at the rear of the existing structure on Lot 4 at 22 Central Avenue.

Discussion and vote:

This matter had been continued from the December meeting. The applicant did not appear and the board approved a motion to withdraw the application without prejudice.

Item #A-22-01:

Durant Performance Coatings, Inc., 112 Railroad Street, appealing the decision of the Building Inspector and/or the Site Plan Review Committee on November 16, 2021 to approve the site plan application submitted in relation to 44 Railroad Street.

Discussion and vote:

A representative who appeared on behalf of the applicant asked that this request be continued because the Site Plan Review Committee is in the process of analyzing a traffic study, which would make the application a moot issue.

However, a representative for two abutters opposed the continuance on the basis that there has not been a decision by the Building Inspector, which means there is nothing before the board to consider.

"Even if we come back, this board cannot consider the matter because the Building Inspector has not made a ruling," he said.

However, the board voted unanimously to approve a continuance on the matter to its next meeting on February 16.

Item #A-22-02:

Cristina Napoli and Marcus Santos, 174 Endicott Avenue, appealing the decision of the Building Inspector to deny the applicants' request for enforcement of the Zoning Ordinances of the City of Revere with respect to the property located at 172 Endicott Avenue and owned by Thomas LaBrecque concerning the unauthorized expansion of a deck to less than one (1) foot within the required side yard setback of ten (10) feet. The applicants' request that the Zoning Board of Appeals reverse the decision of the Building Inspector to delay or withhold the enforcement of the Revere Zoning Ordinances and that Mr. LaBrecque be ordered to remove the deck encroachment into the side set back to the extent it exceeds what was existing previously at the property located at 172 Endicott Avenue.

Discussion and vote:

Both the proponents and opponents previously had discussed a continuance and the board voted unanimously to continue the matter to February 16. (This application was taken in tandem with Item #22-05, which likewise was continued to the February 16 meeting.)

Item #A-22-03:

Hossaena Wondimu &

Abeyaye Geremew, 300 Mountain Avenue, requesting a variance of Section 17.28.020 minimum parking requirements of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Revere to enable the appellants to convert a single-family dwelling to a two-family dwelling on Lot 168 at 300 Mountain Avenue.

Discussion and vote:

"We like this city and this neighborhood," said Mr. Wondimu, who presented the application. "We are raising our kids here."

He said that the basis for the request is that he would like to provide a separate living space for his elderly in-laws, who do not drive.

The board had received a number of emails from neighbors supporting the application. There were no opponents.

The board unanimously approved the application.

Item #A-22-04:

Pedro Calcano, 43 Pearl Avenue, Revere, requesting the following variances of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Revere to enable the appellant to convert a single-family dwelling to a two-family dwelling on Lot 125 at 43 Pearl Avenue:

1. Noncompliance with Section 17.28.020 with respect to requirement for 4 parking spaces for a two-family dwelling.
2. Noncompliance with Section 17.24.070(A)(3) with respect to no parking allowed in the rear yard for single-family and two-family dwellings.
3. Noncompliance with Section 17.24.010 footnote (y) with respect to maximum height requirement of 30 feet for lots less than 5,000 square feet.
4. Noncompliance with Section 17.24.010 with respect to a maximum of 2 1/2 stories for dwellings within the RB District.
5. Noncompliance with Section 17.24.010 with respect to minimum side yard setback requirement of 10 feet on one side and 5 feet on the other side.
6. Noncompliance with Section 17.28.050 with respect to minimum width of 20 feet required for driveways for two-way traffic.

7. Noncompliance with Section 17.28.040 with respect to minimum driveway aisle width requirement of 22 feet for 90-degree parking.

8. Noncompliance with Section 17.32.050 with respect to minimum screening area width of 6 feet between multifamily parking areas and other residential uses.

Discussion and vote:

A continuance had been requested by the applicant because his architect was ill and unable to attend. The board voted to continue the matter to February 16.

Item #A-22-05:

Thomas L. Labrecque ("Owner"), 172 Endicott Avenue, appealing the Order of the inspector of buildings/zoning administrator which states in pertinent part: "This correspondence serves as my Order pertaining to the erected deck located at 172 Endicott Avenue, Revere, MA; 1.) The erected deck is not conforming as to zoning and is also not in compliance with the building code. 2.) The Department plans to await a reasonable amount of time for the Owner to bring the deck into compliance within zoning and the code and to comply with this order. The Owner appeals the Order of the inspector of buildings/zoning administrator which orders the Owner to cure the zoning nonconformity of the exterior modifications. The facts and circumstances support the Owner's position that no action is required respecting a zoning nonconformity, wherein the exterior modifications do not increase the non-conforming nature of 172 Endicott Avenue, Revere, MA and said exterior modifications were properly allowed by right in concert with the issuance of a building permit.

The board voted to continue this matter in conjunction with the application in Item #A-22-02.

The board then voted to adjourn until its next meeting on February 16.

out, a man who has left our hearts saddened, but overflowing in so many ways. He was a soldier, a chef, husband, brother, father, uncle, grandfather and friend. He was a man who believed in family loyalty, character and merit. "Pa" was always present in his family's life, attending his grandchildren's activities and sports and always providing guidance through that old school, tough love approach. He loved his family, their cabin in New Hampshire, and was always up for a good time. His words of wisdom included, "Don't work too hard," "take it easy will ya," as if he knew just how short this life is. Anyone who knew him can remember the stories, how he would tell them with a squint, a stern look or a smile, a point, a laugh. "Pa" brought joy to so many, especially those he's left behind, and will be remembered as a man that loved, honored, served, raised and gave wisdom. He will be sorely missed and his passing will always feel too soon.

a few years living in Maryland, when his father was a professional thoroughbred jockey. His Dad's career as a jockey was a successful one including being the 31st jockey to record 3,000 wins in 1981. A highlight of his Dad's career for Michael was watching him participate in the Preakness. Hinojosa, a 1988 graduate of Revere High School, was a standout athlete excelling in baseball, football, golf, and track. He went on to continue his education and baseball career at Bentley College and Suffolk University.

Hinojosa returned to Revere and married his wife Marie-Elena. Michael and Marie-Elena raised two children, Chris and Ally, through the Revere Public System. Both of his children were standout varsity athletes at Revere High School. Ally played basketball, softball and volleyball, and Chris was a basketball and baseball player.

Michael Hinojosa, Director of Revere Parks and Rec.

leisure and recreational opportunities for everyone from toddlers to senior citizens. My day-to-day responsibilities include budgeting, facility rentals at school gyms and our outdoor athletic facilities, creating programming and working closely with the Mayor's office for any capital improvement projects related to parks, playgrounds, athletic facilities and open space."

Hinojosa said the City offers a plethora of activities and programs. "A few of our most popular include Drop-in-play, cooking classes, basketball, run club, sports camps, Sunday night concerts, movies on the beach, summer camp, Friday field trips, character story time at parks, character breakfast during school vacation and special events surrounding the holidays such as Trunk or Treat, the tree lighting at City Hall, and Fourth of July festivities. There are so many more I'd like to mention." His favorite programs that the Department offers are the Movie Nights and Cooking classes. "I really enjoy spending summer nights at the beach watching movies, and enjoy watching the little ones cook and enjoy their creations." When asked about the Department's future plans, Hinojosa stated, "As part of our seven year open space plan, we are looking to add/upgrade Gibson Park (Point of Pines) and Frederick's Park (Beachmont) to artificial turf facilities with a multi-use design in mind. And the most exciting news of all - we will be opening a 25,000 square foot health and wellness center at 321 Charger Street, hoping to be operational by July 1st."

Hinojosa credits his staff and city officials for the success of the Department. "I would like to say we couldn't be as successful as we are without my dedicated staff working tirelessly to provide the aforementioned recreational opportunities. Secondly, the support and direction from Mayor Brian Arrigo and the City Council has led us to these potential upgrades."

MBTA plan reallocates $500 million to support critical capital investments

Staff Report

This week, the Audit and Finance Subcommittee of the MBTA Board supported reallocating up to $500 million in operating funds to support critical and timely capital investments, allowing the MBTA to accelerate key capital projects in safety, advance key employee recruitment and retention initiatives, advance key investments in bus, and more. This one-time reallocation plan was presented to the full Board at today's meeting. This funding is unrelated to the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law funds.

"Last fiscal year, we spent a record $1.9 billion in capital investments and addressed some of the state of good repair backlog. But we still have important investments to make," said MBTA General Manager Steve Poflak. "This $500-million one-time transfer of funds will allow us to expedite crucial safety investments like the Green Line Train Protection Project, to continue supporting our workforce with pandemic pay for front-line employees, to further major investments that upgrade and modernize our bus system, and more."

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the MBTA received nearly $2 billion in one-time Federal relief funds, which allowed the MBTA to maintain service levels and balance its operating budget despite significant reductions in fare revenues. Federal relief funds continue to be applied to eligible operating expenses, freeing up other revenues on a one-time basis.

With the support of the Board, the MBTA plans to reallocate up to $500 million in operating funds to support critical one-time capital investments while still ensuring a balanced budget through FY23:

- Safety Investments: $67 million will go toward accelerating key capital investments in safety, including $45 million in the Green Line Train Protection Project and accelerating the project's schedule by a year to be completed next year instead of 2024; providing additional funds to support increased inspections at MBTA stations and facilities; and providing funds to address identified safety and non-code compliant concerns at the Lynn Parking Garage.

- Workforce Investments: $20 million will go toward advancing key employee recruitment and retention initiatives, including supporting employee-focused initiatives like pandemic pay for front-line employees and the expansion of the human resources staffing program as well as establishing an employee recruitment and retention program with opportunities to extend hiring bonuses and referral bonuses for key positions at the MBTA.

- Bus Investments: $109 million will go toward advancing key investments in bus, including funding for the Arborway Bus Facility (design), the Blue Hill Avenue Transit Priority Corridor, and the North Cambridge Bus Facility as well as additional funds needed to support the Quincy Bus Maintenance Facility and the procurement of 60 New Flyer buses as part of the New Flyer Bus Overhaul Project.

- Shovel-ready Investments: $70 million will go toward advancing key shovel-ready and shovel-worthy projects, including advancing the Newton Commuter Rail Station project to 100% design, expanding the Codman Yard Expansion and Improvements project to include building and power infrastructure improvements, and programming funds for potential near-term real estate opportunities and advance infrastructure planning for future electrification of the Commuter Rail network.

- Additional Federal Formula Funding Preparation: $145 million will go toward preparing for additional Federal formula funding. Funds identified provide the 20% match needed to program anticipated new Federal formula funds as identified in the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL). New funds, including matching funds, will be programmed through the FY23-27 Capital Investment Plan development process.

- Preserving the Existing Capital Program: $89 million will go toward preserving the existing capital program, including additional funds needed to support the Franklin Double Track and Signal and ATC Implementation projects, replenishing the surplus/contingency fund to support any future COVID related (materials and labor) cost increases, and advancing the full scope of the Tower 1 Interlocking Early Action project.

Revere Middle School girls basketball claims GBL title

Shayna Smith leads the way as team beats Medford

By Cary Shuman

An undefeated season and a league title were in jeopardy as Medford came out firing in the second half and closed the margin to one point.

But talented eighth grader Shayna Smith and her Revere Middle School basketball teammates weren't going to let the visitors take the title back to Medford. Not on their home court in front of their supportive families and fans in the stands.

Sparked by Smith's

12 points, including a spectacular, running left-hander high off the backboard late in the second half, the Revere contingent held off the fast-charging Mustangs, 23-18, to claim the Greater Boston League middle school championship.

Revere, led by head coach Melissa Moore-Randall and assistant coach Kerry Flaherty, who are teachers in the district, finished undefeated in a schedule consisting

RHS GIRLS TOP CLASSICAL, DROP HEARTBREAKER TO ENGLISH

The Revere High girls basketball team turned in a pair of stellar performances in their contests with Greater Boston League opponents Lynn Classical and Lynn English this past week, splitting their encounters with two of the top teams in the GBL.

Last Tuesday the Lady Patriots avenged an early-season loss to Classical with a 45-36 victory over the Lady Rams.

Carolina Bettero notched a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Freshman Belma Velic made a major contribution with nine points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

Elyasia Lung reached double figures in the scoring column, sinking four three pointers for 12 points. "Elyasia was feeling it," noted RHS head coach Chris Porrazzo.

Sophomore Bella Stamatopoulos was a thorn in Classical's side all game and all over the court. Bella's final stat line showed four points, three rebounds, three steals, and five assists.

"The girls were up for this one after our loss (52-23) back in December," said Porrazzo. "We went down early, tied it in the second quarter, and then were down 15-12 at the half.

"I really liked how we were playing though, so the halftime message was simple: stick to the game plan," Porrazzo continued. "Probably the biggest reason we won was because

Revere High track star Mike Fitzpatrick added another laurel to his growing wreath of accomplishments, winning the 1000 meter run at Saturday's Massachusetts State Coaches Association Invitational Track Meet held at the Reggie Lewis Center. Fitzpatrick not only topped the field of 76 competitors in the 1000 meter run, which featured top runners from across the state, but he smashed the Revere High school record in the process, with his time of 2:35.49 bettering the previous mark of 2:37.20 set by Samnang Ros in 1998. On the girls' side at Saturday's meet, Racquel MacDonald was the top Lady Patriot finisher, taking 10th place in the 55 meter hurdles in 9.35 seconds, which qualified Racquel for the semifinals. Caitlin Caramello sank two free throws with 10 seconds to go to provide the winning margin in an exciting 45-44 victory for the Revere High girls basketball team Friday over Danvers. Until Caitlyn made her clutch shots from the charity stripe, the Lady Patriots had trailed for the entire contest, including an eight point deficit with about four minutes to play. Venous Hamza turned in a superb first half effort in which she sank a pair of three pointers and scored nine points to keep her team within striking range. Caramello led the scoring chart for the Lady Pats with 18 points and pulled down 13 rebounds to turn in a huge double-double. Jen Fajardo hit for 12 points, followed by Hamza with nine, and we took care of the basketball. We only committed six turnovers all game, two in the second half. That lack of turnovers, plus our shot-making at the start of the fourth quarter, really opened up the game for us.

"And on the other end, our defense was locked-in the entire game. We had seven steals and six blocks as a team and we forced a lot of turnovers and bad shots out of Classical," the coach added.

Following Tuesday's big win, Revere took on first-place Lynn English, which has run up some big scores against GBL opponents in recent weeks, two nights later at the Merullo Fieldhouse and came up just short, falling by a heartbreaking one-point margin, 38-37.

The Lady Patriots welcomed back Haley Belloise, who poured in 14 points off the bench. Velic hit for 13 points and snared seven rebounds. Bettero added seven points and grabbed nine boards.

"It definitely was a roller-coaster week for our team," said Porrazzo. "We would have loved to come away with two wins and a firm hold on the GBL. It was a battle with Lynn English all night and our fourth quarter comeback came up just a little short. With seven seconds left we were down one and drew up the play for Haley. She had a good take to the basket and narrowly missed the game-winning shot."

Porrazzo and his crew, who still are in the running for a GBL title, have a busy week ahead with four games in five days in order to make up for contests that had been postponed because of COVID-19.

The Lady Patriots, who are 6-2 in the GBL and 7-5 overall, were set to travel to Medford last night (Tuesday) and will play at Chelsea tomorrow (Thursday).

Revere then will get another shot at English on Friday before hosting Chelsea on Saturday. They will entertain Malden next Wednesday.

"It's not ideal to play that many games in a row, but our coaching staff will develop a rotation plan that will hopefully keep everyone fresh," said Porrazzo.

BOYS BASKETBALL PLAYS IN THE GARDEN SAT. NIGHT

The Revere High boys basketball team finally will get a chance to play at the TD Garden Saturday evening when they will take on Hamilton-Wenham at 8:30 in the twice-delayed Andrew James Lawson Foundation Basketball Jamboree.

The Revere v. Hamilton-Wenham contest is the concluding game of an all-day schedule of boys and girls basketball games starting at 7:15 a.m. to support the Andrew James Lawson Foundation, a not-for-profit organization established in Andrew, Æds memory by his family to advance and improve the lives of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities by funding, developing and promoting programs, projects or individual scholarships that encourage and support people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) and help foster inclusion in their community.

"The team is very excited to be playing in the Garden," said RHS head coach Dave Leary last week. "We were actually invited to play in the Andrew Lawson Invitational at TD Garden last season, but because of COVID, it got pushed to this season."

The tournament had been rescheduled to this past Sunday, but the weekend blizzard changed those plans.

Spectators are welcome at the game. However, all guests 12 years and older will be required to show proof of vaccination to be allowed entry to TD Garden. Proof of negative COVID-19 tests will no longer be accepted for entry.

In addition, the City of Boston Mask Mandate will continue to be in effect -- regardless of vaccination status -- requiring all guests two years-old and over to wear a mask while indoors, unless actively eating or drinking.

BOYS BASKETBALL TOPS CLASSICAL, 48-45

The Revere High boys basketball team earned a big win on the road last Tuesday with a 48-45 triumph at Greater Boston League opponent Lynn Classical.

The Patriots overcame a slow start -- they trailed 11-3 in the opening minutes -- and trailed by just one, 11-10 at the first quarter mark and 24-23 at the half.

However, Revere came out on fire after the intermission to move out to a 38-31 advantage after three periods. The Patriots were up comfortably by seven points, 46-39, with 1:40 to play, but a pair of three-pointers by the Rams down the stretch made things interesting.

Ramadan Barry then sank two clutch free throws with 10 seconds to play and Classical's desperation shot at the buzzer fell short.

Junior Dom Boudreau was a force for the Patriots at both ends of the floor, hitting for 16 points, pulling down eight rebounds, and making three steals.

Barry finished with 13 points and senior captain Jack D'Ambrosio reached double figures with 10 points and snared six boards.

Two nights later the Patriots were at GBL rival Lynn English. This time Revere jumped out to an early 7-2 advantage, but a medical emergency in the stands stopped the game for about 10 minutes and the air came out of the Patriots' momentum.

The Bulldogs, who along with Everett are the big dogs of the GBL this season, moved out to a 15-12 lead at the first buzzer and enlarged their margin to 36-15 at the intermission. The teams then played evenly for the rest of the game, allowing English to claim a 65-44 victory.

Boudreau paced Revere with 13 points. Alejandro Hincapie hit for eight points and senior center Hamza Ghoul made a nice contribution with six points and 10 rebounds.

This past Monday the Patriots came up on the short end of a 62-54 decision to Medford. Revere hung close throughout the game, but trailed at all of the markers (18-15, 29-20, and 45-37).

Boudreau one again was the top scorer with 13 points and made five steals. D'Ambrosio reached double figures with 12 points and Ghoul had a solid game with eight points and eight rebounds.

RHS head coach David Leary and his crew, who are 5-5 overall and 4-4 in the GBL at the halfway point of the season, are scheduled to host Chelsea tomorrow (Thursday) evening for a 7:00 opening tip and will meet Hamilton-Wenham at the TD Garden on Saturday evening at 8:30.

They will travel to Malden next Tuesday.

RHS BOYS TRACK TOPS MALDEN, 52-33

Despite missing some key performers, the Revere High boys indoor track and field team ran away for a 52-33 triumph over Greater Boston League rival Malden last week.

"Once again we found ourselves short-handed as a team," said veteran RHS head coach Sam Ros. "The best hurdler in the league, Ricardo Goncalves, is out due to a hamstring injury and our second-best sprinter, Allen Hou is out due to illness.

"We were down early 0-8 after the first event, the hurdles, but the team rallied, stuck to the game plan, and pulled out a victory," added Ros.

Tom Desir was a double-winner for the Patriots, taking first place in the high jump with a leap of 5'-4" and the 600 meter dash in a time of 1:42.4.

JV Cunha added six points to the Revere side of the scoresheet with a first-place finish in the 1000 meter run in a clocking of 2:52.2 and a third-place performance in the high-jump with a leap of 5'-0".

Mudathir Hussein led a Revere sweep of the shot-put with a toss of 36'-1". Teammates Elmahdi Elkamazebi (34'-3") and Mark Marchese (31'-1.50") took second and third respectively.

Marchese took first place in the 50 yard dash with a sprint of 5.99 seconds. Teammate Felipe Maia took second in the 50 with a clocking of 6.2.

Kenya Guerrero sped to victory in the 300 dash in 41.3. Teammate Mario Ramirez was close behind in second place in 42.8. Patriot Adrian Grullon turned in a strong effort with a clocking of 46.5 to finish fourth.

Mohamed Ouakani won the mile handily with a time of 5:43.8, 17 seconds ahead of the closest Malden competitor.

Victor Pelatere scored three points for the Revere cause with a second-place performance in the two-mile run in 12:10.4.

Adding single points with third-place finishes were: Besmir Collaku in the mile in 6:14.6; Kenneth Le in the 1000 in 3:29.4; and Matthew Pereira in the 600 in 1:48.2.

Other Patriots who turned in fine efforts on the day were Javan Close with a fourth-place high jump of 5'-0" and Zaraius Bilimoria in the 600 dash in 1:53.

Ros and his squad are scheduled to take on both Somerville and Lynn Classical this evening (Wednesday) in a meet that will be highlighted by Senior Night festivities.

STRONG PERFORMANCES FOR RHS GIRLS TRACK

Although the Revere High girls indoor track and field team came up on the short end of a 52-33 decision to Greater Boston League rival Malden last week, a number of Lady Patriots turned in strong individual performances for coach Racquel MacDonald's squad.

"The girls had a tough loss to Malden last week, but we did see some strong finishes and personal bests," said MacDonald.

Liv Young took first place in the 50 yard hurdles with a personal record (PR) time of 8.49 seconds and grabbed second spot in the high jump with a huge PR of 4'-8" to tally eight points for the meet.

Other first-place finishers for Revere were: senior captain Jerelys Canales in the 50 yard dash with a sprint of 7.01; Yasmin Riazhi in the 600 meter dash with a clocking of 2:06.6; and captain Alanah Burke in the 1000 meter run in a time of 3:28.9.

Adding three points to the Revere score sheet with second-place finishes were: Yara Belguendouz in the 50 hurdles with a PR of 9.6; Kyra Delaney in the 300 with a time of 50.4; and Rocio Gonzalez in the one mile with a time of 6:47.9.

Senior captain Fatima Hartout was close behind Rocio, placing third in the mile with a season PR time of 6:49.7.

MacDonald and her crew are scheduled to take on both Somerville and Lynn Classical this evening (Wednesday) in a meet that will be highlighted by Senior Night festivities.

Tiphani Harris with three. Michael Fitzpatrick was the lone Revere competitor to finish in first place in the individual events, capturing the 1000 run in a time of 2:51.6, in the Patriots' 56-30 loss to Marblehead.

Racquel MacDonald and Angel Gonzalez turned in first place efforts for the Revere High girls indoor track team in their meet last week with Marblehead. MacDonald captured her specialty, the 55 meter hurdles, in 9.1 seconds, just edging the Marblehead girl who clocked the same official time. MacDonald also earned half a point for the Revere cause by tying for third spot in the high jump with a leap of 4'-8." Gonzalez tossed the shotput a distance of 28'-11" to bring home first place.

The Revere High hockey team turned in one of its best performances of the season to come away with a 4-4 tie with Peabody. The teams battled to a 1-1 draw through the first period, with Chris Whalen, assisted by Pat Bartol and Nick Tran, lighting the lamp for Revere just 3:03 into the contest. The Patriots opened up some room in the second frame, scoring twice on lamplighters by Bartol, assisted by Brandon Mastropietro, at 5:29, and Cam Whalen, assisted by Shayne Cambria, less than a minute later. Revere moved out to a 4-1 advantage at 1:18 of the third stanza on Chris Whalen's second marker of the night, assisted by R.J. Tiorano and Marco Mazzarelli.

The Revere High boys basketball team ran into one of the elite teams in the Northeastern Conference this season, Danvers, which came into the contest sporting a 12-1 record, its lone loss coming to Winthrop, which also has only one loss in the NEC. Danvers features a 6'-7" center in George Merry who gives the Falcons a dominating presence at both ends of the floor. Although the Patriots picked up the pace, they never were able to bounce back from those early deficits, eventually falling by a 56-37 final score. Alex Urena was high man for Revere with eight points, followed by Chris Palladino and Mike Ciambelli with six apiece, Tom Sor and Dom Boyce with five each, John Leone with three, and Joseph Aud and Geo Gomez with two points each.

New regulations requiring public notification of sewage discharges into waterbodies

Staff Report

The Baker-Polito Administration announced final regulations establishing rules and procedures requiring permittees to notify the public of untreated or partially treated wastewater, including discharges caused by weather events, into the Commonwealth's surface waters. Discharges of this nature can have negative health impacts and these new rules will ensure that the public has the most up-to-date information on water quality.

"Our Administration continues to take significant steps to implement these new public notification regulations to ensure both greater transparency and awareness of when discharges into local waterbodies occur," said Governor Charlie Baker. "Importantly, Massachusetts residents will now know in a timely fashion when water quality is impacted and potentially unsafe to use, providing the Commonwealth with an important tool to protect public health."

"With aging infrastructure, discharges of untreated and partially treated sewage into the Commonwealth's waterways continues to be a significant challenge for many of the state's cities and towns," said Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito. "With these new regulations, public awareness will be further raised as we work with our local partners to address infrastructure improvements."

Notifications must be issued within two hours of the discovery of the discharge to specific local, state, and federal government agencies, as well as to any individual who has subscribed to receive such notifications. The regulations also require notifications to be sent to the two largest news organizations that report on local news in nearby communities and be published on permittees' websites. Follow-up reporting to MassDEP will be required monthly. Permittees with combined sewer overflows (CSOs) will also be required to maintain signage at public access points affected by CSO discharges. Furthermore, the regulations will also require municipal boards of health or health departments to issue public health warnings and post signage under certain circumstances.

"With the promulgation of these regulations, the Baker-Polito Administration is seeking to ensure the public will receive timely information related to pollution entering waterbodies," said Energy and Environmental Affairs Secretary Kathleen Theoharides. "We appreciate the contributions of stakeholders who have advocated for the law and those who provided valuable input for the development of the regulations."

"We are committed to protecting and improving Massachusetts' water quality," said Commissioner Martin Suuberg of the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (MassDEP). "While we recognize there is more work to be done to achieve this goal, these regulations serve an important purpose of informing the public about potentially unsafe conditions while we work toward eliminating these risks for the future."

MassDEP kicked off the regulation development process with stakeholder meetings in April 2021. The draft regulations went out for public comment in early October 2021, with two public hearings held in late October. The final regulations benefitted from extensive public comments from watershed advocacy organizations, municipal wastewater officials, and municipal health officials. For more information about the sewer discharge regulations, please visit MassDEP's website.

"These regulations are the next step to protect people from sewage in rivers," said State Senator Patricia Jehlen (D-Somerville). "Thanks to all those who have supported the bill through passage and now in providing comments. And thanks to MassDEP for listening and taking a comprehensive approach to public notification. I hope that increased awareness will encourage investment in our water infrastructure so we can get rid of sewage overflows."

"I commend MassDEP for their collaboration in crafting these regulations to implement the Legislature's sewage discharge notification law and for their diligent work to carry out the Legislature's vision. I am very much looking forward to continuing this close collaboration," said State Representative Linda Dean Campbell (D-Methuen), the lead House sponsor of this legislation. "My thanks also to the Massachusetts Rivers Alliance and the many environmental organizations for their continuous advocacy. Communities across the Commonwealth will be safer and healthier because of this law and these regulations, and we are already collaborating on the next steps to upgrade our infrastructure."

MassDEP's mission is to protect and enhance the Commonwealth's natural resources - air, water and land - to provide for the health, safety and welfare of all people, and a clean and safe environment for future generations. In carrying out this mission, MassDEP commits to address and advance environmental justice and equity for all people of the Commonwealth, provide meaningful, inclusive opportunities for people to participate in agency decisions that affect their lives and ensure a diverse workforce that reflects the communities served by the agency.

of GBL schools, Malden, Medford, Everett, Chelsea, and Somerville.

Moore-Randall, a former Revere High and Pine Manor College basketball star, said her team displayed a lot of heart and unity throughout the year, especially in the finale against Medford, whose only losses this season came at the hands of Revere.

“Our entire team stepped up and each player played an important role in the win,” said Moore-Randall. “Our entire team was able to get playing time and participate in the championship victory.”

Smith, who drew special recognition from Moore-Randall, displayed her skill on her memorable basket in crunch time. Smith drove past an initial Medford defender and then faced a second defender who tried to block her shot. But Smith maintained her composure and arced the basketball off the glass and into the basket.

“Shayna was the true leader of our team,” lauded Coach Moore-Randall. “She is a tremendous player and even better teammate and leader.”

Medford Coach Carla Andre, daughter of former Andre Realty Chiefs ICL baseball manager Chuck

Andre, said Revere’s tenacious defense and rebounding were the deciding factors in the game. “I think Revere is a very talented team and ultimately it was their rebounding and defense that was the difference,” said Andre. “It was a much closer game than the last time we played, so I’m proud of them.”

Reflecting on the season

Melissa Moore-Randall said that close to 50 players tried out for the Revere team. “Over the course of three days, I was able to evaluate players and select those who I thought could make the best contributions to the team this year,” she said. “Our team was a mix of 14 solid players who could play all positions and step up when I needed them to. Our eighth graders were the most experienced. However, our sixth and seventh graders were equal contributors. At any time, I could have a mix of five players on the floor, and I was confident they could contribute to our undefeated season.”

Though Moore-Randall teaches elementary school in Revere, none of the players on the roster were her former students. “However, my daughter, Danni Hope Randall, was on the team. I have never coached her in a sport, so it was quite a challenge considering she often did not think I knew much about basketball,” joked Moore-Randall.

The coach expects that her players will help elevate the Revere High girls basketball program in the future.

“Revere High has had a strong girls basketball program for many years,” said Moore-Randall. “I think this group of girls has the potential to continue to make that program a force within the GBL and reestablish the basketball community and pride that existed a few years ago. Coach [Chris] Porrazzo and his staff have attended our games and practices when they can. It meant a lot to both me and the girls that they considered us part of the Lady Patriots’ program.”

Moore-Randall thanked the Revere parents for their support during the season. “We had a great group of parents. They were a great fan base and supportive and encouraging throughout the season,” said Moore-Randall.

Melissa Moore-Randall, the player

Melissa Moore-Randall was a four-year starter on some legendary Revere High girls basketball teams in the 1980s under coach Ed Leyden. A 5-foot-9-inch forward, Moore-Randall was a three-time GBL All-Star and team captain in her senior year in 1989 alongside Patrice Misiano.

“I played with the best of the best including Diana Odoardi, Patrice Misiano, Kim Kelly, Jen Wells, Robin Vincent, and Joanna Leone,” said Moore-Randall. “We had a record of 44-1 over my junior and senior years and were ranked number one in the state both years.”

Moore-Randall went on to become a 1,000-point scorer at Pine Manor College in Chestnut Hill where she led the school to a state championship. She returned to coach at Revere High for four years on the staffs of Lianne O’Hara and Matt Willis. “I stepped away from coaching two years ago when my daughter began playing softball. She plays in competitive year-round program,” said Moore-Randall. “I returned last year to assist Matt Willis for the shortened season. I had many of the seniors from the Class of 2021 and wanted to be part of their senior season.”

Melissa Moore-Randall is back on the sidelines and winning championships again for Revere.

The Chelsea District Court is in turmoil this week and a Revere firearms case against an alleged career criminal is now compromised as a result of three firearms – which were evidence in criminal cases – being stolen from the court clerk’s office.

Mayor Dan Rizzo and Police Chief Terence Reardon have apparently met to discuss the chief’s future plans and for the mayor to make his wishes known during a meeting held between the two last week, according to sources, all of whom wished to remain unnamed. The mayor and the chief had a frank and open discussion about exactly when the chief was planning to leave – as his contract runs out in August. However, it is well known in City Hall circles that the new mayor wishes to get moving with changes that need to be made in the Police Department, but that cannot happen until the chief has stepped down.

The city is right now faced with the task of creating a mitigation package of possible benefits to be derived from a going casino if it ultimately locates at Suffolk Downs. These are benefits other than those mandated by the expanded gambling bill that was passed into law a few months back after years of endless debate. This task is being handled primarily by the city’s Development Director, John Festa. Festa is being aided by City Council President Richard Penta. The council en masse will take the message concerning mitigation to residents of their wards.

Goldberg and Citizens launch Worth & Wealth Seminars

Staff Report

State Treasurer Deborah Goldberg's Office of Economic Empowerment and Citizens have launched registration for their new Worth and Wealth Seminars. These free virtual trainings will equip Massachusetts women with financial skills and knowledge to build confidence in their economic futures. Participants can choose to enroll in one of the two English-speaking sessions taking place in February and March, or in the Spanish-speaking session scheduled in April.

During each session, participants will attend a kick-off event and four subsequent weekly webinars where they will learn about salary negotiation skills, employment rights, investing strategies, and many other topics that will benefit them in their career and personal life. Registration is open now and all Massachusetts women are encouraged to sign up. The first cohort kicks off on January 26th and will meet on Wednesdays at 6pm for the following four weeks.

"By providing women access to quality financial education resources and tools, we help level the economic playing field all across Massachusetts," said State Treasurer Deborah B. Goldberg. "These seminars will empower participants with the skills to overcome barriers and to attain the jobs they desire and the pay they deserve."

The Worth and Wealth Seminars are funded by a generous grant from Citizens to the Economic Empowerment Trust Fund. Citizens staff also volunteer their time to support the program through one-on-one financial wellness checkups for interested program attendees, and lead regional breakout groups to help encourage deeper learning of the topics addressed in the sessions. The Office of Economic Empowerment also created a "Partners Circle" for Worth & Wealth presenters, non-profit organizations, and state agencies to get involved in the events, and spread the word to their constituencies.

"We must remain steadfast in our efforts to ensure that women, who we know have been disproportionately impacted by the pandemic, are not left behind as the Commonwealth builds back," said Lisa Murray, President, Citizens Massachusetts. "Financial knowledge is a key lever for economic mobility, and we're proud to continue our work with the Office of Economic Empowerment helping women build the skills to take control of their financial futures."

Treasurer Goldberg created the Office of Economic Empowerment, led by a deputy treasurer, with the deliberate goal of implementing a range of economic empowerment initiatives that include closing the race and gender wage gap, addressing racial equity, increasing access to financial education, improving college affordability, and investing in STEM careers and education.

Baker-Polito Administration to file for $200 million in Chapter 90 funding

Staff Report

The Baker-Polito Administration announced plans to file legislation next week seeking $200 million in Chapter 90 funding to help all 351 cities and towns in Massachusetts improve transportation infrastructure and address needs within their local communities. Governor Charlie Baker made the announcement at the Massachusetts Municipal Association's (MMA) Annual Meeting today.

This funding request complements the $31.5 million increase in unrestricted local aid that will be included in the Administration's Fiscal Year 2023 (FY23) budget proposal, as announced by Lt. Governor Karyn Polito at the MMA meeting this past week. Keeping a commitment made by the Governor and Lt. Governor in 2014, the Administration's budget proposals over the course of their time in office have increased local aid consistent with tax revenue growth. The Administration's full FY23 budget proposal will be released in the coming days.

"As former local officials, Lt. Governor Polito and I pledged to be strong partners with cities and towns throughout our administration, and with these proposed investments in our cities and towns and local infrastructure, we are proud to sustain that commitment," said Governor Charlie Baker. "The budget proposals we have filed throughout our time in office kept our promise to cities and towns to increase local aid funding consistent with the growth in state tax revenue, and we have consistently filed for additional Chapter 90 funds to make critical improvements for local roads and bridges."

"Our commitment to cities and towns has remained a vital part of our Administration's approach, and we are proud to once again increase support for local aid through our FY23 budget proposal," said Lt. Governor Karyn Polito. "We look forward to partnering with our legislative colleagues to ensure our municipalities get the support they need to serve their residents and improve their local infrastructure."

This $200 million in Chapter 90 funding would be available to local cities and towns for FY23. After taking office in 2015, Governor Baker quickly directed MassDOT to release $100 million in Chapter 90 funds that had been promised the previous year, fulfilling a commitment made to cities and towns. The Baker-Polito Administration has released a total of $1.56 billion in funding through the Chapter 90 formula, and if approved by the Legislature, this most recent request would bring the total to $1.76 billion.

"The Baker-Polito Administration continues to focus on supporting cities and towns by providing critical resources through the Chapter 90 program and through increases in local aid," said Administration and Finance Secretary Michael J. Heffernan. "We are proud to once again request these important resources which give municipalities the tools they need to effectively improve their communities."

improve their communities."

In her remarks to the MMA, Lt. Governor Karyn Polito also announced that the Administration's FY23 budget proposal will include $1.2 billion for unrestricted general government aid (UGGA), a $31.5 million increase over Fiscal Year 2022, and equal to a projected 2.7% increase in tax revenue in the FY23 consensus revenue estimate. Including the FY23 budget proposal, the Administration has increased the total annual UGGA distribution by $253.9 million since taking office.

"The Chapter 90 funding program is a lifeline for municipalities as they manage and maintain their roadways and bridges," said Transportation Secretary and CEO Jamey Tesler. "Additionally, the Baker/Polito Administration has created and funded municipal programs like the Complete Streets Funding Program, Shared Streets and Spaces, Municipal Small Bridge, Municipal Pavement and Local Bottleneck Reduction, which have not only provided a generational investment directly to communities but helped repair and modernize the transportation network of the Commonwealth."

Through the Chapter 90 program, the Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT) reimburses cities and towns for costs incurred for eligible transportation projects. Funding is awarded by municipality and is predetermined by a formula that includes factors such as population, road miles, and employment.

MORE SCENES FROM A VERY SNOWY WEEKEND AROUND REVERE

Stormy waves crash up against the Short Beach seawall. Winthrop Shore Drive was closed to traffic due to flooding concerns throughout the storm.

Revere High School JROTC's Snow Angels hit the streets helping seniors by shoveling on their behalf.

SNOWED IN: The strong winds mixed with 2+ feet of snow led to many snow drifts covering up windows and doors alike.

WHAT POOL? A blanket of snow completely hides the pool in this backyard, save for a diving board.

A plow makes its way through one of the neighborhoods.

Revere High School JROTC's Snow Angels outside one of the houses they shoveled out.

The snow piled up in Ward 4 along the Chelsea line, leaving many with a morning workout to shovel out their vehicles.

NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS: Resident on McKinley Street make their way through with shovels and a snow-blower.

Revere Ward 1 Councilor Joanne McKenna rides with Jim Mecurio this weekend plowing.

High tide, stormy weather and a mess of snow led to some flooding in Ward 1. Shown here, looking towards the airport from the Belle Isle Marsh area.
