City hosts online opioid forum in wake of drug discovery at high school

By Adam Swift

The city and school department held an online forum on fentanyl and opioid use Monday night, spurred in part by the discovery of a small baggie of powdered drugs at Revere High School earlier this month.

Initial test showed the powder to contain MDMA and ketamine, and the Revere Police Department is awaiting state lab test results to determine if there was fentanyl in the mix of drugs.

During the forum, several local and state experts discussed the statistics for fentanyl and opioid use by young people, and discussed ways to talk about drugs with young people and help prevent overdose

"I did speak with the (police) chief again today, and he said the tests are still not back from the state lab," said Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dianne Kelly. "He said it could take several months. as the state lab is backed up with testing demands. As students and parents know, we did work with local law enforcement to have the drug dogs and the firearm dogs do a sweep of the school, just to see where we are, and that happened last Thursday."

While no drugs were discovered, Kelly said there were a few areas of concern where the dogs caught the scent of marijuana in a locker or backpack. She said those concerns would be addressed with the individual students and their families.

Revere High Principal Chris Bowen said the incident does provide an opportunity for the schools

Traffic study is underway for Malden Street-Squire Road

By Journal Staff

The Revere Traffic Commission held a brief but productive meeting last Thursday evening in the City Council Chamber.

Chairman Paul Argenzio and fellow commissioners Police Chief David Callahan, Planner Frank Stringi, City Engineer Nick Rystrom, and Fire Chief Chris Bright were in attendance.

Argenzio began the meeting by noting that the equipment for the much-anticipated traffic study for the grid of streets between Malden St. and Squire Rd. has been installed. He said that if the traffic study is concluded this month and if the hired consultants are available, the commission will take up the matter at its next meeting on Tuesday, January 3.

The commission then conducted public hearings

MERRY CHRISTMAS

This is the most wonderful time of the year, to paraphrase the popular song, with holiday music playing in the malls and on our car radios, resurrecting our earliest childhood memories of Christmases-past.

We choose just the right tree, decorate it carefully with our family-heirloom ornaments, and when we first turn on the lights, it brings a smile to the faces of even the oldest among us.

Despite the hectic rushing to and fro', everybody, it seems, is in a good mood. We endure the traffic and the long lines in stores because we know that what we are doing will bring joy and happiness to others.

For those of us with young children, we get to see Christmas through their eyes, giving us a second-chance to experience the wonder and joy that we felt when we were their age.

Although all of us celebrate the holiday season in our own way, the common thread is one of peace, joy, and happiness, regardless of religious or secular beliefs. Whether it be Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, or a Seinfeldian Festivus, the spirit of the season imbues us with a sense of togetherness that transcends whatever negativity may exist both in our own lives and in the world around us.

We wish all of our readers a Merry Christmas and a happy holiday season.

CONGRATULATIONS, TOM AMBROSINO

We wish to offer our congratulations to our former mayor, Tom Ambrosino, who was named last week to the position of Chief Administrator of the Massachusetts Trial Courts by the justices of the Supreme Judicial Court (SJC).

Tom served as our mayor for 12 years from 2000-2012 before stepping down to take a post as the Executive Director of the SJC for three years, and then becoming the City Manager in neighboring Chelsea for the past seven years.

Tom Ambrosino's 12 years as our mayor was marked by incredible progress in our city and laid the groundwork for the transformation of Revere that is occurring

During his tenures as the mayor of Revere and the City Manager of Chelsea, Tom was universally recognized as among the top municipal leaders in our state. We always believed that, had he been so inclined, Tom Ambrosino would have been a great governor.

That the SJC decided to bring Tom back into the court system as its highest-ranking administrator speaks volumes to the faith that the justices have in his abilities.

We know we join with all of our fellow residents in wishing Tom the best in this next chapter of his life.

A GREAT WORLD CUP

We don't pretend to be big soccer fans, but even we were caught up in the excitement and the drama of the World Cup, which reached its climax this past Sunday with the exciting and exhilarating victory by Argentina in a shoot-out over defending champion France.

As long-time Boston sports rooters, we know of the passion that we and our fellow fans have for our local teams. But our enthusiasm does not even come close to that of World Cup fandom for their heroes.

The raw emotion among the fans in the stands, their raucous celebrations in the streets back home, and the individual stories of fans who traveled thousands of miles (and who spent their life savings) just to be on

Moreover, it was a World Cup for everyone, including the U.S., which qualified for the cup for the first time in eight years and made it through the knockout round, but especially for the fans of underdog Morocco, which became the first team from Africa and the Arab world to reach the semifinals of the World Cup.

At a time when there is so much misery and conflict in our world, the World Cup brought nations together as no other event can and we were happy to join in the world-wide celebration and joy that it brought over the past few weeks.

who are below the financial income poverty level. They have it tough. Our cities are filled with growing numbers of homeless populations. People are sleeping under bridges, overpasses and on riverbanks. Too many of these have met with unfortunate circumstances in life due to bad choices, addictions, unemployment, mental illness, and family issues. The list is never-ending. This doesn't make their lives any easier. Just because there is a reason for the problems doesn't er or unnoticeable. Their reality is still harsh and painful.

Millions more immigrants are coming to America. Where will they sleep? Where will they work? Many of them will work for $8 an hour and work hard but many of them will be homeless or stranded in homeless shelters on government dependence for a long time. Would any of us want to trade places with them? I don't think so.

Whatever darkness you are facing this Christmas is your reality. Seeing the hurts of others doesn't make your troubles go away. However, if you can be thankful for the life you have, then maybe Christmas will take on a whole new light.

Look to the most special gift of all this Christmas - the baby in the manger. Shepherds raced to see the baby just as the angels said they would. Wise men came from the east and worshipped him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Mary and Joseph did the best they could as peasant parents of a new baby boy.

Keep the scripture of Isaiah 9:6 handy this Christmas. "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on His shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Price of Peace.

May His peace comfort your heart and be your light and strength through this seasonand every day to come.

GOD'S GIFT TO US Christmas is a celebration that occurs all over the world. Different traditions make the celebration unique for each culture. But the one common fact is that they all celebrate the birthday of the Son of God who came down to humanity and relinquished for a short time His glory and took on human flesh. He is Emmanuel, God with us.

Up until this time, God spoke to mankind through the prophets. But at the appointed time in history, when the Helenistic Era imposed a common language, and the Roman Empire ruled the known world, a babe born of a virgin in the town of Bethlehem came, predicted by prophets some 400 years

He would teach and do many miracles that gave proof of His authority over Nature, Physical Matter, Life and Death. He would suffer cruel punishment, die a bloody death on a Roman cross, be buried for three days, then rise from the grave alive bodily.

Although the usual brilliant light-ing effects of Christmas are not in such profusion as in past years, the Christmas spirit has invaded Revere and a merry holiday is forecast. The awards for decorated homes of many unfortunates.

Most of the parties and other events have been successful, although the results obtained are not as great as those of previous years, it is said. Merchants have reported an increase in sales due to the coming holiday

Merry Christmas Happy New Year

"Times change; man's old customs are cast off and his outward habitations are made new. The Bethlehem in which Christ was born would seem uncouth to us. But man's inmost nature and deepest wants change little. Still peace on earth is humanity's great need and goodwill in human hearts the only road to happiness and brotherhood. Still the old music of the Christmas song lures us from trivial and transient things that change to the abiding beauties of the spirit which are the same in every generation." . .

Former Mayor Ambrosino selected as Court Administrator

Former Revere Mayor and current Chelsea City Manager Thomas Ambrosino has been selected as the next Court Administrator of the Trial Court in Massachusetts by the justices of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Ambrosino served as mayor in Revere for over a decade, first defeating four-term Mayor Robert Haas in 1999.

In 2012, Ambrosino was hired as the executive director of the Supreme Judicial Court, and in 2015, he was selected by the Chelsea City Council to replace Jay Ash as City Manager.

berly Budd. "Tom is an experienced leader who has managed public sector entities with vision, professionalism, and compassion. We are excited that he will bring his many talents to the court system."

Ambrosino will begin his new position on Jan. 30 of next year, where he will succeed John Bello. who will leave the position at the end of the year.

"During the time that I worked at the SJC, one of my roles was to assist the Chief Justice in helping to onboard the inaugural Court Administrator, and I saw what a significant impact the position has," said Ambrosino. "I now look forward to working with Chief Justice Locke and having the opportunity to advance the courts' efforts to deliver justice with dignity and speed."

Locke said that he is confident that together, he and Ambrosino will continue to grow the capabilities of the Trial Court and build upon recent successes in using technologies and improving operations.

Massachusetts Court Administrator coleads the Trial Court, the largest component of the Massachusetts Judicial Branch with seven court departments and over 6,000 employees, across 94 courthouses throughout the Commonwealth. The position of Court Administrator for the Massachusetts Trial Court was created by court management legislation enacted in 2011.

Working together with the Chief Justice of the Trial Court, the Court Administrator is responsible for shaping administrative functions that support the Trial Court's delivery of justice to the people of Massachusetts. Duties include budget preparation and oversight, labor relations, information technology, capital projects, security, and personnel policy.

Local leaders laud Ambrosino's service in city government

Community leaders in Revere and Chelsea lauded Tom Ambrosino for his outstanding service in city government and offered their congratulations to him on his appointment as Massachusetts Trial Court Administrator.

Ambrosino will be stepping down as Chelsea City Manager on Jan. 13 after serving seven-and-a-half years in the top administrative position in Chelsea.

Following are local officials' comments:

Revere Mayor Brian Arrigo

"I am proud to see Tom Ambrosino move onto this new chapter in his career. "Tom has left a lasting legacy in the City of Revere which was moved into Chelsea, and now he has the opportunity to make an even larger imprint with this new role. Congratulation to Tom on a job well done."

Councillor-at-Large and former Mayor Dan Rizzo

"Tom is extremely well qualified for this position. He's been an administrator in the Mass. court system before, and he's familiar with its operations, and I'm sure he'll do a great job. He should certainly be proud of the work he did in Chelsea. Being a city manager or a chief executive officer in any community is not an easy job, especially when you're talking about urban gateway cities, they have their own unique sets of challenges. And Tom rose to them, both in Revere and Chelsea, and I wish him well in his new position."

"I congratulate Tom on his new position and wish him the best. I'm very happy for Tom. He's a first-class, honest, decent, hard-working individual who is eminently qualified for this job. Everywhere he goes, he makes a difference. He made a difference in Revere. He made a difference in Chelsea. And he'll make a difference as the administrator of the Massachusetts Trial Court.'

State Rep. Jessica Giannino

"I wish Tom all the best in his future endeavors as chief administrator of the Mass Trial Courts. I have had the pleasure of knowing and working with Tom as he led both the city of Revere and Chelsea with integrity and perseverance, and I know he will continue to do the same in his new role."

State Rep. Jeff Turco

"I applaud the decision of the Supreme Judicial Court to hire Tom Ambrosino as the next Trial Court Administrator," said Representative Jeffrey Rosario Turco (D-Winthrop). "Tom is a respected leader and administrator, with unquestioned integrity, who will be a driving force for the important reform work of the Massachusetts Trial Court. The Court's gain is certainly Chelsea's loss." Former Chelsea City Manager Jay Ash

"I'm so grateful to Tom for his great leadership and collaboration he has exhibited as City Chelsea has Manager. benefited from his vision and stewardship and has become an even more vibrant and livable community for all. I especially admire him for all he did for the residents of Chelsea during the pandemic, and for the example he has set for integrity and accomplishment in office."

GreenRoots Exec. Dir. Roseann Bongiovanni

"Tom has been a steady, strategic, and community-minded city manager over the past, almost eight years. I always tell our Brothers and Sisters that the longer you stay in this profession the odds start working against you both mentally and physically. Your chances of behavioral health issues increase, constantly getting exposed to certain types of carcinogens which affect your body over the years, heart and lung issues, etc. So getting back the time was crucial." President O'Hara would like to thank State Representative Jessica Giannino who led the charge, State Representative Jeff Turco, who assisted in rewriting the bill halfway through the process, Senator Lydia Edwards, The Revere City Council, and Mayor Brian Arrigo.

"The odds were against us. For three years, we fought this and were told we couldn't win. Firefighters are constantly fighting for something because we are so used to things being taken away from us. That is why we always stand up and fight for what we believe is earned and owed to us," added O'Hara.

Disabilities Commission holds regular meeting

By Journal Staff

The Revere Commission on Disabilities held a brief regular monthly meeting last Tuesday evening (December 13) via Zoom.

Chairman Ralph DeCicco and fellow commissioners Mario Grimanis, Asmaa Abou-Fouda, Robert Brown, Jason Barone, and new member Ellie Pagan-Vargas were on hand for the meeting. The meeting began with the introduction of Ms. Pagan-Vargas, who briefly informed the commissioners of her background as a long-time advocate and volunteer for spina bifida causes.

Brown presented an update on the recent events that were hosted by the Special Education Parents Advisory Council (SE-PAC) of which Brown is the president.

SEPAC held a forum on Basic Rights on December 1, at which a representative from the Massachusetts Office of Disabilities was the main speaker. Brown also inthe commisformed sion that SEPAC's Winter Wonderland party held this past Saturday was a big success.

"It was a great time," said Brown, "with a photo booth, a DJ, snacks, a bounce house, and activities for the kids."

DeCicco presented a synopsis of the CODA (Commissions on Disabilities Alliance) monthly Zoom meeting of December 7, which included: A discussion on finding winwin solutions when the first glance shows you're in a conflict with another group's cause; discussions and questions regarding local transportation options for people with disabilities that do not fall under the age requirements for their town's senior center or the RIDE: and a discussion brought up by COD member from Newburyport regarding a resident who was ticketed for using an expired HP placard.

It also was elaborated that any street parking signage, such as a No Parking zone, needs to be followed regardless of having an HP placard. This brought further discussions around uses of Blue Placards for parking (and what to do when they expire).

Grimanis (who works for the Registry of Motor Vehicles) reminded viewers that the Mass. DOT's Registry division is far behind on driver's license renewals, which are taking up to four weeks to process.

DeCicco closed the meeting with the commission's regular reminder: "The Commission on Disabilities Office works remotely. Residents can speak to staff from our 311 Constituent Service Center Monday through Friday when you call our office at 781-286-8267. They will be able to answer most questions but if they are unable to or if you would like a call back from our department, please ask to be transferred to the Disability offices voicemail and someone will get back to you as soon as possible.

"As always, please let us know if you would like something discussed or brought up and added to our monthly meeting agenda. You can let us know if you would like to speak on any issue or concern. The Commission is here to help and assist all the disabled residents and families of Revere."

The commission's next meeting is set for Tuesday, January 10 via Zoom.

on a number of items.

The first was a proposal to amend Schedule V of Title 10, One Way Streets, by adding Roosevelt St. & Revere St. as follows: Do Not Enter between 7:30 a.m.-9:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.-3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday from Revere Street to the Rear Parking Lot of the Paul Revere School.

Ward 3 City Councilor Anthony Cogliandro spoke in favor of the proposal.

"This is for the safety of students during drop-off and pick-up hours," Cogliandro said.

There were no opponents to the proposal. However, Ralph DeCicco informed the commissioners that the street in question was supposed to have been made one-way permanently when the school was constructed, which would have obviated the need for the current motion. He said all cars leaving the parking lot were supposed to make a right turn onto Roosevelt St. to get up to Revere St.

The commissioners voted to approved the motion as presented, but said they would take a look at making the road one-way permanently in the future with input from Councillor Cogliandro and his constituents.

The commission next took up an amendment that the following new and proposed residential developments shall be included under Section 10.34.020(G) as non-eligible for residential parking stickers:

After approving this 320 Revere Beach Blvd amendment with no discussion, the commission took up an amendment that the following new and proposed residential developments shall be removed under Section 10.34.020 Section (G) and (F) of Title 10 as non-eligible for residential parking stickers.

The commission next approved a handicapped parking spot for 90 Kimball Avenue. DeCicco, who is the chair of the Commission on Disabilities, told the commission that the request meets all of the requirements for a handicapped parking space. The commission took up an amendment to Schedule VIII of Title 10 – Parking Restrictions Generally -- by adding: Eastern Side of Lantern Road from Squire Road to Ward Street - NO PARKING ANYTIME.

Cogliandro spoke on this amendment, telling the commissioners that the present situation creates safety issues for those exiting the parking lots of the Northgate Apartments, whose view of oncoming traffic is obstructed by parked vehicles on that side of the roadway.

He also noted that restricting parking to one side of the narrow, two-way road, will make it much easier for snow-plowing, as well as making the street more-accessible for fire apparatus.

The commission unanimously approved the amendment

The commission then paired two separate items that had been proposed by Ward 1 Councilor Joanne McKenna for stop signs at the intersection of Haddon and Vinal Sts. McKenna sent an email in favor of the move. She said that Vinal St., which runs from the Revere Beach Parkway to Broadway, has become a "gateway for speeding cars cutting through the neighborhood" and urged the stop signs be put in place in order to slow down the

The commission unanimously approved the measure.

The commission sent to a public hearing the following matters for its next meeting:

1. Request to amend Section 10.23.040(G) of Title 10 Visitor Placards to the Revised Ordinances of the City of Revere by deleting the word "Ten" and inserting the word "Eight".

2. Request to Amend VII of Title 10 – Parking Restrictions Generally by adding two 15 minute parking spaces at 75 Shirley Avenue Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

CUNHA CAPTURES 600 AT SPEED CLASSIC MEET: EL ASRI TAKES

FIFTH IN 300 Revere track star JV Cunha outraced the field to capture first place in the 600 meter dash at the Speed Classic held Saturday at the Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center in Roxbury.

JV's clocking of 1:25.73 edged-second place finisher Luke Boothroyd of Hopkinton by 0.27 among the field of 120 runners. Both Cunha and Boothroyd were far ahead of the rest of the competition, with the third-place boy clocking in at 1:28.43, a gap of 2.7 seconds behind Cunha's winning time.

Patriot Sami El-Asri also turned in an outstanding Speed performance, bringing home a fifth place medal in the 300 dash with a time of 37.47 among a field of 150 competitors.

Isaiah DeCrosta sped to a ninth place finish in the 55 meter hurdles in 8.75 and teammate Javan Close took 16th place in 9.00.

Davi Barreto also turned in an excellent performance, finishing in 10th place among a field of 219 sprinters in the 55 meter dash in a time of 6.95. Teammate Allen Hou came across the line in 31st position with a sprint of 7.18.

The Patriots' 4 x 200 relay quartet grabbed ninth place with a clocking of 1:39.93.

On the girls' side, Kyra Delaney excelled in two events, finishing 20th (among a field of 226 competitors) in the 55 dash in 8.02 and taking 33rd in the 300 dash (among a field of more than 200 entrants) with a clocking of 46.5.

Sophomore Liv Yuong also turned in an outstanding performance in the 55 hurdles with a time of 10.38, which was good for 20th spot among the field of 81.

YUONG WINS TWO EVENTS TO PACE RHS TRACK GIRLS IN WIN The RHS girls kicked off their 2023 season in fine fashion with a victory over Greater Boston League rival Everett, 49-36, last Wednesday at the Merullo Fieldhouse.

"Everett has a lot of runners and great depth on their team, so it was definitely a tough team to start the season against," said RHS head coach Racquel

MacDonald. "I'm really proud of how the girls stepped up."

Sophomore Liv Yuong had a huge meet with two first-place finishes. Liv won the high jump with a personal record (PR) leap of 5'-1", a performance that tied the Revere school indoor record that also qualified Liv for the Rising Stars portion of the New Balance Indoor National Meet to be held in March.

Yuong finished off the meet with another first place finish in the 50 yard hurdles with a big PR from last season of 8.3 seconds.

"It's so impressive to see how well Liv's competing this early in the season,' said MacDonald. "It's truly a testament not only to her talent, but also to her excellent work ethic."

Senior captain Kyra Delaney also turned in a superb first meet, speeding to first place in the 50 yard dash with a time of "This is a new event for Kyra, but I think this shows how versatile she is as a runner," said Mac-Donald. "She will be able to bounce back and forth between the 300m and 50yd/55m dash seamlessly throughout the season. "

Kyra also ran the first leg of the winning 4 x

400 relay team, setting the pace for a winning conclusion to the meet for the Revere team. Other first-place finishers for the Lady Patriots included Yasmin Riazi in the 600m (2:11.8), Alannah Burke in the 1000m (3:40.3), Olivia Rupp in the one mile (6:41.2), and Daniela Santana Baez in the two-mile (17:28.1).

The 4 x 400 relay team of Delaney, Rupp, Reyhan Bensadok, and Danni Hope Randall won their race in a clocking of 5:10.00, 10 seconds ahead of Everett.

Second-place performers who added three points to the Revere total included Rania Hamdani in the 300m (54.6 seconds) and Douaa Elkawakibi in the two mile (18:02.7).

Contributing single points with third place efforts were Yara Belguendouz in the 50 yard hurdles (9.1 seconds), Giselle Salvador in the 50 yard dash (7.1 seconds), Reyhan Bensadok in the 300m (56.5), and Rania Abdelhannane in the mile (7:33.6).

"After seeing how strong and fast everyone looked during this first meet, I know we're set up for a strong season," noted MacDonald. "We're already looking ahead to our next meet versus Somerville."

Captains Haley Belloise, Belma Velic and Bella Stamatopoulos and Head Coach Chris Porrazzo.

Revere's affordable housing crisis cited at RAHTF meeting

By Journal Staff

The newly-established board of the Revere Affordable Housing Trust Fund (RAHTF) held its second-ever meeting last Wednesday, December 14, in the City Council Cham-

The RAHTF, which was created last year by the Mayor Brian Arrigo and the City Council, is in the early stages of trying to determine how it can contribute to alleviating the housing affordability crisis that is having far-reaching effects not only in Revere, but throughout the country.

The RAHTF has a mandate that includes: providing programs for rental assistance; subsidies for home repairs for low-income residents and seniors to enable them to stay in their homes; emergency assistance programs; deed restrictions on new housing projects to include affordable units; and potentially constructing affordable housing projects.

On hand for the meeting were chairman Joseph Gravallese and fellow members Anayo Osueke, Laia Petri, and Jan Dumas.

The principal portion of the meeting consisted of a presentation of data by Tom Skwierawski, the city's Chief of Planning and Community Development, who painted a stark picture of the lack of affordable housing in Re-

Skwierawsk said that compared to nearby communities, Revere has the lowest household median income, but the highest rents. There are about 12,200 residents who are low-income, of whom 44 percent are extremely low-income and who would qualify for housing assistance of some kind. But right now, there is only one unit available for every seven persons in need, he told the board.

He also noted that according to Zillow, sales prices of homes in Revere have increased by 78 percent in the past seven years, from $308,000 in 2015 to $554,000 in 2022.

A typical home buyer needs an income of $109,000 to buy a median-priced home in Revere, but that far exceeds the present median household income of $73,000 of the typical Revere resident.

He noted that rents for a two-bedroom apartment have skyrocketed by 76% in the past seven years, from $1494 in 2015 to $2635 today.

Skwierawsk said that Revere presently 2,296 affordable housing units, which amount to only 7.9 percent of the city's housing stock at the present time. He said that this problem will be exacerbated in the immediate future. The percentage of affordable housing in the city will decline even further in the coming years because though there will be a large increase in the housing supply by about 3,000 units, only 60 of those units will be deed-restricted, affordable housing.

city's failure to reach the 10% threshold of affordable housing under state law could leave the city vulnerable to a development pursuant to chapter 40B, which allows developers to bypass local zoning restrictions in return for constructing affordable housing. It was pointed out that

He also noted that the

among the areas being eyed as potential sources for affordable housing development in the city are the MBTA parking lots at the Beachmont and Wonderland stations, any properties taken by tax title by the city, and the Lee Trailer Park.

The board still is working on defining its goals and creating a mission statement and to that end, Gravallese presented a number of mission statements from AHTFs in other communities.

Board members briefly discussed the hurdles for identifying the potential sources of funding and fundraising for any of its potential endeavors. The RAHTF presently has about $250,000 in its trust Gravallese also read a letter from Mayor Arrigo in which the mayor thanked the members for their volunteer service and made note of the affordable housing crisis facing the city.

The board's next meeting is scheduled for January 11.

Boudreau (who had a nice double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds) made a basket plus the foul and Nichols had a offensive rebound and put-back to make it 25-21 Everett with 3:50 remaining in the half.

Everett would use a timeout and then put together a run of their own, pushing their lead back up to 10 points with just over two minutes remaining before the intermission. Revere would then get a spark off the bench from junior forward Andrew Leone (7 points, 6 rebounds) and sophomore forward Erick Mayorga (5 points), who each knocked down open three-pointers.

Mayorga added another layup, pulling the Patriots within six points at halftime, 35-29.

The third quarter went just like the first quarter with the visiting Crimson Tide extending their defensive pressure and Revere unable to get any offense going. Everett controlled the quarter and held Revere to just eight points in the period to move out to a 50-37 advantage heading into the final eight minutes.

"We really challenged these guys in between the third and fourth quarter," said RHS head coach David Leary. "We just needed to play tougher on defense and on the boards so that we could create opportunities on offense."

The strategy soon paid dividends. On the defensive end, the Patriots held Everett to just seven points in the fourth quarter and at the other end, Nichols (who finished with 17 points and 9 rebounds) started up the offense with a smooth move to the basket and a pair of free

Boudreau, playing in his first game back from a broken collarbone he suffered during the football season, found his threepoint stroke and so too did his senior counterpart Hincapie, to help Revere seize the momentum.

Everett was clinging to a 53-51 lead with 1:47 to play and after a Revere steal, senior guard DeAngelis was fouled and stepped up to make two free throws to knot the game at 53-53. The game was very physical down the stretch and both teams went back and forth making free throws, but Everett had taken a slim, onepoint lead 57-56 with just a few seconds remaining when Revere junior forward Andrew Leone, cool under pressure, made his second free throw to send the game into overtime knotted at 57-57.

The OT session did not go as planned for the Patriots, as the bigger, more experienced Tide team executed better down the stretch, making all six of their free throws in the extra frame to hold off Revere for the 63-60 finale.

Despite the final outcome, Leary and his staff were proud of the fierce level of competitiveness exhibited by the Patriots.

"We did not know what to expect, being opening night and going up against a very good team (Everett is a pre-season top 20 team in the Herald and Globe), but our guys battled all night and did not quit," said Leary. "It's definitely something to build on and it was a great atmosphere to play in. It was nice to have our fans back!"

After the tough overtime loss to Everett, the Patriots looked to bounce back three nights later when they hosted another GBL rival, the Highlanders from Somerville.

The Patriots jumped out to an early lead behind their pressure defense and their senior captains. Nichols (6 points, 7 rebounds) and DeAngelis (6 points) got the home team going, and Vu and Hincapie (9 points, 6 steals) also added baskets during the early onslaught, boosting Revere to a 16-5 lead at the first buzzer.

The second quarter proved more of the same. Boudreau (19 points, 4 rebounds, 3 steals) drilled a pair of treys and Hincapie continued to be a pest, applying pressure to the Somerville offense.

Junior forwards Luke Ellis and Andrew Leone also chipped in with a basket apiece to help Revere increase its lead to 31-16 at the intermission.

The third quarter belonged to Boudreau, who scored 12 of the Patriots' 14 points in the frame, while the Patriots' swarming defense continued to make it tough on Somerville to get any offense going.

Revere held a commanding 45-20 advantage heading into the last quarter. Sophomore guard Day had a nice steal and layup for Revere and senior guard Maykin Funez-Gonzalez scored his first four points of the season to help the Patriots secure the victory, 53-35.

"We were not as sharp tonight as we were in the opener, but our defense fueled us and allowed us to build the lead," noted Leary. "I think these guys wanted to bounce back after the tough loss the other night and we got contributions from across the roster."

Leady and his crew were scheduled to host Lynn Classical last night (Tuesday) and will travel to the Edward M. Kennedy School of Health tomorrow (Thursday). The boys will be playing in the David Green Memorial Holiday Tournament at Winthrop High School against East Boston next Wednesday, December 28, at noon. The consolation or championship game will be the next day, Thursda,y December 29, against either Winthrop or Saugus.

RHS GIRLS BASKETBALL TOPS SOMERVILLE, 56-29

The Revere High girls basketball team rebounded from a season-opening loss at Everett last Tuesday to post a 56-29 victory at Somerville last Thursday. In the season-opener against a strong Everett team, the Lady Crimson Tide pulled after the intermission away thanks to a huge third quarter. The final score was 46-28.

Junior captain Haley Belloise (12 points, 3 rebounds, 2 assists, and 2 steals, turned in a fine allaround effort at both ends of the floor. "It was a rocky start and we're still searching for our identity on the court," noted RHS head coach Chris Porrazzo. "We are working together to figure out our chemistry," added junior captain Bella Stamatopou-

However, two nights later, the Lady Patriots put it all together at Somerville to post their first win of the 2023 season.

Belloise led the Lady Patriots in the scoring department with 16 points. Teammate Belma Velic also reached double figures with 13 points and Stamatopoulos eight.

"We were able to get back on track against Somerville," said Porrazzo. "Even though we won, we noticed a lot of things on the game film that we need to get better at. Our best basketball is ahead of us and we are going to keep working hard every day to get better."

Porrazzo and his crew were scheduled to take on Greater Boston League rival Lynn Classical last night and then will play in the Milton High Holiday Tournament during the vacation week.

A high percentage of youth who turn to drugs or overdose also have a history of mental health issues, said Bagley.

"It's really clear from the data that there are a lot of opportunities available for us to provide more overdose education, distribute more naloxone, and be able to train people on how to respond when there is an overdose," said Bagley.

Statistics show that over 60 percent of overdoses for young people happen in their own homes and with someone nearby. Nearly 70 percent of those overdoses have no response from someone who is nearby, Bagley said.

Response strategies for youth are focused on strategies of detection, prevention, and empowerment, according to Traci Green, an epidemiologist and professor at Brandeis University.

In addition to making sure people have and know how to use naloxone, Green said it's also important for there to be access to fentanyl test strips, which can help drug users determine if there is fentanyl present in drugs.

Additionally, to provide a higher level of assistance for travelers with questions about airport security screening procedures, airline passengers may now send a text using any mobile device to "AskTSA" (275-872). A virtual assistant is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. For more complicated questions, AskTSA staff are available daily from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. EST. Passengers may still reach out to AskTSA (@AskTSA) on Twitter or Facebook Messenger with questions and comments.

TSA also has several videos for parents and families to watch with young children. Our latest edition in the "TSA KIDS" series is for families traveling with gifts. TSA KIDS videos cover various travel tips, including traveling with snacks and traveling with electronics. More information on our TSA KIDS videos may be found on our while traveling: 1. Do not attempt to bring a firearm through a TSA checkpoint; doing so compromises the safety and security of other passengers and our officers in the checkpoint. Passengers who do attempt to bring a firearm through a checkpoint can expect to receive a civil penalty (fines may be as high as $15,000) and lose eligibility for TSA Pre-Check. Additionally, local law enforcement will be called and because these passengers may present additional risk beyond the firearm, they will receive enhanced screening. 2. Beyond firearms, there are other items that are not permitted in the checkpoint. These include explosives, flammables, knives, razors and replica weapons. To see if an item is prohibited, check the TSA website under "What Can I Bring?" Prepare for security when packing for your trip and be aware of what can go in carry-on or checked bags to ensure there are no prohibited items. If you can spill it, spray it, spread it, pump it or pour it, then it is subject to the 3.4-ounce limitation. As always, passengers may bring solid foods such as cakes and other baked goods through the TSA checkpoint.

3. Ensure gifts are unwrapped and can be inspected. TSA encourages those traveling with gifts this holiday season to use gift bags that can be easily opened or gift boxes with lids that can be removed, so that contents can be inspected if required. Fully wrapped gifts may need to be opened if deemed necessary by a TSA officer. Instead, consider placing your unwrapped gifts in your checked bag. 4. Bring an acceptable ID. Before heading to the airport, travelers should make sure they have acceptable identification. At many airport checkpoints, the Transportation Security Officer (TSO) may ask you to insert your physical ID into one of our new Credential Authentication Technology units. Residents of Arizona, Colorado and Maryland may even use their Apple mobile device to store their ID in Apple Wallet and use their mobile device in certain TSA PreCheck lanes at participating airports. 5. Become a Trusted Traveler. The TSA Pre-Check program offers expedited security screening at the airport, connecting low-risk passengers with a more efficient air travel experience. Just in time for the holidays, the enrollment fee dropped from $85 to $78 for a five-year membership. Online renewals cost just $70. TSA PreCheck members keep their shoes, belts and light jackets on and their laptops and liquids in their carry-on bags. Program member benefits include less physical contact, fewer items on the conveyor belt, and faster screening. Many new enrollees receive a known traveler number within three to five

6. Request passenger support. Travelers or families of passengers with disabilities and/or medical conditions may call the TSA Cares helpline toll free at 855-787-2227 at least 72 hours prior to travel with any questions about screening procedures and to find out what to expect at the security checkpoint. TSA Cares also arranges assistance at the checkpoint for travelers with specific needs. 7. @AskTSA. Travelers can get assistance in real time by submitting their questions and comments to @AskTSA on Twitter, Facebook Messenger and via text message using any mobile device to "AskT-SA" (275-872). An automated virtual assistant is available 24/7 while staff is available from 8 a.m. to the TSA Contact Center at 866-289-9673. Staff is available from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on weekdays and 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekends/ holidays; and an automated service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. 8. If You See Something.

6 p.m. EST daily, including holidays and weekends.

Travelers may also reach

Say Something®. Public awareness remains a key element in transportation security and we all play a role in keeping our communities safe. For additional information, please visit the DHS website. 9. Practice good cybersecurity habits. Effective cybersecurity habits are not limited to the home or office. Those who are traveling – whether domestically or internationally - should continue to practice safe online behaviors. Take proactive steps to secure internet-enabled devices. Practice the concept of stop, think and connect prior to connecting to any public wireless hotspot, such as those at airports, hotels and cafés. For more cybersecu-rity tips, visit cisa.gov.

10. Show gratitude to frontline workers. Thank a TSO, a flight attendant, a gate agent or someone who serves at the frontlines of transportation. TSOs complete about 200 hours of training to become certified and are committed to transportation security while ensuring all travelers are treated with respect and courtesy. Pack an extra dose of patience, especially during higher passenger volume travel days, and show gratitude to those who are working diligently to get everyone to their destinations safely.

HAPPY 80TH BIRTHDAY, JACK JONES!

Recently Revere resident Jack Jones celebrated turning 80 years old. This did not stop Jack, his family, and friends from celebrating this milestone in a big way. The Casa Lucia was the place to celebrate and enjoy each other's company and dance the night away to the many hits played by the DJ. Cake cutting, toasting to his health, and dancing all night was put on hold to take a family picture for posterity.

City and school officials have called upon the federal government to help them make schools safer in Revere and across the country, with Mayor Dan Rizzo suggesting that members of the National Guard conduct their required service at school entrances. After the unspeakable events that transpired last Friday morning in Newtown, CT, the country has been sent into a state of despair. Yet, at the same time, local leaders and parents of school-aged children across the country also focused on what could be done to prevent such a tragedy in their own com-

Mayor George V. Colella has announced a full-scale investigation into a report by Channel 7 News that a large-scale fencing operation is flourishing in Revere thanks to protection from the Revere Police Dept. The three-part series by reporters Mike Taibbi and Carlton Sherwood charged that a local business on Squire Road was a front for the operation, with thieves bringing their loot daily to the store. The report alleged that 14-20 Revere police officers were aware of the operation.

Revere School Committee members no longer are facing contempt of court charges and possible incarceration for their failure to reinstate RHS hockey coach Richard Champa after the State Labor Relations Board ordered his reinstatement. Champa brought his lawsuit on the basis that the School Committee refused to rehire him to the post in retaliation for his activities on behalf of the Revere Teachers Union in his capacity as president of the union. When a single justice of the Mass. Appeals Court threatened to send the committee members to jail if they did not rehire Champa, they voted 4-1 to do so. When committee member John Correggio filed for reconsideration of that vote, the single justice again threatened incarceration, and Correggio hastily went to City Hall to withdraw his motion. The matter has been in the legal system for more than a year. Jimmy Palumbo filled in as head coach for Cham-

ASMAA ABOU-FOUDA IS DECEMBER 2022'S PUBLIC SERVANT OF THE MONTH

At the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, the City of Revere knew there was more they could do when it came to translating and interpreting important public health communications for various Revere communities. Asmaa Abou-Fouda, currently Revere's Language Access Specialist, stepped up to the plate the first week of the pandemic's spread through our community by filming and interpreting the Mayor's COVID-19 messages into Arabic. As one of the largest Arabic-speaking communities in the Commonwealth, the need for reliable communication at this time was imperative. So much, in fact, that regional Arabic speakers turned to Asmaa's videos at the height of the pandemic to hear important information about the spread, masking, and vaccination clinics when their own cities fell short. Through her work in bridging the gap between the Arabic-speaking community of Revere, Asmaa Abou-Fouda is a clear winner of the Public

I also translated the Mayor's weekly press releases and recorded daily Revere TV videos to inform the Arabic community about resources and updates. Revere is my home and I want to continue working and giving back to my community. Q: What do you do for the City of Revere? A: I'm the Language Access Specialist working to ensure all information released by the city is translated into all major languages, such as Spanish, Arabic, and Portuguese. From flyers to videos, I work to ensure everyone has access to all resources and updates! I am also on the City Disability Commission to help families with kids with disabilities and get them the help they need, Q: What do you wish more people in the City knew about your work?

A: I wish for everyone in the city to know about and have access to all the translations and resources available to them, that way they feel included and aware of the tools available to them. I also want people to know that my role is also under the Talent and Culture department and I want to represent the different cultures in Revere. For example, I helped in the Flag Raisings of Latin Flags, helped the city host a watch party for the World Cup, and hosted the first Ramadan Iftar Dinner 2022. I want

Baker signs executive order to establish Massachusetts Cyber Incident Response Team

Special to the Journal

Governor Charlie Baker signed an executive order to establish the Massachusetts Cyber Incident Response Team (MA-CIRT). Led by the Secretary of the Executive Office of Technology Services and Security (EOTSS), MA-CIRT is established with the mission of enhancing the Commonwealth's ability to prepare for, respond to, mitigate against, and recover from significant cybersecurity threats. The Governor signed the executive order as Massachusetts and other jurisdictions confront an overall increase in cybersecurity threats to websites and networks.

"State governments and other organizations across the country are increasingly being targeted by bad actors aiming to disrupt operations and compromise information systems," said Governor Charlie Baker. "This executive order will further strengthen the Commonwealth's policies, procedures, and resources required to prevent potential threats and appropriately respond to attacks on government infrastructure and services. As state governments expand their digital footprints, moving more services online and allowing for a more connected workforce, it's critical that we make the necessary investments to protect this critical technology infrastructure from acts of terrorism and criminal, organized crime, and gang activity."

"With my background in public safety, I know the importance that leadership buy-in plays in swift, organized, and effective response to an external threat," said Secretary of Technology Services and Security Curt Wood, "The Baker-Polito Administration is once again leading from the front on government cybersecurity and I thank Governor Baker, Lt. Governor Polito, and my fellow leaders in cybersecurity and public safety for their partnership on the issuance of this critical executive order that will serve the Commonwealth for years to come."

Under the direction of the EOTSS Secretary, the formation of MA-CIRT convenes cybersecurity and public safety experts from across state government as required members, including leadership representatives from: • The Executive Office of Technology Services and

• The Commonwealth Security Operations Center

• The Executive Office of Public Safety and Security • The Commonwealth

Fusion Center The Massachusetts

State Police Cyber Crime • The Massachusetts National Guard The Massachusetts

Emergency Management Agency The Executive Order reinforces Massachusetts as a leader in cybersecurity enhancement efforts through a variety of strategies. To prevent against attacks and increase the Commonwealth's cybersecurity resiliency, the Order underscores the need for preparing for and marshalling a coordinated response, mitigation, and recovery effort from significant cybersecurity threats or incidents. Additionally, the Order: Requires MA-CIRT to review cybersecurity threat information and vulnerabilities to make informed recommendations and establish appropriate policies to manage the risk of cyber incidents for executive department agencies and all other state agencies served by EOTSS. • Requires MA-CIRT to develop and maintain an up-to-date Cyber Incident Response Plan, which will guide the actions of the Commonwealth's key public safety and information security and technology teams, state agency resources, and security professionals in responding to and minimizing the impact of significant cybersecurity threats to Commonwealth systems. The Plan is required to be submitted annually to the Governor for review and approval. • Empowers the EOTSS

Secretary to serve as MA-CIRT lead, with the approval of the Governor, to direct MA-CIRT in response to a significant cyber incident. • Requires the routine exchange of information related to cybersecurity threats and reported incidents between the Commonwealth

Fusion Center and the Commonwealth Security Operations Center. • Requires EOTSS and MA-CIRT to consult with the Massachusetts Cyber Center and assist the Center with efforts to foster cybersecurity resiliency through communications, collaboration, and outreach to state agencies,

National Grid prepares for winter storm to impact Massachusetts

National Grid is preparing for a winter storm to potentially impact Massachusetts Thursday night through early Saturday morning, bringing a wintry mix of snow and rain along with strong winds into the region.

National Grid is preparing for this storm by securing more than 300 fieldbased crews and about 1,000 personnel as part of the company's our emergency response operations. This includes overhead line, forestry, contractors, underground, damage assessment, wires down, transmission, and substation workers.

The company has been preparing for the storm for several days, and is continuing to monitor the weather, communicating with local officials, first responders, and life support customers.

The Company offers the following tips and remind-

Customers Should Stay Connected: • Report power outages

- at www.nationalgridus.com or call 1-800-465-1212. • Use your mobile device to track outage infor-
- mation and storm-related safety tips through National Grid's mobile site accessible at www.ngrid.com/mo-• Like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter

for Winter Storm to Impact Massachusetts

Customers should stay connected for updates

- Track outages and estimated restoration times at www.nationalgridus.com/ outage-central • To stay connected
- during storms and outages, text to 64743 using any of the below commands.
- o REG to sign up for text alerts
- o OUT to report an outage
- o SUM followed by your town, county, or state to get a summary of outages in your area
- o HELP for the full list of commands

Stay safe:

• Never touch downed power lines, and always assume that any fallen lines are live electric wires. If you see one, report it immediately to National Grid or your local emergency response organization.

- Power problems can sometimes interrupt public water supply systems or disable well pumps, so it's an especially good idea to keep a supply of bottled drinking water handy, as well as some canned food. • People who depend on
- electric-powered life support equipment, such as a respirator, should let National Grid know. To register as a life support customer, call the company's Customer Service Center at 1-800-322-3223. · Check on elderly fam-
- ily members, neighbors and others who may need assistance during an outage

Electric safety:

- If you use a generator to supply power during an outage, be sure to operate it outdoors. Before operating generators, disconnect from National Grid's system by shutting off the main breaker located in the electric service panel. Failure to do this could jeopardize the safety of line crews and the public.
- If you lose power, turn off any appliances that were on when the power went off, but leave one light on so you will know when power is restored. Gas Safety

- If you suspect a natural gas leak:
- Get Out All occupants should leave the house immediately. Do not use the telephone or light switches for any reason.

- Call Us After leaving the house and reaching a safe environment, call the National Grid 24-hour gas emergency numbers:
- New England:1-800-640-1595
- Stay Out Do not return to your home until National Grid tells you it is safe.

Reminder: It's not safe to work in an elevated bucket during periods of increased wind gusts. Our line workers begin restoration work only when conditions are deemed safe.

Officials remind residents about the importance of flu and COVID-19 vaccinations

With flu season underway, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health (DPH) is reminding residents of all ages to get vaccinated. Flu activity across the country is higher than usual so far this year. Residents can get both a flu shot and a COVID-19 booster in the same visit.

"This flu season, residents can protect themselves and their families by getting a flu vaccine even if they haven't gotten a vaccine in years past," said Public Health Commissioner Margret Cooke. "It's easy to get your flu shot along with your COVID-19 booster and both vaccines are widely available."

The flu can lead to serious illness, hospitalization, or death. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) estimates that there have already been 13 million cases, 120,000 hospitalizations, and 7,300 deaths due to flu this season. The most common symptoms of flu are fever, cough, and sore throat. Symptoms can also include body aches, headaches, chills, runny nose, and fatigue. Flu vaccination is especially important for people who are at higher risk of severe disease which could result in hospitalization or death. People at higher risk include those under 2 years, and anyone with a chronic respiratory condition, heart disease, a weakened immune system, or who is pregnant. Antiviral medications, such as Tamiflu, are available with a prescription to help reduce disease sever-

"Everyone over the age of 6 months is eligible for both the flu and COVID vaccines and can receive both vaccines at the same time. Spending time around more people increases the chances you will be exposed to one or more viruses," said Dr. Larry Madoff, Medical Director of DPH's Bureau of Infectious Disease and Laboratory Sciences. "The current flu vaccine is a good match to the circulating strains and gives you the antibodies you need to help fight off infection."

COVID and flu vaccines are both widely available for everyone 6 months and older. Other actions that people can take to help prevent the spread of respiratory illnesses like the flu and COVID-19 include staying home when sick, keeping children home from daycare or school if sick, covering coughs and sneezes, and practicing good handwashing hy-

LODGE OF ELKS 1171 DELIVERS ANNUAL HOLIDAY DINNER BASKETS TO LOCAL FAMILIES

The Revere Lodge of Elks annually prepares dinner baskets for the holiday season, to help Revere families in need. Members are asked to submit names and addresses of families that may need a little help with the holiday dinner menu.

This year RHS students Sophomore Victoria Constantineau and Freshman Jackson Martel stopped down to help with the task for community service, led by mentor Mary Ann Gaff. The baskets were prepared and set for delivery last Sunday morning.

NFPA urges caution as Christmas and Christmas Eve are among leading days of the year for U.S. home fires two civilian deaths, 11 ci-

Special to the Journal

Many hallmarks of the holiday season, including Christmas trees, holiday decorations, and festive meals, present potential fire hazards that contribute to an annual increase in U.S. home fires at this time of year. According to the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), Christmas Day and Christmas Eve are among the leading days of the year for home fires.

"December is a leading month for home fires, in large part because many of the activities we engage in during the holiday season reflect leading causes of home fires year-round," said Lorraine Carli, NFPA vice president of Outreach and Advocacy. "Plus, as colder temperatures impact much of the country, use of heating equipment increases significantly."

Fortunately, Carli notes, the majority of winter fires can be prevented with a little added awareness and planning.

"By knowing where potential fire hazards exist and taking some basic safety precautions to prevent them, people can enjoy a festive, fire-free holiday season," said Carli.

The NFPA Winter Holidays page offers a wide variety of tips and resources to reduce the risk of fires, while the latest NFPA statistics underscore the increased risk of fire during the holiday season and beyond:

Christmas Trees

• An estimated average of 160 home fires involving Christmas trees caused vilian injuries, and $12 million in direct property damage per year between 2016 and 2020.

- Some type of electrical distribution or lighting equipment, including decorative lights, was involved in more than two of five (44 percent) of home Christmas tree fires. Nearly one in five Christmas tree fires (19 percent) were started by decorative lights.
- The majority (74 percent) of Christmas tree fires occur in December and January.

Decorations

- An estimated average of 790 home fires that began when decorations (other than Christmas trees) caught fire caused an average of one civilian death, 26 civilian injuries and $13 million in direct property damage per year between 2015 and 2019.
- One in five home dec-December.
- Year-round, 35 percent of home decoration fires began with candles; in December, the number jumped to 45 percent.
- In more than two of every five fires (44 percent) involving decorations, the decoration was too close to a heat source such as a candle, cooking or heating equipment.

Candles

• An estimated average of 7,400 home fires (2 percent) started by candles caused an average of 90 civilian deaths (three percent), 670 civilian injuries (6 percent), and $291 million (4 percent) in direct property damage per year between 2015 and 2019.

- Candle fires peak in December and January with 11 percent of candle fires in each of these
- In three of every five candle fires, the candle was too close to something that could catch fire.
- Christmas is the peak day for candle fires with roughly 2.5 times the daily average; Christmas Eve ranked second.
- Falling asleep was a factor in 10 percent of the home candle fires and 12 percent of the associated deaths.

Cooking

- Cooking is the leading cause of reported home fires (49 percent) and home fire injuries and the second-leading cause of home fire deaths.
- Unattended cooking is the leading cause of home cooking fires.
- Thanksgiving is the peak day for home cookoration fires occurred in ing fires, followed by Christmas Day and Christmas Eve.

Fires caused by heating equipment, the second-leading cause of U.S. home fires year-round, peak during the winter months, when temperatures drop and more people use heating equipment to keep their homes warm. Put a Freeze on Winter Fires, an annual NFPA campaign with the U.S. Fire Administration (USFA), works to educate the public about ways to stay safe during the colder months, offering tip sheets and other resources to help reduce the risk of heating fires and other winter hazards.
