RHS World Languages inducts new members into National Honor Society

Special to the Journal

A recent university study has shown that studying world languages creates more positive attitudes and less prejudice toward people who are different. Studying a world language also improves skills and grades in math and English, encourages respect for other people, expands one's view of the world, makes one more flexible and tolerant, limits the barriers between people and improves the chances of getting a good-paying job.

Earlier this month, Re-juniors and seniors who are rigorously studying Spanish, Italian or French were inducted into the school's World Language

National Honor Society.
For over two decades,
Revere Public Schools
(RPS) has offered World Language studies and the opportunity for the most proficient high school students to be invited into the Spanish, French or Italian Honor Societies. RPS is also excited to be launching the Japanese

"Since the language
honor societies are sepa-

a little different for each society, but generally, the good overall GPA, an even better GPA in the language that they study and must to complete a certain num-and are then nominated at the end of their second seno discipline issues, aca-

Revere Police receive JAG grant

By Adam Swift

Last week, the Healey-Driscoll administration announced that Revere was one of 130 police departments across the state awarded an Edward J.
Byrne Justice Assistance
Grant (JAG).
The Revere Police Department received $13,469 of the $5 million in funds awarded by the Department of Justice to the Office of Grants and Research (OGR). The grants are meant to help police departments address their unmet public safety priorities.
As part of the competitive grant process, applicant police departments submitted proposals in early 2023. Grant reviewers identified projects that aligned with specific priority areas, including strategies to address unlawful drug use, human trafficking, domestic violence, sexual assault, gang and gun violence, missing person cases, and hate crimes.

Additional priorities fundery single vote was counted and that the people who took the time to either early vote, mail in vote, or absentee vote are ensured that their vote was adequately represented in the final totals,” Rizzo stated. “I had asked for a reconciliation of all the ballots, which was refused, so there was no other way to receive that information other than filing for a formal recount. This is part of the political process, and I look forward to completing the recount in a timely manner.”

Keefe, who took over as Acting Mayor early in the year when Arrigo left for the top job at the DCR, released his own statement in response to Rizzo’s request for the recount.

“It is truly disheartening, that after having conceded, my opponent has made the decision to pursue an unnecessary and costly recount of an election he lost,” stated Keefe.

Keefe went on to note that while the recount was disheartening, it was not surprising, given that Rizzo also requested a recount in one of his losses to Arrigo. However, Keefe noted that his margin of victory was widest of any Rizzo has requested a recount for.

Throughout the campaign, Keefe said there were no questions or concerns raised about the city’s handling of early voting, and that both campaigns were present to monitor the process.

Fahey said that if there are any questions about the integrity of a vote or problems with voting or ballots, they should be directed to the election office.

In his statement, Keefe also claimed that supporters and observers from Rizzo’s camp “found it necessary to throw racially charged accusations” at some voters, but found no reason to actually file a claim with the election officials present.

Keefe said he will not let the recount process slow down his administration.

“In the coming days, our administration will move forward with a transition team and inauguration plans,” Keefe stated. “City Hall will continue to work on behalf of its residents. Brighter days are ahead for our city. May we all look forward to celebrating a bright holiday season together.”

The first portion of the recount will take place on Friday, Dec. 1 beginning at 9 a.m., when the election department will sort the cast ballots into blocks of 50 for the hand count at City Hall in the council chambers. There will be 10 clerks blocking the ballots in preparation for the recount.

The recount itself will take place on Saturday, Dec. 2 beginning at 9 a.m. at the Revere High School Gymnasium, fieldhouse entrance. There will be 24 tally clerks hand counting the ballots and recording the count results, according to Fahey.

The cost of the recount will be borne by the city, Fahey added. The final cost will depend on factors including the overtime and detail pay for police officers and maintenance workers at the high school and the pay for the clerks. Fahey estimated the final cost could be around $20,000-$25,000.

Serena Hanlon turned 50, and being a member of the Revere Elks, her brothers and sisters from Lodge 1171 on Shirley Ave all turned out to wish her a very happy birthday.

The concert program will include traditional holiday music and an original holiday-themed narration by a Revere High School student. “The concert bears my father’s name,” said Marra, “and I am sure he’d be so pleased that his beloved North Shore Philharmonic Orchestra carries on this tradition, and that an RHS student has a role in this concert.”

REVERE STUDENTS IN IGNITE READING’S TUTORING PROGRAM

In the first full school year after the launch of Ignite Reading’s partnership with Revere Public Schools (RPS), the organization announced today that students participating in the virtual, one-to-one literacy tutoring program have recorded an average of over two weeks of reading progress per week, with no achievement gap for students of color, students with IEPs, multilingual learners, or students receiving free or reduced-price lunches. Ignite Reading officials joined leaders and students at A.C. Whelan Elementary today to showcase the nationally recognized program. The demonstration was followed by a Q&A session.

Revere Public Schools

also announced that enrollment in Ignite Reading will serve 375 1st - 3rd grade students this fall. Ignite Reading is now serving students in 60 schools across the commonwealth.

“We are absolutely delighted to share the remarkable literacy progress our students achieved through this innovative collaboration with Ignite Reading. Participating students have gained vital foundational skills for their reading journeys. Moreover, the program’s capacity to foster success for students from diverse backgrounds and with distinct learning styles has been impressive. We look forward to continuing this partnership well into the future,” said Briana Tsoupas, Revere Public Schools Assistant Director of Curriculum & Title I Director.

Ignite Reading pairs students with expert tutors who deliver daily, 15-minute, Science of Reading-based instruction to help them master the key foundational skills that equip them to become independent readers. The one-to-one virtual program is seamlessly integrated into the school day and takes some of the burden off teachers by providing individualized instruction for every student.

The company is now teaching thousands of students to read across eight states with further plans to expand nationwide. In addition to Massachusetts, Ignite Reading is partnering with schools and districts to serve thousands of students in Arkansas, California, Colorado, Indiana, Mississippi, New York, and Oregon this fall.

“We are excited about deepening our collaboration with Revere schools to empower hundreds of more local students with enhanced literacy skills. Through Ignite Reading’s one-on-one tutoring approach, students are not just meeting, but exceeding anticipated benchmarks, making over two weeks of reading progress for every week in the program. Alongside the marked improvement in literacy, we are also witnessing a significant positive impact on their social-emotional development. It is a privilege to continue serving Revere’s exceptional students, families, and educational institutions,” said Jessica Reid Sliwerski, Founder & CEO of Ignite Reading.

Ignite Reading’s mission is to ensure that every student is a confident, independent reader by the end of first grade. The organization was co-founded by CEO Jessica Reid Sliwerski and Evan Marwell, Executive Chairman of Ignite and CEO of EducationSuperHighway. Ignite Reading pairs schools with a dedicated literacy specialist and a team of virtual reading tutors, all highly trained in the Science of Reading, who deliver 1:1 daily instruction to students focused on their specific decoding gaps.

vestigative tools and protective gear, school safety and security, and efforts to advance racial equity and support underserved communities.

The Revere Police Department applied for a $20,227 grant to help fund school and community outreach programs, as well as to expand and enhance domestic violence services, according to Police Chief David Callahan.

“Since Covid, domestic violence cases and matters have dramatically increased, and the numbers continue to be up and high, so we use that for additional training and supplementing the domestic violence unit with overtime,” Callahan told the City Council in August.

Some of the community outreach initiatives funded in part through the JAG program include the boxing program for the schools and the honor guard.

“This program invests federal funds to make Massachusetts communities safer and stronger,” said Governor Maura Healey. “This program allows towns and cities to identify their most pressing needs and direct funding to address those challenges. The ability of local public safety leaders to guide funds toward priority safety initiatives encourages a holistic approach to improving safety in communities with diverse needs.”

State Secretary of Public Safety and Security Terrence Reidy said the state is committed to providing local law enforcement and first responders with the support they need to promote safe communities.

“Investments from programs like this help ensure our communities are safe and thriving,” said Lt. Governor Kimberly Driscoll. “The grant awards announced today will ensure that Massachusetts towns and cities have the resources they need to promote the safety of everyone in their communities.”

“The great thing about

Revere is that you can start learning Spanish more early on, so I did Spanish in seventh and eighth grade and then took an online course in Spanish,” said Safaa, who is studying AP Spanish this year. “I feel like that set me up Safaa said that even though she hasn't taken Spanish for four consecutive years, she was able to develop fluency at a younger age thanks to Revere Public Schools.

“It just carries on with you, and I feel like it's broadened me to not only the language itself but also the culture,” said Safaa.

Last summer, Safaa got to travel to Spain and use her language skills abroad.

“I feel like not only did learning the language make it easier for me to travel there, but we were also exposed to the culture of Spain and Latin America in the classroom as well,” said Safaa. “I feel going there, for me, opened up a new perspec-

“I started Italian my freshman year and I really loved it,” said Camila, who already speaks English and Spanish at home. “The teachers were great and I learned so much to the point where I decided to study abroad to learn more about the language and culture.”

Camila said Italy was amazing and it was an awesome experience to be able to converse with people in places like Rome.

“The course at RHS really prepared me for that trip, and most of the Italian I learned in Italian 1, 2 and 3 was super helpful when traveling around Italy,” said Camila. “My dad used to live in Italy and he taught me love for the culture and the language, so that's why I decided to take Italian as a freshman and loved it. So, to be able to go there and see my father's friends and travel around was a great experience.”

Chalupka added that it's important to note that, like Safaa and Camila, many of the students enrolled in World Language at RHS are not just bilingual but trilingual or more.

“It is really indicative of our school community and Revere as a whole,” said Chalupka. “You know, we are more than ever a multilingual community, and these students really represent the diversity of languages and cultures and all the assets that we have here. It's really something special.”

A.C. Whelan School hosts Kindergarten ABC Fashion Show

By Melissa Moore-Randall

A.C. Whelan Kindergartners recently completed their ABC bootcamp. They worked on one letter every day for 26 days. To celebrate their accomplishment, they had an ABC Fashion show last week. Each student was given a vest with their assigned letter. They took the vest home and decorated their vests with their families. It was a true team effort. The Kindergarten teachers collaborated with the art teacher, Ms. Matos, and music teacher, Mr. Delmonte. Ms. Matos worked with the students to complete alphabet art work to hang in the auditorium, and Mr. Delmonte helped the students practice the songs that they sang at the end of the show. The technology teacher, Ms. Paone, recorded the show. The students ended their show with a parade around the school showing off their vests with pride and excitement.

Principal Rachel Shanley was so excited for the production. "I am so pleased with the Kindergarten ABC Fashion Show. It was a beautiful way to celebrate students alongside families and caregivers. Students, families and staff sang and danced along with our kindergarten students. Today was their day to shine. I'm so proud of all of them. This was a wonderful event for the whole Whelan community. One student said, "I felt like the king of the universe." Thank you to our amazing and dedicated kindergarten team of teachers! Seeing our students smile and beam with pride made my day."

and food under a tent outside of the gym. The cornhole tournament itself will be held indoors.

"This sounds like a great event," said Guinasso. There were no opponents and the commission unanimously approved the application.

The commission then held a hearing into "late-night noise complaints caused by patrons in Wonderland parking lot. The problem seems to be that people are hanging out in the parking lot after closing time and playing their car radios loudly," said Selevitch, who also noted that patrons are doing spin-outs in the parking lot.

Charles Delpidio, the manager for Wonderland Entertainment, LLC d/b/a Oceanside Events Center, 1290 North Shore Road, said he spoke with the Revere Police detail officer, who said that the police are there with a patrol car with its lights flashing and trying their best to control the situation.

"Thank God it's getting cold out, because that will cause things to calm down. It's just the warmer weather that makes things difficult," said Delpidio, who noted that the problems actually are occurring in the large MBTA parking lot that is adjacent to the nightclub.

"We realize the difficulty you're facing," said Selevitch. "You just have to do your best with moving people along."

"We know you can't make it perfect, but try to do better," added Guinasso, who noted that the area formerly was commercial, but now has become residential. "That area has changed. We're just asking that you be considerate of the neighbors."

The commission took no further action on the matter.

The commission adjourned until its next meeting on December 20.

Council updated on overdose outreach work

By Adam Swift

Lauren Buck, the city's Chief of Health and Human Services, appeared before the City Council last week to provide an update on the city's overdose outreach program in the wake of the death of Chris Alba.

Alba, who was the city's main outreach worker and hard reduction specialist in the Substance Use Disorder and Homelessness Initiatives (SUDHI) office, died a little over two months ago.

"He's really an irreplaceable presence in the harm reduction outreach worker community, not just for Revere, but for the state and really, the country," said Buck.

Buck said the post-overdose outreach work is a small but important part of the SUDHI office.

"It's a program where we receive data from first responders, (such as) Cataldo Ambulance and the Revere Police Department, and we use that data to do outreach to people who recently overdosed," said Buck. "It's an evidence-based approach that takes into account that somebody who has overdosed has a higher risk of overdosing again."

Buck said the outreach team will make several attempts at different times of the day to connect with the people who overdosed either at a personal or business address.

In addition to providing information and resources, the outreach workers also provide a Narcan kit along with information about how to use Narcan and how to identify an overdose.

Prior to Alba's death, Buck said the SUDHI department hired an additional part-time outreach worker. Still, she said there was a need to replace Alba, as well as a need for additional support for the program.

Since Alba's death, Buck said the city has continued to do the overdose outreach work through the cooperation of the SUDHI, fire department behavioral health unit, and the public health department. Buck said the city also continues to make sure it can connect people who are either homeless or struggling with substance use to the housing programs that are available through the state.

According to state data, there were 21 opioid-related deaths in Revere in 2020, 25 in 2021, and 30 in 2022.

"According to the city's own internal data, so this could be subject to change, as of October we had 16 opioid-related deaths and a total of 101 overdoses in the city," said Buck.

Buck stated that this year, there was a reorganization of city government that put SUDHI under the public health department. While that has helped with administrative costs and work, Buck said there is still a need for the boots on the ground SUDHI workers for outreach and other important initiatives.

OBITUARIES

Timothy Leonard

He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed

Timothy J. Leonard, 38, of Gardner, MA passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, November 11. He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

Timothy, or Timmy (affectionately pronounced Tim-Ah by family and close friends), was born on January 20, 1985, joining his older sister, Elizabeth as one of the first grandchildren in the family. By age eight, Timmy had 12 cousins.

As a child, he loved playing and exploring in the woods at Grandma’s house with his sister and cousins. He loved to half-joke, half-be honest while goofing around with friends and family, play tag, stack wood for the campfires, DIY- slip n slides, playing video games, arguing over which Mortal Kombat character was best and all other kinds of mischief after school and during weekend activities.

Timmy spent his life surrounded by love. He enjoyed camping, swimming, sledding, playing touch football at Thanksgiving, and playing with his dogs. Timmy stayed close with his family and friends.

Timmy was known to his friends and family as someone who would always help when he could. If you were looking for company, or someone to help you shovel snow, Timmy would be there. Timmy’s idea of a great night was around a campfire with family, good friends, the dog, and good snacks. Not chocolate though, as sweets never held much appeal for him. Timothy loved many pets throughout his life, and will now be smiling down at us while playing tug-of-war with his dog, Buster.

Timmy was upbeat and caring with others and always found a way to laugh. Timmy did his best to be a hard worker and to find a way to help others.

Timothy is survived by his mother, Ewaugh Leonard, sister, Elizabeth Leonard and her fiancé, Eric Martin and Eric’s sibling, Conor Lamoureux, great uncle, Edward Kangas, great aunt, Carol Vincent-Pennington, aunts and uncles, Mary Ellen and Jack Craft, Annie Rice, Roland Jr. and Gail Rice, Herbert and Christine Rice, Kim Erickson, William Leonard, Thomas Leonard, Daniel Benedict; cousins: Angela Craft, Danielle Rice, Charles Derby, Joseph Benavidez, Seth and Rachel Rice, Matthew Rice, Kristen Rice, Brandon Carmarato, Brandi and Scott Daigle, Jessica Leblanc, Michael Benedict, close friend, Crystal Wiles and second cousins. Timothy was predeceased by his father, James Leonard Jr, aunt, MaryAnn Benedict, cousin, Alex Benavidez, and grandparents, Roland and Beverly (Kangas) Rice and James and Mary (Vincent) Leonard, and many great aunts and uncles and his beloved dog, Buster.

You can only have one mother.
Patient kind and true;
No other friend in all the world will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you,
To mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture, sweet memories we recall
Of a face so full of sunshine, and a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message, to our dear mother up above;
Tell her how we miss her,
and give her all our love.

Giuseppe Leone

His unmatched work ethic was met with his immense love for his family

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Anthony of Padua Church for Giuseppe “Joe” Leone, 77 years of age, who passed away peacefully at his home surrounded by his loving family on Tuesday, November 14th. Entombment was in the Community Mausoleum at Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden.

One of six children, Joe was born in Bracigliano, Italy on October 5, 1946 to his late parents, Luigi and Viola Leone. As a teenager, Joe packed up his life and moved to Springfield, MA with only a few dollars in his pocket in pursuit of the “American Dream.” He briefly returned to Italy to marry his wife, Anna Maria, and they came back together, settled in East Boston and welcomed three beautiful children. Soon after, he and his wife moved to Revere and have been proud Revere residents for over 40 years.

A jack of all trades, Joe started working in construction (bricklaying and gunite pools) at a young age, proudly owned and operated an auto body business in East Boston for 25 years, and then worked at Mass General Hospital for 10 years before retiring.

He was the family handyman, teaching his children and grandchildren how to build and fix things. Joe had an impeccable eye for detail and took great pride in all of the work that he did. His unmatched work ethic was met with his immense love for his family. Family meant everything to him, especially his grandchildren.

Outside of work and family, Joe enjoyed taking care of his abundant gardens and spending time in his yard sipping espresso while playing card games with his family and friends.

Joe is survived by his loving wife, Anna Maria Leone and his children: Emilio and his wife, Josephine Leone of Peabody, Joanna and her husband, Michael Hill and John and his wife, Joy Leone, all of Revere; cherished grandfather, “Papa” of Michael J. Hill, Joseph Leone, Nicholas Leone, Vanessa Leone, Gianni Hill, John E. Leone, Emilio J. Leone, Steven Leone, Andrew Leone and Matthew Leone. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Cynthia Recchia

Beloved mother, grandmother and friend

Cynthia Recchia, 83, of Revere, passed away on November 16.

A beloved mother, grandmother and friend, she will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Cynthia was a graduate of Malden High School and went on to have a successful career as an insurance agent at the family insurance company, Claremont Insurance Company. It was at this company that she met her husband, Alphonse “Fonzo”, who came in as a customer. Their love story began with a date and eventually led to 53 years of marriage.

In her free time, Cynthia enjoyed being a member of the Red Hats Society. She took great pride in her home and loved the holidays, especially baking and cooking for her family.

Cynthia is survived by her children: Cynthia and husband, Jeffrey Graff of Lynnfield and Julia and husband, Nicholas Bisconti of Lynnfield. She also leaves behind her grandchildren, Zachary Bisconti, Nicholas Bisconti, and Lauren Graff. Cynthia was preceded in death by her husband, Alphonse, her father, Saverio Paventi, her mother, Antoinette (Giovanni) Paventi (Giovanni), and her brother, Victor Paventi.

A Funeral Mass was celebrated on Monday, November 20 at Saint Mary of the Assumption Parish, 670 Washington Ave, Revere followed by interment at Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

We extend our deepest condolences to Cynthia’s family and friends during this difficult time. May her memory live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

A Harris poll a few years ago revealed that Christmas is the favorite holiday of the year among all age groups of Americans, but we think that Thanksgiving, our uniquely American holiday, has much more to recommend it than Christmas. Thanksgiving has its roots with the Pilgrims, long before the concept of a United States had crossed anyone’s mind. It always has been a secular celebration of peace and relaxation. It simply is a day to be grateful for what we have, however much that may be.

Thanksgiving is a day of no pressure. It is the ultimate family-centered holiday. It has no religious meaning, no national-celebration connotations, and no required gift-giving. It lacks the commercialism, solemnity, and political overtones of all of our other national observances. In a world where anxiety follows us 24/7, Thanksgiving provides a welcome respite from the commercialism that accompanies Christmas and most of our other holidays. There is no obligation to spend a lot of money (that many of us do not have in the first place) to buy the perfect gift in order to be the perfect spouse, or the perfect parent, or the perfect friend. Thanksgiving demands nothing more from each of us (other than for the person who is doing all the cooking!) beyond just showing up and enjoying the company of our family and friends and then having a great meal.

When we think of the Christmas vs. Thanksgiving debate, we think it’s analogous to the late comedian George Carlin’s skit about football vs. baseball (check it out on YouTube if you’ve never seen it). Football is the equivalent of war, while baseball is all about going home. Similarly, while Christmas epitomizes our hyper-capitalist, consumerist, and frenetic society, Thanksgiving is its antithesis.

Thanksgiving is a national celebration that serves to remind us how blessed we are at a time when circumstances are so cruel for so many others in a world in which there are more refugees than at any time since the end of World War II. Despite our own trials and tribulations, Thanksgiving reminds us how remarkably fortunate we are to live in this country. And in a day and age when so many of us are connected 24/7 to some instrument of communication, it truly is a relief to have a day when we can just shut it all off (other than perhaps watching a football game.)

We wish all of our readers a happy -- and restful -- Thanksgiving.

LET’S GO REVERE -- BEAT WINTHROP!!!

When the Revere High football team takes to the turf field at Harry Della Russo Stadium to meet Winthrop on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, coach Lou Cicatelli and his Patriots, who are 4-6 on the season, will be the underdog against a Viking squad that comes in at 6-4 and that qualified for the playoffs.

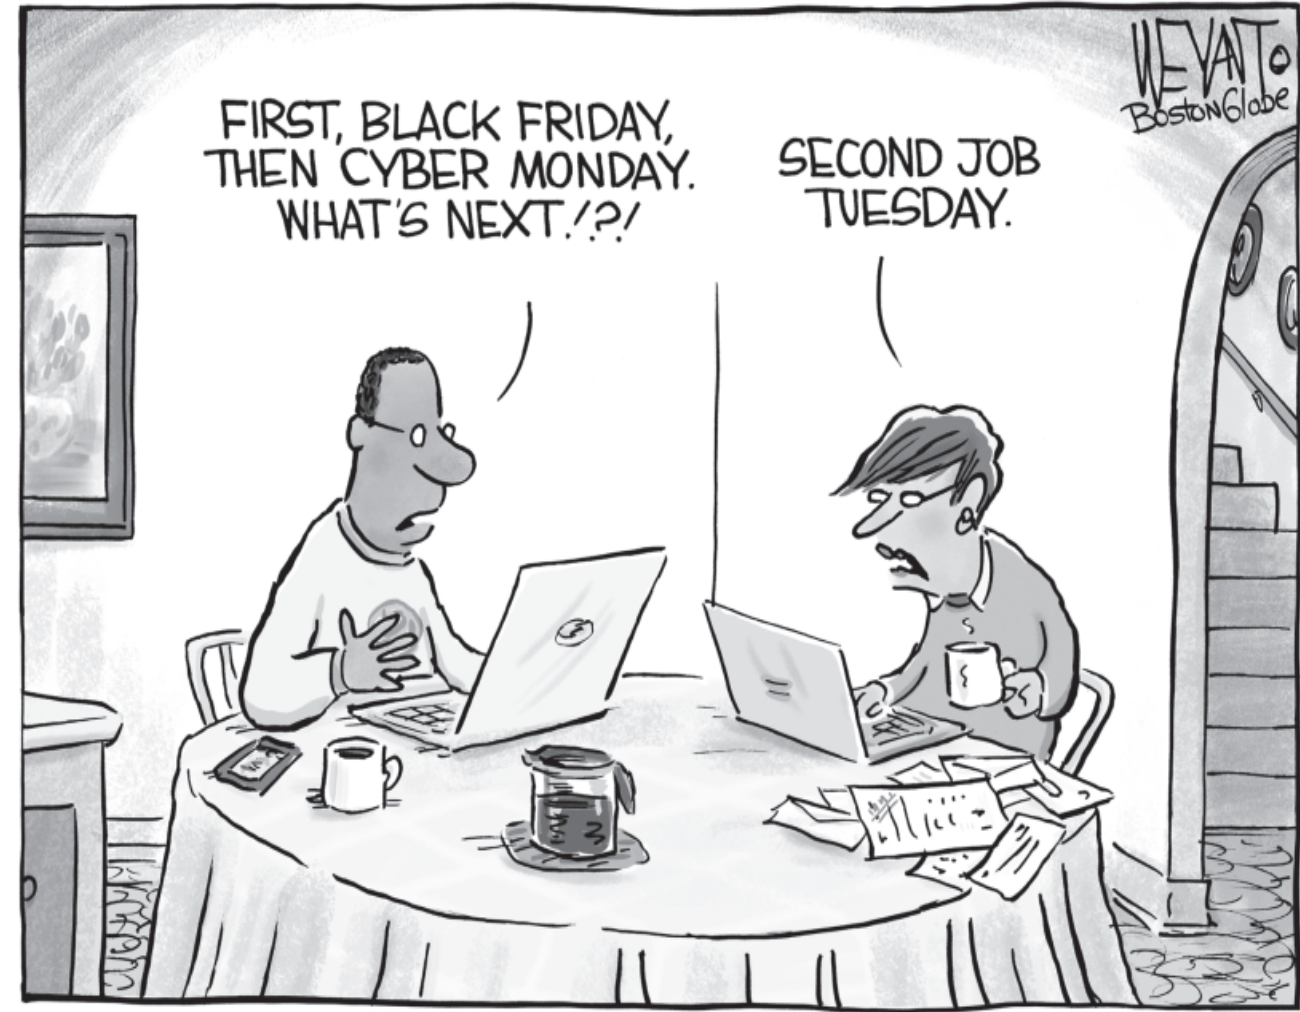

However, as the players, coaches, and fans on both sides of the field know all too well, you can throw out the proverbial record books when Winthrop and Revere get together on Thanksgiving to renew their annual rivalry to bring home the coveted Beachcomber Trophy. Regardless of their records, the Thanksgiving Day contest rates as a “second season” for both Winthrop and Revere, with a victory in front of the biggest crowd of the year in itself making for a successful season.

Coach Cicatelli’s crew enters the fray with four wins in their last five contests and are playing their best football heading into the Turkey Day tilt. In addition, our Patriots will be eager to get back on the winning track vs. Winthrop after Revere’s five-game Thanksgiving Day winning streak was snapped in 2022.

With seasonable weather being forecast for Thursday morning, we expect that there will be a large crowd on hand to fill the stands at HDR. We urge both the players and the fans to exhibit good sportsmanship both on and off the field.

We wish coach Cicatelli and his crew the best of luck. Let’s go Revere -- beat Winthrop!!!!

LETTERS to the Editor

STATEMENT BY MAYOR-ELECT, PATRICK KEEFE

Dear Editor,

It is truly disheartening, that after having conceded, my opponent has made the decision to pursue an unnecessary and costly recount of an election he lost. Disheartening, but not surprising. Not surprising because this is not the first time Mr. Rizzo has taken such a step. In fact he seems to regularly question the integrity of any election he does not win. This is far from his first recount rodeo. However, this is by far the widest margin of defeat, several hundred votes, he is requesting recount of.

Over the weeks and months leading up to November’s election, we all worked hard to share our vision for moving Revere forward. The fact that many Revere voters chose to vote early and by mail should be seen as a good thing. Let me be clear, more people voting, regardless of who they vote for, is a good thing.

Throughout the campaign, there were no questions or concerns raised about the city’s handling of early voting. Both our campaigns were present and monitored the early voting.

Similar to his past recount endeavors, my opponent will once again be exposed as the candidate whom Revere’s voters have rejected on three separate occasions. As a coach and mentor, I’ve consistently emphasized the importance of winning with grace and losing with dignity.

Regrettably, my opponent has yet to grasp the art of losing with dignity and our city is left bearing the consequences of his fragile ego. Ideally, a swift resolution to this matter will allow us to refocus on the crucial tasks of enhancing our schools and fortifying our community, free from the distraction of this unnecessary exercise in vanity.

Lastly, we will not let this slow us down. In the coming days, our administration will move forward with a transition team and inauguration plans. City Hall will continue to work on behalf of its residents.

Brighter days are ahead for our city. May we all look forward to celebrating a bright holiday season together.

Sincerely,
Patrick Keefe
Mayor-Elect

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Dear Editor,

To The Residents of Revere,

We would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to the City of Revere’s Mayor-Elect Patrick M. Keefe, Jr., the RHS JROTC Patriot Battalion, the Mottolo Post #4524 members and cooks, all the wonderful volunteers and servers who came to help with the Annual Veterans’ Day Breakfast and most especially, to our Veterans.

Each year, the Revere Department of Veterans’ Services hosts the Annual Breakfast on Veterans’ Day weekend to honor our military members and their families. It is one of our favorite events to plan during the year, where our Veterans come together to enjoy comradery, conversation, and a delicious breakfast meal. It is a special event where all members of the Military are present, and all Post members are together.

This year, we introduced the USMC tradition of the eldest Veteran, PFC. Vincenzo J. Cannarozzo, U.S. Army/WW2, and the youngest Veteran, CPL. Joseph Singer, USMC/ RPD Officer, cut the Veterans’ Day cake together in a very moving ceremony. Special thanks to BI’s, Revere, for providing the beautiful cake to Revere Veterans’ Services for this special occasion.

We are grateful for the presence of our City and State officials, who took the time to be with all of us gathered. It is a busy day throughout the State with many ceremonies to attend, and we appreciate everyone’s efforts to be at the Veterans’ Breakfast.

The Revere Department of Veterans’ Services looks forward to planning and hosting many more events in the future. It is an honor to serve those who have so honorably served our country.

Respectfully, Donna Dreezen

Bay Staters deserve opportunities to build a better financial future

By State Reps. Jeffrey Rosario
Turco and Francisco E. Paulino

Whether you grew up in Revere, Winthrop, Lawrence, Brighton, or Boston, every community in the Commonwealth values kitchen-table issues; an honest day’s work, safe streets, affordable homes, good schools, access to quality and affordable healthcare, and the ability to earn a good living and save for the future.

Just last month, we were able to pass a historic Tax Relief Bill which will make the Commonwealth more affordable, competitive and equitable by putting real dollars directly back into the pockets of hardworking Bay Staters. Whether it’s by increasing the child and dependent tax credit for families or lowering the capital gains tax so folks see more of their money when they invest in their Robinhood or Fidelity accounts, this legislation will provide immediate relief and opportunities for working class people fighting hard every day to make a living.

There’s more work to be done. It’s no secret that for much of this country’s history, the financial system has been largely closed off to most Americans. Teachers, plumbers, steamfitters, steelworkers, nurses, members of the military, and men and women in uniform simply have not always had the same opportunities to save and build wealth as the one percent.

Until recently, owning stocks was largely reserved for older, wealthy, and less diverse Americans, including those with the means to pay a financial professional to do it for them. Fortunately, recent innovations aimed at

Why preventing Diabetes should be a priority at all ages

By Dr. Donna O'Shea

More than 96 million Americans, or 1 in 3 adults, live with a potentially life-altering condition – yet many of them are unaware they even have it.

That condition is prediabetes, which in up to 70% of cases develops into diabetes. Today, more than 37 million Americans already live with diabetes, which if left untreated can contribute to a host of health issues, including heart disease, vision loss, nerve damage and more. In Massachusetts, 7.7% of adults over age 18 have been diagnosed with diabetes.

While the risk of developing type 2 diabetes increases with age, taking steps to avoid or more effectively manage this condition should be a priority for people of all ages. For November’s American Diabetes Month, here is important information to consider about this condition.

Types of diabetes: Diabetes alters the body’s ability to create energy from the food you eat and can develop in three forms. Type 1 diabetes occurs when the body cannot produce insulin on its own, typically due to genetic factors. It accounts for approximately 5% of all diabetes cases, there is no known prevention and is typically diagnosed during childhood. Type 2 diabetes accounts for up to 95% of all cases and develops when the body can’t use the insulin it produces, typically due to inactivity and poor nutrition. Finally, gestational diabetes may occur in pregnant women, often due to the hormones and weight gain associated with pregnancy.

Diabetes in children: While type 1 diabetes was historically known as juvenile diabetes, that term is no longer truly applicable due to the surging prevalence of type 2 diabetes among children. One primary driver of this is the mounting rates of childhood obesity, which now affects 1 in 5 young people. It’s important to note children are at a higher risk of type 2 diabetes if they have a family member with this condition, are overweight, don’t get enough physical activity or have prediabetes. Type 2 diabetes in children can lead to an array of health issues in the short- and long-term, including depression, eating disorders, eye damage, heart disease and more. To help young people reduce the risk of developing type 2 diabetes, make activity a priority throughout the day. Whenever possible, go for a 15-minute walk after meals, as doing so can help the body move sugar from the blood into the muscle cells to help avoid blood sugar spikes.

Diabetes in adults: The number of adults with diabetes has more than doubled during the last two decades. Living with prediabetes, being overweight, not getting enough physical exercise and being over age 45 all put people at greater risk of developing type 2 diabetes. For working-age adults with this condition, it’s critical to consistently track blood sugar levels, ideally with a continuous glucose monitor. In fact, a growing number of health plans are starting to cover this type of technology, which uses a sensor, often worn on the abdomen, to continuously read glucose levels and transmit the data to a smartphone. Another important strategy for adults and children is to get a routine comprehensive eye exam, which can help diagnose diabetes retinopathy and help individuals recognize the need to better control their blood glucose levels. Diabetic retinopathy may occur in people with diabetes and causes damage to the blood vessels in the retina, leading to blindness in some cases.

Diabetes in older adults: Nearly 30% of adults 65 and older live with diabetes, which increases the risk for certain cancers and cognitive impairment, such as Alzheimer’s disease. Not only that, older adults with diabetes are more likely to develop certain vision issues, such as glaucoma and cataracts, and the condition may contribute to hearing loss by causing nerve damage in the inner ear. Staying active and eating a balanced diet is crucial, including a focus on consuming healthy proteins (chicken, fish or turkey), non-starchy fibrous vegetables (broccoli, green beans or carrots) and a moderate amount of carbohydrates (brown rice, sweet potato or whole-grain breads or pasta). Interval eating may also be a strategy to consider, including waiting at least an hour after waking up to eat breakfast and avoiding food within three hours of sleep.

For many people, type 2 diabetes is largely preventable with lifestyle modifications, such as a nutritious diet, consistent exercise and maintaining a healthy weight. Understanding your risk factors and staying on top of your health – starting during childhood and as you age – may help you prevent or better manage type 2 diabetes.

empowering a new age of investors tore down these barriers, reshaped our financial system, and paved the way for a massive influx of new investors into the stock market. These millions of new investors are younger, more diverse, and come from every community and every part of the country, including hundreds of thousands of people right here in Massachusetts.

Not only did this transformative shift expand access to the stock market for an entirely new generation of Americans, it has made finance and investing more approachable and relevant to millions of people who had previously avoided it because of its intimidating and exclusive nature. Today, technology has democratized investing with easy-to-use, low-cost mobile platforms like Robinhood that for the first time provide tools allowing ordinary Americans to save a little more, make a few extra dollars in income, and invest in great American companies they believe in, including companies that are based here in the Commonwealth. These new platforms have not only simplified the act of purchasing a stock, they’ve increased the overall relevance and interest in personal finance. Whether it’s through podcasts, newsletters, or in-app education modules, these platforms are using technology to communicate with and educate investors, making financial literacy more accessible by breaking-down complex concepts such as compounding and dollar cost averaging, as well as the differences between a traditional and Roth IRA and the implications of a ‘wash sale’ or capital gains.

We must encourage these platforms, who are uniquely positioned, with their reach and resources, to continue prioritizing financial literacy with the understanding that developing a new generation of informed investors will lead them to a more sustainable financial future. We also need to promote sound policies that will help keep these new investors involved for the long-term while protecting them from fraud and abuse. Unfortunately, recent efforts by financial regulators are threatening to throw these new investors right back out of the markets. At both the state and federal levels, securities regulators are considering new rules that, while intended to protect investors, would strike at the very heart of the online model most prefer to use to invest today. These rules could even make it impossible for financial providers to use the very same innovative technologies that have brought millions into the stock market in the first place. And they are likely to disproportionately harm those underserved populations that for decades have been told they aren’t smart enough or wealthy enough to invest.

We reject this narrative, as do many of our colleagues. We’ve personally spoken to our neighbors – construction workers in Lawrence, firefighters in Revere, cab drivers around Boston, and the staff here in the State House – many of whom tell us that they feel more empowered and equipped than ever before to make their own financial decisions. These are normal people who don’t necessarily have the resources, the need, or the desire to completely turn the management of their finances over to expensive professionals. Instead, they’ve gravitated toward affordable and easy-to-use mobile platforms that allow them to take a more hands-on approach in managing their finances. These investors deserve strong, sensible regulations that protect them from fraud and abuse, but they also deserve the opportunity to participate fully in our financial system and achieve the American dream. We will continue to fight in the State House for policies that give our communities both.

Please consider participating in this fun and rewarding event. Please bring an unopened/unwrapped toy for a boy or girl between Nov. 24th and Dec. 15th and receive a single topping pizza for $5⁰⁰. Metropolitan Beaches Comm. holds first meeting in-person since shutdown

For the first time since the COVID-19 shutdown, the Metropolitan Beaches Commission gathered on Beacon Hill on October 31 for an in-person hearing on the state of the region’s beaches. This was also the first opportunity for the Commission to hear from recently appointed DCR Commissioner Brian Arrigo on his priorities and vision for the agency. The Metropolitan Beaches Commission is managed by Save the Harbor/Save the Bay and is responsible for making recommendations on the maintenance, improvement and accessibility of the region’s public beaches from Nahant to Nantasket.

Over 100 people attended the hearing in person or over Teams as DCR Commissioner Brian Arrigo testified to the agency’s efforts to address recommendations from the MBC’s Breaking Barriers report, including steps towards equity and diversity-focused hiring practices and improvements to ADA-accessibility. Commissioner Arrigo also committed to adding more multilingual signage to the region’s beaches before the 2024 beach season.

“We are really proud of all the work that has brought us to this point today,” said Commission Co-Chair Senator Brendan Crighton. “Our collective work to break down with a particular focus on racial equity and language equity has identified concrete action steps to help address very complex long-standing issues that impact our beaches and communities.”

“DCR’s public beaches belong to everyone, and all of our residents should be able to safely access and enjoy them,” said DCR Commissioner Brian Arrigo. “We are committed to working with the Commission and Save the Harbor/Save the Bay to ensure our metropolitan region’s public beaches are welcoming places for everyone regardless of race, ability, language or income.”

The MBC and Commissioner Arrigo also discussed potential for improving the flagging protocols on our region’s beaches to communicate to the public more clearly on the infrequent days when water quality may be potentially unsafe for swimming, usually following a heavy rainfall. While Massachusetts continues to boast some of the country’s cleanest urban beaches, stormwater runoff can impact that quality. Director of Green Infrastructure for the City of Boston Kate England addressed the increased impacts of stormwater due to climate change and the potential to mitigate those impacts through strategic green infrastructure improvements, teeing up the Commission’s next efforts to address climate resiliency and sea level rise along our coast.

“The beaches are absolutely a critical open space and natural resource for the Commonwealth and need ongoing improvements.” said Co-Chair Rep. Adrian Madaro. “We have had great success working in partnership with DCR to upgrade our public beaches and are looking forward to continuing our collaboration so all families can enjoy them no matter what part of the world they come from.”

The Commission also heard testimony from members of the public who spoke to the success of the Better Beaches Program, which brought over 200 free public and diverse cultural events to the beaches this past summer, and also addressed community specific concerns about water quality in Lynn and Dorchester that the Commission will continue to try and address.

“It’s terrific to have a Commissioner that shares our goals and values when it comes to making our spectacular urban beaches accessible to everyone,” said Save the Harbor Executive Director Chris Mancini. “We’re looking forward to supporting and collaborating with our

Revere football team ready for Thanksgiving game versus Winthrop

By Cary Shuman

Hoping to continue its second-half surge, the Revere High football team will play Winthrop High in the annual Thanksgiving game Thursday (10 a.m.) at Harry Della Russo Stadium.

Head coach Lou Cicatelli has his Patriots (4-6 playing their best football of the season. A win over Winthrop (6-4) would be the perfect season-topper for the Patriots.

“We’ve had a great week of practice,” said Cicatelli. “The players and coaches are excited. This is one of the first times this season that everyone is healthy. We’re hoping it’s going to be a good game.”

Winthrop’s Wing-T offense will be a touch challenge. The Vikings have four very capable running backs, NEC sprint champion Nick Cappuccio, along with Robert Rich, George Galuris, and Demetri Koutsouflakis. Matt Noonan is the Vikings’ talented junior quarterback.

“They run the ball well. They throw the ball well. We definitely have our work cut out for us, but we have a good game plan,” said Cicatelli. “There will be a big crowd supporting us. There’s nothing like the Thanksgiving game. A victory would be a great way for us to end season, after struggling with injuries early. To me, the way we’ve played the past several weeks says a lot about the players and coaches, who kept clawing back and did not quit.”

Rodriguez, Bellemsieh selected GBL All-Stars

The Greater Boston League coaches recognized two Revere High football players, Walter Rodriguez and Medhi Bellemsieh, for the All-Star Team.

Rodriguez was selected as an All-Star defensive end. Bellemsieh was named an All-Star tailback.

Abbas Attoui, Giovanni Woodard, and Carlos Rizo received Honorable Mention recognition.

Everett’s BC-bound senior, Christian Zamor, and Lynn Classical quarterback Brian Vaughan were the GBL co-MVPs. Everett’s first-year head coach, Justin Flores, is the GBL Coach of the Year.

Cicatelli played in two Thanksgiving games

A 1982 Revere High graduate, Lou Cicatelli played in two Revere-Winthrop holiday games. He was a right guard on Coach Silvio Cella’s 7-3 team in 1981.

Revere Lightning Under 14 Youth Soccer Team.

Girls' Soccer is alive and thriving in Revere

By Melissa Randall

Revere's Under 14 youth soccer team, the Revere Lightning, finished their Fall 2023 Season with an impressive 6-1-1 record and the best defensive record in their group. The team only allowed seven goals the entire Fall 2023 season. Part of Revere Youth Soccer, the Revere Lightning plays in the Essex County Youth Soccer Association in the competitive Massachusetts Tournament of Champions (MTOC) Division.

The team is comprised of 8th graders Eleni Abdula, Gabriella Aguilar, Co-Captain Andrea Basta, Giselle Cardona, Jelitza Jerezano, Mariana Jimenez, Amy Mendoza, Co-Captain Sharon Olivia, and Valentina Ramos, and 7th graders Kimberly Benitez, Isabella Coral, Sofia Garcia, Eliana Hernandez, Edlyn Hernandez, Camila Martinez, Brooke Rose, Valeria Ruiz, Carolina Vejar and Siobhan Zierten.

The Revere Lightning is led by Head Coach Hestick Villa, Assistant Coach Armando Aguilar, and Team Assistant Marylin Cardona. The team had an exciting fall season, which came down to a deciding last game for the top spot in the group. Falling short 2-0 in a nail-biting last game and coming in 2nd in their group, the Revere Lightning showed resilience, mental toughness, and a competitive spirit that will only improve once the team returns for their Spring 2024 season.

According to Assistant Coach Aguilar, “The future is looking very bright for girls' soccer in Revere; along with the Revere Lightning. There are two other girls teams for younger girls, the girls Under 12 team (Revere Cyclones), and Girls Under 10 Girls Team (Revere Cheetahs). Both also had a great fall Season.”

A non-profit organization and community program, their philosophy is “At Revere Youth Soccer, we dedicate to develop and guided our youth players with the fundamental basic skills – it's our priority to serve our Revere youth community. our team coaches, parents & volunteers are excited to see their kids playing real games and how the program is there to support it. That's why we work hard to provide them the best quality time.”

Mike D'Itria begins a new chapter

Revere resident will lead Pioneer Charter as its new boys head basketball coach

By Cary Shuman

Mike D'Itria enjoyed a tremendous run of basketball achievement at St. Mary's High School in Lynn. He was an assistant coach of a state championship boys team, and as a proud father, he and his wife, Tami, had the opportunity to support their daughter, Nicolette, and son, Anthony, as they helped the Spartans win state titles as outstanding individual contributors.

While Nicolette is now

Revere Junior Patriots capture Youth Football title

By Cary Shuman

The Revere Junior Patriots youth football seventh-and-eighth-grade team made its first New England Commonwealth Youth Football Conference season an unforgettable one, winning the 2023 Super Bowl, 12-6, over Stoneham in a thriller Sunday afternoon at Tufts University in Medford.

Revere, who joined the organization after competing in Pop Warner football for many years, made two incredible defensive stands in the fourth quarter inside the 10-yard line to earn the victory. The undefeated Stoneham team had averaged close to 25 points per game, but head coach Oscar Rodriguez's contingent kept its high-scoring opponent to a single score.

Revere (9-1) had lost to Stoneham, 14-13, a month ago in the regular season. But Revere regrouped to

RHS LADY PATRIOTS DEFEATED AT MILLER FIELD BY THE WHS LADY VIKINGS 22-0

Last Saturday afternoon the RHS Lady patriot Powder Puff Football Team headed to Miller Field in Winthrop for the annual Pre-Thanksgiving Game. The Patriots started off the opening drive with a strong running game but fell short in the red zone. The Patriots did not mount much after that, allowing Winthrop to score and convert the point after plays, getting shut out, 22-0.

One of the other players starting on the Revere offensive line was Vin Gregorio. “I was the right guard and my best friend and buddy, Vin Gregorio, who’s still coaching with me, was the left tackle,” said Cicatelli. “Unfortunately, in our four years, we never beat Winthrop. They were a machine back then. They had some really good teams. We still have nightmares of the cannon going off every time they scored.”

Winthrop, under head coach Bob DeFelice, was undefeated in the 1981, 1982, and 1983 seasons, winning two Super Bowls. The 1982 team went 10-0, but did not get invited to the Super Bowl due to the quirky ratings system at the time. Overall, Winthrop was 32-0-1 during that stretch.

D'Itria //

Mr. D'Itria is beginning a new journey, having been named the head coach of the Pioneer Charter School of Science (Everett) boys basketball team.

Building a program

D'Itria said he is excited to make his debut as a head coach.

"I've always eventually wanted to have my own program," said D'Itria, who was an assistant at St. Mary's for seven seasons and four state title game appearances. "I'm very excited. I've met with the team, and they seem to be a great group of kids.

Pioneer is an excellent school and I'm thankful to [Athletic Director] Phil Signoroni to be their head basketball coach."

D'Itria said PCSS is a member of the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association. "We'll be playing a lot of the charter schools and at the end of year, we'll compete in the state charter school tournament (MCSAO) before the MIAA Tournament. Pioneer made the MIAA tournament for the first time last season."

D'Itria said the No. 1 goal is to qualify for the MIAA playoffs. "That's definitely the goal - to make the tournament and make a little noise," he said.

Mary's High School.

"It was a great seven years. I loved it there," said D'Itria. "I learned a lot. David [Brown] really taught me how to run a program and how to be a successful program and just take care of the students, too. And there are not many athletic directors better than Jeff Newhall."

David Brown, head coach at St. Mary's, said that D'Itria was a tremendous asset to the Spartans' program.

"Mike did an excellent job as an assistant coach at St. Mary's," said Brown. "I wish him the best of luck in his new position."

St. Mary's Athletic Director Jeff Newhall offered his congratulatory wishes.

"I congratulate Mike on becoming a head basketball coach," said Newhall. "He was an outstanding member of our athletic staff at St. Mary's, and he had a positive impact on the student-athletes at our school."

A star football player at Dom Savio High School

Interestingly, Mike D'Itria played football and some basketball at St. Dominic Savio High School in East Boston, graduating in 1994. "I realized when I was young, that I was more of a football player than a basketball player," said D'Itria. "We played in the Super Bowl when I was a sophomore [offensive tackle and defensive end]. I played football for Coach Bill Maradei for three years and Coach Gavin Monagle for one year. Bill Maradei was tough on you, but at the end of the day he made you a better player. You knew it was genuine that he really cared about you, so you could deal with it."

Following high school, D'Itria attended Northeastern University, where he enrolled in the pharmacy program and had a co-op position at Brigham and Women's Hospital. He is currently a pharmacist at Brigham and Women's Hospital where he has been employed for 27 years.

Starting next Monday, Mike D'Itria will begin his tenure as a head basketball coach, realizing a long-held dream.

DEMAINOS RESTAURANT HOSTS ANNUAL “THE CORNER” REUNION

It’s Thanksgiving week, it’s Monday, what do you do? Well, if you anyway connected to “the corner” on Broadway, or have friends, neighbors, or just plain find out, you show up at DeMaino’s Italian Restaurant on Malden Street in Revere. Lenny DeMaino and family has always opened their doors to welcome and host this reunion of friends for the Thanksgiving Holiday. Len Orlandello organizes this event each year, seeing that that all are notified, and getting everyone on point for the celebration.

Revere has long been known for its old school traditions, and this one certainly falls under that category. Lifelong friends have gathered here to wish each other well, relive old times and remember those who won’t be coming anymore.

There was more handshaking, well wishing last Monday night than at any political convention ever. The difference? It was all heartfelt, and meaningful. Some might not see each other until next Thanksgiving, God willing, other almost every day, none the less, a hug, kiss on the cheek, handshake, and all the best to you and the family, means the world to them all. These are friends, they consider each other family, we will always be that way. Happy Thanksgiving-to you and yours.

Lenny DeMaino starts to prepare the table for his guests.

Mary Jones, Rose Casella and Lucille Orlandello enjoying the reunion.

Revere City Councillor Tony Zambuto and Revere School Committee-elect Anthony Caggiano stopped by to enjoy the reunion.

Joyce DiNuccio with classmates and friends, Mike Musto, Ron Ludovici, Bill Orlandella, Joe Ferri and Ron Oliver.

Former City Councillor John Correggio, Anthony Capoccia and Steven Vesce.

Gary Golditch, Michael Cella and Stephen Cushing at the bar talking sports.

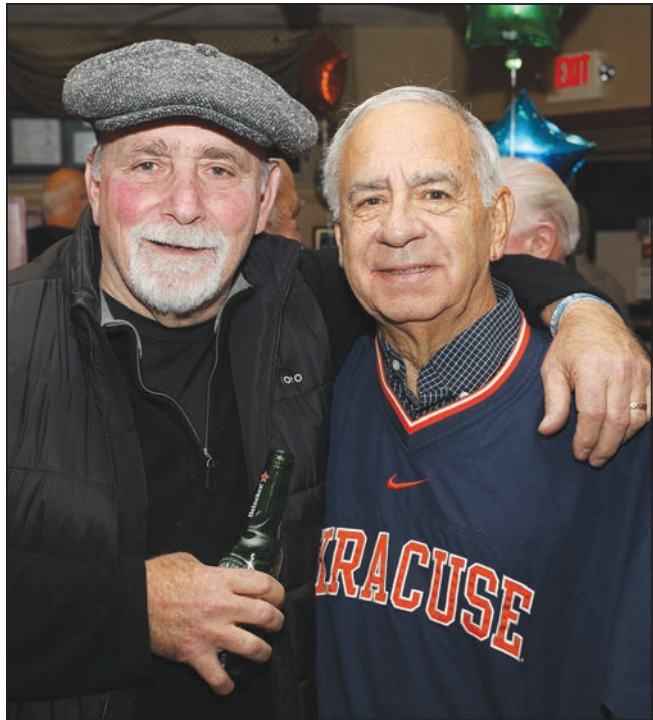

Gene McKinnon, Rich Capoccia and Vincent Brandano.

Donny Tempesta, Revere School Committee -elect Anthony Caggiano, former RFD Stanley Wells and Former RFD Chief Gene Doherty at DeMainos Restaurant.

Freida DeMaino entertains her friends at the “corner” reunion, Rose Pellegrino, Gail Giuffrida and Joyce DiNuccio.

Former RHS Patriot Coach Michael Cella and Peter DiGiulio.

Joe Orlandello, Bobby Belmonte and Charlie Smith.

Talking about old times, Alex Castiello, Rich Capano, Anthony Capoccia and Bill King.

CANDIDATES FOR MAYOR ADDRESS THE MEN'S CLUB

The November meeting of the Revere Men's Club held in Butler Hall Monday night was well attended by members of the club and women who went to hear the four candidates for the primary nomination for mayor of Revere.

Opening the meeting, President Frank P. Morse stated that the club has never yet endorsed a candidate for any office, but has given the members and friends of the club the privilege of addressing the members at a regular meeting.

Michael F. Shaw was the first speaker and gave in detail some of the benefits he had helped secure for the Revere while a member of the State Legislature for several years.

He told of speaking in 21 cities in the West during the recent campaign and the deplorable phases of the depression in that part of the country.

"We need leadership in the cities and towns of the Commonwealth," he declared. "A leader must have judgment and a level head. We must have leadership of the finest sort to lead us into a condition of plenty and prosperity."

Dr. John E. Walsh was the next speaker. He told of a friend who had said to him: "I hear you are a candidate for mayor of Revere."

"I said the doctor. Then the friend said, 'You must be a glutton for punishment!'" Dr. Walsh read a statement recently made by Theodore Waddell, State Director of Accidents, to the effect that in good municipalities should set aside

RALLY PROVES A BIG SUCCESS FOR CASASSA SLATE

One of the largest rallies of the local city political campaign was held last Wednesday night in City Hall. The hall was packed to the doors and enthusiastically greeted Mayor Andrew A. Casassa.

Owing to the rain that started shortly before the opening hour of the rally, the chairman of the meeting, Joseph Nuttle, introduced the first speaker, Wendell P. Murray, many minutes after the time set and he was interrupted at intervals by the people entering the hall and seeking advantageous seats.

Before the second speaker, Charles Lombardi, candidate for councilman from Ward Four, had finished his talk the

SENATORIAL VOTE RECOUNT AT SAME TIME AS STATE'S

City Clerk Albert J. Brown—this week confirmed a report that the Brodline-Crowley recount of votes would be made at the same time as the recount of several other candidates of higher State offices is made.

Both Frank D. Crowley of Chelsea, who at present is the Senator-Elect, and Senator Conde Brodline, of this city, filed petitions at the city clerk's office last Saturday. As a State recount has been requested of the Bacon-Swift, Cook-Buckley, and Warner-Buckley votes, it has been generally decided throughout

WOMAN MANAGES TO FOIL HOLD UP MAN AT DOOR

Mrs. Susie Waugh, 60, a widow, of Penno street, had presence of mind enough yesterday morning to turn her front door and foil an attempt to hold her up in her home.

While the holdup man stood on the threshold with a gun pressed against her, Mrs. Waugh screamed, burst the door to and telephoned police.

The bandit ran down the steps, jumped into a small black coupe and drove away in the direction of Chelsea.

Election Will Verify Officers of Beaumont Catholic Club

Election on December 1 will legally name the following officers of the Beaumont Catholic Club:

Mr. T. F. Callahan, president; Mr. Joseph Pauline, vice-president; Mr. John Story, treasurer; Mr. James Murphy, financial secretary; Dr. H. Tull, recording secretary; and Mr. Tull, sergeant-at-arms.

"ADJUSTMENT IS REVALUATION" SO SAYS A. P. DUNK

At the regular monthly meeting of the Revere Chamber of Commerce held Tuesday evening in the banquet room of the City Hall, a splendid and inspiring speech was given by the guest speaker, Mr. Andrew P. Dunk of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, on "Present day conditions and what can be done to remedy them."

The first thing to be done, said Mr. Dunk, was to get re-adjusted. Everyone thinks the other fellow should get re-adjusted but let the other fellow do it first. Adjustment is revaluation and if we revalue everything we have we will find it has discounted during the last fifty years. He said for years we have been living for money, money was our God, and a man was considered wonderful as long as he had money and was valued by the amount he had instead of his qualities.

The speaker said there is no depression in America. If you take the people of any European country they will tell you America is the land of "Milk and Honey", but we in America have been used to so much that we demand too much, but we must realize we are in a changing world and must change with it. He said business is just like life, we pass from stage to stage and the same man is the one who takes these changes as the evolution of life. The speaker then added, "Why not forget about five years ago when business was good, those days are gone and we must change with them."

Mr. Dunk said: "You and Old Age

The Revere High School football team goes to Waltham today for a football game with the strong Watch City eleven. After taking the measure of Medford on last Saturday afternoon, the Revere High gridsters are confident of being able to annex a victory over their opponents. However, Waltham can be depended upon to put up a strong game and the local lads will have to play heads-up football all during the afternoon.

To date, Revere High has won three games, been tied in two, and lost two in the seven contests they have played. Should Revere be able to put across a victory today it would mean a very successful season, inasmuch as the locals have more than held their own with the best high school teams in the state in the season soon to close.

Waltham in their last two games have been tied by Newton, 0 to 0, and Medford at 6 to 6. Their complete record for the season is as follows:

Waltham 26, Dover, N. H. 0.
Waltham 13, Providence Central 0.
Waltham 17, Watertown 6.
Waltham 0, Haverhill 7.
Waltham 10, Somerville 13.
Waltham 6, Medford 6.
Waltham 0, Newton 0.

The game with Waltham today will be the last game away from home for the Revere team this year and the next to the last one on their schedule. The game with Lynn General Electric alone remains to be played on Paul Revere Park, Thanksgiving Day morning.

THOMAS A. NOONE ON INDEPENDENT PLATFORM, MAYOR

Official announcement of his candidacy on the independent platform was announced this week by Hon. Thomas A. Noone, who is seeking the mayoralty seat once more. There has been much rumoring that Mr. Noone would enter the local battle for the City's chief executive office, and this official statement is of sincere interest to all candidates and voters alike.

There can be little doubt that this new phase in the heated local campaign will make a great deal of difference on the final result in December. Of course, Mr. Noone has no primaries' contest to combat and his real campaign will commence the day after that event on Tuesday.

Mr. Noone served this city for four

Charles A. DuBois, headmaster of the Williams School, Chelsea, and president of the association, was in charge of the meeting. Prof. Morse, who is supervisor of the secondary education in this state, brought the greetings of the State Board of Education.

The morning session opened at 9 o'clock. A cafeteria lunch was served in the school lunch room at 12:45. The afternoon session opened at 1:45. John Lund, superintendent of schools of Newton, was the speaker.

An automobile owned and operated by Joseph G. Gowell of 65 Revere street, Malden, was in collision with a truck owned and operated by Simon L. Kiane of 484 Revere street on Washington avenue Wednesday afternoon.

Gowell was arrested, charged with drunkenness, and was taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital with serious head injuries, where he is being held for observation. He was not able to appear in court Thursday.

DR. DONOVAN IS CHOSEN KIWANIS HEAD FOR YEAR

The Revere Kiwanis Club elected its third president from the medical profession on Wednesday when Dr. Paul R. Donovan was made the head of the group for the forthcoming year. At present the presiding officer is Dr. George Bruns, who upon being succeeded by Dr. Donovan will become the immediate past president.

This election is unique in that the first president of the local club was a doctor, Dr. Frank E. Rowe, who was in turn followed by Dr. Bruns, who now steps aside for Dr. Donovan to assume the presidential office.

Besides Dr. Donovan, the following were elected by the Kiwanians as officers for the ensuing year:

Caroline D. Perrotti, first vice-president; Arthur H. Curtis, second vice-president, and Eldon Everett, re-elected treasurer.

The following were chosen to serve as directors: Mayor Andrew A. Casassa, Ernest Acker, Rev. E. Ambrose Jenkins, Samuel Alessi, Sydney J. Clarke, James O'Donnell, Dr. Frank E. Rowe, Ernest Banks and Joseph Ginsburg.

A rehearsal of the coming Kiwanis Frolic which is under the chairmanship of Dr. Rowe, to be held in the High School auditorium November 30, was presented under the direction of the coach, Tom Senna. Roland Horton, Dr. Bruns, Dr. Donovan, James A. Lockhart, Edwin Goss and Carmen Perrotti, who are to take the part of end men went through their routine so ably that if the rest of the cast is as good, the frolic gives promise of being a huge success.

CHARLES DREYER

310 BROADWAY, CHELSEA TEL. 1589-M

To the People of Revere:

I am a candidate for Mayor, as an independent, in the election to be held on December 13th. My reason for not entering the primary is that, in my opinion, party politics should play no part in our municipal elections. Whether a man is a Democrat or a Republican could not possibly have the slightest bearing on his ability to perform the duties of Mayor.

This announcement is made before the primary in order that our citizens may know that my candidacy is not based on any personal feeling toward either of the two candidates who will be successful next Tuesday. Regardless of who is nominated, I am a candidate and I pledge my word that I will wage an active, aggressive campaign right through until the last vote is cast. I expect to be elected, and with the wholehearted support of my every loyal friend and well-wisher I can and shall be the next Mayor of Revere.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Noone,

64 Sprague Street.
