It's one of the best seasons in decades for the Revere team, as they march through league play with several nail-biting wins. That included Joe Llanos's game-winning touchdown here, which wasn't called immediately as the officials conferred to determine whether he had crossed into the end zone before losing control of the ball. Speaker DeLeo kicks off new civics program at Revere High School

By John Lynds

Last Friday at Revere High School (RHS) Speaker Robert DeLeo was on hand to announce an exciting new program that will partner his office with students from the high school.

The Civic Engagement Project is a high school program organized by Speaker DeLeo's Office, which aims to better educate RHS students on the functions of the Massachusetts State Legislature and ensure youths are "prepared for the duties of citizenship".

The new curriculum is required under the Act to Promote and Enhance Civic Engagement—a new law that was passed on Beacon Hill last year.

"Today, I'm proud to announce the Revere High School Civic Engagement Project," said Speaker DeLeo at RHS last Friday. "Starting in November, we will be organizing a series of field trips to the State House for Revere High School 9th grade and 12th grade Advanced Placement students. Our goal is to provide presentations and hands-on seminars on the history and the role of the state legislature, understanding the legislative process and how a bill becomes a law, and how to communicate effectively with legislators."

DeLeo said through the new program the day in the State House will include interaction with various members of the legislature and legislative staff, and a student-led legislative hearing.

"We'll also host a mock session in the Chamber of the House of Representatives where students will be able to use what they have learned to actively experience the legislative process," said DeLeo. "I hope that you'll be inspired by this opportunity to see the work that we do in the State House and that it might help you to find your voice, as it's the voice of citizens that make our democracy work."

DeLeo said that in recent years there has been a renewed focus on the importance of civics education.

"No one appreciates that more than the public servants who represent Revere and serve as the voice of our community," he said. "I believe civics education to be vital to a functioning democracy. In Massachusetts, our schools and our communities are deeply intertwined. Our state has a rich history of preserving local voice via our elected school committees who are charged with establishing educational goals and policies for their local school district, so it's wonderful to see our school committee members joining us today as well."

At last week's event DeLeo said through civics education some students sitting in the audience on Friday may end up as Speaker of the House one day and make changes that are meaningful to the state and country.

"I've served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives since 1991 and became Speaker of the House in January of

After Atlantic and V.M.D. acquired the 50-acre property in April 2017, Mayor Arrigo collaborated with the new owners and championed zoning legislation that restricted the property's use to advanced commercial activity, including technology warehousing and e-commerce. The building, containing approximately 830,000 square feet, became vacant in September of 2018, when Necco abruptly ended operations after 15 years at the location.

The availability and quality of Revere's workforce, along with its proximity to public transportation and Logan airport, helped attract Amazon to the City.

"The Mayor's Office, his Economic Development staff and the City Council, particularly Ward Councilor John Powers, who was adamant about keeping the Necco site as commercial property, were essential in working with Amazon and bringing assurances that Revere would be a long-term home for the company and its employees," said Joseph Zink, Chief Executive Officer of Atlantic Management, a real estate development firm based in Framingham.

"Mayor Arrigo was hyper-focused on increasing employment with smart economic growth policies. This is a big win for Revere and the region," said James L. Vitas II, Managing Director and Founder of V.M.D Companies, LLC, a real estate development and investment firm.

Speaker of the House Robert A. DeLeo said, "I'm proud that Amazon's new distribution center will call Revere home. Over the years since Amazon's initial interest in the region, the House has advocated for the company to locate its facilities in Revere. Our location is ideal, and we have skilled workers, and these new jobs will help to feed our local economy for years to come."

When the new delivery station opens its doors in 2020, Amazon will become Revere's largest employer and generate a significant increase in commercial tax revenue for the City. Amazon's arrival also positions the Arrigo Administration to intensify its pursuit of improved regional transportation opportunities such as a commuter rail stop at nearby Wonderland and an MBTA Blue Line - Red Line connection.

Atlantic Management, based in Framingham, MA, is a real-estate development firm that was formed in 1972 to provide investors with long-term capital growth through conservatively structured real estate investments. For more information, please go to <http://atlanticmanagement.com/>.

fire department ranks early spring next year.

"This is not only welcome news, it is an important component of our overall plan for public safety," said Mayor Brian M. Arrigo. "This has been a priority in our municipal budget every year. In the past four years we have added 12 new firefighters to the force. We've gone from 98 firefighters to 110 firefighters, and as this number increases, we decrease the number of days that fire apparatus is out of service due to staffing issues."

Mayor Arrigo and Fire Chief Chris Bright noted that "brown out" days, so-called, are approaching a minimum. "It has been our goal," said Mayor Arrigo, "that manpower shortages will no longer be a reason for apparatus to be out of service."

Chief Bright commented that 'brown-outs' related to training or maintenance are much more manageable. "Manpower is the key, and our increased manpower makes us a stronger fire department in every respect."

Increasing the number of firefighters has been a process. The Mayor cited the process of recruiting candidates onto a reserve list, then enlisting them into the fire academy for training. "These procedures take time, and our Human Resources department has worked cooperatively with Chief Bright to assure that we stay on track with our hiring objectives," said Mayor Arrigo.

"It's a process," said Chief Bright. "There is a lag time in the hiring as we get candidates onto the reserve list, and then we need to get them into slots at the fire academy for training before they are ready for active fire duty."

The Homeland Security SAFER Grant program was created to give fire departments support in meeting community needs. "We are fortunate that our Congressional delegation, including Senators Ed Markey and Elizabeth Warren and Congresswoman Katherine Clark, appreciate the financial burdens that modern-day public safety imposes on communities. Equipment is expensive, manpower is expensive, and communities strive to meet their needs. Federal assistance such as the SAFER Grant program is invaluable."

Chief Bright praised his Administrative Assistant Paula Sarcia and Captain Mike Bowden for their diligence in preparing the grant application. "These applications are detailed and comprehensive. Completing a successful application takes hours of tedious work, but the results are self-evident."

As the City continues to grow, Mayor Arrigo has persisted in his call for public safety enhancements. "With increased staffing and now the new Alden A. Mills Fire Station in the Point of Pines on the horizon, Revere will continue along a path of growth and commensurable public safety. We all benefit from the City's growth, and increased public safety staffing and equipment are a direct result of our growth."

Tree damage, power outages affect Revere during major storm

By Journal Staff

A major storm, bringing heavy rain and 60-70 miles per hour gusts of wind, hit Revere and the region last Wednesday night and into early Thursday morning.

Revere DPW Supt. Paul Argenzio said there was damage to a large number of trees in the city along with power outages, but no reports of flooding.

“There were power outages that affected residents and knocked out some traffic signals along North Shore Road and American Legion Highway,” said Argenzio. “In terms of tree damage, Beachmont and Point of Pines were hit the hardest. A couple of very large trees landed on houses on Crescent Avenue and Bradstreet Avenue.”

The DPW chief said the Revere Police Department “did an excellent job” directing the traffic at the busy intersections, notably at Revere Street and American Legion Highway (near Blanchard’s Liquors). Motorists seeking to make a left turn from American Legion Highway on to Revere Street were directed to continue on toward Bell Circle.

Argenzio said the DPW responded to 60 residences for tree and limb-clearing operations.

“The tree calls started to come in around 2 a.m. (Thursday),” said Argenzio. “We had a tree company on standby because we knew there were going to be some problems. We also had own tree crew at the City Yard on standby.”

Cooperative agreement helps fund CAPIC Mission

This week, Mayor Brian Arrigo, along with CAPIC Executive Director, Robert Repucci, and Councilor-At-Large Anthony Zambuto, announced the signing of a Grant Agreement between the City of Revere and Community Action Programs Inter-City (CAPIC). The city funding will enable CAPIC to assist at-risk residents identify housing, and provide human services to achieve self-sufficiency and advance overall quality of life.

“CAPIC has been a tremendous partner to Revere, and has provided invaluable services to our residents when they need it most,” said Mayor Arrigo. “By entering into a Grant Agreement, this will allow CAPIC to enhance their level of support to our residents, and most important, ensure that funding is readily available to provide immediate relief during an emergency situation.”

Championed by Councilor Zambuto, the City Council unanimously approved a motion to establish an Emergency Fund for CAPIC to respond to the needs of residents in Revere. Scope of services will include distributing funds to assist at-risk families who are in immediate need of housing, sustain tenancies, conduct landlord mediations, and guide residents through the process to apply for public housing or state voucher programs. In addition, capacity to shelter victims due to fire, natural disaster, or other hardships.

“This is a historic time for the City of Revere and for CAPIC, whereas, we are both partners in helping people stay in their homes,” said Executive Director Repucci. “Councilor Tony Zambuto was able to introduce this concept to the Mayor, who readily accepted it as an important benefit for residents.”

Repucci has engraved his legacy at CAPIC, servicing the residents and seniors in Revere, Chelsea, and Winthrop for the past 41 years.

CAPIC is a private, non-profit corporation chartered in 1967 and designated to identify and eradicate the root causes of poverty in Chelsea, Revere, and Winthrop. To learn more about CAPIC’s services and programs visit capicinc.org or contact the main office at (617) 884-6130.

2009,” said DeLeo. “I am proud to say that under my leadership the House has addressed critical issues facing our Commonwealth from stricter gun laws, fighting the opioid crisis, and providing support to the most vulnerable among us.”

DeLeo said civics engagement is one of the important issues the House has taken up in recent years because it will reach a new generation eager to change the world.

“As many of you know, in recent years students and young people have become increasingly more involved in public activism, raising their voices against gun violence, bullying and transgender rights,” said DeLeo. “As students, you are ideally positioned to advocate on improving policies that affect you directly, and your voices provide invaluable insight. But in order to help find your voice and become an active participant in a democracy, it’s important that you be given the opportunity to share your views, ideas and perspectives and engage in meaningful discourse. What better place to start than in the classroom?”

In 2018 DeLeo joined his colleagues in the legislature to pass An Act to Promote and Enhance Civic Engagement – a bipartisan civics education bill that became state law.

“As a result, roughly one million Massachusetts students will receive more comprehensive, hands-on civics instruction,” said DeLeo. “This law provides opportunities for hands-on learning, urges students to think more broadly about civic duty, how to analyze policy issues and consider differing points of view. It also requires students to demonstrate an understanding of the connections between federal, state and local policies and issues that impact the school or community.”

DeLeo said given the new civics education law and level of interest his office receives from high school students, he wanted to help students understand the role of state government and how it impacts community so I reached out to Revere School Superintendent Dr. Dianne Kelley to form the partnership that was announced last Friday.

By the end of the program Revere students will understand the history and the role of the Massachusetts Legislature; understand the legislative process and how a bill becomes a law; understand the Massachusetts State Budget process and how it goes from the Governor to the House and the Senate as well as conference committees and Governor vetoes; and will learn how to effectively communicate with legislators and elected officials.

that education was no longer a central value to our society. That day, we were on a bus in search of a new future where we end up finding here in Revere.

Since I didn't have access to many educational opportunities in Syria, I was excited to get involvement with as many opportunities as I can. I loved science, so every summer, you could find me in a program or at a lab somewhere. Since my freshmen, I have been involved with Northeastern's Coastal Ocean Science Academy where I have worked with several labs to collect field data and ran independent research projects. I have also been a member of the MGH Youth

Jason Acosta Espinosa named Elks Student of the Month

Jason Acosta Espinosa.

Hi! My name is Jason Acosta Espinosa. I live with both of my parents, Marta Espinosa and Martin Acosta, and my younger sister, Katherine, a current sophomore.

This past February, I was also one of fifteen students selected by Knovva Academy, a global start-up in Boston, to take part in the Model G20 conference in Beijing, China. It was also my first time on a plane :) It solidified my interest in working on an international level. I grew to have close bonds with my classmates as well as students from all over the world, many of which I am constantly in contact with. I was also awarded the Most Outstanding Delegation as the Ministry of Transportation of Japan out of a cohort of 300 international students which included a $3,000 scholarship aside from international recognition. I hope to return to China this February as part of another conference in Shanghai!

This past summer, I was one of a few selected students as part of the United States State Department and Georgetown University to attend a three-week long immersion and exchange program in the Dominican Republic known as Youth Ambassadors. There, I helped to build a playground for the local community and lived with my amazing host family.

I am currently in the top 10 of my class and have maintained over a 4.00 GPA all four years. As of right now, I have taken thirteen AP Courses which include three self-studies for AP Calculus AB, AP Human Geography, and AP Psychology. I have also taken four dual enrollment courses, my favorite of which has been my current dual enrollment course of World Literature! I am extremely passionate about writing which had led me to enroll in the Writing Center Fellowship with one of my favorite teachers Ms. Casper. The writing center has been such a humbling and honorable experience because we are entrusted with pieces of writing from other students, which I find to be a very vulnerable and powerful thing. Two of my favorite teachers ever, Ms. Pirkey and Ms. Wilkins, helped to foster my love for writing. Writing allows all of us to create these worlds that live in our minds and express ideas that float around like clouds that we have to latch onto! Ms. Pirkey also pushed me to apply for a program known as Questbridge Prep Scholars, which I was selected into, a program which equips juniors with resources and scholarships to apply to Ivy League schools such as Princeton and Brown University!

Despite this, I really want to take the time to admire the amazing work done by other students in my class, which include a start-up business from my friend Michael Roncevich, an international-level project known as "Two Countries, One Cause" by my friend Oulaya Louaddi, and an ongoing project to create a digital map of the school by my friend William Ly. Class of 2020 is truly on fire and creates such unique blends of ideas that I could not be prouder of us.

In terms of extracurriculars, I am currently the president of my student council, president of Speech and Debate, president of Model United Nations, vice president of Student Senate, and a Mass General Hospital Youth Scholar. This year, I will also be implementing a program that I have called "Amigos de Revere," to help bring mental health resources and support to ELL students in the school. to announce their status as a Catholic Schools Foundation (CSF) Sponsored School for the 2019-20 school year. The CSF Sponsored Schools are a select group of Catholic elementary and high schools in the Archdiocese of Boston expanding access to high-quality Catholic education through CSF's Inner-City Scholarship Fund (ICSF).

ICSF is the signature program of the CSF. This year, ICSF will provide $11 million in scholarship support to over 4,000 students in the Archdiocese of Boston. ICSF has been dedicated to providing exceptional, values-based education for low-income families for three decades.

"The students supported through the ICSF are the future leaders of our society and we are thrilled to be able to invest in them through a Catholic education," said Mike Reardon,

Executive Director of CSF. About Immaculate Conception School:

Begun in 1913, the Immaculate Conception Parish School in Revere is the only private Preschool-Grade 8 school in the City of Revere. We currently educate over 240 students at our schools, focusing on each child's social and emotional well-being, as well helping them unlock their educational potential.

Our school attracts families from all of the neighboring communities of Revere as well, serving students from Winthrop, Saugus, Chelsea, Lynn and East Boston. The many scholarship opportunities awarded to our families make the school a viable option for families of all income levels. This year our school also launched a brand-new STEM lab, which allows our students to participate in many hands-on science and technological experimentation.

CSF is the premier non-profit institution for granting aid to low-income students to attend Catholic elementary and high school in the Archdiocese of Boston. CSF's tax exempt 501(c)(3) status is separate from the diocese, allowing companies and individuals who are unable to donate to religious organizations to support disadvantaged youth in the Archdiocese. Over the past three decades, CSF has distributed more than $100 million in scholarship aid to over 50,000 students in the Greater Boston community. With an astounding 100% high school graduation rate, its scholarships are changing lives. CSF has earned the highest possible rating (4-stars) through Charity Navigator based on its financial health, accountability and transparency for five consecutive years.

BAKER'S PLAN WILL IMPROVE HEALTH CARE FOR ALL

Ever since 2006, when then-Governor Mitt Romney worked together with the state legislature to craft a landmark health care bill that served as a model for Obamacare a few years later, Massachusetts -- which boasts the highest rate of insured citizens of any state in the country -- has been a leader in providing comprehensive health care to all of our citizens.

But as with everything in life, nothing stays the same. Change always is needed not only to improve upon what was done initially, but also to keep up with new circumstances.

The announcement last week by the administration of Gov. Charlie Baker and Lieut. Gov. Karyn Polito of comprehensive health care legislation that will bring about significant reforms to our health care system represents a necessary response to the always-evolving world of health care that affects every citizen in our state.

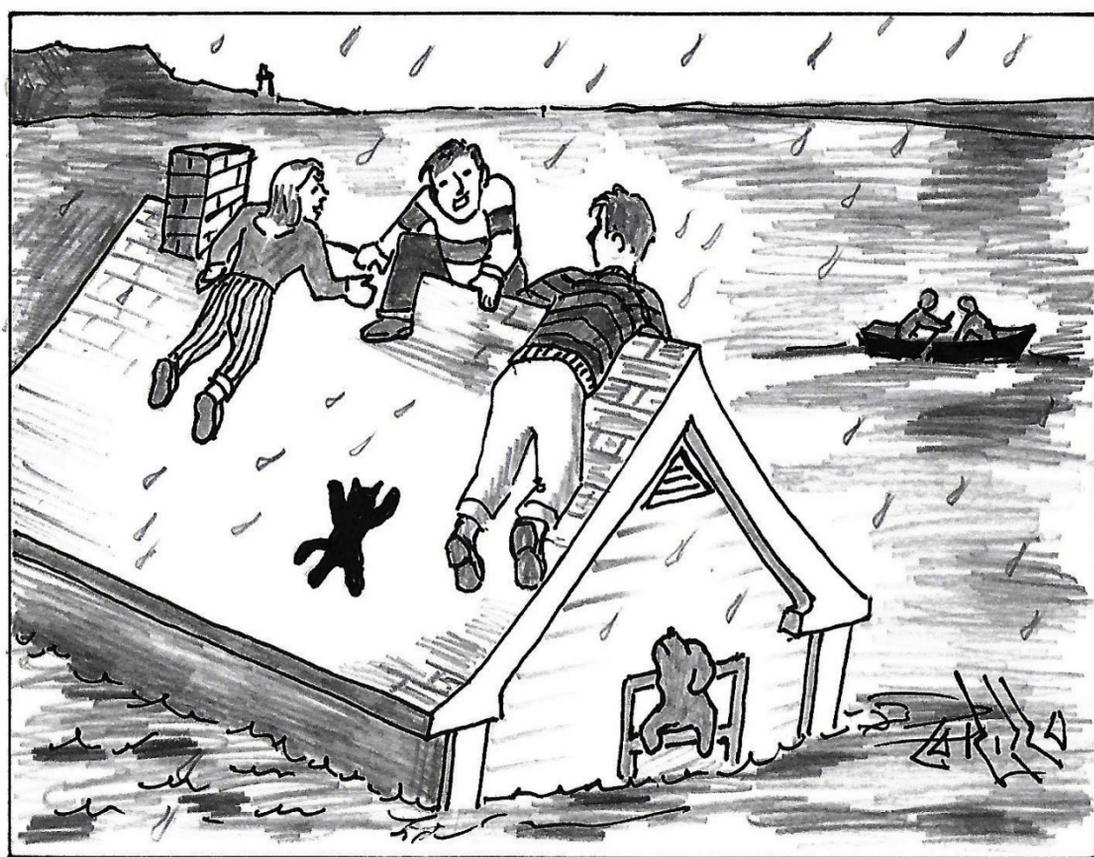

The Baker-Polito plan aims to improve outcomes for patients by increasing access to behavioral health and primary care services, while also bringing down costs both for individuals and for the state.

The reforms will cut down on the hidden costs that currently blindsides consumers and impact the overall system. The legislation also holds drug companies accountable for excessive prices and unjustified price increases, and supports distressed community hospitals and community health centers.

The Baker-Polito bill has wide-ranging support from many stakeholders in our health care system, with the lone exception being -- surprise! -- the drug companies, whose exorbitant prices adversely impact the quality of health care at all levels of the system.

We applaud the plan of Gov. Baker -- who, it should be noted, was the head of Harvard-Pilgrim before becoming governor and thus brings more expertise to the subject of health insurance than almost anyone else in the state -- and Lieut. Gov. Polito for their efforts to strengthen our best-in-the-nation system of health care.

We know that the legislature also is working on a similar track and will join together with Gov. Baker on this issue, leaving us with no doubt that Massachusetts will continue to be the national leader in health care and health insurance as we enter the third decade of the 21st century.

HOW MANY 100 YEAR STORMS CAN WE HAVE IN A YEAR?

GUEST OP-ED

My prostate and thyroid cancer

Dr. Glenn Mollette

I never wanted cancer - who does? Within four months I was diagnosed with thyroid cancer and prostate cancer.

Last October 26, my entire thyroid was removed with four malignant nodules. I dreaded that surgery because I knew speech and singing complications could happen because of the proximity of the thyroid to the vocal cords. Some people end up with paralyzed vocal cords for a lifetime. The surgeon assured me he would take his time and utilize extreme caution in protecting my vocal cords but reminded me that the cancer had to be the priority.

By the middle of December 2018 my voice was gaining strength and I was starting to exercise a little bit and was overall feeling good. I then had my annual blood work done. The telephone call came from my doctor's nurse telling me everything looked good except my PSA was 4.7. This was the highest it had ever been in my life. The prior year had been 3.7. I was told that PSA numbers can sometimes fluctuate and that we would need to do another blood test. Three weeks later I did another one on December 27 and found out my score had risen to 5.9. I called my wife who was visiting in Kentucky to tell her, "I'm in trouble."

We decided to act immediately, however, finding a urologist during the Christmas holidays was difficult. I tried six or seven in Evansville, Indiana and Louisville, Kentucky. I ended up finding a doctor named David Levy from Cleveland Clinic. His receptionist said, "He has one opening December 31st, at 2:30." I explained to her my diagnosis and she explained the only way you and the doctor will know is by a prostate biopsy." I already had heard fearful reports about prostate biopsies. She very calmly assured me that he had a very gentle technique, and few ever complained. I booked the appointment. I hung up and called my wife back to tell her how we would be celebrating New Year's Eve.

New Year's Eve I met Dr. Levy and he spent quite a bit of time asking me questions and explained we won't know anything until I do the biopsy. They got me ready and he removed 18 pieces of my prostate, one small sample at a time. Almost every time he would remove a piece he would say, "Did you feel that?" And every time I said, "Yea, I felt it!" At that moment that's not really what I wanted to say however, somehow by the grace of God I managed to control my mouth. Levy would later explain that often many urologists only take 12 samples, but they miss the cancer by taking too few. "If it's in there we need to find it," he explained.

I walked out of the Urologist's office a little sore but was able to drive back to our hotel where I managed to eat dinner and we later found a movie on television that I halfway watched.

On January 4, 7:30 in the morning my cell phone was ringing, and I braced myself as I knew it was Dr. Levy. He began by asking me how I was doing today, and I said, "Dr. Levy, go ahead and tell me the report." "You have two cancers out of 18 samples he reported. One cancer is a 3+3 for a Gleason score of six which is not too bad. However, you have one that is a 3+4 for a Gleason score of 7 or stage 2 cancer which is very concerning. We can monitor and do active surveillance, or we can do a procedure. I don't recommend surgery for you, but I do recommend either cryotherapy (freeze treatment) or Brachytherapy (radiation seed implant). However, I need to do an MRI and it will be 10 weeks before your prostate will be healed enough to do an accurate MRI. The MRI will show us more if the cancer is spread or if it's still contained in the prostate.

The next ten weeks were agony as I read everything I could find about cancer, treatments, supplements, procedures, side effects, nutrition all mixed with worry. I watched my dear friend die a slow death from prostate cancer just a couple of years ago, so I know prostate cancer can be deadly.

In March I had an MRI and found out the cancer was still contained to the prostate. I elected to do the Brachytherapy radiation seed implant procedure by Dr. Jay Ciezki of Cleveland Clinic who does over 300 procedures a year. Years ago, my father-in-law had the procedure done and so I was already a little familiar with it. After the procedure I never stopped walking, working or trying to be active but for a month I was sore and there were side effects, but they weren't unbearable.

Recently, the new blood work revealed my PSA is now .71. The lowest it's ever been in my life. I still have my prostate which will make PSA. "Everything" is working well. I am back to jogging a couple of miles, working and overall things are normal.

One thing that has changed is my awareness and respect...fear of cancer. Cancer can and does recur. My radiation oncologist doesn't think I'll ever have it in my prostate again, but he said there's always a chance it can show up somewhere else later.

I will have to give my urologist Dr. Levy, credit for laying out in detail everything I should and should not eat for the rest of my life plus an array of vitamin supplements he strongly suggested I take every day.

While I feel great today, I know my fortunate outcomes are by God's grace, and the decision to move forward with two surgeries as soon as possible. I do know that all of this is a comma until next time or something else. I have to be real. These bodies are not made to last forever. There is always something around the corner that will test us or will kill us. Life is short. We have to do the best we can with whatever we know to do and trust God with the results.

Keep in mind God gives us brains. Have regular medical checkups, bloodwork, and pay attention. Don't go to a lazy doctor. A dear friend recently died from liver disease because her doctor kept telling her not to worry about it and that she would be okay. Never hesitate to get a second opinion! Putting off taking care of something does not make it go away. The chances are good it will only get worse.

Remember, with good care and treatments we aren't going to live forever but we might get to extend our lives and do a few more things we enjoy like spending time with our families, hobbies, living out our faith or collecting some of our hard-earned Social Security money!

cially Mr. Fellowes. He has been a continuous source of inspiration for me, including being an advisor for Speech and Debate and Model UN, and never fails to impress me with how amazing of a person he truly is.

After school, I find myself writing short horror fiction in my spare time, watching the latest horror movies (which I totally recommend Midsommar by the way), teaching myself new languages (currently French!), working at Starbucks, and playing with my baby cousin Dylan. I love him so much, and I would argue he is one of the most influential people in my life.

As far as career and college stuff goes, I just hope to be happy and make my family proud! I will be the first person ever to go to college or even graduate high school from my immediate family which I am thankful to have the opportunity. Most days, I feel like I still have not done enough and want to continue to push myself. I think I have finally hit a point in my life where I am really happy! I really hope to become a child psychiatrist or pediatrician and to work in conjunction with the United Nations to bring global change and solve injustices.

NEWS FROM AROUND THE REGION

INNES DEVELOPMENT, TND PROJECT GET FIRST AIRING AT ZBA

CHELSEA - Two large-scale developments made their initial pass before the Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA).

Both the 330-unit, mixed income Innes Development on Central Avenue and the 62-unit affordable housing proposal for 25 Sixth Street by The Neighborhood Developers (TND) will be before the Planning Board later this month before heading back to the ZBA for final approvals in November.

The path for the long-awaited Innes Development was paved when the city approved a 40R smart growth overlay zone for the Central Avenue site earlier this year.

The Corcoran Company is working with the Chelsea Housing Authority (CHA) to replace the existing 96 CHA affordable housing units on the site. In addition, there will be 40 income-restricted units and 196 market-rate units in the 300,000 square-foot mixed-use, mixed-income development.

The 40R designation allows for the mixed-use development in an area near public transportation provided at least 20 percent of the housing units are offered at affordable rates, according to Chelsea Planning Director John DePriest. The Innes project comes in with an affordable housing rate of just under 30 percent.

"We've been working very closely with the Innes Residents' Association," said Jen Corcoran of the Corcoran Company. All residents who currently live in the Innes development will be invited to return at the same CHA rate.

"There will be a washer and dryer in each unit and all the units will be indistinguishable," said Corcoran, whether they are CHA units, income-restricted, or market rate.

There will be a 258 space parking garage, a rebuilt daycare center, and a retail space on the ground level on Central Avenue as part of the project.

During the fall and winter, the developer will be working with CHA residents currently in Innes on relocation options.

"This will be a single-phase construction for all 330 units and the garage and will take about 18 to 24 months," said Corcoran. If the project were to be constructed in two phases, as initially proposed, Corcoran said the project would take up to four years to complete.

"We anticipate that we will have all the approvals by the end of this year and will relocate residents in the spring and summer," said Corcoran. Work would then get underway in the early fall of 2020 with an anticipated completion in the winter of 2022.

"The city and the City Council are fully in support of this project," said City Manager Thomas Ambrosino. "This has been in the works for a long time, and it will be life changing for the 96 tenants from the Chelsea Housing Authority. We have been working hand-in-hand with the Chelsea Housing Authority and the developer to make this happen.

"We know the residents have been waiting for this for a very long time, and we urge the board to expe-

The project will be before the Planning Board later this month and then back before the ZBA for final approvals on Nov. 12.

•The TND project on Sixth Street would create all affordable units, with the maximum preference given to Chelsea residents, according to Steve Laferriere, TND's director of real estate development.

While the majority of the units will be rentals, unlike most recent TND projects, there also will be an ownership component of the project.

Fifty six of the units will be rentals, split between deed restrictions for people who make 30 percent, 60 percent, and 100 percent of the area's Annual Median Income. Six of the units will be townhouses offered up for home ownership.

The project will also connect Sixth Street to the Silver Line and improve the streetscape along Sixth Street, Laferriere said.

City Councillor Judith Garcia said she is in favor of the project.

"This will address three of the main public and social issues Chelsea is facing," Garcia said, including more development near public transportation, the need for affordable housing, and the lack of home ownership in the city.

City Councillor Joe Perlatonda said his main concern with the project is parking, which has 40 proposed parking spots.

"There does not seem to be enough there," said Perlatonda.

Several residents spoke in favor of the project, noting the rapidly increasing price of housing and the need for affordable housing in Chelsea and beyond.

As with the Innes project, the TND development on Sixth Street will be before the Planning Board later this month and back before the ZBA for final approvals on Nov. 12.

CHELSEA MAN SENTENCED FOR RICO CONSPIRACY

CHELSEA - A Chelsea man was sentenced last week in federal court in Boston for RICO conspiracy involving attempted murder and drug trafficking.

Brandon Baez, aka "Big Baby," was sentenced by U.S. District Court Judge Richard G. Stearns to 10 years in prison and five years of supervised release. In January 2019, Baez pleaded guilty to one count of conspiracy to conduct enterprise affairs through a pattern of racketeering activity and one count of conspiracy to distribute cocaine base and cocaine.

During an investigation into a network of street gangs that had created alliances to traffic weapons and drugs throughout Massachusetts, Baez was identified as a member of the East Side Money Gang (ESMG), a Chelsea-based street gang, which uses violence to further its criminal activities and enforce its internal rules. Specifically, ESGM uses violence to protect its members/associates, target rival gang members/associates and intimidate potential witnesses.

In intercepted calls on April 3, 2016, Baez informed Angel Mejia, a leader in the ESGM, that he had just shot two men in a black Cadillac at a gas station in Revere because

Local attorney launches area scholarship fund

By Kate Anslinger

For more than 20 years, Attorney Len Spada has been representing thousands of individuals who have been injured due to the negligence of others. Now, he is giving back to youth in ten Greater Boston local communities. Spada Law Group LLC recently launched a $5,000 scholarship fund to benefit graduating high school students who have overcome challenging situations. One recipient from Chelsea, East Boston, Everett, Lynn, Malden, Medford, Revere, Salem, Saugus, and Winthrop will each receive $500 of unrestricted funds that can be used for tuition, books, supplies, or housing.

The idea of the scholarship fund came from Spada's own personal journey, and was inspired by his experience growing up in the inner city with parents who worked three jobs to support the family.

"I know what it is like to grow up poor and to face challenges that could derail you if you don't find a way to overcome them," he said. "I was fortunate to be the first one in my family to go to college and pursue my passion, and it was due largely to the support and dedication of my parents. I want to provide that opportunity to others."

Having an affinity for young people who are eager to achieve, Spada wants to ease some of the financial burden that comes along with a college education.

"The scholarship is intended to inspire students as they pursue their education. We want to encourage students who have struggled and had to overcome challenges as they move on to a new opportunity," said Spada, reflecting on his own parents' selfless love that allowed him to get through college. "We want to make this next step a little easier."

The Spada Law Scholarship Fund isn't the first time that the local attorney has decided to give back. In recent years he has donated $17,500 to non-profits such as the Lynn Food Bank, My Brothers Table, the American Heart Association, and has served as a mentor and educator for lawyers just starting out in the field.

Much in the same way that Spada has grown his law practice over the years, he plans to grow the scholarship fund, expanding opportunity for future students.

To be eligible, students must be a senior graduating in good standing and having attended their high school for at least three years. They must be accepted or enrolled in a 4-year or 2-year college or accredited trade school by the time of the scholarship award. To apply, students must submit an 800 to 1,000-word essay explaining a challenging situation they overcame and how it changed their life. Submissions are due between November 1, 2019, and February 1, 2020. Winners will be announced by April 15, 2020. The awards will be presented at a dinner at Kowloon Restaurant in Saugus.

Located in Chelsea, Spada Law Group is a boutique firm based in Chelsea, providing personal attention and specialized skills to accident victims.

In Loving Memory of Paula M. DeSimone

July 16, 1949 — October 23, 2018

*The moment that you left me my heart split in two.
One side filled with memories,
the other side died with you.
I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep.
And take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek.
Remembering you is easy, I do it every day.
But missing you is difficult, I do it every day.
I hold you tightly within my heart
And there you will remain.
You see life has gone on without you but will never be the same.
Until the joyous day arrives that we will meet again.
I Miss You So Much, My Wife, My Honey
All My Love, Forever

Mass. Senate unanimously passes Student Opportunity Act

The Mass. Senate unanimously passed the Student Opportunity Act, an unprecedented $1.5 billion new investment in Massachusetts K-12 public education. Assuming inflation, over time the bill could provide an estimated $2.2 billion.

The Student Opportunity Act significantly helps school districts that serve high concentrations of low-income students. At the same time, school districts across the Commonwealth will benefit from updates to the existing funding formula, along with increased state investment in other vital education aid programs such as transportation, school construction and renovation and special education. The bill passed 39-0.

"With the passage of the Student Opportunity Act, the Senate is reaffirming its commitment to the idea that providing a quality public education is not a luxury—it is both our greatest responsibility and our greatest opportunity as a state," said Senate President Karen E. Spilka (D-Ashland). "I am proud of the diligent and thoughtful work done by Senator Jason Lewis, the education committee and the Senate, as well as the tireless work and advocacy done by students, parents, teachers, administrators, advocates and others to bring this bill to fruition. Massachusetts made a commitment to public education in the 18th century, and today we are much closer to bringing that commitment into the 21st century to meet the needs of students today. I look forward to this bill passing the House and becoming law."

"This bill reestablishes the Legislature's commitment to public education for every child, no matter their zip code or income level," said Senator Joseph A. Boncore (D-Winthrop). "By recalculating metrics, this bill invests in low-income communities and prioritizes the needs of the Commonwealth's most vulnerable students. I am proud to support a bill that ensures our schools receive the Chapter 70 funding they need."

Taking into account these new investments, policy updates and the needs of all types of districts, the Student Opportunity Act creates new ways to monitor and measure progress, support effective approaches to closing opportunity gaps, and deliver results for all students.

The Student Opportunity Act fully implements the recommendations of the 2015 Foundation Budget Review Commission (FBRC) ensuring that the school funding formula provides adequate and equitable funding to all districts across the state. The bill provides an estimated $1.4 billion in new Chapter 70 aid over and above inflation when fully implemented over the next seven years. The bill modernizes the K-12 education funding and policy landscape in four areas:

- Estimates school districts' employee and retiree health care costs using up to date health insurance trend data collected by the state's Group Insurance Commission (GIC).
- Increases special education enrollment and cost assumptions to more accurately reflect district enrollment.
- Increases funding for English learners (EL) that is differentiated by grade level to reflect the greater resources required to educate our older EL students.
- Addresses the needs of districts educating high concentrations of students from low-income households by:
- Providing additional funding based on the share of low-income students in each district; districts educating the largest percentage of low-income students will receive an additional increment equal to 100% of the base foundation;

• Returning the definition of low-income to 185 percent of the Federal Poverty Level, as opposed to the 133 percent level that has been used in recent years.

In addition to implementing the FBRC's recommended formula changes, the Student Opportunity Act provides additional state financial support in several categories to help public schools and communities deliver a high-quality education to every student. Those fiscal supports include:

- Increasing foundation rates for guidance and psychological services in recognition of the growing need for expanded social-emotional support and mental health services.
- A commitment to fully funding charter school tuition reimbursement, which provide transitional aid to help districts when students leave to attend charter schools, within a three-year timetable.
- Expanding over four years the special education circuit breaker, which reimburses districts for extraordinary special education costs, to include transportation costs in addition to instructional cost.
- Raising, as the result of a further amendment, the annual cap on Massachusetts School Building Authority (MSBA) spending, for construction and renovation by $200 million (from $600 million to 800 million), enabling more projects across the state to be accepted into the MSBA funding pipeline, which reimburses towns and cities for a portion of school building costs.

In addition to new funding and other support, the Student Opportunity Act establishes the 21st Century Education Trust Fund to provide districts and school's access to flexible funding to pursuing creative approaches to student learning and district improvement.

In order to track and reproduce successful school and district-level innovations and policies, the legislation calls on school districts to develop and make publicly available plans for closing opportunity gaps. In addition, the Secretary of Education will collect and publish data on student preparedness in each district for post-graduate success in college and the workforce.

Moreover, the Student Opportunity Act establishes a Data Advisory Commission to help improve the use of data at the state, district, and school levels to inform strategies that strengthen teaching, learning and resource allocation.

Following robust debate on the floor, the Senate also adopted several amendments to the Student Opportunity Act related to recovery high schools, Massachusetts School Building Authority and municipal fiscal challenges related to Ch70.

To ensure that education-funding levels remain adequate, effective and equitable, the legislation also includes forward looking provisions to address additional funding challenges and policy areas. The Student Opportunity Act:

- Directs the Department of Revenue (DOR) and DESE to analyze the method of determining required local contributions in the Chapter 70 school funding formula for the purpose of improving equity, predictability and accuracy; and
- Establishes a Rural Schools Commission to investigate the unique challenges facing rural and regional school districts with low and declining enrollment. The Commission will make recommendations for further updates to help impacted districts and communities.

The legislation now moves to the Massachusetts House of Representatives for their consideration.

he believed that they were members of a rival street gang. Baez told Mejia that he believed he had killed at least one of the intended victims. Two days before the shooting, Mejia and fellow ESMG member Josue Rodriguez had provided Baez with the .22 caliber revolver used in the shooting. Following the shooting, Baez asked Mejia for assistance getting a larger caliber handgun after learning that no one was killed during the Revere shooting. Baez was subsequently arrested in Chelsea by local law enforcement officers while armed with the .22 caliber revolver used in the Revere shooting.

In October 2017, Rodriguez was sentenced to over 10 years in prison and five years of supervised release. In June 2019, Mejia was sentenced to more than 15 years in prison and five years of supervised release. In September 2019, Jesus Perez, a leader in a rival Chelsea-based street gang (the Outlaws), was sentenced to 20 years in prison and four years of supervised release for multiple federal charges, including violent crime in aid of racketeering, drug trafficking and firearms charges.

Baez is one of 53 defendants indicted in June 2016 on federal firearms and drug charges following an investigation into a network of street gangs that created alliances to traffic weapons and drugs and to generate violence against rival gang members. According to court documents, the defendants, who are leaders, members, and associates of the 18th Street Gang, East Side Money Gang and the Boylston Street Gang, were responsible for fueling a gun and drug pipeline across a number of cities and towns in eastern Massachusetts. During the course of the investigation, over 70 firearms were seized.

HELP.ORG NAMES TWO EASTIE REHAB FACILITIES AMONG THE BEST IN THE CITY

EAST BOSTON - In recent years years Help.org has emerged as a trusted online resource for individuals who struggle with addiction.

Last week the organization announced its pick for the Best Rehab Facilities in Boston.

Among the 17 facilities chosen by Help.org, based on cost, treatment options, location, and accompanying services, two East Boston rehab facilities were among some of the best in the city.

Both the Fran Rowan Meridian House on Meridian Street, and CleanSlate Outpatient Addiction Medicine on Paris Street stood out according to Help.org.

Since the 1970s the Fran Rowan Meridian House has been a 30-bed, coed therapeutic community serving an adult population 18 and over that are struggling with addiction. Meridian House is considered to be a High Intensity Residential Service. The program provides behavior modification treatment for individuals diagnosed with substance use disorder and co-occurring disorders. The clinical structure at Meridian House includes therapeutic clinical groups during weekday programming and recreation activity to promote peer support and healthy lifestyle development.

The Meridian House utilizes a five-tier level system which promotes growth by encouraging accountability, responsibility and recovery. Each resident is responsible for performing a daily job function which promotes daily living skills.

Over at CleanSlate addicts can expect to get started on an addiction medication-assisted treatment (MAT) program immediately, which may include buprenorphine (such as Suboxone) or naltrexone (Vivitrol) as part of an individualized treatment plan led by the agency's trained medical staff. The CleanSlate drug treatment center treats patients with dignity, compassion and respect and offers quality rehabilitation for drug addictions like opioids and alcohol.

According to recent studies, drug overdose is the leading cause of death among people under age 50. In Boston, deaths related to opioid abuse increased significantly from 2011 to 2015. Substance abuse among adolescents is also escalating in Boston with 55 percent of high school students reported using alcohol, 38 percent reported using marijuana, 8 percent reported using prescription drugs without a valid prescription, and 2 percent reported using heroin.

With the growing need for accessible and high-quality rehab programs, Help.org has developed a unique ranking process to help connect individuals with treatment providers that meet their needs.

The Help.org research team analyzed thousands of facilities across the country and then identified the most cost-effective and highest rated programs in larger cities like Boston. Each facility was evaluated based on rehabilitation services, treatment approaches, cost, special programs for unique demographics and ancillary services. The website also provides information about drug use and side effects as well as educational articles.

KO PIES STAYS FOR NOW

EAST BOSTON - Last November the East Boston Times sat down with KO Pies owner Sam Jackson and the successful restaurateur stunned all foodies who live in East Boston when he announced he was looking to sell the business by the end of 2019.

The cozy haunt on Eastie's waterfront has become a destination for thousands craving Aussie meat pies, sandwiches and other funky offerings. But being halfway around the world from home, coupled with 10 straight Boston winters has had somewhat of an effect on Jackson who usually heads back to Australia for a few weeks in the winter. He uses this time during KO Pies' slower season to surf, travel and warm up before heading back to Boston's frigid climate.

"I'm from a beach town in Australia," he said last year. "I grew up surfing, warm weather so I'm in the fortunate position that I'm not married, I don't have kids so I can pack up and leave if I want to. So I'm throwing it out there to see if anyone is interested in taking over KO in the Shipyard."

Jackson, who landed in Boston from Australia a decade ago, started KO Pies out of thin air. The success of KO Pies elevated Jackson's profile in the community and he has enjoyed the reputation of someone that gives back to local schools, nonprofits and community groups since coming here.

While Jackson was bouncing around the idea of packing it in for warmer climates, he said that he has yet to receive the right offer for KO Pies and has even expanded the business to include an Asian pop-up menu on Wednesday nights. Jackson admitted there are many scenarios that could still play out as he searches for the right investor. He is even open, if an investor agrees, to bounce around the warmer parts of the world during the winter months and come back and run KO Pies in the summers or even serve as a consultant.

But for now, Jackson is comfortable riding out the rest of 2019 with new Wednesday night offerings like cilantro noodles, Vietnamese-style chicken salad, and nasi goreng (fried rice).

Jackson said the Wednesday night menu additions at KO Pies, served alongside the famous meat pies, was inspired by Kaki Lima. Kaki Lima was an Indonesian pop-up that once offered a special menu on Monday night's at KO Pies. However, Kaki Lima chef Retno Pratiwi and her husband moved out of Eastie this year leaving an Asian food void at KO Pies.

The menu additions, Jackson said, are something he craves and looks forward to cooking and reminds him of his days as a chef in Sydney.

Jackson said he is also planning on several special events from now until the end of 2019.

And while KO Pies is still on the market Jackson said he is looking to extend the business's lease through 2020.

NEW DEVELOPMENT PLANNED ON BROADWAY

EVERETT - A development team that includes Ricky Beliveau and John Tocco is looking to stake their claim atop the crown of Broadway, proposing an 85-unit building with restaurant and retail in the 600th block of the thoroughfare - an area that hadn't changed much in years until recently.

"I think this is a perfect location because it's a new area for Everett," said Beliveau. "It's up from the casino and just above the downtown area. It's a half-block from the Blue Bike station, it has the bus access, the Encore bus and other amenities. What we really love is that we're at the top of the hill here. The way we designed the building creates a large number of units that will look down on the city. Plus the shared roof deck on top will have outstanding views of Boston."

Said Tocco, "We want to do something that the community will really appreciate. Our goal is this is a tremendous success for the community and we are invited into more opportunities to do work here."

Tocco - who was formerly the community liaison for Encore Boston Harbor - is now working with Beliveau via his own company, A10 Associates. The property, which is actually two properties, contains a professional medical building and the house/office of Dr. Joseph Yee. Both properties, which are directly across from the Parlin School and the upcoming 18-unit development by Greg Antonelli, will be put together to form the footprint of the new building.

The 85-unit building looks to be a modestly-priced project, starting at around $2,000 per month and containing 75 percent studio and one-bedroom units. While they have 33 parking spaces, both said the project is geared towards a market that is trying to get rid of a car to save money - such as people working at Encore or in downtown Boston that want a quick commute by bus or bike.

The duo was slated to have their first public airing of the project on Tuesday night before the Planning Board, which came after Independent deadlines.

Beliveau, of Volnay Capital, had been developing smaller properties, anywhere from 16-19 unit projects in South Boston, East Boston and Chelsea. Having known Tocco, he began to see the prospects in developing something in Everett, and recently the two found the Broadway property.

While Beliveau has 150 units currently under development, this would be the largest project the company has taken on, and it intends to be the most locally-focused as well.

One of the local angles is a proposed restaurant concept with the owner of The Square Deli. Using approximately 4,000 sq. ft. of the 8,000 sq. ft. of proposed retail, owner Chris Moreira - a trained chef - is looking to bring his deli business to the top of the hill, and also add a new restaurant concept.

"He's very good at what he does, and with 85 units in the building, that gives him a built-in customer base," said Tocco. "He's committed to taking the feel of his deli to the space, and then using part of the space for a new restaurant concept. It will be a great addition to this part of Broadway."

Still, the area is a bit of a pioneer's territory when it comes to new development such as what they are proposing. Most of that area of Broadway - aside from McKinnon's Market - is a sleepy area with lots of residential areas and very few businesses.

"We're taking a chance on the restaurant," said Tocco. "The mixed-use is a chance. Housing will work well here. However, a full-service restaurant here is a big risk. There isn't a lot of businesses to draw people out for lunch or dinner. The other retail space is also a risk. I think it will be something everyone is very pleased with. However there just isn't enough activity here yet to draw people out, and that's the risk."

Beliveau said he was very impressed with the City's approach to development, noting that the design standards handbook they had made the proposal much easier than in other locales. The design standard is a product of the Planning Board and the Planning Department that tells developers what the City would prefer in terms of materials and appearance for the various districts.

"The design standards really helped us in the initial design to create something the City preferred," he said. "In many communities, it's he said-she said. The fact they had a document explaining what they wanted, we found extremely helpful."

If the development team gets approvals this fall, they said they could envision breaking ground in late spring of 2020.

LYNN SCHOOLS RECEIVE SECURITY GRANT

LYNN - Lynn Public Schools has been selected to receive a grant that will be dedicated to an upgrade in school security equipment and technology. The $7.2 million in grants were awarded to 140 districts across the Commonwealth, allowing schools to install and upgrade critical security infrastructure including school site alarms, surveillance video cameras, exterior door locks, interoperable communications systems and active shooter detection systems.

Awarded by the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security in partnership with the Executive Office of Education, the grant funding was passed by the Legislature after it was proposed by Gov. Charlie Baker as part of a Fiscal Year 2018 supplemental budget. In addition to the security upgrades, the budget bill that was signed by Baker also included $7.5 million in additional aid for schools to hire social workers, mental health counselors and psychologists, in hopes strengthening school mental health programs, as well as a way to address substance misuse prevention, education and screening for students.

Joint investigation yields four arrests, four kilos of Fentanyl

A joint investigation by federal Homeland Security Investigations, Massachusetts State Police, and Revere Police led to the arrests yesterday of four drug suspects and the seizure of four kilograms of fentanyl.

During the course of the investigation, a purchase of the four kilograms was negotiated with the suspects, at a cost of $60,000 per kilogram. The fentanyl was to be delivered to the Boston area from another state.

Investigators made arrangements for the purchase to be consummated at the Northgate Plaza shopping center on Squire Road in Revere. The four male suspects arrived at the shopping center parking lot yesterday afternoon; once investigators confirmed the fentanyl was in the suspects' possession, State Troopers, HIS-Boston Agents, and Revere Police Officers arrested the four men. The four kilograms, packaged in bricks, were recovered from one of the suspects' vehicles.

Four kilograms of Fentanyl seized as part of the joint investigation.

Arrested were:

1. Gaki Antonio Rodriguez, 44, Woodland Park, N.J., charged with trafficking in fentanyl and conspiracy to violate drug laws;

2. Sandy Suazo, 42, New Britain, Conn., charged with possession of a Class B narcotic with intent to distribute and conspiracy to violate drug laws;

3. David Diaz Rodriguez, 46, Fountain Hill, Penn., charged with conspiracy to violate drug laws; and

4. Francisco F. Alvarez, 39, New Britain, Conn., charged with conspiracy to violate drug laws.

The suspects were booked at State Police-Revere and held pending arraignment in Chelsea District Court.

The arrests were made by Troopers from the Massachusetts State Police Detective Unit for Suffolk County, Troopers from the MSP Division of Homeland Security, Agents from the Boston Field Office of federal Homeland Security Investigations, and Revere Police. The case will be prosecuted by the office of Suffolk District Rachael Rollins. The below photo shows the four kilos.

Patriots at 6-0!

Knocks off Marblehead to become kings of NEC

The Revere High football team completed what ranks as one of the most amazing runs in the program's history with an exciting, down-to-the-wire, 31-27 victory at Marblehead last Friday evening.

For the third week in a row, coach Lou Cicatelli and his Patriots overcame an opponent that at some point in the season had been ranked among the top 20 in the state.

And for the third straight week -- just as they had done previously against Lynn Classical and Lynn English -- the Patriots (with apologies to Julius Caesar) came, they saw, and they conquered under the lights at Marblehead's Piper Field before a standing-room-only crowd.

The victory leaves Revere as the only undefeated team in the NEC (both North and South Divisions) and vaulted the Patriots into the top 10 of The Boston Globe's poll for the first-time since the Super Bowl team back in 1972.

Friday night's contest was as entertaining and exciting a game as any that a football fan could hope to see at any level between the two best schoolboy squad on the North Shore.

"It was a great game between two outstanding teams," said Cicatelli.

The rivals battled to a 7-7 deadlock through the first half. Revere scored on its first play from scrimmage when senior captain Jonathan Murphy took a hand-off on a jet sweep, turned the corner, and scooted 80 yards to pay dirt, silencing the stunned Marblehead crowd while sending the large contingent of Patriot fans who made the trek to the northern suburbs into a state of delirium.

The defenses for both teams were in firm control for the rest of the half, with Marblehead only getting on the board to bring the game back to level, thanks to an interception at the Revere 28 had set up the Magicians with a very short field. However, the defensive stand-off would not extend beyond the intermission.

Marblehead broke the deadlock immediately with a return of the opening kickoff for a touchdown. The Patriots responded with a long drive that was capped by a nine-yard touchdown run by Joe Llanos, bringing matters back to level once again at 13-13 (both teams missed on their PAT attempts).

Patriot place-kicker Rayan Riazzi gave Revere a 16-13 lead at the end of the third period with a 38-yard field goal. The Patriots on their next possession then embarked on a long drive that culminated with a four yard run by Llanos which, together with Riazzi's PAT kick, gave Revere a 23-13 lead at the start of the fourth quarter.

However, Revere's sense of security dissipated quick-as-a-flash thanks to a 60-yard scamper by a Marblehead running back and then, after another Marblehead interception, a Magician touchdown that reversed the trajectory of the game entirely, leaving the Patriots trailing, 27-23.

"We went from bring in control to falling behind in a matter of minutes," said Cicatelli.

However, the sudden turn of events did nothing to diminish the determination of Cicatelli's crew, who soon displayed the sort of grit that is the hallmark of champions.

Revere took the ball after the kickoff, starting on their own 30 with 7:56 remaining, and embarked on an 70-yard drive that ended when Llanos went over from a yard out with 27 seconds left on the clock.

Cicatelli, confident that his line would create the space necessary for the two-point conversion, handed the ball to Llanos, who made it a successful try to give Revere a 31-27

SCENES FROM THE VARSITY TEAM VS. EVERETT

The RHS Varsity and Junior Varsity Patriot Field Hockey Teams. The varsity team qualified last week, beating Malden 2-1, by a blistering 40-plus yard goal by Capt. Katie O'Donnell in the final minutes of the game, making it 2-1 Patriots.

two-point conversion, handed the ball to Llanos, who made it a successful try to give Revere a 31-27 lead.

"We had a simple strategy for that final drive: Give the ball to Joe. We were confident that our offensive line could control the line of scrimmage and open some holes, and they did," said Cicatelli, who gave a shout-out to his O line of Jaryd Benson, Alaa Atoui, Ryan Doucette, Ryan Schaffer, and John Laurina.

The game-winning TD was not without some drama. The ball came loose from Llanos's grip, leading to a Marblehead recovery, but after some delay, the refs (who had called back three Revere TDs on the night) ruled that Joe had broken the plane before losing the ball.

RHS linebacker Jonathan Tran, who led the Patriots with a dozen tackles in a performance that Cicatelli termed "a monster game," then applied the coup de grace, picking off a Marblehead pass in the waning seconds to seal the deal -- and thus ending the Magicians' remarkable winning streak to hand them their first loss during the regular season since 2012.

Llanos added to what already rates as his NEC Player of the Year and All-Scholastic season, rushing for over 150 yards and scoring three touchdowns, plus the two-point conversion.

Defensively, the Patriot defense was immense. Of the four Marblehead touchdowns, one came via a kick-off return and two came after interceptions had set up the Magician offense deep in Revere territory. The lone defensive breakdown of the evening came on the 60-yard Marblehead TD run in the fourth period.

Linebacker Bill Ginepra turned in a powerful performance, making four sacks and forcing a fumble that he recovered.

Captain Mazer Ali and Atoui were, as usual, rock-solid at their defensive end posts.

Cicatelli and his squad, who now are 6-0 on the season, figure to have a bit of a reprieve after their three-week battle with the iron of the NEC when they host Salem this Friday evening under the lights at Harry Della Russo Stadium.

The contest will be highlighted by Senior Night and Homecoming Game activities, which will make the evening especially festive for the Patriots and their fans.

The Witches are 0-6 and have been outscored by an average of 43-10 in their six losses. They are coming off a 35-18 defeat to a Winthrop team that had been averaging fewer than 12 points per game prior to the win over Salem.

"We have to be ready for Salem," said Cicatelli. "Despite their record, they can be a very dangerous team. For them, this will be their Super Bowl, so we know they will be trying hard to knock us off."

After Friday's game, Revere will set its sights on the Division 4 North playoffs. The Patriots figure to be the first or second seed in the eight team D-4 North bracket, which means there will be two home games at HDR for local fans.

RHS BOYS CROSS COUNTRY DEFEATS MALDEN TO WIN GBL

The Revere High boys cross country team capped off an undefeated dual meet season with a runaway 16-46 victory over Malden last Wednesday at Pine Banks to claim an undisputed Greater Boston League championship.

The Patriots took the top four places, led by Victor Pelatere in a time of 17:03, who was followed by teammates Fabio Tran, Christian Madrid, and Will Martinez, all of whom were officially clocked at 17:04.

Carlos Quintanilla came across in sixth place in 17:16 to complete the RHS scoring. James Carpinelli was seventh in 17:18, followed by Antony Arias in 18:32, Michael Adolphus in 19:43, Brayden Shanley in 20:17, and Miguel Leonarte-Garcia in 21:31.

"I'm very proud of what the team has accomplished this season," said RHS head coach Mike Flynn. "They have followed our pre-race game plan for each of our opponents and have run smart, tactical races to perfection against every opponent."

Flynn and his crew are set to compete in the All-GBL Meet today (Wednesday) at Macdonald Park in Medford.

RHS GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY TOPS MALDEN

The Revere High girls cross country team earned a tightly-contested 26-29 victory over Malden last Wednesday.

The Lady Patriots, who have been competing this season without their top runner, Erika Cheever, because of health issues, received strong performances from Soleil Yuong and Carly Bennett, who finished 1-2.

"Malden took the next three spots, so Soleil and Carly finishing first and second was the deciding factor in the race," said RHS head coach Katie Sinnott.

Also scoring for the Patriots were Salome Gezehagn, Yulissa Santana Baez, and Maajda Louaddi.

"Overall, our team dropped only one dual meet to GBL teams, of which I am quite proud," said Sinnott, whose squad finished the season at 3-1.

Sinnott and her crew will compete in the All-GBL Meet today (Wednesday) at Macdonald Park in Medford.

RHS FIELD HOCKEY REACHES STATE TOURNEY, WINS FIRST GBL TITLE

The Revere High field hockey team made history this past week with a 2-1 victory over Malden that enabled the Patriots to qualify for the MIAA state tournament for the first time in 31 years.

Following the victory, the team held its annual alumni game that was attended by a host of supporters who came out and got together for a great game of field hockey.

Coach Briana Scata and her crew then took part in the Columbus Day parade to celebrate their victory earlier that morning over Everett that clinched the RHS program's first-ever Greater Boston League title.

This past Saturday the team held Senior Day festivities.

"We celebrated 21 amazing seniors who will be leaving us at the end of this season," said Scata, whose Patriots then battled to a hard-fought 0-0 tie with Lowell in a contest between evenly-matched teams in which neither could find the opportunity to break the deadlock.

"Our defense worked tirelessly the entire game to ensure that our opponents stayed away from our net," said Scata. "Chloe Giordano added yet another tally to her shut-out record and made some amazing saves."

Scata and her crew have three games left in the regular season and then will begin their preparations for the state tournament.

RHS GIRLS SOCCER EARNS CO-GBL TITLE

The Revere High girls soccer team earned a share of the Greater Boston

League title, the first-ever league championship in the history of the girls soccer program, with a 2-1 victory over Malden on Monday.

The contest was a hard-fought battle all the way, but RHS head coach Megan O'Donnell received solid performances from her team on both offense and defense.

The Patriots took a 1-0 lead in the first half when leading scorer Carolina Bettero received a throw-in from Sofia Chorqui and proceeded to deliver the ball into the back of the Malden net.

In the second half, Maddy Yanes hit Bettero with a beautiful pass over the middle that Carolina once again deposited into the Malden net to make it 2-0.

Malden battled back and scored a goal with two minutes left to put some pressure on Revere, but the Patriot defense stepped up and stopped Malden from scoring.

Last week Revere put itself in position to win a share of the GBL crown with a tie against Somerville, the other GBL co-titlist, and a win over Medford.

RHS goalkeeper Camila Perez turned in a superb game in net and her defense was solid in the 2-2 tie with Somerville.

Both Revere goals were scored by Bettero, with assists from Maddy Yanes and Chorqi. "We have had awesome midfield playing from Jackie Zapata and Maddy Yanes all year long," noted O'Donnell.

Last Wednesday the Patriots defeated Medford, 5-2, in a come-from-behind victory. Revere found itself trailing 2-1 with 10 minutes to go, but brought the contest back to level when Nahomy Martinez earned a penalty kick.

Chorqi made good on the PK and five minutes later, Martinez delivered a beautiful header past the Medford keeper off a nice pass from Yanes to boost Revere into a 3-2 lead.

Bettero then sealed the deal with two more goals in the final minutes -- giving Carolina a hat trick on the day -- for the 5-2 finale.

"The girls deserve this league title," said O'Donnell. "They have worked so hard all season. We are looking forward to the tournament."

The Patriots will host Charlestown tonight (Wednesday) under the lights at Harry Della Russo Stadium. They will travel to Haverhill tomorrow (Thursday) and trek to Lynn Classical on Monday. They will make a longer journey to Lowell for the regular season finale next Tuesday.

RHS GOLFERS TOP LYNN CLASSICAL

The Revere High golf team earned a 59.5-12.5 victory over Lynn English last week.

All of Patriot senior golfers either tied or won their matches against their Bulldog counterparts. Captain Dante Raffa played number one and tied his match.

William Ly and Michael Hayes both won their matches playing in the number two and three positions respectively.

In a 57-15 loss to Lynn Classical, sophomore Alexio Trichillo led the Patriots with three points in his match at number four.

"This was Alexio's first time playing in the number four slot, a testament to his hard work and dedication to improving each day," said RHS coach Brandon Pezzuto. "Alexio's reflective attitude is second to none. His calm demeanor gives him an advantage in the mental side of the game, and being deliberate in his practice routines enables him to improve each time he swings a golf club. He just started playing golf in August, and his improvement rate is off the charts. I am looking forward to seeing where this drive takes him in the game of golf and beyond."

The twin contests against the Lynn schools concluded the season for Pezzuto and his squad, who concluded their 2019 campaign with a record of 5-11 overall and 3-8 in the Greater Boston League.

The Marie C. Petrilli Cancer and Treatment Memorial Fund

Story by Marianne Salza

Al Petrilli's late wife, Marie, was diagnosed with non-Hodgkins lymphoma in 1997. She endured arduous cancer treatments for a year and eight months afterwards she sat in an austere community lounge that overlooked the State House as a respite, but the room felt dreary.

Following Marie's passing in June 1999, at the age of 39, Al was determined to bring warmth to the Massachusetts General Hospital room. Patients, he fervently believed, should take this time to be at peace and focus on their recovery. With a couch, sheer curtains, and a rug, Al and his loved ones renovated the lounge to feel more like home.

"As a spouse of a patient going through treatment, it's frustrating because you see the weaknesses in the health system. The focus is to get the patient better, but improvements need to be done to make the patient and spouse more comfortable," explained Al, who promptly co-founded the Marie C. Petrilli Cancer & Treatment Memorial Fund in Marie's honor with his brother, David.

For two decades, the non-profit organization that has been spearheaded by family and friends: Al and Marie's children, Al and Marielle, Marie's sisters, Al's brother, David Petrilli, and Al's partner, Heather Clucas, and her children, Al and Marie Petrilli seen here with children Al Jr. and Marielle.

Kevin, Dan and Emilie, have been supporting families and advocating for patient care.

"Twenty years later you see many improvements," said Al, whose foundation provided the first blanket warmer to Mass. General. "Things we suggested are being done."

Each year, the Petrilli Fund recognizes Mass. General oncology nurses and caregivers through three scholarships to assist in furthering their education. Since the organization's inception, 60 such awards have been presented.

The Foundation also provides WHS graduating seniors a scholarship for students entering a nursing program.

The Petrilli Fund presents courageous awards to patients undergoing treatment, and offers financial assistance to help families pay for mortgages, hospital co-payments, transportation, and prosthetics.

"While we want to make sure somebody finds a cure for this horrible disease, the majority of our funds go directly to the patient and their families," noted Al, adding that 10% of their funds benefit cancer research. Petrilli estimates that they have given over $500,000 to improve patient care with financial assistance.

In honor of the 20th anniversary of Marie's passing, the Petrilli Fund held an All White Attire Disco Night fundraiser on Sept. 7, at the family's Winthrop home.

"It was a fun time," said Al, Producing Branch Manager, NewFed Mortgage. "We're small, but we do big things. We change lives."

JIM MOSCA CELEBRATES HIS 60TH BIRTHDAY WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Jim Mosca recently celebrated his 60th birthday at the Orient Heights Yacht Club (OHYC) with his family and close friends. The back outside deck was filled with well-wishers enjoying a terrific party. Plenty of food on the grill and lots of tasty treats everyone loved. Topping off the evening was the singing of "Happy Birthday" and the cutting of a very delicious cake for dessert.
