BLOOD DONATIONS NEEDED

The American Red Cross has extended its urgent call for donors of all blood types to give blood or platelets. With influenza escalating across the country and preventing some donors from giving, and winter weather threatening to cancel blood drives, the Red Cross now has a critical shortage of type O blood and urgently needs donors to restock the shelves.

Currently, the Red Cross has less than a three-day supply of type O blood available for patient emergencies and medical treatments. Type O positive blood is the most transfused blood type and can be given to Rh-positive patients of any blood type. While just 7 percent of the U.S. population has type O negative blood, it can be transfused to patients with any blood type and is what hospital staff reach for during emergencies when there isn't time to determine a patient's blood type.

Every day, the Red Cross must collect nearly 13,000 blood donations and more than 2,600 platelet dona-

Milligan receives Northeast Educators Hall of Fame award

Retired Revere Public Schools educator and Revere resident, Ms. Kathy Milligan, loves helping children improve their literacy skills, and enjoys collaborating with teachers who care about their students' successes. On Nov.

14, Ms. Milligan received the Salem State University biannual Hall of Fame award in recognition of her significant contributions to her school district.

"I'm very proud of my award," soft-spoken Milligan said.

Having been presented the 2019 Northeast Educators Hall of Fame Dorothy M. Foley 1948 Northeast Region Award was especially significant to Ms. Milligan because it honored the memory of a woman that she had closely worked with. The late Dorothy M. Foley was the first principal that Ms. Milligan worked with when she began teaching at the Wolcott School on North Shore Road.

Milligan has been volunteering with Generations Incorporated for 12 years, and is currently the Site Team Leader at the A.C. Whelan Elementary School, organizing and scheduling the Council President Keefe will continue emphasis on board's subcommittees

By Cary Shuman

Council President Patrick Keefe said he will continue to rely on Council subcommittees to hold extensive discussions on issues coming before the council, but he will welcome more feedback from speakers at the regular council meetings.

One of the trademarks of former Council President Arthur Guinasso's tenure was an emphasis on the work of the subcommittees in preparing reports on issues that would ultimately come before the Council for a vote.

That style worked well and colleagues seemed to welcome the subcommittee's new direction that resulted in concise summations by the subcommittee chair – and, of course, shorter council meetings that didn't get bogged down by repetitive exchanges.

"Everyone has their style," said Keefe about his predecessor's successful reign as president in 2019. "Council President Guinasso used his committees for good, thoughtful discussions on issues and it was effective. I will be open to some more initial feedback from residents if the attendance in the Council Chamber warrants it."

Keefe has announced the membership of the Council's ten subcommittees for 2020. Each councillor serves as a chairperson of a subcommittee.

"I do expect our councillors to attend subcommittee meetings when they are looking for more information on topics that we will be discussing and voting on as a council at our regularly scheduled meetings [that are usually held every other Monday at 6 p.m.]"

Master Plan meeting scheduled

Special to the Journal

Mayor Brian Arrigo invites residents and community members to attend the final forum for the City's master plan, Next Stop Revere, at the Rumney Marsh Academy on Tuesday, Jan. 28 beginning at 6 p.m.

Attendees will hear a presentation on the draft Master Plan, which has been underway for the last year and is nearing a final report. At this meeting residents may share their feedback and learn more about the future of Revere as envisioned within the master plan.

Throughout the Master Plan process in 2019, residents of all ages and backgrounds were engaged in creating a roadmap based on community input to help shape the future of the city. The final document will recommend key action items for local transportation, housing, open space, energy and climate change, public health, economic

Massport delivers $25,000 grant to Piers Park Sailing Club

By John Lynds

When Piers Park Sailing Center, East Boston beloved community sailing program, nearly closed a few years ago due to financial hardships, the East Boston community rallied to help save the sailing center.

A donation from Massport then, and another generous donation this week, has helped PPSC continue to run its successful summer youth programs that puts hundreds of arae children on the Boston Harbor to sail throughout the summer months. PPSC Executive Director Alex DeFronzo and Massport Executive Director Lisa Wieland announced another round of grant funding for the sailing center.

Massport gave a $25,000 grant to PPSC to continue supporting the sailing center's Inclusive Youth Development Program. The grant will provide over 600 children and teens with summer programming at Piers Park. This funding provides youths with pathways for mentorship, leadership, and employment opportunities.

"We are pleased to once again be a corporate sponsor for the Piers Park Sailing Center and all that they do for East Boston and neighboring communities," said Wieland. "The Sailing Center offers programming for people of all ages and abilities year round on Boston Harbor as well as mentoring and leadership opportunities. We want to thank Alex and his team for the great work they do every day."

ery day."

Students from East Boston, Winthrop, South Boston, Chelsea, and Revere will be able to sail, kayak, fish, and explore the harbor for low or no cost. "The partnership we have with Massport is vital to our programming" said Piers Park Sailing Executive Director Alex DeFronzo. "The grant funding and facilities provided by Massport ensure that hundreds of youth get to have fun, enriching, and educational programs during the summer. I grew up in these programs and I am deeply grateful to Massport for the sustained support they have provided to the sailing center. Every year we are able to introduce hundreds of new young sailors to Boston Harbor because of this grant." PPSC was established in 1998 as part of Massport's development of East Boston Piers Park to enhance open spaces and provide outdoor education and recreation to the community. Since that time the center has been dedicated to providing 100 percent inclusive and accessible year round recreational, and personal growth opportunities for children and young adults starting at age 6.

"Every year, the center strives to recruit students least likely to otherwise access its programs, including economically disadvantaged students and students with diagnosed cognitive and physical disabilities," said DeFronzo. "PPSC hopes to retain these students from year to year to build skills."

LimeBike ends bike-share relationship with Revere and other communities

By Seth Daniel

Despite healthy demand for the LimeBike dockless bike-rental service in Revere, the company announced this week it wouldn't be renewing its contract with the Metropolitan Area Planning Council (MAPC) – the regional planning agency that helped to propagate the service in Revere and many other surrounding communities.

MAPC said LimeBike communicated with them that they wouldn't be extending the bike share contract, something the agency said it had sensed for several months.

"Lime has served the metro-Boston area with a No Cost Regional Bike Sharing System since April 2018 and, after much analysis and internal discussion of the past riding season, we have made the tough call not to renew our regional contract for 2020," read a letter from the company to MAPC. "When Lime launched we were excited to partner on an innovative approach to mobility for metro-Boston residents. Our traditional bike and electric pedal-assist fleets were provided at no cost to municipalities, while remaining affordable to users. The program enjoyed high ridership and delivered a new mode of shared transportation to tens of thousands of riders outside of the downtown core, helping them ease commutes and find more efficient and fun ways to get around."

Like many other communities, Revere is left with no bike-share options with the departure of LimeBike. Only Everett, which also has a contract with BlueBikes, still has a bike-share option for its residents.

However, MAPC said it would be in talks with municipalities in the coming months about the future of bike sharing in their communities.

LimeBike said after looking at ridership numbers from the past year, they decided to pursue the electric scooter market instead of bikes.

"Lime remains fully committed to innovative mobility options and we are currently working with state leaders on Beacon Hill to legalize electric scooters," read the letter from LimeBike. "Over the past year, Lime has focused on launching and growing our scooter fleets in the U.S., which have been very popular in cities across the globe. Our recent scooter pilot in Brookline proved that the same excitement exists here."

Any Lime user with remaining funds in their Lime account can use that balance in any other active Lime market, or receive a refund by request through the company's customer support channels.

tions for patients who rely on blood to survive. Shortfalls in donations can cause delays in essential medical care for patients like 12-year-old Dagan Hawkins.

Diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia in November, Dagan has required platelet and blood transfusions during his cancer treatments. "There was a time when they needed to have blood products delivered from another hospital because they were unavailable there," said Dustin Hawkins, Dagan's father.

Donors of all blood types – especially types O positive and O negative – are urged to make an appointment to give blood or platelets now using the Red Cross Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enabling the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device.

MCGRATH NAMED TO DEAN'S LIST AT DEAN COLLEGE

Dean College is pleased to announce that Alyssa McGrath of Revere has earned a place on the Dean's List for the Fall 2019 semester.

Founded in 1865, Dean College is a private, residential college located in Franklin Massachusetts, 45 minutes from Boston, Massachusetts, and Providence, Rhode Island. Dean College offers baccalaureate degrees, associate degree programs, as well as a robust schedule of part-time continuing and professional education credit and certificate programs throughout the calendar year.

LOCAL RESIDENTS NAMED TO DEAN'S LIST

Becker College recognized the following local residents who were named to the dean's list for the fall 2019 semester. The Dean's List recognizes all full-time students (24 or more credit hours earned for the academic year; 12 minimum each semester - September through May) whose term grade point average is 3.50 or higher with no grade below a B- and no incomplete (I) or withdrawal/failing (WF) grades.

Monique Cohen, of Revere is pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Veterinary Science, Pre-Veterinary Concentration.

Emma Nayiga, of Revere is pursuing a Associate of Science degree in Nursing.

Becker College is an undergraduate and graduate, career-focused private college, providing a supportive and inclusive learning community that prepares graduates for their first to last careers. Nearly 1,700 students from the United States and around the world live and learn on the College's Worcester and Leicester campuses. With nationally recognized programs in nursing, game design and animal studies, Becker has been consistently ranked as a "Best College" for undergraduate education by The Princeton Review.

ALSUBAIE NAMED TO LASELL UNIVERSITY DEAN'S LIST

Faisal Alsubaie of Revere was named to the fall 2019 Dean's List at Lasell University in Newton, Massachusetts.

To be named to the Dean's List, they needed to complete at least 12 credits as a full-time student and achieve a semester GPA of 3.5 or higher.

HOUSE PASSES LEGISLATION TO HELP PROTECT PERSONS WITH INTELLECTUAL OR DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

CAMBRIDGE HEALTH ALLIANCE MAKES DONATION TO ACA

Cambridge Health Alliance Everett Hospital staff recently made a donation of $1,900 to the American Cancer Society for research to help uncover factors that may cause cancer, and improve cancer patients' quality of life. Lindsay Nicholson, left, health systems manager for hospitals at the American Cancer Society, accepted the donation from Christian Lanphere, administrator of Cambridge Health Alliance Everett Hospital.

colleagues in the House of Representatives unanimously passed legislation to create a registry of care providers who harmed a person or persons with an intellectual or developmental disability. The bill seeks to prevent those providers from being hired for programs funded or operated by the Department of Developmental Services (DDS).

The legislation, An Act to Protect Persons with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities from Abuse, creates a registry of care providers against whom the Disabled Persons Protection Commission (DCCP) has made a final decision regarding "substantiated findings" of acts resulting in serious physical or emotional injury of a person with an intellectual or developmental disability.

"I'm proud that the House to action today to further ensure the safety and wellbeing of people with intellectual or developmental disabilities," said Speaker DeLeo, (D – Winthrop). "Thank Chair Michlewitz and Chair Khan for their important work on this issue. This legislation will save lives."

"I am proud to join my colleagues in the House in voting to pass Nicky's Law, which will protect our most vulnerable residents with developmental disabilities against abuse from caretakers," said Rep. RoseLee Vincent (D-Revere). "Thank you to Chairwoman Khan and Chairwoman Dean-Campbell for ushering this important piece of legislation through the House under the leadership of Speaker DeLeo. Many lives will be improved, and many families will have peace of mind because of Nicky's Law."

The bill requires care provider employers to check the registry prior to hiring or retaining any person as a care provider and prevents employers from hiring or retaining any provider who appears on the registry. Those employers include those with DDS licenses for day services, those that have contracts with DDS, and those receiving funding from DDS. Under the bill, DCCP imposes monetary fines or other penalties on any employer that fails to comply. The legislation also includes due process protections for care providers.

The legislation builds on ongoing increased support for those departments serving adults and children with intellectual or developmental disabilities. From 2012 to 2020, DPPC funding has increased by 93 percent.

"It was an honor to work with Speaker DeLeo, Chair Campbell, Vice Chair Cutler, dedicated families, advocates and other stakeholders to address the abuse of individuals with disabilities," said Rep. Kay Khan (D-Newton), Chair of the Joint Committee on Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities. "The creation of the registry will provide future protections for our most vulnerable individuals. It is deserving that Nicky's Law is one of the lead pieces of legislation being addressed in 2020."

The bill will now go to the Senate.

Two Revere schools are finalists for state Kaleidoscope Collective Learning pilot program

By John Lynds

Last month the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education named the Rumney Marsh Academy and Abraham Lincoln Elementary School in Revere as finalists for the Kaleidoscope Collective for Learning pilot program. The program is aimed at involving more students and teachers in ‘deeper learning’ in order to meet the job skill demands of the modern world and close achievement gaps in school districts across the state.

Schools focused on deeper learning, like the ones in Revere, help students develop academic and problem-solving skills that enhance their ability to communicate and work with others while developing skills that can prepare students for jobs of the fu-

Last Monday a delegation from Kaleidoscope visited the Rumney Marsh Academy (RMA) and talked with teachers and students about the program.

“The RMA and Lincoln were selected as one of 22 schools for the Department of Education’s Deeper Learning initiative, which aims to develop alternative assessments to standardized testing,” said Revere School Superintendent Dianne Kelly. “The pilot program will encourage and enable students to apply their knowledge to real world experiences or circumstances throughout the course of the pilot.”

According to research, the fastest-growing job sectors are those that require problem-solving and critical thinking skills, while jobs that require routine manual skills are in decline. By 2020, two out of three jobs will require postsecondary education and training beyond high school. Consequently, high school graduates need to master challenging academic content and develop skills in communication, collaboration, critical thinking, and problem-solving that they can apply to complex and new situations.

However, few of the nation’s students, and even fewer traditionally underserved students, demonstrate the college- and career-readiness skills necessary to succeed in an increasingly complex economy.

Secondary Education Commissioner Jeffrey Riley said in too many cases he has seen the curriculum narrowed to focus on assessed subjects or shallow coverage of content in a rush to cover all standards before MCAS testing.

“(Teachers) also reported instances of too much time spent drilling students on tested skills, divorced from a cumulative, meaningful learning context,” said Riley. “The result is that often students are disengaged and unable to connect their daily lessons with their current or future lives.”

RHA and Lincoln School will join the inaugural Kaleidoscope cohort this year. The cohort will run from January 2020 to June 2021 and the two Revere schools will receive professional development on implementing deeper learning.

In the deeper learning model, expert teachers help students demonstrate fluency in a given academic area so that students can identify themselves as participants in and contributors to that academic area. This differs from traditional learning where a student simply learn a subject but may be unaware of how to apply that subject to real world situations. Being able to connect a subject to the world outside the classroom helps students shape their critical thinking and problem solving skills.

Riley said the two Revere schools were selected because they have already begun innovative work involving deeper learning and submitted creative proposals for how to enhance that work.

Riley added that deeper learning opportunities in Revere could help close achievement gaps and prepare students for a strong future.

“We were thrilled that hundreds of schools and districts expressed interest, many of which completed applications for the Kaleidoscope Collective for Learning,” said Riley. “This reflects schools’ and districts’ enthusiasm for deeper learning – learning that is interactive, relevant, collaborative, and coherently aligned to Massachusetts standards.”

Lessons learned from this pilot will inform efforts to bring deeper learning to more schools and districts in the future.

“We are excited to begin collaborating with our inaugural cohort in January to accelerate deeper learning statewide,” said Senior Associate Commissioner Komal Bhasin, who is leading the Kaleidoscope Collaborative for Learning.

reading program.

“Generations, Inc. is a one-on-one tutorial program for children who need reading help,” explained Ms. Milligan. “We have 21 volunteers and I enjoy working with them. It’s meaningful for them to be engaged. They’re reliable and dedicated to the students.”

Milligan is not only committed to the field of education; but also volunteers twice a month with Dress for Success, a Boston boutique that helps prepare disadvantaged women for job interviews.

“It’s a nice way to connect with people,” said Milligan. “When you’re a retiree, you need something to do other than your daily routine.”

Milligan -- who graduated from UMass Amherst, and received a master’s degree from Boston College -- retired from the William McKinley School after 32 years of teaching second and third grade.

“I like the school environment,” expressed Milligan, beside her glass teacher’s apple paperweight. “It’s what I know best. It’s all about helping the teachers and kids.”

development, historic and cultural resources and public facilities.

“Next Stop Revere will define what we want to see for our city, not just in the immediate future, but how we imagine what the city can be 20 and more years from now,” said Mayor Arrigo. “This process has shown us that many community members are deeply invested in making sure Revere realizes its full potential” said the Mayor. “I’m looking forward to working hand-in-hand with the community to set the course for generations to come.”

The draft masterplan will be available to the public on the City’s website starting the week of Jan. 20. Residents can submit their feedback during the public comment period by emailing nextstoprevere@revere.org. The Metropolitan Area Planning Council (MAPC), which is helping Revere to craft this master plan, will present the draft plan and key recommendations at the forum on Jan. 28.

All are welcome to attend and share their thoughts. Refreshments, free childcare, and Spanish interpretation will be provided. Other accommodations are available upon request via email to nextstoprevere@revere.org.

WINTER: SO FAR, SO GOOD (AND NOT SO GOOD)

The winter season thus far has been fairly easy to take for those of us who have lived in New England for all of our lives.

The warmer-than-normal temperatures, highlighted by the record-breaking highs in the 70s two weekends ago, have been welcome, especially for our home heating bills, which are much less than usual. And as we write this at the beginning of this week, the forecast through the end of the month is for continued warmer-than-normal temperatures.

The lack of snow also has been a nice respite from the usual onslaught of winter, both for our backs (for those of us who shovel) and for municipal budgets, whose snow removal costs have been under control through the first two-thirds of what is considered to be the meteorological winter months of December, January, and February.

Of course, we all know that February often is associated with huge blizzards and March can roar in like a lion -- so we'd be the last to suggest that we should count our mild winters before the first crocuses push through the ground. Ol' Man Winter no doubt will have a few tricks up his sleeve.

However, what is undeniable is that the record-setting days of warmth that we have experienced this winter, as well as in the past few winters, are part of the trend toward warmer temperatures around the world.

When we were growing up (in the 1960s), the term "January thaw" referred to a few days when temperatures might have climbed to the high 30s after a period of a few weeks with temps in the single digits and teens.

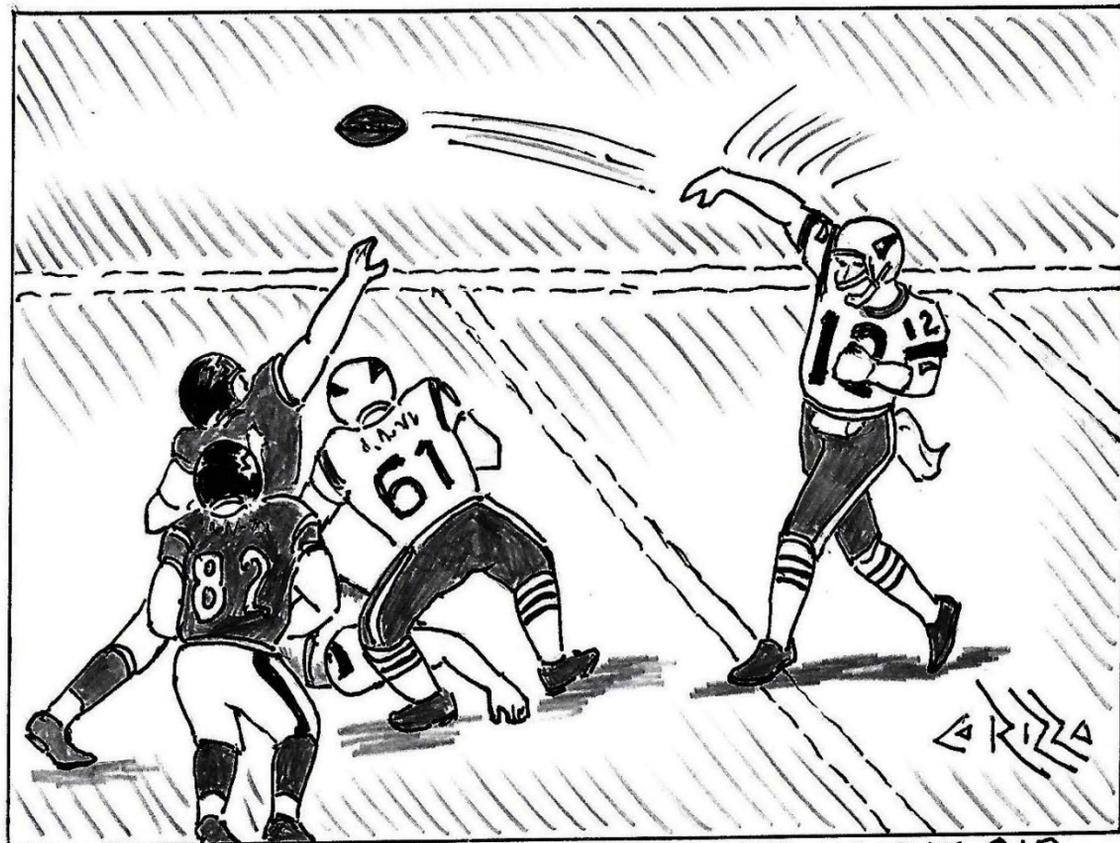

But the January thaws of our childhood were nothing compared to the spring-like days we have experienced in the middle of these past few winters.

Climate change no longer is just a hypothetical. The recently-concluded decade of 2010-19 was the hottest that ever has been recorded on earth. The resultant changes to our climate are fitting the models predicted by scientists since the 1950s, who correctly surmised back then and ever since that the infusion into the atmosphere of man-made greenhouse gases would have a significant impact on our climate.

Our warming planet will have negative effects that only now are becoming evident, as scientific theory meets real-world conditions -- the burning of Australia within the past few weeks being a case in point.

Moreover, it is becoming increasingly clear that the previous scientific models of a warming planet understated the rapidity with which dramatic changes to our environment are taking place. We no longer can take comfort in thinking that climate change is something that is decades away.

Climate change is happening now -- and it is becoming more evident with each passing day that the planet is being sacrificed to the greed of corporate interests who control our government officials, to the detriment of every living creature, including ourselves.

The price of Carbon pollution

By Jack Clarke

On Gov. Charlie Baker's desk are three options for reducing emissions from cars and trucks - the largest source of heat-trapping carbon pollution in America. As we're in the midst of a global climate emergency, the Governor should be aggressive in his choice and support that which cuts the most pollution most quickly.

Over the last year, Massachusetts has participated in a regional collaboration of 12 Northeast and Mid-Atlantic states and the District of Columbia, known as the Transportation and Climate Initiative or TCI. The program is designed to set a cap on emissions from fuel sold in the region for on-the-road use. It represents 72 million residents and 52 million registered vehicles.

TCI would hold auctions for regional fuel suppliers to purchase emission allowances for every ton of carbon their fuel would emit when burned. The allowances would begin with a cap that would decrease annually.

The costs of the allowances would be passed along to drivers at the pump incentivizing them to use less gas. The proceeds from the allowance auctions would then return to participating states to develop cleaner and more efficient transportation opportunities than presently exist. The sale of allowances could generate up to $500 million a year for Massachusetts, depending on where the cap is set.

TCI provides participating states with three possible scenarios for reducing vehicle pollution when setting their cap.

One option is to reduce vehicle carbon pollution by 25 percent starting in 2022. This could add about 17 cents to the price of a gallon of gas at the pump.

The second would reduce emissions by 22.5 percent, with the cost per gallon at nine cents.

The third is a 20-percent emission reduction by 2032, with a cost to drivers of five cents per gallon.

If Massachusetts remains committed to its own legal mandate to cut dangerous greenhouse gas emissions by 80 percent or more by 2050, the first option is preferable.

The TCI cap-and-invest program will foster the transition to cleaner fuels and transportation improvements. Returning funds could be used to help modernize the MBTA, increase the number of electric vehicles and charging stations, improve sidewalks and bike lanes, and provide transportation funding to rural and lower-income communities. It will also yield annual public health benefits across the Northeast of $3-$10 billion, and up to $900 million in avoided costs due to worsening storms and other climate impacts.

Higher fuel costs may seem unattractive now, but they are low compared to the increasing long-term costs of climate change.

Although TCI will lead to modest increases in the price of gas and diesel fuels, unlike a gas tax, which is fixed at the pump and does not guarantee emissions reductions, TCI is not fixed and would depend on market responses to the caps and how much of the wholesale expense suppliers choose to pass on to consumers.

Some suggest that in order for the Commonwealth to fully participate in TCI, the legislature should first grant its approval. That concern, however, was settled in 2008 when under the Global Warming Solutions Act, lawmakers provided the Governor with the legal mechanism necessary for this type of carbon-pollution pricing.

TCI also has broad-based support from a wide range of business and environmental organizations, including the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, Boston Green Ribbon Commission, Massachusetts Competitive Partnership, Massachusetts Business Roundtable, Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation, Mass Audubon, Union of Concerned Scientists, and The Nature Conservancy. Two-thirds of Massachusetts residents are in favor of the program, as recently polled by the public policy forum MassINC. The public can also provide input on TCI through the end of February at the TCI website: www.transportationandclimate.org.

As the President continues to call climate change a "hoax" and Congress refuses to deal with the climate crises, it is increasingly up to states to address this existential threat. As such, Gov. Baker should reject any legislative attempt to usurp his authority to participate in TCI, he should continue the Bay State's regional leadership in the program and encourage other states to join, and he should choose the most effective and aggressive option for reducing carbon emissions in the most timely manner possible. The urgency of the climate crisis, our future, and the lives of our children demand no less.

Jack Clarke is the director of public policy and government relations at Mass Audubon.

Tariffs will hurt small businesses on Main Street USA

By Ryan Maloney

The effect of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) announced tariffs on small US businesses is dramatic and have the potential to become devastating. Not only would it effect suppliers and wholesalers of wine and single malt scotch, but it would also have an influence at the retail level. Jobs and stores will be lost right on Main Street USA where the impact will be felt most.

Wine in the first round of tariffs was a 25 percent increase. Some suppliers were able to absorb it, but 100 percent will be much tougher and for smaller retailers, impossible.

In the case of European Whisk(e)y, there are different hurdles. Single malt scotch sent to the US has to be specially bottled in a 750ml. While the rest of the world (except South Africa) uses 700ml. So if there are more impediments like a 25-100 percent tariff, anything but the basic whisk(e)y will be shipped to US. The slack will be taken up elsewhere especially China where demand is high.

Many smaller retailers of wine and whisky have invested deeply in specialty items that the big chains and big box stores do not carry, these items are exactly the products that have been targeted by the tariffs! You are essentially taking away the one advantage these stores have to stay relevant and in business. It is unfathomable that they are being sacrificed to prove a point about a dispute between two international mega corporations in a field not even relevant to the same industry!

Further these new round of tariffs are now being used a bludgeoning tool against the European Union to help internet corporations that are not even paying their fair share domestically! Boeing, Facebook, Amazon, and Google are Former Mayor William G. Reinstein has charged that Mayor George V. Colella is acting behind the scenes to prevent Reinstein from collecting the $10,452 in his state and city retirement account to which he is entitled. The sum represents money that Reinstein paid into the system. He charged that Colella influenced former Retirement Board member Gerald Errico, who now is living in Florida on a Revere disability pension, to delay giving Reinstein his money back in 1978. Reinstein asserted Colella still is holding a political grudge dating to 1971 when Reinstein defeated Colella for mayor.

Revere residents are mourning the passing of the city's first mayor, Arthur B. Curtis, who passed away last week in Ormand Beach, Florida, where he had been ill for three weeks. A native of Freeport, Maine where he was born in 1854, he came to Revere in 1870 after his marriage, building a house at 178 Campbell Ave. He first was elected to the Board of Selectmen in 1890 and also was elected to the state legislature. He was elected mayor in 1915 when the new city charter went into effect. He served only one term, but left office with all bills paid. He left Revere in 1921 to make his home in Alton Bay, N.H., with his winter residence in Florida. His body will lie in state in Revere City Hall Saturday morning for citizens to pay their last respects. A funeral service then will be held at the First Congregational Church. He is survived by four nephews and a niece.

well equipped to weather international trade disputes within their own industries.

Unfortunately, the Mom and Pop stores are not designed survive when their livelihood is being used as a chess-piece in a multi country trade dispute. Especially a trade dispute in which they have no say and no recourse. It is important to note that there are no subsidies to the small businesses that will be effected by these tariffs, as there were with agricultural tariffs. There are better ways within each of these disputed industries to handle this without putting undue stress on an industry that is dominated by small businesses.

OBITUARIES

Marie Pacchielat

Stop & Shop retiree, producer of prize-winning flowers, herbs and vegetables and member of Rossetti Seniors

Family and friends are invited to attend visiting hours on Thursday, Jan. 23, from 9 to 11 a.m. in the Vertuccio & Smith Home for Funerals, 773 Broadway (Rte 107) Revere for Melania (Depicolzuane) Pacchielat, 86, who passed on Sunday, Jan. 23 at the Lighthouse Nursing Care Center of Revere following a brief illness. Her Funeral Mass will follow the visitation at the Immaculate Conception Church (corner of Beach Street and Winthrop Avenue) Revere at 11:30 a.m., and will be immediately followed by entombment at Woodlawn Community Mausoleum, Sheffield Building.

Mrs. Pacchielat was born and raised in Italy, in a region now known as Croatia. She came to this country with her family in December of 1956. Mrs. Pacchielat, along with her late husband, Silvano, who died on Aug. 27, 2014, were the quintessence of devoted and loving parents. Both worked solely for the joy and welfare of their children.

Mrs. Pacchielat worked as a young woman in the garment industry in East Boston. Later, she worked as a clerk and food tester for Stop & Shop for over 18 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Pacchielat were the proud producers of prize-winning vegetables, herbs and flowers in their garden on Payson Street. Active until recently, she could still be seen working in her garden last summer.

She was also a proud and active member of the Rossetti Seniors, sharing her energy and engaging personality with all the other members.

She was the cherished mother of: Stefano J. Pacchielat of Lynn, Antonio Pacchielat and his wife, Claire of Easton and Daniel J. Pacchielat of Revere; the devoted sister of: Luciano Depicolzuane and his wife, Virginia of Seattle, Wash., Mirella Cirimia and her husband, Rosario of Revere, Ornella Vittoria and her husband, Salvatore of Everett and Nancy Vitagliano of Winthrop. She is also lovingly survived by many faithful nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and grand-nephews within both the Depicolzuane and Pacchielat families in the USA, Italy and Croatia.

In lieu of flowers, remembrances may be made to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105-9959. For additional information, please visit: www.vertuccioandsmith.com.

Robert Elliott Feyler

One of a kind — true gentleman

Robert Elliott "Bob" Feyler, 74, formerly a longtime resident of Wilmington and Revere, passed away peacefully on Dec. 21, 2019, at the Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston.

Bob was born on Feb. 18, 1945, the dear son of the late Kenneth and Alice (Cook) Feyler. He was raised and educated in Revere and a graduate of Revere High School. Bob loved his upbringing in Revere and enjoyed his first job working at the Revere Beach amusement park. Bob grew up with a love of cars, boats and being by the ocean.

In October of 1966 he joined the United States Air Force and proudly served the country. Bob completed several training courses and was stationed at Lackland and Shepard Air Force Bases in Texas. He was released from active duty and returned home to his family.

Bob married the "love of his life" Diana Paradis and the couple settled in Wilmington. He was dedicated to spending his time with his family, which included regular visits to their second home in Maine; a home built by Bob. While there he enjoyed snowmobiling, maintaining his property with his tractors and making sure that his children and grandchildren always had a great time.

Bob worked hard for his family; he started as an installer for New England

Telephone which later became AT&T and finally Verizon. Bob's work ethic, great personality and vast knowledge led him up through the ranks in the company. When he retired from the phone company, he took a position at Textron in Wilmington, where he made many good friends.

Bob's other passion was spending summers on his boat in Essex where he enjoyed fishing and exploring Crane Beach. He was also a "jack of all trades" and especially enjoyed carpentry.

Later in life, he found great joy in his grandchildren whom he adored. On a regular basis, he would visit his children and grandchildren for dinner which was always followed by working on a project around their house.

Bob was truly the most kind, caring, thoughtful and patient man; thoughts that were resonated by everyone who met him. Bob's legacy will be the influence he had on all who knew him and that was to be kind, giving and respectful to others. He was certainly "one of a kind" and a true gentleman; Bob will forever be loved and missed by many.

Bob was the beloved husband of Diana M. (Paradis) Feyler, devoted father of David Feyler and his wife, Kerry of Wilmington, Susan Sugrue and her husband, Jim of Keller, Texas, Kerri Staffier and her husband, Mark of Middleton and the late Daniel Elliott Feyler; devoted "Grampie" and "Bobum" to Daniel Feyler, Michael Feyler, Matthew Sugrue, Victoria Sugrue, Adam Staffier and Colin Staffier; dear brother of Kenneth Feyler and his wife, Dorothy of Peabody. Bob was also the "special uncle" to Ellen Gill, Peter Feyler as well as many Paradis Family nieces and nephews.

At Bob's request, funeral services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations in Bob's memory may be made to the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, P. O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284. www.nicholsfuneralhome.com.

Roberta Melone

Of Melrose, formerly of Revere

Roberta "Babe" (Jensen) Melone of Melrose, formerly of Malden and Revere, passed away on Jan. 15.

Roberta was active in the Reverites Ladies Bowling League and was also a member of the VFW Women's Auxiliary.

Roberta was born in Revere on March 18, 1933, to the late Peter and Anna (Keates) Jensen. She was the beloved wife of the late Fred Melone, loving mother of Kim Lyons and her husband, David of Revere, Cindy Blanchard and her husband, William of Methuen, Teri Hynes and her husband, Gary of Peabody, Jody Melone of Melrose and the late Jamie Melone; cherished sister of Clara Cacciola and her late husband, Peter of Revere and the late Peter Jensen; adored grandmother of Casey and her husband, Dan Sieck, Brendan and his wife, Allison Blanchard, Courtney Lyons, Michelle Blanchard, Jeremy Hynes and his fiancé, Theresa and Jared Hynes. She is also survived by one great-granddaughter, Cora Sieck. Funeral arrangements were by the Paul Buonfiglio & Sons-Bruno Funeral Home, Revere. Interment was at Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Kaplan Family Hospice House, 78 Liberty St., Danvers, MA 01923.

Adelaide Martignetti

Her family was her pride and joy

Adelaide Martignetti, our beloved Mother, Wife, Nonna, Bisnonna, Sister, Aunt and Friend, passed away peacefully on Jan. 19 surrounded by the love of her family. Also known as Nenella, Adelaide was born in 1936 in the picturesque village of Montefalcione, Italy, to parents Federico Martignetti and Maria Pagliuca. In 1958, Adelaide married Antonio Martignetti of Montefalcione and together they set out on a journey towards a life full of possibilities. Along with their first-born daughter, Michelina, the family immigrated to Canada in 1961. Adelaide adapted to new ways of life and the family welcomed a second daughter, Maria.

In pursuit of greater opportunities, the family immigrated for a second time in 1969. This move brought them to Revere, where they created a beautiful home. The family welcomed their son, Alessandro in Revere, and Adelaide was proud to say that her three children were born into three nations.

Adelaide and Antonio enjoyed 61 years of marriage and were forever in gratitude to God for all their blessings. Adelaide's family was her pride and joy. She immersed herself fully in motherhood and homemaking and was a light in her family's lives. She was a phenomenal chef and baker who united her family through her cooking and entertaining.

Being a Nonna brought so much happiness to her life and she was so proud of her grandchildren's accomplishments. Her great-grandson Antonio was the apple of her eye and she would beam with pride at the mere mention of his name.

Adelaide was a force of unconditional love and strength to her family and she will be tremendously missed. Her family will keep her memory alive in their hearts and her traditions alive in their kitchens. Adelaide leaves behind her husband, Antonio, and her three children, Michelina Martignetti of Revere, Maria Swan and her husband, Michael of Revere, and Alessandro Martignetti and his wife, Paula of Seneca Falls, N.Y.; her grandchildren Melissa Swan of Revere, Elijah Swan and his wife, Maria of Revere, and Brandon Carlson of Revere, in addition to her great-grandson, Antonio DeAndrade of Revere. Adelaide was the beloved sister of the late Rosa Gensale and her late husband, Florindo, the late Angela Spinelli and her late husband, Sabatino, the late America Martignetti and her late husband, Carmine, the late Raffaella Coccozza and her husband, Carmine, Giuseppe Martignetti and his wife, Giuseppina and Francesco Martignetti and his wife, Mima. She was the devoted sister-in-law of the late Emanuella Martignetti and her late husband, Ferdinando, Lucia Musto and her late husband, Biaggio, Suora Antonietta Martignetti, the late Ferdinando Martignetti and his late wife, Angela, the late Beniamino Martignetti and his wife, Elena, the late Felice Martignetti and his wife, Palma and the late Alessandro Martignetti and his wife, Antonietta. Adelaide was also blessed with many nieces, nephews and cousins who she cherished and loved.

Family and friends will honor Adelaide's life by gathering in Vazza's "Beechwood" Funeral Home on Thursday, Jan. 23, from 4 to 8 p.m. and again at 9 a.m. Friday morning before leaving in procession to the Immaculate Conception Church in Revere for a Funeral Mass to be celebrated in her honor at 10 a.m. Entombment will follow at Holy Cross Cemetery in Malden. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Adelaide's memory to the American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 15829, Arlington, VA 22215. For guest book and directions please visit www.vazzafunerals.com.

MVES recommends steps for seniors to keep warm during the winter months

There are many joys to living in New England – summers by the sea, autumn foliage, watching the Patriots, Bruins and Red Sox, winter skiing, just to name a few. But for older adults in particular, it can be challenging to keep warm in the winter months. However, Mystic Valley Elder Services offers simple steps you can take to ensure you stay comfortable even in the chilliest temperatures.
Bundle up. If you need to go outdoors, ensure your extremities (head, hands, and feet) are covered. Also wear a scarf to protect your neck. Long underwear can also be a good investment. Wear shoes with good traction and non-slip soles to avoid falling on ice. When indoors, wear warm layers and slippers to keep your feet warm. With hypothermia and other health issues a serious concern for senior citizens, it is important to keep your body temperature at 95 degrees or warmer.
Manage your indoor heat settings. Keep your thermostat between 68 and 70 degrees as soon as the temperatures drop, and avoid indoor space heaters due to the risk of carbon monoxide poisoning or fires. To save on fuel costs, close doors to rooms you are not using. Keep blinds and curtains closed at all times and place a rolled-up towel in front of doors to the outside to prevent drafts Look into fuel assistance programs if heating costs are a concern. There are many different fuel assistance programs. Each program has its own way of deciding who can receive assistance. According to www.mass.gov, some programs include:

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
The Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community Development runs the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). LIHEAP helps low-income people and families with the cost of heating their homes in the winter. You may seek help from a local fuel assistance office if you are having trouble paying your utility bills. To apply for LIHEAP fuel assistance, you must visit the fuel assistance agency in your area.
Salvation Army Good Neighbor Fund
The Salvation Army's Good Neighbor Grants Fund offers one-time grants for eligible consumers.

The Fund is available to any Massachusetts resident who cannot meet a month's energy expense because of temporary financial difficulty and is not eligible for state or federal energy assistance. To be eligible, your income must fall between 60 and 80 percent of the state's median income levels. To find out if you are eligible, contact the Salvation Army at (800) 334-3047.
Keep in mind, it is illegal in Massachusetts for your gas or electric company to turn off your services if you need them for heat between November 15 and March 15 and you cannot afford to pay your bills.
Eat well. Lower body fat equals a harder time keeping warm. Stay satiated throughout the winter with hearty soups and plenty of protein and healthy fats. If you feel you are losing weight, confer with your primary care physician right away.
Ask loved ones or friends to check on you. During the cold winter months, it can be especially helpful for older adults to have someone check on them. Not only can this provide great company, but it can also ensure you stay safe living at home. If faced with a power outage, pack a bag and stay with a family member or friend.

Old Man Winter will have nothing on you if you follow these helpful tips. With a bit of preparation and awareness, you will be welcoming spring before you know it.

U.S.A.'s 10TH RANKED BOXER Wabik returns to the ring Jan. 31

By Cary Shuman

Revere's professional women's boxer Kimberly Wabik is climbing the ladder and soaring toward a shot at the title.

Coming off three consecutive victories, Wabik has skyrocketed to No. 10 in the USA rankings in the super lightweight division.

Wabik had a 3-0-1 record in 2019 and won every round but one in her four (four-round) fights. The Chelsea Soldiers Home social worker will move up to the 140-pound division for her next fight on Jan. 31 at the Castleton Banquet Hall in Wyndham, N.H.

"I'm looking forward to stepping back in the ring," said Wabik.

Asked about her elevation in the rankings, Wabik said she isn't looking beyond her next opponent. "My goal is to continue to move forward. I just have to take one fight at a time. A New England title this year would be nice."

Wabik said she's been getting strong support from her family, including her sister, Liz, and her brother, Steven.

"That's my crew and they come to every fight," said Wabik. "They tell me people are talking about me in New Hampshire and that's good."

Eddie Ford named Trainer of the Year

Kimberly Wabik's trainer and coach, Eddie Ford of Revere, was named Boston Boxing Promotions' Trainer of the Year for 2019.

"Eddie won it because he's the best there is," said Wabik. "He comes from a boxing family and has been boxing for many years. No one trainer better than Eddie. He's the very best. If I do what he teaches me to do, I can't lose."

Ford, who is assisted in the corner by Jose Centina, said he was humbled and honored to receive the prestigious award.

"I still can't believe I won this award," said Ford. "It is what it is. God Bless. I'm grateful."

Ford said his fighter is continuing to make strides in the ring and the future is bright.

"Each fight, you see improvement in Kim and that shows that she's learning," said Ford. "She's starting to find herself as a professional boxer."

POLICE NEWS

TRACTOR TRAILER OVERTURNS

Just after 9 p.m. Monday, Jan. 20, Troopers from State Police-Revere responded to Route 1 northbound in the area of Route 60, for a tractor-trailer that had rolled over. Responding Troopers found the tractor-trailer on its side taking up both travel lanes, with its load (construction debris) spilled across the roadway. Trooper Michael Daly located the driver of the TT, Stuart Byington, 45, of Cumberland, R.I., standing nearby and made several observations of him indicative of alcohol impairment. The Trooper also performed a field sobriety test. Byington was transported by ambulance to Whidden Hospital in Everett for evaluation.

Based on his observations of and verbal interaction with the suspect, and the suspect's performance on the field sobriety test, Trooper Daly formed the opinion that he was under the influence of alcohol. Byington was examined for possible injury and released to MSP custody. He was transported to State Police-Revere, and refused to take a breathalyzer test, which carries an automatic suspension of license. Troopers charged Byington with the following offenses: OUI Liquor; Negligent Operation of a Motor Vehicle; Possession of an Open Container of Alcohol in a Motor Vehicle; Carrying an Unsecured Load; Marked Lanes Violation; and Speeding.

While conducting an inventory of the truck prior to its removal from the roadway, Troopers located two empty Fireball Whiskey nips in the vehicle. A bail clerk set bail for Byington at $540 and the prisoner made bail and left the barracks early this morning. He will be arraigned in Chelsea District Court at a future date.

SPIT IN FACE

A woman driving on

Brown Circle reported to police on Jan. 14 that another driver had spit in her face during a spat over conduct on the road.

Around 12:30 p.m. on Jan. 14, the woman told police she was entering the Brown Circle rotary when a car behind her was beeping incessantly at her. Words were exchanged between the other driver and herself, and both stopped their cars to confront one another. A passenger in the other car exited the car quickly and spat at her, hitting her in the face.

The woman immediately drove to the Police Station and filed a report.

Police are investigating.

RHS SPORTS Through the Years

10 years ago Jan. 20, 2010

The RHS girls basketball team improved to 7-3 on the season with victories of 53-44 Marblehead and 61-28 over Saugus, both of whom are Northeastern Conference rivals. Morgan Jenkins scored 21 points and freshman Caitlyn Carmel added nine in the win over Marblehead. Marisa Parent scored 20 points vs. Saugus.

The RHS boys track team easily handled former Greater Boston League rival Everett by a score of 55.5-30.5. Soheil Arachiche won the 50 dash, took a second in the high jump, and ran a leg of the 4 x 400 relay to lead the Patriots.

The RHS girls indoor track team easily handled Everett (71-15) and Salem (55-31) this past week. Jessica Simpson was a double-winner in both meets, capturing the high jump and 600 vs. Everett and the high jump and mile vs. Salem.

The RHS boys basketball team defeated Marblehead, 52-45. Trey Weathers scored 18 points for the Pats and Matt Handy hit for 12.

Sean Dean and Jay Sasso scored the goals for the RHS hockey team in a 3-2 loss to Saugus.

20 years ago Jan. 26, 2000

The foursome of Rich Beals, Pat McLeod, Lawrence Bereiweso, and Billy Norris sped to victory in the 4 x 50 yard shuttle dash at the recent McIntyre Relay Track Meet.

Girard Cioffi scored the hat trick to lead the RHS hockey team to a 7-2 win over Somerville.

Despite a 22-point effort by Chris Miles, the RHS boys basketball team dropped an 84-67 decision to Everett.

Revere resident Billy Mandell has broken the 1000-point career scoring mark playing basketball at Bishop Fenwick High School.

30 years ago Jan. 24, 1990

Two former Revere High football coaches, Silvio Cella and George Kenneally, have been named to the Massachusetts Football Coaches Hall of Fame. Kenneally coached Cella in the 1940s and Cella later succeeded him as the RHS head coach. Cella coached Revere from 1950 to 1983 and is the only RHS football coach to win 100 games.

Coleen Mulligan led the RHS girls gymnastics team to a 104.65-91.5 win over Arlington.

The RHS boys basketball team defeated Somerville for the first time since 1971 with a 65-48 win. Matt Ferullo led Revere with 23 points, Mike Viera scored 18, and Joe Amico added 15. The Pats now are 10-2 on the season and second in the GBL behind undefeated Everett.

Malden Catholic High School invests in new STEM certificate and PLTW courses

Developments in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) lead to innovations, new products and processes that sustain the U.S. economy and trained workers in these areas play a key role in the ongoing growth and stability of our nation. To respond to the needs of this growing marketplace, Malden Catholic High School added a four-year STEM Certificate and three Project Lead the Way (PLTW) engineering courses to the curriculum in fall 2019. Malden Catholic is one of the only schools in the major metropolitan area to offer PLTW courses that engage students in compelling, real-world challenges that allow them to step into the role of an engineer with a problem-solving mindset and determine functional solutions.

According to the National Foundation, scientific and technological innovations have become increasingly important in the 21st century as we face the benefits and challenges of both globalization and a knowledge-based economy. The U.S. Department of Commerce also cited that STEM occupations are growing at 17 percent, while other occupations are growing at 9.8 percent and STEM degree holders have a higher income even in non-STEM careers. "We believe that STEM curriculum and PLTW creates critical thinkers, increases science literacy and enables the next generation of trained innovators," stated John Thornburg, Malden Catholic Headmaster. "We added this challenging STEM curriculum to give our students every possible advantage and the means to become highly successful leaders as they prepare for their col-

"Our intention is to prepare students for the global workforce," stated Dr. Diane Perito PhD, Malden Catholic STEM Director. "We offer an outstanding foundation for students with skills in science, technology, engineering and math to help them build interest and launch a future career track that began with an MC STEM certificate," she commented. "We recently built three new PLTW laboratories to simulate modern work environments with experiential learning space and adjacent computer labs for data manipulation. Plus, we will expand the offering to include 12 PLTW classes over the next two years."

To forge a path in the information-based and highly technological society, students need to develop capabilities in STEM at levels far beyond what was considered acceptable in the past. The Malden Catholic STEM Certificate requirements include completing four years of mathematics, four years of science, 1 semester of Introduction to Technology, and three STEM-based elective credits which may include AP Chemistry, AP Physics, AP Calculus, AP Computer Science, Intro to Computer Science with Python, Java Programming, Robotics I: Mobile Robotics, Anatomy and Physiology, Marine Biology along with the three new Project Lead the Way engineering courses- Intro to Engineering and Design, Principles of Engineering and Environmental Sustainability. Students must also maintain a grade of 85 percent and above in all STEM courses.

STEM activities provide hands-on and minds-on lessons for students. Beyond the classwork, the teens are required to participate in extracurricular STEM-based club such as the Chemistry Club, STEM Club, Model Bridge, and Robotics, for a minimum of three years. To earn a STEM Certificate, students must also participate in the STEM Innovation Fair for three separate years. This includes choosing and researching a topic of interest, conducting independent research and experimentation, and presenting their findings at the STEM Innovation Fair. In February 2020, the fair will be held at Malden Catholic and from there, six students will advance to the Regional Competition held at Tufts University in March. Winners from that event will then move on for a chance to win the State Competition held at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in May.

The STEM Certificate can be achieved in two ways, through a standard track or in an AP/Honors track. Students who achieve the certificate through AP/Honors are also required to take one AP course, one Project Lead the Way engineering course and a third AP or PLTW course. They are also required to obtain a qualifying score of three or higher on AP exams and must receive a rating of proficient or higher score on the PLTW End of Course Assessment.

As an additional benefit for those who complete the STEM certificate, students can apply for "AP + PLTW Student Achievement" recognition on College Board application and for college credits for STEM and Project Lead the Way AP courses. Since 1932, Malden Catholic High School has shaped emerging leaders in our community, claiming a Nobel Laureate, a Senator, two ambassadors and countless community and business heads among its alumni. Annually, graduates attend some of the nation's most renowned universities including Harvard, Georgetown, Brown, Cornell, Tufts, Georgia Tech, Boston College and Amherst College. Foundational to student success is Malden Catholic's codivisional model which offers the best of both worlds, single-gender academics during the day and integrated social and extracurricular opportunities after school. Malden Catholic is known in the community for its rigorous academics, SFX Scholars Program and award-winning STEM program (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) with electives such as Robotics and Engineering Design. Malden Catholic curriculum is designed to improve individual growth mindset, leadership principles, success outcomes along with integrating the Xaverian values of trust, humility, compassion, simplicity and zeal. <https://www.malden-catholic.org>.

Dear Elected Officials, Community Leaders, and Directors of the City of Revere,

On Tuesday, February 4, 2020 from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. you are cordially invited to attend the Complete Count Committee meeting hosted by Mayor Brian Michael Arrigo, for the 2020 Federal Census. The meeting will be held at Revere City Hall, 281 Broadway, Revere, MA 02151 in the Joseph A. DeGrosso Council Chambers on the second floor of City hall.

At the meeting Mayor Arrigo will discuss the importance of responding to the 2020 Federal Census and will form the Complete Count Committee.

Revere has been underrepresented in our census data for years, leaving millions of dollars in resources on the table that our community otherwise deserves. This money can be used for vital programs in our City for our Seniors, Veterans and children.

Please take the time to attend this very important event so that we can spread the word throughout the Community that answering the 2020 Federal Census is secure, convenient, and necessary.

If you are unable to attend, please send a representative on your behalf. Recommendations to attend may be made to your fellow business owners or colleagues. All are welcome. Light refreshments will be served.

Thank you for your time and we look forward to seeing you on February 4, 2020.

RHS BOYS WIN LONG JUMP EVENT AT STATE RELAY MEET

The trio of Joe Llanos, Antony Arias, and Camron Ventura combined to bring home first place in the long jump at the Division 1 State Relay Meet held this past Saturday at the Reggie Lewis Center in Roxbury.

Llanos's leap of 21'-2.75" placed him in second-place among the large field of 72 individual competitors. Arias was the fifth-best long jumper with a distance of 20'-2.5" and Ventura was seventh with a jump of 19'-10.75".

Their combined distance of 61'-4" edged Lowell, which had a distance of 61'-7.5".

"I knew based on last year's state relays long jump results that we had a high chance of at least finishing in the top three," said RHS head coach Sam Ros. "If we were on our game, we had a shot to win the whole thing. A few days prior to the meet with the help of a former RHS track runner, Monica Posada, we were able to get some practice time at the Boston University indoor track to work on refining our jumps since we don't have a long jump pit in the RHS fieldhouse."

"Everyone was only afforded two jumps in this competition," added Ros. "After the first jumps our total distance was just over 60 feet, which based on last year would be around the winning distance. Going into our last jumps, I told our boys if we improve collectively by a few more inches each, then we could win it all. Cam Ventura improved by eight inches, Antony Arias held fast with a great jump of over 20 feet, and Joe Llanos improved by about seven inches. Those final jumps gave us the three-inch edge over a great Lowell team."

In addition to the long jumpers, coach Sam Ros's Patriots turned in strong performances in other events.

The 4 x 50 shuttle hurdles quartet of Ricardo Goncalves, Rayan Riazzi, Michael Adolphus, and Arias earned third-place medals.

"The result is a testament to how hard these boys have worked," said Ros. "We finished third at this meet last year, but at that time we had the benefit of having our top two hurdlers on that team, Lucas Barbosa and Fray Del Rosario. That team ran a time of 27.80. We lost Lucas due to a constant hamstring issue and we lost Fray due to his family moving to Lynn. Michael has been very limited with racing hurdles this year because the other three have a slight edge on him and I have used Michael to more of his strength, which are the long sprints/mid-distance races. Despite those setbacks, our four boys ran almost a full second faster than last year."

The RHS shot-put trio of Rayan Riazzi, Jaryd Benson, and Alaa Atoui turned in a strong effort to finish in ninth place, just missing out on a medal. "The boys had a chance to medal if they were to throw their PRs (personal records), but we fell just short," noted Ros.

The 4 x 800 quartet of Victor Pelatere, Christian Madrid, Adolphus, and Fabio Tran narrowly missed medaling with a ninth-place finish in 8:37.90.

"Our goal this year with this team is to break the school record, which is 8:33.2," said Ros. "We had a couple of bad splits and finished just short. If we are on our game, the boys are capable of running under 8:30. I believe that they will do that by the end of the season."

The 4 x 200 relay foursome of Llanos, Marco Cerbone, Ventura, and Riazzi ran their fastest time this season with a clocking of 1:36.74. "With a few minor tweaks, they are within striking distance of the school record," said Ros.

The 4 x 400 team of Adolphus, Cerbone, Augusto Goncalves, and Pelatere also ran their fastest time of the year in 3:42.36.

The distance medley team consisted of James Carpinelli, Augusto Goncalves, Sami El Asri, and Carlos Quintanilla.

"James gave us a great first leg in the 1,200," said Ros. "Augusto is finally coming back into form and did a split of 56.0 in the 400. Sami continues to show improvement as a freshman in the 800. Carlos held steady in the 1,600, showing us that he is close to breaking five minutes in the mile."

"Overall it was a great meet for us," added Ros.

The Patriots will meet Medford tomorrow (Thursday) at the Merullo Fieldhouse and will trek to Malden next Wednesday for their final dual meet of the indoor season.

RHS SWIM TEAM TOPS MEDFORD, 92-78

The Revere High swim team earned a 92-78 victory over Medford last Thursday.

Leading the way for the Patriots were captains Reked Caushaj and David Del Rio, both of whom earned first-place finishes in two events. Reed captured the 50 and 100 freestyle races and David outswam the field in the 200 IM and 100 back. They were joined by Ashton Hoang and Ahmed Ohalid in winning the 200 medley relay and taking second place in the 200 free relay.

Ashton also added a pair of second-place finishes in the 100 fly and 100 breaststroke, while Ahmed was third in both the 50 and 100 free.

In the 400 free relay, the quartet of Miguel Leonarte, Lucas Mejia, Mathews Oliviera, and Jeffrey Martinez made a major contribution to the winning effort with a first-place finish.

Isabella Veraldi turned in a strong performance, taking third in the IM and second in the back and leading her medley relay team to a third-place finish with Martinez, Oliveria, and Julian Goglia.

The 200 free-relay team of Aaron Curty, Edson Pereiro, Lucas Pinheiro, and Mejia got a third place finish.

Coach Chris Hill and his crew of aquanauts are set to take on Malden tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at the Garfield School pool.

RHS GIRLS DO WELL AT STATE RELAY MEET; BARBOSA SETS RHS MARK

The Revere High girls indoor track & field team competed in the D1 State Relay Championships Saturday at the Reggie Lewis Center.

The Lady Patriot long jump relay trio comprised of Jerelys Canales, Carolina Bettero, and Luana Barbosa finished in ninth place overall and was highlighted by the setting of a new school long jump record by Barbosa.

"Jerelys was taking off from about a foot behind the board, which cost us some distance, and Carolina didn't have her best day at the pit," noted LaBruna. "Luana jumped 15'-2", which set the new indoor track school record in the long jump. She will be jumping again this Sunday and will try and improve on that record, which she is certainly capable of doing."

The 4 X 400 relay quartet comprised of Carolina Bettero, Nubya Filho, Astrid Umanzor, and Allanah Burke turned in a strong performance with a time of 4:39.

"I was very pleased with the 4 x 400 team," said RHS head coach Antonio LaBruna. "Three of the girls ran splits under 70 seconds and it was our fastest 4 X 400 time in the last few seasons."

The RHS 4 X 200 relay team, comprised of Barbosa, Kathy Umanzor, Astrid Umanzor, and Canales, ran a 1:56.83, which is just over a second off a school record time.

"This was their fastest time of the season," added LaBruna. "They will have one more crack at breaking the school record on February 9th at a meet back at the Reggie."

LaBruna and his crew are set to take on Medford tomorrow (Thursday) at the Merullo Fieldhouse at RHS and will wrap up their dual-meet season at Malden next Wednesday.

RHS BOYS BASKETBALL DEFEATS KIPP, 53-40

The Revere High boys basketball team snapped a two-game skid with a 53-40 victory at KIPP Academy in Lynn on the holiday this past Monday.

Revere senior Captain Robert Raduazzo (six points, three steals) got the Patriots going early in the contest with two nice finishes around the basket. Combined with some great pressure defense led by junior guard Crisrael Lithgow (who finished the game with four steals), Revere jumped to an early 7-2 lead.

KIPP came right back with two quick baskets, but then Lithgow (23 points) drained a three pointer to give the Patriots a 10-6 lead. However, KIPP finished the quarter on a 4-0 run and the game was level at 10 after one period.

The second quarter was played just as tightly with the home team Panthers getting balanced scoring around the basket. However, Lithgow caught fire, as he often has done throughout the season, scoring 11 points (out of Revere's 13) in the second period to boost the Patriots into a slim 24-23 advantage at the half after a KIPP buzzer-beater by Winfred Sanchez.

"We talked to the team at halftime and stressed ball movement and teamwork," said RHS head coach David Leary. "Obviously Cris (Lithgow) had a fantastic first half, but I never have seen one guy win a game by himself. We also knew their defense would try to take him away."

The Patriots responded to Leary's halftime exhortation and adjusted their play after the intermission. Six Revere players scored at least a basket in the third quarter, led by senior captain Amara Bockarie (eight points, five rebounds, four steals), who was everywhere on the court, scoring all of his points in the quarter and leading the pressure defense.

"Amara's energy and leadership out there in the third quarter was what we needed," said Leary "and the team just responded after that."

With the Patriots moving out to a commanding a 43-28 lead heading into the final quarter, junior forward Dillan Day (five assists) displayed his adept passing skills in the final eight minutes, repeatedly finding open teammates, especially sophomore forward John Capozzi (a double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds) on some nice pick and rolls, enabling the Pats to come away with the 53-40 victory.

Last Thursday night Leary and his crew made the short trip westward down Broadway into Chelsea to take on their archrival Red Devils, whom the Patriots had defeated in their first encounter two weeks previously.

Coming off of a tough loss at Malden a few nights before, the Patriots were hoping to start better and they did. Led on offense by Raduazzo (15 points) and Lithgow, who knocked down early three-pointers to get the team going, and displaying tough defense, the Patriots jumped out to a 14-6 lead with 2:06 remaining in the opening quarter in front of a large crowd of boisterous fans on both sides.

However, Chelsea regrouped following a timeout and closed the gap to 14-13 at the first buzzer. The second quarter was more of the same, as tough defense prevailed on both ends of the court and neither team could get things going offensively.

Capozzi (11 points, nine rebounds) had a pair of put-backs and Day (12 points, eight rebounds) drained a corner three to put Revere up, 22-18, with 1:45 left in the half.

However, Chelsea rallied before the period ended, going on a 6-0 spurt before the buzzer to enter the intermission with a 24-22 lead in front of the packed house.

"We really settled for the three-point shot and it hurt us," said Leary of his team's missed opportunities. The Patriots, normally a very good three-point shooting team, made just 3-of-18 from beyond the arc in the first half.

"We had the size advantage, but did not look inside enough to take advantage," Leary added.

The pace on offense picked up for both teams to start the third period. Chelsea scored the first eight points of the quarter to go up by 10.

Leary called a propitious timeout and Revere responded, counterattacking with a 10-point run of their own to bring the contest back to level at 34-34 at the mid-point of the third quarter.

Leading the Revere comeback were Lithgow, who made another three-pointer; Day, who made some tough shots in the paint; and junior forward Calvin Boudreau (four points, five rebounds), who hit for a buzzer-beater to end the third.

However, the Patriots trailed, 43-39, entering the final eight minutes and Chelsea started the fourth quarter hot again, pushed their lead to 49-41 with 6:02 remaining.

Leary called another timeout to regroup and the Patriots threatened again to come back after Raduazzo and Capozzi both sank three-pointers to trim the Chelsea lead to 52-47 with just over four minutes remaining.

However, the rematch between the fierce rivals would prove to belong to the Red Devils, who combined some hot outside shooting with timely free throws down the stretch to claim a 66-52 victory.

"We competed hard," said Leary. "Chelsea averages around 80 points per game, so I was proud of our defense in the first half, holding them to just 24 points. We just did not finish and make shots early and it hurt us."

Revere, now 5-5 on the season, will host non-league rival Wakefield today (Wednesday) at the Merullo Fieldhouse at RHS. The opening tip is set for 7 p.m.. The Patriots will play at Everett this coming Tuesday.

RHS HOCKEY HOSTS BEDFORD THIS EVENING

The Revere High hockey team will host non-league rival Bedford this evening (Wednesday) at Cronin Rink. The opening face-off is set for 6:30.

Coach Joe Ciccarello and his crew then will entertain Northeast Regional on Saturday with a 5 p.m. face-off at Cronin and host Nashoba on Monday at 4p.m.

The Patriots dropped a 5-2 decision to Norton last Wednesday in their only contest of the past week. They had been scheduled to face Nashoba Tech on Saturday, but that encounter was moved to this Monday.

coordinator, has been delivering the message to parents about the school's academic, athletic, and after school programs.

The school has built a reputation for sending its graduates on to the top Catholic and private high schools. The school has formed a partnership with Malden Catholic High School where students can take classes and earn credits for high school.

One of the school's greatest assets is its principal, Marie Giggie, a revered educator and school administrator whose ability to motivate teachers and students and promote the school's Catholic identity and values have enhanced the overall learning environment and drawn praise from the Saint Anthony parents. Mrs. Giggie has been a teacher at the school since 1995. She became the principal in 2006.

"Mrs. Giggie is a great leader – and she's welcomed me with open arms," said Castillo. "She knows the school inside and out and is very much on top of things. She knows every single parent and student at the school and she's very invested. She works very hard for the school every day."

Castillo is excited about her new role at Saint Anthony.

"The school is doing very well and I'm enjoying my new position," said Castillo, who was born in the Dominican Republic and grew up in Lawrence. "I'm learning about the community and getting to know the people of Everett. Everybody has been very welcoming. I've visited a lot of the businesses in the area and everyone has been very nice."

Castillo said Saint Anthony has been broadening its curriculum with offerings in computer technology, art, and music.

The after-school programs and activities have been a big draw for students, with clubs ranging from cooking, sewing, and arts and crafts to music, band, and basketball.

Castillo has been attending weekend Masses at the Saint Anthony Church and reaching out to Latino and Portuguese residents "so they can learn more about the school."

As a result of their school's success and achievements, Saint Anthony school administrators have received an invitation to attend the Catholic Schools Foundation of Boston Gala in April.

Saint Anthony will host Open Houses on Monday, Jan. 27 (9-11 a.m., and 6:30-8 p.m.), and Tuesday, Jan. 28 (9-11 a.m.) and community welcoming events every Tuesday (9-11 a.m.).

AVID READERS

At EBCCS, our students become avid readers from some of our youngest (Pre-K) pictured above in Library to our students in Grade Two pictured to the right, and up till Junior High where when they prepare for High School and beyond the reading skills they learned at EBCCS help them succeed.

St. John School poised for academic success and future growth

St. John School, located in Boston's Historic North End, is an elementary school serving students in Grades K3-8. Since 1895, it has touched the lives of generations of children in the heart of a dynamic city. Reaching beyond the border of a storied neighborhood, St. John School serves students from all backgrounds and from Boston and beyond.

St. John's is a thriving school with double classrooms in Grades K3 through Grade 1, Grades 3, 4 and 6 - several classes are closed to enrollment due to being at capacity.

St. John School provides students high-quality opportunities with the goal of preparing them to have the skills necessary for academic success at St. John

School and in high school.

St. John School has a 1:1 iPad program for all students in Grade 1-8. Other programs the school offers includes:

- Owl Program is used in K3 and K4
- Super Kids Reading Program is used in Grades K5 - 2
- Wit n Wisdom program is used in Grades 3 - 8
- Collins Writing Program - K3-8
- Choral music program through NEMPAC
- Wood working and Bookbinding class for Grades 5- 8 at NBSS
- Weekly gym and art classes.
- STEM-centric learning experience
- Science Lab Program - 5-8
- Foreign language in

Grades K3-8

• Seasonal cookery classes for Grades 7 - 8 at Boston Public Market.

St. John School also has an exciting afterschool program that runs till 6pm daily, where there are activities and programs in place for children to enjoy themselves in a structured and fun environment. St. John School also offers extra-curricular classes such as drama, dance, yoga, fitness, Chinese Mandarin, Scratch and Mine Craft.

St. John School is in a truly wonderful position to move into the future and provide the best education for our students, so that they achieve their full potential. "Academic Excellence without Compromise".

A Day of Giving to Catholic Schools

Save the Date - January 28 - 29, 2020 - for the third annual Many Gifts, One Nation: A Day of Giving to Catholic Schools!

Already know your school is participating? Begin by filling out the opt-in form for access to your own customized giving page! This is a great way for advancement/development, marketing, or business office administrators to be sure they have immediate access for their school pages. Please note: a school or diocese-affiliated email address will ensure the fastest access to the portal. Any questions about your day of giving page should be directed to nceagiving@factsmt.com.

Each school that customizes their page by December 31, 2019 will automatically be entered for a chance to win $500 from National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA) to kick off your day of giving.

Twenty years ago, Saint Pope John Paul II said to an audience of Catholic educators in New Orleans: "Yours is a great gift to the Church, a great gift to your nation." Countless people in our country have been blessed by the many gifts of Catholic schools. However, many adults have lost touch with their local Catholic school community. It is time for those people who have been impacted by your school to reconnect with the community that gave them so much, and give back.

With this recognition in mind, NCEA is pleased to present the online giving campaign: Many Gifts, One Nation: A Day of Giving to Catholic Schools. Make your gift to a Catholic school today! This day is made possible with the generous support of FACTS.

A Gift to the Nation
Based on the average public school per pupil cost of $11,841, Catholic schools provide $21 billion in savings each year for the nation.

What is National Catholic Schools Week?

Since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It starts the last Sunday in January and runs all week, which in 2020 is January 26 - February 1. The theme for National Catholic Schools Week 2020 is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed."

Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation.

"Why is Catholic Schools Week in January? Our admissions deadlines have passed and we nearly always cancel because of snow. What gives?"

We hear you! National Catholic Schools Week (CSW) is an annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. Now entering its 46th anniversary year, CSW has traditionally been held the last week in January.

Each year, National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA) relies on valuable feedback from Catholic schools across the country on how we might help improve your CSW experience. Year after year, we have heard your concerns. In 2016, we introduced a "year-round marketing" mentality to Catholic school communications strategy. The purpose of this mentality is to have schools take the spirit (and theme, and logo) of CSW and implement into a full year's marketing strategy.

We will host the traditional Celebrate Catholic Schools Week. This will serve as the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. Schools typically observe the week with Masses, assemblies and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members to celebrate and congratulate.

Please note that Catholic schools may choose to participate in both or one - and that is okay! The important thing is to join in on the national celebrations in a way that works best for you. Make CSW your own and share your ideas with other schools using #CSW20.

NEWS FROM AROUND THE REGION

CENSUS OUTREACH HEATS UP IN CHELSEA

CHELSEA - This year the United States will conduct its decennial census. In Chelsea there's been a huge push to ensure a fair and complete count in the 2020 U.S. Census because it determines everything from representation in Congress, to federal funds for schools, affordable housing, infrastructure and health care programs.

In Chelsea and across the state nonprofits like the Chelsea Collaborative have been making an extra push to get marginalized groups to fill out the census and be counted.

In the spring of 2019 the Massachusetts Census Equity Fund (MCEF) distributed grants totaling more than $560,000 for organizing and education activities in under counted communities for the months leading up to the census.

The Chelsea Collaborative was one of those organizations to receive grant monies.

"We have taken this project seriously and we have incorporated Census Charlas throughout all of our training, classes, and workshops," said Gladys Vega, Executive Director of the The Chelsea Collaborative. "We have organized street fairs, network gatherings, canvassing and in our Noches Sociales, which happens every six weeks we have made the Census a table conversation. The Collaborative has to ensure that the hard-to-locate individuals are counted, we know that, without a non-profit organization like ours involved, we will continue to be under counted. I have no doubt that in Chelsea, Revere, East Boston and Lynn more people will be counted as long as the trusted members of the community are knocking on their doors and getting people to participate."

Recently, the MCEF announced its second round of targeted grants, totaling $350,000.00, to 34 grassroots nonprofit organizations to support efforts across Massachusetts to reach hard-to-count communities in the 2020 Census.

Alexie Torres, Chair of the Massachusetts Census Equity Fund and Executive Director of Access Strategies said, "2020 is upon us and the time is now for philanthropy, grassroots organizations, state and civic leaders to join together to ensure the most accurate count of Massachusetts residents in the 2020 Census. The Massachusetts Census Equity Fund is proud to be supporting such an amazing group of groups across the state."

Torres added that the impact of the results from the upcoming decennial census will be immense, bringing into focus the importance of collecting accurate data from historically under counted communities.

Census data determines political representation and the allocation of federal funds for social programs, including more than $16 billion per year for Massachusetts.

"In other words, the Commonwealth could stand to lose almost $2,400 in federal funding per year for each person not counted in the census," she said.

NEW TRAFFIC PATTERN ON BROADWAY

CHELSEA - After years of planning, design, and debate, the City Council has given the go-ahead for a shared bike and bus lane on Broadway, at least temporarily.

Last week, the Council voted 9-2 to approve a nine-month pilot program making Broadway one way from Fifth Street to Second Street, with the shared bike and bus lane. If deemed successful, the transportation realignment for one of the city's main thoroughfares could become permanent.

"As you know, for many months we have been deliberating on the merits of the various designs for a new One-Way Broadway configuration from Fifth Street to Second Street," stated City Manager Thomas Ambrosino.

Four options were presented to the Council, with the one recommended by Ambrosino favored by the Council, with a minor tweak.

"The preferred alternative of my Administration is Option 2 - the dedicated, shared bus/bike lane," according to Ambrosino. "This Option 2 prioritizes public transit riders, a critical constituency in the Downtown, and at the same time provides significant benefits to pedestrians and bicyclists."

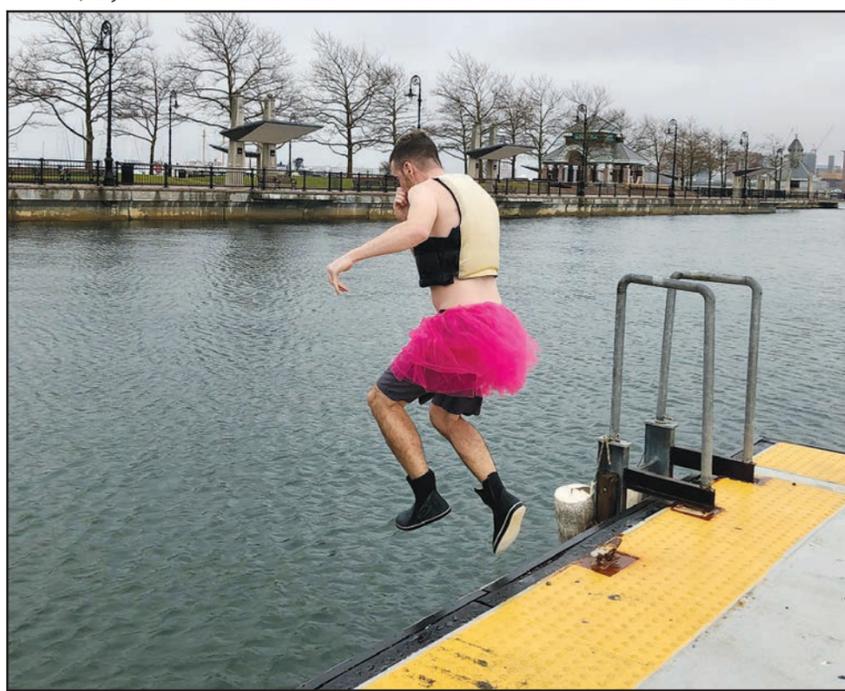

The design of the reconstruction of the Broadway corridor could take as long as two years, according to the city manager.

"However, understanding that there remains some legitimate concern over the viability of any option that reduces vehicular traffic to one lane, I am prepared to move forward, as expeditiously as possible, with a pilot program to test the shared bike/bus lane concept before finalizing the design," said Ambrosino.

District 5 Councillor Judith Garcia said of all the options city officials have been presented with over the past year, Option 2 makes the most sense.

"This accommodates all traffic flow, including residents who use the bus so much," said Garcia. "It is a matter of access and accommodation for all our residents."

Councillor At-Large Damali Vidot said she agreed that the shared bike/bus lane option was the option that had the most support from the Council, adding that the nine-month pilot program would give the City more time to assess the impact of the shared lane.

"This accommodates the most modes of traffic, including pedestrians," she said.

While there was wide Council support for the pilot program, there was disagreement among members over an amendment proposed by At-Large Councillor Leo Robinson.

Robinson asked that the Option 2 plan move forward, but that there not be the widening of sidewalks as proposed in the plan, with the exception of sidewalks at bus stops and crosswalks.

The pilot program, with Robinson's amendment, passed by a 7-4 vote, with Vidot, Garcia, and councillors Yamir Rodriguez and Enio Lopez voting against the plan, as amended.

"I am supporting the project as presented by the Planning Department," said Vidot. She said it was unfair to change the plans on the fly after they have been brought forward by expert city officials and consultants.

Robinson countered that he believed keeping the sidewalks at the current width, and not bumping them out an additional two feet on either side of the street, would improve safety.

Garcia also stated that she wanted to vote on the plan as presented.

"We do not need to send this to another subcommittee, when we have had two to three years of meetings on this," she said.

A vote earlier in the evening on a proposal by District 8 Councillor Calvin Brown to send the proposal back to subcommittee failed by a 9-2 vote. Brown said he was attempting to give the three newest members of the Council more time to examine the Broadway options.

Ambrosino said the City will work with downtown businesses and residents, and that he believes the pilot program will be successful.

"But, if that is not the case, and if the pilot truly results in substantial negative feedback, adverse impacts on downtown businesses, and intolerable inconvenience to vehicular traffic, then the City will abandon this Option 2 and redesign for a different alternative," he stated.

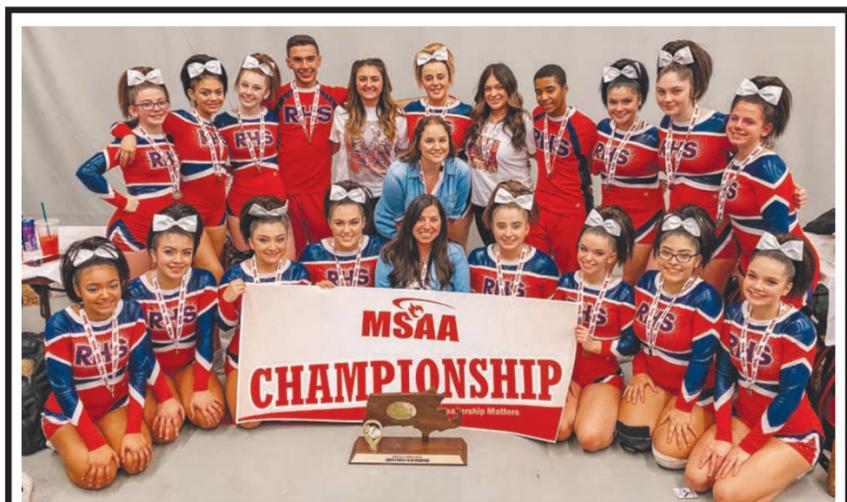

SALESIAN BOYS & GIRLS CLUB KIDS TO GET FREE CHARLIE CARDS

EAST BOSTON -The Salesian Boys & Girls Club on Byron Street has been an oasis for working parents that need after-school care for their children. Knowing their children are in a safe place for the afternoon when school lets out and involved in enriching activities has made the Salesian a go to place for hundreds of families. However, getting there by public transportation has been tricky for some Club kids who rely on MBTA buses or trains to get to and from the Salesian program. For others the cost of public transportation can sometimes be a barrier for kids who want to participate at the Boys & Girls Club on a more frequent basis. However, a new program by the MBTA may increase participation at the Salesian Boys & Girls Club as well as Boys & Girls Club programs across the city. Last week the MBTA announced that the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston have joined the ongoing program to increase the availability of CharlieCards to Eastie kids who rely on public transportation. Under the program, free no-balance CharlieCards are now available at the Salesian Boys & Girls Club, as well as all Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston during their open hours. "Expanding this program ensures that more customers have access to lower fares through the use of our re-loadable CharlieCard," said MBTA General Manager Steve Poflak. "I want to extend my appreciation to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston for partnering with the T in expanding this access that ultimately allows the MBTA to be even more accessible for our customers." The Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston join a growing list of organizations, cities, and towns partnering with the MBTA to increase access to CharlieCards. "Thanks to the MBTA's initiative to increase accessibility to CharlieCards, our children and teens will have the opportunity to travel outside their neighborhoods to discover opportunities in Boston and beyond related to education, the arts, jobs, and more," said Josh Kraft, Nicholas President and CEO, Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston. "Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston is grateful for the chance to partner with the MBTA." Unlike CharlieTickets, CharlieCards are reusable plastic cards that can be routinely loaded with stored cash value or one-day, seven-day, or monthly passes. As a way to encourage use of CharlieCards, cardholders pay lower single-ride fares on bus and subway services than customers who pay cash or hold a CharlieTicket. CharlieCards also offer enhanced options for transfers over tickets and cash. "We are always grateful for the relationship we have with Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston," said Salesian Boys & Girls Club Executive Director Mike Triant. "Josh (Kraft) and his team have been incredibly supportive of me and Salesian Boys & Girls Club since my first day on the job here. This is a great example of how cohesiveness leads to opportunity. Our club members and community members are our greatest resources and we strive to simplify their lives however possible. As a kid who grew up in Eastie, I know how at times we can feel disconnected from other parts of the city so access to Charlie Cards is a great step toward making travel for our club members a lot easier." CharlieCard availability has historically been concentrated around major rapid-transit hubs. Similarly, fare vending machines are clustered around rapid-transit stations. Under this program, the MBTA continues to acknowledge that access to cards needs to increase, especially in communities with a higher reliance on buses. The MBTA hopes to partner with nonprofit organizations or cities and towns to provide residents with CharlieCards, either blank or pre-loaded with a dollar amount for purchase. By providing easier access to CharlieCards, the T hopes to incentivize riders to use CharlieCards and fare vending machines throughout their travels, resulting in a savings of both time and money. Organizations and communities seeking to partner in this effort should contact MBTA Chief Customer Officer Danny Levy at DLevy@MBTA.com.

ton Main Streets (EBMS), captures the experience of bringing friends and family together to enjoy great food, each other's company and celebrate the community—because in Eastie, dinner is as much about spending time with friends and family as it is about the food. EBMS Director Gladys Oliveros commented that the nearly 30 or so participating restaurants are a great reflection of the diversity, hard work, and entrepreneurship that make Eastie's culinary scene one of the best in the state. "We are ready to go," said Oliveros. "Right now we have 28 restaurants and everything is looking good. This is my first Taste of Eastie as the new director and I was a little nervous. But once I was out in the community knocking on doors everyone wants to help." Oliveros said from the business community to residents, the entire Eastie community has rallied around the annual event volunteering help, donations and sponsorships. "Everyone is involved and it is a real community effort," said Oliveros. "I'm so happy that so many people want to participate and make this year's Taste of Eastie a success." Oliveros said there will also be some new faces at this year's Taste of Eastie alongside many of the yearly staples. "New places like Pazza on Porter, Dirty Water Dough and the Quiet Few will all be there this year," said Oliveros. Most of these newcomers have opened shop in Eastie in the past year. Food and fun highlight this wonderful evening that also includes raffles and auctions. Over thirty local food merchants will showcase their delicious cuisine, including tastes from South and Central America, the Mediterranean, China, the Middle East, Italy and Australia. Whether you are already an Eastie-food addict or looking to try food from fantastic neighborhood restaurants for the first time, this is your night. As in years past, Taste of Eastie will feature a silent auction and raffle. Last year, more than 300 Eastie residents and residents from neighboring communities reached into their pockets and gave something back to Eastie by supporting this long standing fundraiser to support of EBMS. The event raised nearly $20,000 to fund EBMS's community improvement projects. Restaurants from Eastie and surrounding communities will again pitch in to help EBMS pull off another successful Taste of Eastie and at the same time showcased their cooking talents. Gruner added that the event is more than a culinary showcase and has evolved into a community gathering that celebrates Eastie's diversity, pageantry and love of friends and family. Tickets can be purchased online at www.eventbrite.com/e/taste-of-eastie-2020-tickets-83832905477. For more details or questions please contact EBMS at mgruner@ebmainstreets.com or call (617) 561-1044.

NEW CITY COUNCIL REFLECTS EVERETT'S DIVERSITY

EVERETT - While Everett consistently ranks among the most diverse cities and towns in Massachusetts, its City Council has been historically homogeneous with residents and lawmakers alike lamenting the lack of diverse representation.

Voters proved in November that they were ready for change, and that change was evident as the new City Council took its seats on Monday, Jan. 13, for the first meeting of the new session.

Prior to January 1, the 11-member body of elected officials was 100 percent white and more than 90 percent male. Seventy-two percent of members were over the age of 60, and nearly all (81 percent) were over the age of 50, with only Councilors Michael McLaughlin and Anthony DiPierro coming in under 40. In addition, no councilor could communicate fluently in a language other than English except for Councilwoman Rosa DiFlorio, who speaks Italian. She was also the only Council member born outside of the United States, having immigrated from Italy.

A much different picture was painted on Monday night, when Councilors Gerly Adrien, Stephanie Martins and Jimmy Tri Le took their seats alongside Council veterans. Fully 45 percent of the new council is under the age of 40. Twenty-seven percent of the members are female, and 18 percent are immigrants. Languages now spoken on the board include Spanish, Portuguese and Vietnamese. Everett immigrant communities now represented include Haitian, Vietnamese and Brazilian. Twenty-seven percent of members are non-white, with self-identified racial representation including Black, Asian and Latina.

In his midterm address on Jan. 6, Mayor Carlo DeMaria praised the diversity of the new City Council, saying he hopes that it will work with him to ensure that all Everett residents are counted in the upcoming 2020 U.S. Census regardless of their race, language or country of origin. Diversity can take many forms including religion, ability, sexual orientation, education and income. Interestingly, Boston also just seated its most diverse City Council since its establishment in 1910, including the first Latina and the first openly gay woman – making the changes in Everett also a regional trend.

COUNCIL SPARS OVER WHETHER TO CHANGE VOTING FOR WARD SEATS

EVERETT - On Monday, Jan. 13, Everett's new City Council hit the ground running, tackling a proposal that would change the future of City Council and School Committee elections in Everett.

Councilor At-Large Wayne Matewsky proposed a measure that would amend the City Charter to change the voting rules in Everett so that Ward Councilors and Ward School Committee members would only be elected by their respective wards, as opposed to citywide.

Currently councilors running for ward seats have to campaign citywide, since the entire city votes for ward councilors. This means that a ward councilor could technically not receive any votes in his or her ward, but could still win the seat if he or she does well in the citywide vote. Councilor Matewsky condemned the current process, calling it "obscene and undemocratic."

"We are the only city in the state that has this type of government election process. A ward seat is a ward seat," he said. "Very few people are a fan of the system as it is."

Ward 3 Councilor Anthony DiPierro and Ward 2 Councilor Stephanie Martins agreed with Councilor Matewsky.

"It's disenfranchisement of the voters," said Councilor DiPierro. "How you do in the ward doesn't really count."

If Councilor Matewsky gets his wish, then ward councilors would have to win over voters in their own wards. However, some councilors felt that a ward-specific vote could lead to a territorial mindset, where ward councilors only pay attention to issues in their wards and ignore issues affecting the city at large.

"I'm opposed to this and I've always been opposed to this," said Councilor At-Large John Hanlon. "If something comes up, they didn't vote for me so why should I get involved?"

Ward 1 Councilor Fred Capone cautioned that the charter change could engender a sort of tribalism, if a ward councilor feels compelled to vote on something that would benefit his ward but would hurt the city as a whole.

He mentioned that having Councilors representing wards was just a formality meant to ensure that every ward had representation in the council.

"We're all technically councilors at large," said Councilor Capone.

Councilor At-Large Peter Napolitano also voiced his opposition to changing the charter, which he himself had a hand in drafting. He argued that the charter had already gone before the voters and that he wasn't prepared to change it.

"I've paid my dues and I'm not doing that again," he said. "This is not something we can just change because we want to."

In September, the Lawyers for Civil Rights Boston sent a letter to the Council encouraging it to end the practice of citywide voting as it is considering a violation of the Voting Rights Act. The group has taken legal action against other Massachusetts communities with similar charters, and prevailed in court. The litigation director for the organization said in September it would behoove the City to move voluntarily to end the practice before litigation is filed to end it by court order – a process that cost one Massachusetts community more than $1 million to fight.

The Council voted to postpone the issue for one month, allowing the City Solicitor and the City Clerk time to meet with outside counsel to determine if the charter change could be done by way of a Home Rule Petition or if it would need to be presented to the public for a vote.

TWO NEW ENTREPRENEURIAL CENTERS FOR IN LYNN

LYNN - As part of Mass-Development's Collaborative Workspace Program, Lynn will be home to two new infrastructures that will house entrepreneurial ventures. On Jan. 9, the Baker-Polito Administration announced $1,892,910 in grants to 31 organizations to strengthen community-based innovation and entrepreneurship in 22 communities throughout the Commonwealth.

The two Lynn-based organizations are Inc.Ubate CoWorking and The Brickyard Collaborative.

Winthrop-based Inc. Ubate CoWorking received $100,000 to open a second space in Lynn, which will include a common work area, conference room, private meeting spaces, and modern amenities. This grant will be used to build out the space.

"The goal of this project is to establish a community coworking space in downtown Lynn that would serve established Lynn professionals, aspiring entrepreneurs in the community, professionals moving to Lynn as a result of forecasted real estate development, and students from North Shore Community College," said Michael Lucerto, Founder of Inc.Ubate Coworking. "We want to create a community space that would be a catalyst for synergy between these vital groups and a hub for carrying on Lynn's traditions of education, entrepreneurship, arts, and culture."

Lucerto's ultimate goal is to offer members a place to work and/or host meetings and events along the Northshore from East Boston to Salem."

St. Mary's High School retires Tony Conigliaro's jersey number

By Cary Shuman

St. Mary's High School retired the jersey number "12" worn by Tony Conigliaro during a ceremony held before the premiere of a new documentary about the former Boston Red Sox star Friday night at the Lynn Veterans Auditorium.

St. Mary's officials, led by Head of School Dr. John Dolan, also unveiled a portrait of Conigliaro, a 1962 graduate of the school, that will be displayed in the lobby of the Tony Conigliaro Gymnasium.

Tony C was a starting quarterback at St. Mary's, but it was his amazing high school baseball career that led to the Boston Red Sox signing him to a contract at the age of 17.

With his family watching from the stands on Opening Day in 1964 at Fenway Park, Tony C, in his first at-bat, hit a home run over the famed left wall. At the age of 20, Conigliaro became the youngest home-run king in American League history. Conigliaro was a member of the 1967 Impossible Dream Red Sox team and was selected to the All-Star Game that season. But on Aug. 18, 1967, Tony C was beamed by a fastball that struck his left cheekbone. With limited vision in his left eye, Conigliaro returned for the 1969 season and then attempted a comeback in 1975 when he was the Opening Day designated hitter for the Red Sox.

Many fans and historians, such as New England Sports Museum Curator Richard Johnson, believe Tony C was headed toward a Hall of Fame-caliber career and would have hit more than 500 home runs.

Gov. Charlie Baker was among the dignitaries paying tribute to Conigliaro, telling the large crowd that he used to attend Red Sox games as a youth and Tony C was a crowd favorite. Baker also noted how many local communities cite a connection to Tony C as one of their own.

Conigliaro was born in Revere, played Little League Baseball in East Boston, and later lived in Swampscott and Nahant. Several of Tony C's relatives lived in Revere and they remember him playing for the East Boston Little League All-Star team at McMackin Park, Revere.

Mayor Thomas McGee proclaimed last Friday "Tony C Day" in the City of Lynn. Master of Ceremonies Mike Lynch, who grew up in Swampscott, recalled how magical a time it was when Tony C was starring for the Red Sox.

"Tony C in the 1960s was to this region what Tom Brady has been to this region since the turn of the century times five," said Lynch. "Tony C could play, he had charisma, he was a nice guy, he never forgot where he came from, and he was very proud of St. Mary's High School and this entire area," said Lynch. "We were just so proud of his accomplishments, which were absolutely stunning."

The documentary was breathtaking as narrator Joe Malone helped fans relive Tony C's legendary baseball career. Tony C's brother, Richie Conigliaro, appeared in the documentary while Billy Conigliaro, who played alongside Tony in the Red Sox outfield, attended the ceremony.

It was a memorable night for St. Mary's High School and its alumni in attendance as the school honored one of its most illustrious athletes. The school has continued to build on that tradition of success in sports, with several teams winning multiple state championships in the Spartans' highly successful athletic program led by Jeffrey Newhall.
