Five candidates vye for DeLeo's House seat

By Cary Shuman

The race to fill the seat held by State Rep. and Speaker of the House Robert A. DeLeo is on. Four candidates, Marc Silvestri, Jeffrey Turco, Valentino Capobianco, and Alicia DelVento, have officially announced their intentions to run in the special election for the seat that was held by DeLeo since 1991. Additionally, Revere's Juan Jaramillo has filed the necessary paperwork and is expected to formerly announce his intentions.

The Democratic Primary and the Republican Primary in the special election will be held on Tuesday, March 2. The general election (Democratic Primary winner versus Republican Primary winner) will be held on Tuesday, March 30.

As of Tuesday, no Republican candidate had entered the race. Candidates have until Jan. 19 to submit their nomination signatures to the Revere Election Department or the Winthrop Town Clerk's Office.

The five Democratic candidates have been reaching out to supporters and elected officials in both Revere and Winthrop. In fact, some key endorsements in the race are expected to be announced within the next seven days.

The race will be a barn-burner and generate significant interest among residents in the two politically active communities of Revere and Winthrop, and also among statewide observers who will be following the campaigns to see who ultimately emerges as the successor to the popular DeLeo, the longest-serving speaker in the history of the Commonwealth.

With the condensed, two-month runup to the March 2 Primary, the challenge for the candidates will be to get their message out to the voters at a pace more accelerated than in other, traditional campaigns that usually run through the summer months and into the fall. For example, the Jessica Giannino-Joseph Gravellese 16th Suffolk District state representative race (won by Giannino) was contested over the course of six months before the Primary was held Sept. 1.

Candidates have expressed interest in participating in a state representative debate before the early balloting period in the election begins. Revere Journal President Stephen Quigley, moderator of the Giannino-Gravellese state representative debate, has reached out to Revere TV Executive Director Robert Dunbar about the logistics of holding a debate during the COVID-19 pandemic. The arrangements will necessitate a venue in which the candidates would be safely distanced during a live broadcast, with most likely no spectators in attendance.

Ward 4 Councillor Patrick Keefe said the special election is a major topic of conversation in Revere. He reasons that residents in general are taking more of an interest in elections because of the increased importance and reliance on the delivery of vital services during the pandemic.

"I've gotten calls from all the candidates, which is flattering," said Keefe. "I'll be rooting for the best person to win. I haven't decided whether or not I'll be getting actively involved. Obviously, I want to see what's best for the district. But it should be an exciting two months of campaigning leading up to the election."

COVID testing in January What you need to know

Staff report

Revere officials provided an update on COVID-19 testing services available to residents in the month of January. The officials from the City and Board of Health continue to work diligently to ensure this critical resource is available to residents. Residents should always check www.revere.org/coronavirus before visiting a location or call 3-1-1 for updated information.

On Monday, January 4, the Revere Board of Health recorded 35 new cases of COVID-19 among Revere residents. The city is now averaging 68 new cases a day and its 14-day positivity rate is 12.3%.

RESIDENT ONLY TESTING

• Revere Senior Center (25 Winthrop Ave): This testing site will operate on Fridays and Sundays through the month of January from 8:30 AM – 1:00 PM. Proof of Revere residency is required. Parking is limited at this location and residents are urged to use the Central Ave Municipal Parking Lot. This is a walk-up testing site only.

• Mobile Testing Van: In partnership with Mass General Brigham, the City of Revere will be offering a COVID-19 mobile testing van in the Central Ave Municipal Parking Lot every Wednesday in January from 8:30 AM – 1:00 PM. Proof of residency is required. The mobile van will be offered elsewhere in the City during the month; dates and locations will follow. This is a walk-up testing site only.

GENERAL PUBLIC TESTING

• Revere High School (101 School St): This location will continue to operate at its current hours of Monday-Friday from 4:00PM – 8:00PM and Saturday from 7:00AM – 11:00AM. The site is open to the public. No appointment, insurance or proof

RPS Wellness Committee gives update to School Committee

By John Lynds

At the most recent Revere Public School Committee meeting late last month, RPS Athletic Director Frank Shea gave committee members an update on the district's Wellness Committee.

"There are a couple of big rocks that we're trying to get through this year and the first one is our Wellness Committee policy review," said Shea. "This was set to be done last year in the spring.

However, when COVID struck the state granted us some leniency, and allowed us to take on that work this year. So we are just starting to review our wellness policy which is

Keefe: 'It was an honor to be Council President'

By Cary Shuman

Ward 4 Councillor Patrick Keefe completed a successful year as City Council President. The Council will elect its new leader at its first meeting of 2021 on Monday, Jan. 11.

Keefe led the 11-member Council through an unprecedented year that was dominated by the COVID-19 pandemic which had a major impact on all areas of life in Revere. Due to the coronavirus, the Council began holding its meetings on Zoom, giving councilors the opportunity to participate remotely from their respective homes. To their credit, Keefe and virtually all of his colleagues had perfect attendance records in 2020.

Keefe drew praise from his colleagues for his leadership and accessibility throughout the year. He was held in high esteem by the longer-serving councilors and the newer members such as Councillor-at-Large Gerry Visconti and Ward 6 Councillor Richard Serino.

As a newly elected member of the Council, I felt President Keefe was very welcoming and cordial," said Serino. "In the early days of the pandemic, we got to know each

Paid Family and Medical Leave Benefit Program for eligible workers now in effect

Special to the Journal

The Department of Family and Medical Leave (DFML) has announced that workers eligible for Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) may begin filing certain benefit requests, in accordance with legislation enacted in 2018.

PFML provides temporary income replacement to eligible workers. Workers can now apply for leave for welcoming a new child into their family, for their own serious health condition, and for certain military considerations. Starting July 1, workers can apply for leave to care for an ill or ailing relative.

The program, which is offered separately from the federal Family and Medical Leave Act and any employer-offered leave, provides up to 20 weeks of paid leave per benefit year to manage a serious personal health condition, up to 12 weeks to care for a family member or to bond with a child, and up to 26 weeks to care for a family member who is a member of the armed service. Massachusetts workers can immediately apply for:

- Medical leave due to their own serious health condition. Workers may take up to 20 weeks per year of paid leave to manage a serious health condition.

- Family leave to bond with a child. Family leave can be taken by a parent or legal guardian to bond with a child during the first 12 months after the child's birth, adoption, or foster care placement. Eligibility for family leave used for bonding with a child is limited to the child's parents or legal guardians, although certain other family members may be eligible to take family leave for caring for a child that has a serious medical condition. Workers who are parents or legal guardians may take up to 12 weeks of family leave to bond with a child. The annual 12-week maximum remains the same even if multiple child-births, adoptions, or foster care placements occur in the same year.

- Family leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition that relates to military service. Workers may take up to 26 weeks of family leave per year to care for a family member who is a current member of the Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves, and who is:

- *Undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious health condition that was received or aggravated while the patient was deployed in a foreign country.

- *Being treated as an outpatient for a serious health condition that was received or aggravated while they were deployed in a foreign country.

- *On the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness that happened while deployed in a foreign country.

- *On the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness that existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service while deployed in a foreign country.

- Family leave to manage any needs that occur immediately after a family member is deployed in a foreign country or has been notified of an upcoming deployment in a foreign country.

Workers may take up to 12 weeks of family leave per year to manage needs which may include:

- Caring for a deployed family member's child or other family member immediately before their deployment.

- Making financial or legal arrangements for deployed family member.

- Attending counseling.

- Attending military events or ceremonies.

- Spending time with a deployed family member during a rest or recuperation period.

- Spending time with a family member when they return from deployment.

- Making necessary arrangements following the death of a family member who had been deployed.

Beginning July 1, Massachusetts workers can apply for:

- Care for a family member with a serious health condition. Workers may take up to 12 weeks of family leave per year to care for a family member with a serious health condition. For the purposes of family leave used to care for a family member, family members include spouses, domestic partners, children, parents, grandchildren, grandparents or siblings; spouses' or domestic partners' parents; and guardians who legally acted as a parent when the worker is a minor. Workers can take paid family leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition regardless of where the family member resides.

How to Apply for Paid Family and Medical Leave at paidleave.mass.gov

- Timing

Workers should give their employers at least 30 days notice before beginning their application for paid leave. Applications for future paid leave may be made up to 60 calendar days in advance of the anticipated start date. Unplanned leave due to an emergency can be applied for retroactively up to 90 calendar days after a worker has taken time off from the job. Workers should make every effort to schedule their leave for a time that will not disrupt the employer's business.

- Documentation

Workers will need to provide or fill out the following documents as part of the leave application process:

- Proof of Identity. This is to double-check that worker is eligible, and make sure the benefits are sent to the correct person.

- Certification of a Serious Health Condition form. This may be done in conjunction with a worker's healthcare provider. Workers applying for family leave to bond with a child, or family leave to manage family affairs when a family member is deployed in a foreign country, do not need to fill out a Certification of a Serious Health Condition form.

- Current employer's Federal Employment Identification Number (FEIN).

- A date when the worker informed the employer that he or she planned to apply for and take family or medical leave. (Workers filing for paid leave from multiple employers will need to fill out a separate application for each individual employer).

Benefit and Claim Information

Workers may not be paid wages or salary or use paid sick or vacation time or other earned time off that covers the same period for which the worker receives PFML benefits. Additionally, the amount a worker receives in paid leave benefits and the total amount of leave he or she is eligible for may be reduced by any wage replacement or disability program the worker is enrolled in or has used in the past, either through the government or through the employer. These include:

- Unemployment insurance.
- Worker's compensation.
- Social security.
- Temporary disability or paid family and medical leave benefits.

Claim to Payment Estimated Timeline

- Worker completes Application on DFML website (20 minutes-1 hour).

- Employer responds to DFML's Request for Information (1-10 business days). (It is in the worker's best interest to let the employer know that he or she is completing the application because it may speed up the process.) Employers have 10 business days to respond but may respond sooner.

- DFML reviews Application and makes claim determination (seven-14 calendar days). Timelines are subject to the volume of claims received.

- DFML issues Payment to Worker (eight-10 days after application review). It takes three-five days for the vendor to be established in MMARs for the first payment, then another 5 days for the payment to be received. Timelines may differ based on the payment method selected by the applicant. Direct deposit is the quickest payment option.

Employer participation in the claim approval process is important to ensure DFML has accurate and complete information about the application. Employers may recommend to the DFML that a claim be rejected if an employee has already used the maximum amount of leave for the year or that information from the claim is missing, incorrect or fraudulent. Employers may not recommend a claim be denied because of budgetary, timing, or other circumstantial reasons.

For more information about eligibility, benefits, and how to apply, go to mass.gov/pfml. For multi-lingual support or if you have specific questions, call the PFML Contact Center at 1(833)344-7365.

MBTA Partners with Patriots, Revolution, and Patriot Place to distribute masks and hand sanitizer

Staff report

The MBTA is pleased to announce that the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, and Patriot Place recently donated 2,500 facemasks and 5,000 bottles of hand sanitizer to distribute to MBTA riders in support of the T's Ride Safer campaign.

"The health and safety of our riders and employees continue to be our top priorities during these challenging times," said MBTA General Manager Steve Poflak. "The MBTA greatly appreciates this contribution from the Patriots, Revolution, and Patriot Place as we strive to provide safe, essential transit services to those who rely on buses and trains."

"We are proud to support the MBTA's Ride Safer program to help meet the ongoing needs for masks and hand sanitizer in our surrounding communities," said Brian Earley, Vice President and General Manager of Patriot Place. "We are thankful to continue our strong partnership with the MBTA by teaming up on this great initiative to keep members of our communities safe and healthy."

The MBTA's Ride Safer campaign consists of three components: providing face coverings to riders in need at key stations during peak travel times; signage and messaging to promote the importance of keeping a safe distance and wearing face coverings while on the T; and the Ride Safer webpage at mbta.com/RideSafer that provides travel tips and a behind-the-scenes look at the MBTA's expanded efforts to clean and disinfect stations and vehicles.

other and bond a bit while we put together food packages at the Senior Center for the City's COVID food delivery program. I always found Pat to be receptive to my ideas, and I thank him for his service as our Council President during a very challenging year."

The Revere Journal asked President Keefe to talk about his and the Council's achievements during the past year and the challenge of leading the Council during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Keefe issued the following statement reflecting on his year as the president of the Revere City Council:

"The last year serving as Council President has been a pleasure. It was my honor to represent my colleagues and I feel like I represented them well.

The year 2020 was nothing that we expected and since early March it has certainly reshaped our focus on how council business is handled and what our priorities should be.

I don't like to personally list my accomplishments as I feel they should speak for themselves and the residents of Revere certainly acknowledge me when they are happy, and I hear when they are not happy with the decisions we make. This is how I always do my job. It's not about me, it's about the residents we serve.

One of the most significant achievements we as a Council made this year was an enormous sense of inclusion and communication within the council membership.

Even though we may not have met in person as much as we would have liked, I can honestly say that the entire team chatted almost every day - more often it was all throughout the day. Technology has certainly brought us closer together, even for my senior colleagues!

Whether it was about how we can better serve our residents in need during these tumultuous times or just checking in on each other, everyone at some point came across a personal or family struggle.

If I can look back, I will say my most important accomplishment was this: creating a better bond among the group. And we had a few tough meetings -communicating through Zoom can at times be misinterpreted and give the wrong impression or you might miss what a fellow councilor meant to say. But in the end, we had a productive year and we are all stronger because of it.

As I said before, maybe I'll go down as the first Zoom President in Revere's history, but I hope at some point I'll get another chance to yield the gavel in front of a live audience.

Let's all hope we can go back to normalcy soon, but in the meantime I want to wish our residents, my fellow councilors and the next President of the Revere City Council (Tony Zambuto perhaps) a happy and healthy new year!

And thank you."

a 12 page document. It is revised once every three years.”

Shea said the policy review will consist of Wellness Committee members reviewing the committee’s policy and proposing any changes to either personnel on the committee, or to some of the policies that are associated with wellness, nutrition, physical activity and anything else that promotes student wellness in the district.

“We just started meeting and we’ll continue this work with some chunks of time going forward,” said Shea. “As we get towards the springtime any revisions or omissions to the policy will be presented to the entire committee and the changes will be put into a policy draft, and presented to the superintendent’s office and then to the school committee. When these revisions are accepted and updated they’ll be shared on our district website and they will promote our work going forward into next year.”

Shea another big task the Wellness Committee is tackling is its subcommittee work.

“We had just begun to start working in subcommittees when, again, we got struck by COVID,” said Shea. “But Mrs. (Stacey) Rizzo asked that we continue this work which is very important to our committee going forward. All of our (Wellness Committee) members serve on one of the four subcommittees. These committees spend a bit of time in each monthly meeting to discuss what we can add and what we can strengthen what we need to change. Obviously, as we go forward, and as COVID continues, we’ve come across some different areas of concern in the city and areas where we think we can make a change. And again, those changes will go into the overall Wellness Committee’s updated policy if applicable.”

Shea said the subcommittees and the topics the subcommittees discuss can change from any given year.

“Last year the focus was on nutrition, mental health, physical activity and substance abuse,” said Shea. “We first asked each committee member which subcommittee they feel comfortable joining and then we go out and we try to pick some people who have expertise in those fields and add them to the subcommittees.”

School Committee member Stacey Rizzo commended Shea and the Wellness Committee for the work they have been doing.

“I just need to say when Frank (Shea) came on board he really formed this committee so that it was doing work, not just in words, but actually work,” said Rizzo. “I also want to thank Cheryl Cole who really put a wellness policy together at the beginning so that we have something to go by and we can update it much more easily. The members that have been coming for almost eight years and the work that they’ve all done is really getting us to a great place for our students in the community. I thought it was a great idea that Frank decided to add some people that really have knowledge because it really does shape the whole committee with information, knowledge and experience.”

Jess Graham, Protective Services Caseworker, and her mother Barbra Graham, both gave a $1,000 donation each to Mystic Valley Elder Services through the Cummings Properties’ Community Giving Program. ing will be the election of the Council president and vice-president for 2021. Anthony Zambuto, co-dean of the City Council, reportedly has the votes to be elected president, succeeding Patrick Keefe in that position. Councilor-at-Large Gerry Visconti is the clear frontrunner for the position of vice president.

COUNCILOR MCKENNA WILL NOT RUN FOR STATE REP.

Ward 1 Councilor Joanne McKenna received numerous texts and phone calls last week as news spread that Speaker Robert A. DeLeo would be stepping down from his position.

Many friends and supporters were urging the hard-working councilor to consider a run for the state representative seat held by DeLeo.

With her outstanding record as a city councilor and her strength and popularity in Ward 1 and throughout Revere, McKenna would have been a formidable candidate for the seat. McKenna, whose ward neighbors Winthrop, has also collaborated frequently with DeLeo on issues affecting the two communities. But McKenna has decided that she will not run for the seat.

“With an overwhelming amount of phone calls and texts I received from friends and supporters to run for Speaker DeLeo’s seat, I have decided as a Ward 1 councilor my work is not done and I will not run,” said McKenna.

“Working with HYM [developer of the project at Suffolk Downs] for the last three years and sitting down with them on more than 30 occasions, I would like to oversee the revitalization to Beachmont Square and the improvements to the City of Revere,” concluded McKenna.

LOCAL STUDENT GRADUATES FROM IOWA STATE

This fall, 2,001 students earned degrees from Iowa State University including Huy Nguyen of Revere with a degree in Doctor of Philosophy, Computer Science this fall.

The graduates were recognized in a virtual ceremony due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Continuing a practice started last spring, Iowa State prepared graduation day gift boxes for all graduating students. It included a cardinal-and-gold tassel, musical card from President Wintersteen that plays “Pomp and Circumstance,” diploma cover, streamer tube, I-State car window decal, Iowa State lapel pin, honor cords if applicable and a free introductory membership to the alumni association.

MAYOR ARRIGO WILL TUNE IN TO NBC-TV PREMIERE OF “MR. MAYOR”

Revere Mayor Brian Arrigo said he will likely be tuning in to the new comedy series, “Mr. Mayor,” when it premieres on NBC-TV Thursday at 8 p.m.

The show stars Ted Danson in the role of Neil Bremer, who runs for mayor of Los Angeles and is elected. Danson, of course, is best known for his role as bartender Sam Malone in the long-running television show, “Cheers,” which was based on the Beacon Hill bar, Bull and Finch Pub.

“I’m probably going to check out the show,” said Arrigo, who is beginning his sixth year as Mayor of Revere.

Among Mayor Arrigo’s favorite TV shows are “Curb Your Enthusiasm,” “Veep,” and “The Office.”

Mother and daughter donate $2K to MVES

Staff report

Cummings Properties recently donated $2,000 to Mystic Valley Elder Services (MVES) through a unique giving program called Cummings Community Giving that honors colleagues, long-term clients, and other select associates of the Cummings organization by contributing $1,000 to the local charity of their choice. Jessica Graham, Protective Services Caseworker at MVES, and her mother, Barbra Graham, completed the application and it was accepted, requesting the funds be donated to MVES as their non-profit of choice.

Along with working at MVES, Jessica also works per diem at New Horizon

Assisted Living in Woburn, which is owned by Cummings Properties. She has worked at New Horizon Assisted Living for 10 years. Barbra has also worked at New Horizons Assisted Living for 10 years as Director of Community Relations. Cummings Properties employees who have worked for Cummings for at least 5 years have the opportunity to participate in the program. This unique initiative is one of the many ways that “Cummings Buildings Power Charities.”

EMISSIONS BILL IS A BIG STEP FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

The approval on Monday by both houses of the Massachusetts legislature of a bill that requires the state to reduce its carbon emissions by at least 85% below 1990 levels by 2050 represents a huge step toward the goal of mitigating the effects of climate change in our state.

Although the total carbon emissions emanating from Massachusetts obviously is only a small fraction of global emissions, the legislation provides a blueprint for other states and private industry to follow.

Some say that the ultimate goal of net-zero by 2050 is unattainable, but in our view, that is understating the reality of what is happening in the world today.

Despite the best (or worst) efforts of the Trump administration to perpetuate the use of coal and other fossil fuels, renewable energy actually is cheaper than fossil fuels thanks to the advances in technology of wind and solar energy.

Most excitingly, the progress in the development of hydrogen fuel cells, which has been more than two decades in the making, finally is beginning to look like it will become a feasible source of energy within 10 years, making the goal of net-zero carbon emissions by 2050 more than just a dream.

We applaud the action by Gov. Charlie Baker and our legislature in bringing to fruition an environmental action plan that recognizes the pressing need to address the issue of climate change.

Although the pandemic rightly is in the forefront of government leaders' attention today, that problem will seem like a stroll in the park if we do not take immediate action to avert the looming climate catastrophe that threatens our planet's very existence.

'It was an honor' to serve with Speaker Bob DeLeo

By Joseph Boncore

I am so incredibly honored to have spent these past few years serving alongside House Speaker Robert A. DeLeo in the General Court.

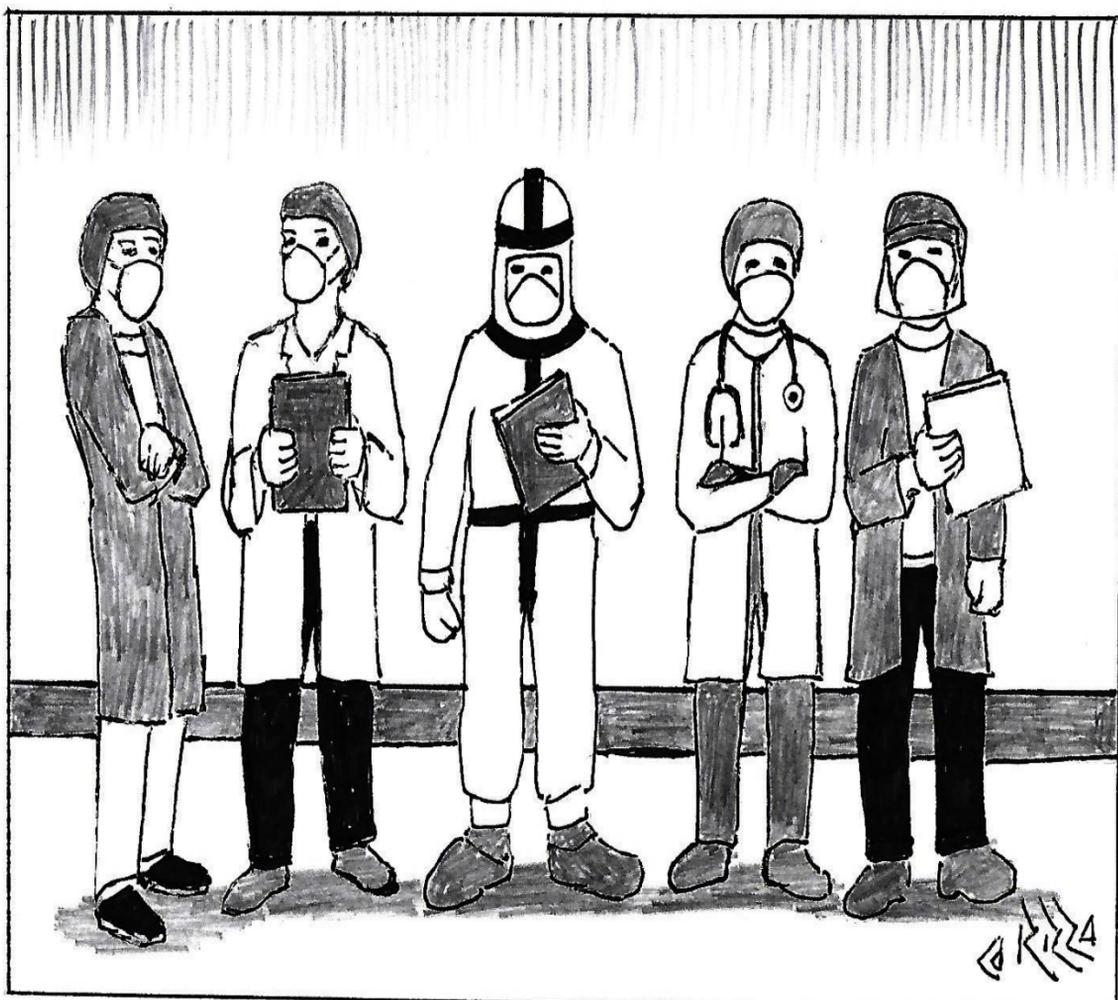

For over 40 years, starting as a town meeting member and ending with his Speakership, Bob has provided inimitable leadership for Winthrop and Revere. His dedication to these communities is clear: from unparalleled constituent services to protecting our shorelines, building new senior centers and founding the Winthrop Foundation.

At the start of his Speakership, he navigated the House through unrest and now, at the end, has led the Commonwealth through the greatest crisis of our time. The Speaker's resignation ends a historic era and is a huge loss for the Commonwealth, for the General Court, and for residents of Winthrop and Revere, whom we both have the pleasure of serving.

For me, over the past 30 years, Bob has been a coach, a colleague, a mentor, and a friend. While I am sad to see him leave, I'm proud of the work he has accomplished and thankful for the guidance he has taken the time to provide me. I join the residents of Winthrop, Revere, and entire Commonwealth in wishing him and his family the very best in his next chapter.

Joseph Boncore is state senator in the First Suffolk and Middlesex District that includes the communities of Revere and Winthrop.

NOTHING FINER THAN A FRONTLINER

GUEST OP-ED

What six dollars can do

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

When I was sixteen years old, I was invited to speak at a little country church in rural Denver Kentucky, not far from Paintsville.

The church had all but closed its doors but one man, Harold Rice, and his family wanted to see the church stay open and do well.

A church with few to almost no people typically does not attract too many interested ministers. I had spoken in my home church a few times and was a guest speaker in a few others. Mr. Rice asked if I would consider speaking at the church on the second and fourth Sunday afternoons at 2:00. I agreed, and brought a message to maybe seven or eight people my first Sunday. The crowd consisted of Harold and his wife June Rice and their family. The church was an old building with a pump organ and a sign behind the pulpit that said, "Preach the Word."

I stayed with the little congregation called Liberty Baptist Church throughout high school. By the time I was seventeen Mr. Rice was talking to me about being the official pastor and about ordination. In time I would become the pastor and would be ordained. I was too young, too inexperienced and unskilled for such a responsibility but youth is adventurous and will try what those of us who know better would never consider.

The church grew and we started having 20 to 30 people and often more. People literally received Christ, joined the church and were baptized. This was all amazing.

Even more amazing was Mr. Rice offered me a grand salary of $60 a month to help buy my gasoline. The trip one way from home was over 30 miles so this was appreciated. He also presented me with paperwork for a perk. The church was going to put 10 percent or $6 of my salary into the church denominational retirement plan, then known as The Annuity Board. It's called Guidestone today. He had me to complete a form solidifying my agreement to this monthly contribution. I was about seventeen at this stage and had zero interest or thoughts about retirement. Six dollars a month kind of seemed like a joke.

I was with Liberty church a couple of years or more and about ten to twelve of those months Mr. Rice made that $6 contribution to my retirement faithfully. Although, I never thought another day about it from the moment I signed those papers.

Seven or eight years ago I did wonder if that account even existed. I called up The Guidestone retirement people and with my Social Security number they told me in a few seconds that the account did indeed exist and my balance was $31,000. Shocked would not describe how I felt. I almost had to pick myself off the floor. If Mr. Rice had made as many as 12 contributions the total invested would have been $72. Now, years later I was looking at over $31,000. Since that day of first inquiring that little $6 account now has over $46,000 and still growing.

The point of all this is save some money when you can. Start as young as possible but even if you are old put something away every month. If you can save hundreds every month that is wonderful, please do. However, don't ever underestimate the growth potential of saving a little bit of money every month, even if it's just $6. And yes, every time I look at that account, I remember Mr. Rice and the good people of Liberty Baptist Church who not only encouraged me then but are still encouraging me today with just $6.

First Responders need vaccines now

By Senator Sal DiDomenico

One of the greatest bright spots of 2020 and now leading into this New Year has been the speedy development and subsequent rollout of the COVID-19 vaccine. For the first time in many months, we are finally able to see the light at the end of the tunnel, with the promise that someday soon we will all receive the inoculation needed to stay safe from this deadly virus that has ravaged our communities. Of course, the first phase of the rollout of the COVID-19 vaccine has rightfully been dedicated to reaching our healthcare workers and first responders; those on the front lines who have already risked so much to serve us in the midst of this public health crisis.

However, Phase 1 of this rollout is already off to a slow and rocky start. Perhaps most concerning is the fact that the goal of "Operation Warp Speed" on the national level was to get the COVID-19 vaccine to 20 million Americans by the end of the year, and yet just over two million Americans have been vaccinated thus far. At that rate, it has been estimated it would take the United States 10 years to vaccinate 80% of Americans. That is an unacceptable lack of leadership at the federal level, which undoubtedly has exacerbated the vaccine rollout issues we are already facing in the Commonwealth.

Here in Massachusetts, I am also deeply concerned about the lack of clarity, transparency, and

RMV to continue designated service hours for customers 75 years of age or older

Staff report

The Registry of Motor Vehicles (RMV) has announced it will continue to offer dedicated weekly Wednesday service hours for customers who are 75 years of age or older into the month of January at 17 locations including Revere. Individuals in this age group are required by state law to renew their Massachusetts driver's license in person.

The designated service hours began on Sept. 2 to offer an option to senior citizens to facilitate proper "social-distancing" protocols to keep customers and staff safe and healthy. The following centers will continue exclusively serving these customers on Wednesdays who make renewal appointments: Brockton, Danvers, Fall River, Greenfield, Lawrence, Leominster, Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket, New Bedford, North Adams, Pittsfield, Plymouth, Revere, South Yarmouth, Springfield, Watertown and Worcester.

Below are the options for seniors to renew by appointment:

•If you are a AAA member, you may make a reservation now to renew your driver's license/ID at a AAA location. Visit aaa.com/appointments to schedule your visit.

•If you are not a AAA member, visit Mass.Gov/RMV to make a reservation to renew at an RMV Service Center. Select the Seniors License Renewal option on the Make/Cancel a Reservation transaction tab.

•Email the RMV for assistance to renew: Mass-DOTRMVSeniors@dot.state.ma.us

•Call the RMV at 857-368-8005.

The RMV would like to remind customers of the additional information below, including the status of several initiatives launched due to the COVID-19 pandemic:

Non-Commercial Licenses, IDs, and Learner's Permit Credentials

•Most non-commercial RMV credential extensions granted for customers in 2020, including learner's permits, will expire by Dec. 31 and customers may need to act soon to renew a license or ID online. Driver's licenses and ID cards that have expired this year may still be renewed online. Permit applicants must retake the exam if they have expired. With the main exception for customers 75 and older being accommodated through the above dedicated service offerings, most licenses and ID's can be renewed online at Mass.Gov/RMV and do not require a visit to a Service Center.

•Eligible customers who may need a REAL ID in the future can take advantage of the current REAL ID promotion and renew their Standard Massachusetts driver's license or Massachusetts ID card online now at Mass.Gov/RMV and upgrade to REAL ID credential at no cost in 2021. Qualifying customers who complete their renewal online and wish to upgrade to a REAL ID for free will have to wait until at least six (6) months after Massachusetts' State of Emergency is lifted to visit an RMV Service Center. Customers currently do not need a federally compliant REAL ID for the purposes of boarding domestic flights prior to Oct. 1, 2021, as the federal government delayed the compliance effective date by one year.

•License and ID renewal appointments are available at open RMV Service Centers that offer general appointments to the public. Select Renew My Driver's License or Mass ID option on the Make/Cancel a Reservation at Mass.Gov/RMV to view availability and make a reservation at one of these locations for any day of the week, Monday-Friday.

Commercial Credentials (CDLs/CLPs)

•The federal government has extended eligible Commercial Driver's Licenses (CDL) and Commercial Learner's Permits (CLP) until Feb. 28, 2021.

•Extensions were applied to customer records beginning the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 29. Commercial customers should visit Mass.Gov/RMV or log into their myRMV account for further information and to verify their status.

Road Tests

•Road Tests continue at most Service Centers and can be scheduled online.

•State vehicles are being used to conduct road tests to ensure the health and safety of employees and customers. Vehicles are cleaned and disinfected between tests.

•During a road test, only the examiner and the student are permitted inside the vehicle.

•Driving schools continue to be permitted to perform remote or online instruction under existing public health protocols.

Junior Operators

•An Executive Order signed by Gov. Charlie Baker on June 12 for Junior Operators remains in effect.

•A Junior Operator is permitted to do 46 hours of supervised driving hours with a parent, guardian or other adult over 21 with a valid license for over a year.

•The Executive Order overrules the statute that requires Junior Operators with a learner's permit to complete six hours observing another student driver, and 40 supervised driving hours with a parent, guardian or other adult over 21 with a valid license for over one year.

VEHICLE REGISTRATIONS

Registration Transfers After Vehicle Purchase Grace Period

•From June 12 until the date of when the State of Emergency ends, an Executive Order issued by Gov. Baker temporary extends this grace period requirement to 21 calendar days from the date you dispose of your previous vehicle to register your new one.

Suspension Hearings

•Suspension Hearings continue to be conducted by phone, however, customers must report to a designated RMV Service Center in person to begin the process.

•Hearing locations include: Boston/Haymarket, Brockton, Fall River, Lawrence, *Pittsfield (Wednesdays only), Springfield, and Worcester.

•Customers are limited to one hearing on a particular suspension or revocation.

National Safety Council Classes

•With limited exceptions and accommodations, anyone needing to take National Safety Council classes may continue to take them online through March 1, 2021. An online course completion counts as a customer's in-person class requirement.

communication on how and when vaccines will be administered to the priority populations that fall within Phase 1 of the vaccine rollout. Many members of our first responder community - especially our firefighters, paramedics, EMTs, and police officers - have indicated that they have received little to no information about when vaccines will be provided to emergency personnel or how it will be administered to them during the Phase 1 timeline. The current plan for administering the vaccine to public safety personnel is to give that responsibility to local boards of health, all of which have already been forced to take on extraordinary and overwhelming responsibilities throughout this public health emergency.

Many public safety officials and my legislative colleagues have raised concerns that this plan has led to confusion and delay around vaccine rollout. Vaccinating our public safety personnel will not be as simple as it is for hospital personnel or even long-term care facility residents. The disparate geographic nature of our public safety community is something we must plan for accordingly, not only to guarantee all first responders receive the vaccinations they need, but also to ensure they receive the communication from public health officials that they deserve. Unfortunately, our Commonwealth's already overburdened local boards of health are structurally unprepared to execute this massive undertaking, especially without additional support and guidance at the state level. That is why I am joining with my colleagues in calling upon the Baker Administration to implement two key recommendations.

First, we must create a regionalized plan in consultation with the Department of Public Health and the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security on how to distribute and administer the vaccine to our public safety personnel. This plan should take into account how and when different regions will be able access vaccines and how the Baker Administration plans to prioritize each region and department. Our local boards of health cannot do this on their own, and the state must step up to ensure our public safety officials are not left behind. The second proposal is to deploy the 7000 of the 12000 professional firefighters around the Commonwealth who are also EMTs to administer the vaccine to their colleagues, including call and volunteer departments. This is a simple and effective solution that will help to more quickly distribute the COVID-19 vaccine to our men and women on the front lines.

I know that vaccine distribution and administration is a massive feat that will undoubtedly need to be reviewed and amended as rollout continues over the coming weeks and months. Under no circumstances do I believe this holdup has been deliberate by anyone on the state level; our Commonwealth is being asked to take on an extraordinary challenge without proper support and resources from the Oval Office. However, it is also clear that further action needs to be taken and these two proposals are a great place to start.

I am already encouraged to see that the Governor Baker plans to address many of our concerns this week and will release more information regarding vaccine distribution plans for first responders in light of these concerns. I think we all know that our first responders, including our men and women in uniform, have played a crucial role in Massachusetts' response to the COVID-19 pandemic and have risked and sacrificed so much for the greater good of our community. We owe it to them to ensure that our vaccine rollout is equitable, transparent, and effective. I stand with our public safety community and will continue to support any and all efforts to ensure that they are given every opportunity to access this vaccine as deserved.

Galvin lists dates for Special House of Representatives contest

Special to the Journal

Secretary of the Commonwealth William F. Galvin has issued a calendar of deadlines for a Special State Primary on Tuesday, March 2, 2021 and especial election to be held on March 30, 2021 in the Nineteenth Middlesex Representative District to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of former Speaker of the House Robert A. DeLeo.

No-excuse voting by mail will be available for both the special state primary and the special state election. Information on voting by mail is available at www.MailMyBallot-MA.com.

The deadline for submitting nomination papers to the local registrars of voters is January 19th, while the last day to file certified nomination papers with the Secretary of the Commonwealth is January 26th. Nominations for the House of Representatives require a minimum of 150 certified signatures.

Nomination papers will be available at the Elections Division at One Ashburton Place in Boston, as well as the Winthrop Town Clerk's office and the Revere Elections Department.

The Nineteenth Suffolk District consists of Revere's Ward 1, Precincts 1 and 2; Ward 2; Ward 3, Precincts 2 and 3; and Ward 5, as well as the entire Town of Winthrop.

Veterans Services Officer Marc Silvestri announces candidacy for Suffolk District State Rep. seat

To my friends and the residents of Winthrop and Revere:

Speaker Bob DeLeo's decision to step down after 30 years of dedicated service leaves our communities with a significant loss of leadership on Beacon Hill. Bob DeLeo set the highest example of service, and so the individual who attempts to fill his shoes must be one committed to getting into the trenches and tirelessly fighting for all of us.

I am Marc Silvestri, and I believe I am that person. After deep and sincere reflection with my family and friends, I declare my candidacy for State Representative of the 19th Suffolk District. My life experiences, my energy, and my passion for service qualify me to take on the demands and responsibilities to effectively serve the people of Winthrop and Revere.

Who is Marc Silvestri? I grew up here and always aspired to lead. I captained my football, track, and hockey teams before graduating Revere High in 1997. I went on to Prep school and started college at American International College before family responsibilities steered me into the workforce as a laborer with Local 22.

In 2006, I enlisted in the United States Army. My time in the military shaped me into a strong individual who will never compromise integrity. During my military tour in Afghanistan, I faced life and death situations. I was awarded the Bronze Star with Valor for my actions during a four-hour firefight. Later in my deployment, I suffered severe injuries when a Rocket Propelled Grenade struck my fighting position. Due to the visible and invisible wounds of war, I was over-prescribed and under-treated in the years following my retirement which led to substance misuse.

As a person in long term recovery, I learned that lives can be changed even in the darkest and most difficult times. I know what it is to struggle, what it takes to overcome, and how to help those who need it. I learned how service to others, making a difference in their lives, and working fearlessly toward a common good can help us prevail over the threats and obstacles that might stand in our paths.

My experience ignited in me a passion for service. I resumed my education and graduated from Salem State University. I settled in Revere with my wife Nicole and today we are the grateful parents of 17-year old Sienna, a dental technician student at Northeast Regional Vocational High School, and Saige, a 5th grader at the Whelan School.

In 2017, Mayor Brian Arrigo appointed me as the Veterans Service Officer for the City of Revere, a duty that has deepened my passion for service. I have worked tirelessly with local, state, and federal officials to ensure that Revere's veterans are never overlooked or short-changed. During my five years as Veterans Service Officer, we have established more programs and opportunities for our veterans than at any time in Revere's history.

- I worked with Councilor at Large Steve Morabito to implement a Veterans work-off program that helps veterans save on their tax or water bills

- I worked with Mayor Brian Arrigo to establish August 7 as "Purple Heart Day" in Revere

- I worked with Ward Six Councilor Rick Serino to create an option for Revere taxpayers to easily donate to the Revere Veterans Fund, and the money raised will help pay for additional services for the most vulnerable veterans in our community.

- I worked with Congresswoman Katherine Clark to facilitate the VA Home Loan application process for veterans working in the marijuana industry. Thanks to the effort that began in the Revere Veterans Service Office, Congresswoman Clark and other federal lawmakers are demanding that the Veterans Administration reform its current policies that impede the loan opportunities for these hard-working, entrepreneurial veterans.

- I worked to create reserved parking spaces at Revere City Hall for veterans and Purple Heart recipients.

I have thrived from the privilege to change people's lives, which has taught me how to listen thoughtfully and advocate strongly for others — critical skills of leadership in the quest for shared well-being.

I consider political service to require the same values that were instilled in me in the military: the virtues of Honor, Dignity, Courage, and Selfless Service. My passion and commitment to service has taken many shapes, whether helping a pair of veterans unite after 60 years, or delivering Turkey Dinners on Thanksgiving Day to those in need. I will bring this passion and commitment to a role in government, for I believe that Government can help find solutions and clear a path for everyone's benefit. It is time that we restore the true meaning of Government "...of the people, by the people, for the people..." where we work together and defend our communities and each other.

Today, I hold fighting for our country in Afghanistan and serving the veterans of Revere as the great honors of my life. It will be an equivalent honor to fight for and serve the people of the 19th Suffolk District. For these reasons, I ask for your vote of confidence for Marc Silvestri at the primary election on March 2, 2021.

Jeff Turco announces candidacy for 19th Suffolk State Representative seat

Cites lifelong commitment to community and working-class values for his desire to represent the people of Winthrop and Revere, Jeff Turco has officially launched his campaign for State Representative in the 19th Suffolk District for Winthrop and sections of Revere.

"For 30 years, our district has been represented by a tremendous leader who made the lives of Massachusetts residents better. Robert DeLeo leaves big shoes to fill, but I am confident that I will uphold his values and commitment to our community," said Turco.

"For my entire adult life, I have been dedicated to helping the residents of our community, whether it be as an elected official in Winthrop, serving as the President of the Revere Beach Partnership or helping the youth of our district by fundraising and coaching various teams. As a resident of Revere for 33 years, and now as a resident of Winthrop, I am uniquely suited to understand the issues of our communities. From substance use disorder, creating educational opportunities for those on the college path AND those seeking vocational education, public safety, transportation and standing up to Amazon, I will be a voice for the families across the 19th Suffolk District. I am looking forward to this campaign and continuing my dedication to our values and vision for a better future."

"My prior experience as a Chief of Staff and Chief Legal Counsel in the Massachusetts State Senate and as the Chief Operating Officer of a large state agency with over seven hundred employees and a fifty million dollar budget, will allow me to hit the ground running for the people of this District.

Learn more about Jeff's campaign at www.Turco-ForRep.com.

About Jeff: Working for his community has always been in the forefront for Turco, for two years he served as Town Council President in Winthrop and a School Committee member.

Prior to this, Jeff was a Massachusetts House of Representatives page assigned to the late Representative William G. Reinstein and he served several terms as the elected representative to the Democratic State Committee representing Revere and Winthrop at the Democratic State Party.

Jeff's community involvement is second nature at this point, having served as a director of the McCarthy-Trifone Recreation Committee in Revere for more than fifteen years. During that time, he and his counterparts worked to raise well in excess of $1 Million, funds that directly assisted youth sports programs in our community to keep down the per head costs of their programs.

For six years Jeff served on the Revere Beach Partnership Board of Directors, including the last three as President. He previously volunteered as a coach and manager for several Winthrop Little League teams.

Presently, Jeff serves as a lector at St. John the Evangelist in Winthrop, as a Trustee of the Winthrop Foundation and is the appointed chairman of the Winthrop Ordinance and Charter review commission.

A Revere native, Jeff currently resides in Winthrop with his wife, the former Melissa Carbone, and their six children Rosario 15, Mary 14, Joseph 12, Dominic 10, Grace 8 and Matteo 4. Jeff and Melissa's children attend Malden Catholic High School and the Immaculate Conception School in Revere, where Jeff has served on the Immaculate Conception School Advisory Board for the past 7 years.

Alicia DelVento to run for the Mass. House of Representatives 19th Suffolk seat

Alicia DelVento officially announced via video that she is running to fill the Massachusetts House of Representatives 19th Suffolk seat vacated by former Speaker Robert A. DeLeo's resignation. Alicia currently serves as the Democratic State Committee Woman for the First Suffolk and Middlesex District and previously served as an aide to former House Ways and Means Chairman Jeffrey Sánchez and Representative Danielle Gregoire. As part of the announcement, Alicia released the following statement:

"Our community of Winthrop and Revere faces many challenges," said Alicia DelVento. "To fix them, we need someone on Beacon Hill who can roll up her sleeves and get to work on day one. I believe the future is bright for Winthrop and Revere if we fight for bold and compassionate policies, and I look forward to sharing my vision with all those that call Winthrop and Revere home."

Background: Alicia DelVento was born and raised in Winthrop and is a graduate of Winthrop High School. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Management and Policy from the University of New Hampshire and is currently a Masters in Public Health candidate at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire. During the 2020 election, Alicia served as the lead organizer for the Ed Markey for Senate Campaign in Winthrop. Alicia also serves on Winthrop's Charter and Ordinance Review Committee.

Capobianco to seek 19th Suffolk seat in the Mass. House of Representatives Valentino Capobianco, current member of the Winthrop School Committee, formally announced his candidacy for the Massachusetts House of Representatives' 19th Suffolk district seat, vacated by House Speaker Robert A. DeLeo. The district includes Winthrop and parts of Revere. The special election date has not been set.

"Throughout my time working in the State House and serving on the Winthrop School Committee, I have devoted my entire professional career to making our community and the entire Commonwealth of Massachusetts a better place. I am running for State Representative to improve our public schools and to help our small businesses and working families rebuild after the pandemic," said Capobianco.

"Speaker DeLeo leaves behind a rich legacy of public service and will be missed by the people of Revere, Winthrop, and the entire Commonwealth. I had the pleasure of working for Speaker DeLeo after I graduated from college. I learned that when the phone rings, a legislator needs to take the call, listen to the problem, and then resolve the issue. I will ensure that Speaker DeLeo's legacy of delivering for Winthrop and Revere continues."

Capobianco currently serves as the Chief of Staff to State Senator Paul R. Feeney (D-Foxboro). In addition to serving on the Winthrop School Committee for the past five years, Capobianco serves as an elected member of the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and as a member of the Shore Educational Collaborative's Board of Trustees. He previously served as an aide to Middlesex Sheriff Peter Kotoujian and to Speaker DeLeo. Capobianco, a graduate of Winthrop High School and Suffolk University, is 32 years old and resides with his dog Bernie at 53 Prospect Ave in Winthrop.

Local area companies receive state grants

Staff report

MassDevelopment has awarded 85 grants totaling $4,465,619 from the Taxi and Livery Business Support Grant Program to support 104 small businesses operating in the taxi and livery industries and two taxi and livery industry associations including five area businesses. The first round of the Taxi and Livery Business Support Grant Program offers taxi and livery operators financial assistance to secure products or services that will aid in improving their competitiveness and enhancing safety capabilities in the rapidly evolving market of for-hire transportation.

The grants will fund expenses including dispatch systems or other equipment, technology-enabled ride-hailing systems, safety enhancements, workforce training programs, and business consultant services, and will help industry associations fund aggregated improvements that will have a collective impact on the taxi and livery industries in Massachusetts. The Taxi and Livery Business Support Grant Program is funded by MassDevelopment's allocation from the Commonwealth's Transportation Infrastructure Enhancement Trust Fund. "I'm pleased we can target this necessary support for the taxi and livery industries which make up an important component of the Commonwealth's comprehensive transportation network," said Housing and Economic Development Secretary Michael Kennealy. "These grants will support the competitiveness of the taxi and livery industries by helping them make critical adjustments to operate with the health and safety of both their workers and customers in mind." The Commonwealth's Transportation Infrastructure Enhancement Trust Fund was created by An Act Regulating Transportation Network Companies, which Gov. Charles Baker signed into law in August 2016 and is supported by a 20-cent assessment on every transportation network company ride in Massachusetts. One-quarter of the Fund is being designated to MassDevelopment to provide financial assistance to small businesses operating in the taxicab, livery, or hackney industries.

In August 2020, MassDevelopment announced it is using up to two-thirds of its allotment from the Transportation Infrastructure Enhancement Trust Fund to support the Taxi and Livery Business Support Grant Program, and opened a competitive solicitation for the first round of funding. Small businesses operating in the taxi, livery, and hackney industries could apply for grants of up to $50,000, while taxi and livery industry associations could apply for grants of up to $1 million, and could direct up to $200,000 of such awards toward the purchase of marketing materials that promote the taxi and livery industries. The remaining one-third of MassDevelopment's allotment from the Transportation Infrastructure Enhancement Trust Fund is supporting the Taxi/Livery Partnership Grant Program, launched and administered by the Metropolitan Area Planning Council (MAPC) in fall 2020, which is an operational subsidy program enabling municipalities, municipal entities, regional transit authorities, health and human service providers, and applicable nonprofits to expand transportation service capacity through contracts with licensed taxi or livery businesses. In response to COVID-19, in April 2020 MAPC launched an early version of this program, the Urgent COVID-19 Taxicab, Livery, and Hackney Partnership Grant Program, to facilitate urgent transportation and delivery needs for vulnerable populations during the pandemic; in November 2020, MassDevelopment and MAPC awarded $1,003,978 through the program to 25 cities and towns, municipal agencies, regional transit authorities, and health and human services transportation providers. The following businesses and organizations in the area received funding from the Taxi and Livery Business Support Grant Program:

- One Transportation Group, LLC, Revere – $35,000
•The Transportation Alliance, Inc., Statewide – $1 million
•New England Livery Association, Inc., Statewide – $1 million
•Boston Domestic Limo, Chelsea – $20,308
•DPV Transportation Inc., Everett – $10,000
•Everett Car Service, Inc., Everett – $50,000
•PJM Executive Car Service, Winthrop – $23,000

OBITUARIES

Brian Paul Shaer

Gifted vocalist and versatile guitarist with a passion for photography

Brian Paul Shaer passed away on December 23, 2020 at the age of 61.

He grew up in Revere and spent his later teenage years in Van Nuys, California, graduating from Ulysses S. Grant High School. He returned to the Revere area and settled in Lynn.

A self-confessed free spirit and music fanatic, he was a gifted vocalist and versatile guitarist who loved all styles of rock music. He also had a passion for photography and managed photo-processing and camera stores as a profession. His trove of well composed photographs are a legacy his family and friends will treasure for all time.

Brian was at his happiest meandering the beaches with his guitar or camera in hand. He was one of a remarkable and resourceful circle of friends, many of his friendships went back decades. He remained dedicated to his former ward — also named Brian.

Brian was the son of the late Selma and Billy Shaer and was predeceased by his brothers Jason Shaer and Eric Shaer. He leaves his adored sister, Francine Dickerson, brother-in-law, Henry, nephews, Derek and Brandon, along with extended family members and a host of friends both old and new.

Arrangements and memorials were held privately.

Anthony Scapicchio

Emergency Medicine Physician

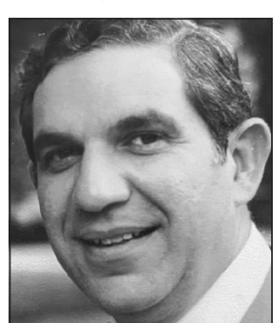

Anthony P. Scapicchio, 83, of San Diego, formerly of Nahant, passed away on Christmas morning.

He was born to the late Armando and Fannie Scapicchio of Revere and was a graduate of Boston College and Seton Hall New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry.

After serving in the Vietnam War as a Major in the Army Medical Corps tending to the wounded, he established a successful career in Emergency Medicine. He served as Chairman of the Department of Emergency Medicine at Mount Auburn Hospital in Cambridge for two decades. He is credited with that department's growth into a fully staffed teaching hospital and for advocating for holistic care for emergency room patients during his tenure.

He was married to the late Diana Beatrice Scapicchio and is survived by his daughter, Sarafina Scapicchio and son-in-law

T.J. Seguire of San Diego, CA and his extended family of in-laws including Henry and Lita Beatrice of Revere, Chucky and Diane Beatrice of Scituate, Melissa and Greg Burrill of Scituate, Stacy and Greg Hetrick of Lynn, and Stephanie and Paul McSweeney of Swampscott and their children.

A Funeral Mass was celebrated on Monday, January 4 at St Anthony's Church, Revere. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the San Diego COVID-19 Community Response Fund at www.sdfoundation.org. For guestbook please visit www.Buonfiglio.com

In Loving Memory of Roger Stewart Paul

January 9, 2008 — January 9, 2021

It's been 13 long years, since you've been gone.

Although I've cried a million tears, in my mind you did not die, I just can't let you go.

*In my heart is where you'll be,
Honey I just want you to know.*

Though time may erase a day, your memory will always stay.

Memories I hold so dear, with each and every tear.

*Nothing can erase the memories
I've saved.*

Nothing can replace the love you gave.

*I wish I could see you just once more,
Walking through the front door.*

*But I know that is impossible, I will hear your

I know you can see my tears and don't want me to cry.

But my heart is broken and I can't understand why someone so precious had to die.

The years filled with laughter and memories galore are now silenced, and are here no more.

Memories are like possessions that time cannot destroy.

For it is in Happy Remembrance my heart finds greatest joy!

Your handsome face Roger may have faded from view, but my love for you is eternal, and is always with you!

*Miss You Dearly! Love Forever and Always,
Your Loving Wife,
XOX Joan XOX*

In Memory of my beloved brother

Anthony (NINO) Salvatore Nicola Mario Nittolo

September 24, 1949
to January 6, 2020

My dear sweet Nino, Angel of a brother,
A year ago, today, your spirit left before sunrise.
I will miss you Nino, every day of my life,
Until the day God calls for my demise.
Then I'll experience the glory of Jesus
As you have been doing all this time.
Mamma, Richie and friends joining arms with us,
And never ever having to say goodbye!
You are loved with deep affection sweet brother.
Your smiling face has never left my mind.
The joy and love you gave was like no other,
My beloved Nino, my sweet cutie pie.
It is because of Jesus, I have this hope,
That death is not the end of our story.
Jesus paid for our Redemption and Eternal Life;
So, I trust that one day I will see you in glory.
For now, my heart aches and tears still flow,
Because you are not here to hug and kiss.
Jesus encourages me to keep on going
Because assuredly you are in Heaven's Bliss.

Your sister Lucia (Nittolo) Hunter

OBITUARIES

Anthony James Diaz

His majestic personality won the hearts of everyone he met

Anthony James Diaz of Revere was taken from us too soon at the age of 29. He passed away unexpectedly on January 1.

Anthony was the youngest son of Gail Scimone and Jimmy Diaz Sr. of Revere, the beloved brother of Jimmy Diaz Jr., Christina "Bags" Bagnera and Tanya Bagnera; cherished grandson of Gloria Zagarella, Richard and Angela Diaz, Karen Scimone and the late Elaine Riley, and Joe "Red" Scimone; adored nephew of Joni Scimone and Lee Scimone, Lisa Diaz Edwards and Chris Cavanaugh, Phillip Douglas and Shirley Duddy, Richie Diaz, Jodi Scimone and Patty Lewis Pepi; dear cousin to Ronnie Particelli, Stephanie Particelli and Davey Goodrich, Nicole and William Dunn, Lauren Diaz, Kristina Diaz and Bobby Pelosi, Tori Pepi and Richie Diaz Jr.

Anthony was a graduate of The Northeast Metropolitan Tech, Class of 2009 - Automotive Technology. He worked for Sears Automotive and for the Department of Revenue. After graduating the Academy in 2015, Anthony began his career with the Suffolk County Sheriff's Department. Most recently, Anthony was selected for a special assignment to work in the department's Automotive Division and brought his expertise and work experience and was able to follow his passion and help others.

Anthony was a kind, thoughtful and a generous soul. He worked hard and played hard. His favorite thing to do was to spend time with the people he loved. His family and friends meant the world to him. He and his brother, sister and his cousins were all best friends. They did everything together and always had a great time.

He was sincere, funny, caring and quick to share his honest opinion. He loved to travel, loved to ride his motorcycle, loved to set goals and make a plan. His magnetic personality won the hearts of everyone he met. Anthony had a unique way of making everyone feel special, loved and protected. He had a caring way to make the darkest situations brighter. His outlook and perspective on life was positive and inspiring to all who knew him. He had an exceptional way of looking at life and seeing endless possibilities. His spirit was infectious and an inspiration to all he crossed paths with.

Anthony was an incredible soul with so much light and love to share with the world. We are grateful and will cherish the time we had with him here on earth and vow to always celebrate his life.

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church 133 Beach St, Revere on Saturday, January 9, at 12 noon (Everyone to meet directly at church) capacity limits will be enforced. Ralph DiPesa

1923 — 2020

Ralph C. DiPesa, an award-winning Mechanical Tool Designer and extraordinary artist and sculptor, passed away peacefully on December 29 at Mass General Hospital following a long illness at the age of 97.

Born in Boston in 1923, he was the devoted son of the late Michael and Josephine (Sacco) DiPesa.

Ralph faithfully served his country in the US Army in Europe and North Africa during World War II. Upon his return from active duty, he relocated to Revere and attended the Boston Trade School before embarking on his career as an aircraft engine mechanical designer with General Electric in Everett, where he worked for nearly 40 years.

While at GE, Ralph was honored by his peers with several awards, including Tool Designer of the Year. Upon his retirement in 1987, he fulfilled his passion for the arts by devoting his life to painting, sculpting and studies on the philosophy of life. Several of his sculptures won first-prize awards at the Topsfield Fair.

He and his wife, Dorothy were also original group members of the Revere Society for Cultural & Historic Preservation, Inc. (RSCHP). Postcard reprints of his famous "Revere Beach Gazebo" painting raised significant funds for the organization. Ralph was a brilliant and sensitive family man who always shared the benefit of his wisdom with his family and friends. He made the world a better place for which we are all indebted through his extraordinary life and experience.

He remained a lifelong resident of Revere, and is survived by Dorothy (Higgins), his beloved wife of 70 years, and his children: Ralph (Skip) and his wife, Cheryl of Swampscott, Stephen of Revere, and Attorney Richard and his wife, Lorene of Amesbury. He is also survived by his grandchildren: Andrea Bernard, Caren McEachern, Michelle DiPesa, Matthew DiPesa, Gail Neves, Eric DiPesa and Kayla Souliotis and nine great-grandchildren. Ralph is also survived by his sisters: Nancy Ring of Revere and Lillian Cartier of Michigan. He was predeceased by his sister, Florence DuPonte and brother, Anthony DiPesa.

A private graveside service with military honors will be held at St. Mary's Cemetery in Lynn with a Celebration of Ralph's Life to be held at a later date. Gifts in Ralph's memory may be sent to the Revere Society for Cultural & Historic Preservation, Inc. (RSCHP), 108 Beach Street, Revere, MA 02151.

MBTA partners with N.E. Patriots, N.E. Revolution, and Patriot Place to distribute masks and hand sanitizer

Staff report

The MBTA is pleased to announce that the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, and Patriot Place recently donated 2,500 facemasks and 5,000 bottles of hand sanitizer to distribute to MBTA riders in support of the T's Ride Safer campaign.

"The health and safety of our riders and employees continue to be our top priorities during these challenging times," said MBTA General Manager Steve Poflak. "The MBTA greatly appreciates this contribution from the Patriots, Revolution, and Patriot Place as we strive to provide safe, essential transit services to those who rely on buses and trains."

"We are proud to support the MBTA's Ride Safer program to help meet the ongoing needs for masks and hand sanitizer in our surrounding communities," said Brian Earley, Vice President and General Manager of Patriot Place. "We are thankful to continue our strong partnership with the MBTA by teaming up on this great initiative to keep members of our communities safe and healthy."

The MBTA's Ride Safer campaign consists of three components: providing face coverings to riders in need at key stations during peak travel times; signage and messaging to promote the importance of keeping a safe distance and wearing face coverings while on the T; and the Ride Safer webpage at mbta.com/RideSafer that provides travel tips and a behind-the-scenes look at the MBTA's expanded efforts to clean and disinfect stations and vehicles.

The entire city is in an uproar over a "sneak action" by a majority of the City Council who voted to remove City Manager Edward C. Monahan from office. An alliance of four members was formed by Councillors Gerald Woodland, Raymond Carey, Louis Kirstein, and Joseph Del Grosso. Councillors Harry Della Russo and Thomas U. Kelley were opposed, with Councilor Edward White, who recently was named to fill a vacancy, voting present. Woodland presented the motion and stated that Monahan had failed to live up to the council's expectations of him as the first City Manager under Plan E, though he gave no specific reasons. An outcry by large numbers of citizens against the "gang rule" by the council is being led by the Revere Journal, which asserted that the majority was undermining the Plan E form of government. The four councillors elected City Auditor Edward P. O'Toole as Acting City Manager. Monahan expressed "shocked astonishment" at the action and said he will hire an attorney to contest what he termed an illegal action.

Impressive ceremonies were held for the inauguration of newly-elected Mayor Raymond Carey and other city officials Monday night at City Hall. A huge crowd filled the Beachmont Ballroom for the inaugural ball and banquet Wednesday night. Carey pledged to rid the city of the rackets which have earned Revere a bad reputation in the Boston newspapers. Former Chelsea Mayor and present Soldiers Home Commandant Lawrence F. Quigley was the guest speaker and urged Carey not to let his heart rule his head. Quigley said that those who come to a mayor and ask for favors and who receive the most typically are the ones who become the most ungrateful. Quigley brought smiles to the audience when he said that the common taxpayer is carrying too large a burden these days.

Revere's Del Gaizo brothers remember the great Floyd Little

By Cary Shuman

The Del Gaizo twins, Jim and John, 1965 graduates of Revere High, are fondly remembering their Syracuse University football teammate Floyd Little, who died on Jan. 1 at the age of 78.

Little was a three-time All-American running back for the Orangemen and went on to have a great career for the Denver Broncos, earning induction into the National Football League Hall of Fame.

Jim DelGaizo was a quarterback on that 1966 Syracuse team that featured All-Americans Floyd Little and Larry Csonka in the backfield. The sensational southpaw set a school record with four touchdown passes in a 28-7 victory Maryland during an 8-2 season that earned Syracuse a trip to the Gator Bowl.

John Del Gaizo was a 6-foot-2-inch tight end who blocked for Little and Csonka. Though he caught passes from his brother, John excelled in his role as part of Syracuse's awesome offensive line that opened the holes for the unstoppable tandem.

Interestingly, Little, a senior, entered the 1966 season as a Heisman Trophy candidate, but Csonka's 1,000-yard rushing may have eclipsed Little's quest for college football's top award.

"Csonka started out as a starting middle linebacker, I'm not sure how many people know that," said Jim. "But they needed help in the backfield because no one could block for Floyd, so they put Larry in to be a blocking back and after a while, it was obvious he was a star runner so Floyd kind of took a backseat to Csonka his last season but he accepted it."

"Floyd's leadership skills were such that he didn't fight it and he went with the flow," added Jim. "He didn't make any waves and he just showed what a gentleman he was. They were talking about Floyd for the Heisman Trophy and Csonka overshadowed him that year. Floyd was heckuva guy, he really was."

John Del Gaizo agreed that Floyd Little was a terrific teammate and a highly respected senior that the underclassmen really admired for his leadership and support.

"Floyd was a really good, terrific guy," said John Del Gaizo. "He was a very tough back, just a great all-around ballplayer. He treated all the new kids on the team so respectfully and gave them encouragement. He didn't act like a superstar. He was so down-to-earth. I believe he got married while he was a student there."

The Del Gaizos played football for Coach Silvio Cella at Revere and led the Patriots to a memorable 8-0 over Winthrop in the 1964 Thanksgiving game. They started their careers at Syracuse on the freshman team because freshmen were not eligible for varsity football at that time. The brothers played one varsity season at Syracuse before transferring to the University of Tampa where they were teammates for their junior and senior seasons under Coach Fran Curci. John caught 65 passes in his two seasons at Tampa.

Jim Del Gaizo and Floyd Little were later on opposing teams in the NFL. Jim was a quarterback on the undefeated Miami Dolphins team and played for the Green Bay Packers and the New York Giants. "We kept in touch," said Jim. "I just remember Floyd being a terrific guy and a real gentleman."

The Revere High girls basketball team captured the Bishop Fenwick Christmas Tournament with a pair of impressive wins last week. The twin victories also raised the Lady Patriots' record to a perfect 6-0 on the season. Revere defeated Londonderry, N.H. in the opening round of the tourney. Londonderry is ranked third among New Hampshire high schools and features a tall team that clearly outsized the Lady Pats at all positions. Revere hit some clutch free throws down the stretch to come away with a hard-fought 57-52 triumph. Despite the extra attention from Londonderry, RHS star Morgan Jenkins managed to hit for 16 points and pulled down an amazing 25 rebounds. Gena Restiano was the high scorer with 17 points and Ashley DiFraia added nine. The Lady Patriots then defeated host Bishop Fenwick, 64-51. Jenkins led the point parade with 18, while senior sparkplug Marissa Parent came through with a dynamite, all-around game for the Lady Patriots, scoring 17 points and dishing out six assists. DiFraia hit for 11 points and Restiano chipped in with 10.

The Revere High boys indoor track team won its third meet in a row to remain perfect on the season with a runaway 76-10 triumph over Winthrop last Tuesday. Finishing in first place for the Patriots were Vito Licata with a shot-put toss of 37-1.5; Paul Rizzo in the 55 meter hurdles in a time of 9.7; Joey Richie in the 55 dash in 7.2; Breny Guzman in the 300 meter dash in 41.3; Mike Fitzpatrick in the 600 in 1:34; Robert Rose in the 1000 in 3:04.4; Brahim Rahzi in the mile in 5:04.1; and Ernesto Bonilla in the two-mile in 11:13.

The Revere High girls track team dropped a close meet to Winthrop last Tuesday, 45-41. Four Lady Patriots won their individual events: Briana Scata captured the shot-put with a toss of 26-4; Lindsay Gurska sped to victory in the 55 meter hurdles in 10.3; Comfort Toglan won the 300 dash in 48.0; and Alanna Pasco topped the field in the 600 in 2:02.8. The Lady Patriot 4 x 400 relay team of Toglan, Pasco, Amel Derras-Chouk and Noelle MacDonald also took first place, nipping their Winthrop rival quartet by just 0.6 seconds in a time of 4:48.

The Revere High hockey team improved to 3-0 in the Northeastern Conference with a 6-3 triumph at Salem. Captain Joe Corbett and Marco Mazzarelli provided the offensive punch for coach Jim Palumbo's squad with two goals and an assist apiece. Peter Marino and Brandon Mastropietro also lit the lamp for the Patriots. Jeff Redding played another solid game in nets for Revere.

Revere High senior Chris Miles poured in a game-high 29 points, including a three-pointer and four free throws in the final minute, to lead the RHS boys basketball team to a 78-68 upset victory over Arlington. Jon DeMarco scored 13 points and grabbed nine rebounds and Ramon Navarro hit for 12 points for coach Tony Ferullo's squad.

The RHS hockey team dropped a 9-2 decision to Arlington, the top-ranked team in the state. Mike Conley, assisted by Mike McPherson and Jason Rizzo, and Ed Noseworthy, assisted by Conley, scored the Revere goals. Coach Jim Palumbo's squad now is 4-3 on the season.

Revere police officers Amy O'Hara and Patty Carey will play in the Women's Professional League Super Bowl game on January 20 in Houston, Texas. Their New England Storm team defeated the Daytona Beach Barracudas in sudden death overtime, 29-26, in Deland, Florida, to advance to the Super Bowl contest.

Happy New Year! 2021 brings new hope for RevereTV as the year begins with a fully functioning new studio just waiting for community members! Last year was the big move from Broadway to Washington Avenue accompanied by widespread hardship, and although the staff kept things moving, the studio was isolated and rather empty. RevereTV is excited for all that this new year will bring once it can be completely open to the public. Stay tuned for that official date. Until then, RTV will continue to operate fully, but safely, for public meeting coverage and partially for community member use.

Some new programming was recorded during the last few weeks which is now airing on the RTV community channel. This channel is 8 and 1072 on Comcast and 3 and 614 on RCN. Revere Recreation held virtual art classes for kids through the month of December which were conducted in the RTV studio with students attending via Zoom. These classes include step-by-step drawing instructions of cartoon characters like Spongebob and Donald Duck. This short series was recorded and is called "That's Sketchy" on the channel. It plays at various times throughout the day on weekdays.

Revere's new Director of the Department of Public Health, Lauren Buck, is starting a program called "Focus on Health." This show will air specifically at 5pm every weekday, but also on some weekday mornings. "Focus on Health" will feature Buck and relevant guests in an interview-style setup where health topics are discussed. The first episode was about substance abuse and recovery during the pandemic. Tune in to the RevereTV community channel to watch the latest or head to the RTV YouTube page to access a recording at any time.

Revere's local government meetings suspended for the holidays but all start up again this week. Tune in live to RTV channel 9 on Comcast, and 13 or 613 on RCN to watch. All meetings are also streamed live to RevereTV's YouTube and Facebook.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

By Althea Terenzi English Teacher

Lucas Hurtado

How well can you get to know a kid you've never met in person? Knowing how important building relationships with students is to their success, it's a question that was on all teachers' minds as we entered this full-remote school year.

Well it turns out it's possible to get to know them quite well. Take Lucas Hurtado. His favorite color is purple. His preferred candy is the sour gummy kind. He has a large Brazilian flag in his room, and he used to work at Kelly's. He's got excellent taste in film. These are the small things that have come up in our virtual classroom, but they're just trivia.

The big thing I've learned about Lucas is his absolute passion for self-growth.

A lot of teenagers are curious, with varying levels of tolerance for trying new things. But I'd describe Lucas as hungry. The guy wants to try everything, to push his limits, and to learn learn learn. He's told me that his mantra is, "Is this best I could be doing?" If his answer is no, he will seek out new situations to challenge himself and grow.

Last year Lucas ran for and won Junior Class President. He saw it as one of those opportunities to expand his leadership abilities, and he had fun doing it. For example, he organized the Haunted Hallways event and dealt with an unfortunate but comedic mishap with a certain fog machine. He had to "fight" with seniors over the rights to snack bar profits-- and won! (In the high stakes world of prom fundraising, this is a big deal.) When school shut down in March, he worked with his team to continue creating fun, virtual events for his class. But the best part of his role, he said, was the pride and class spirit he felt seeing how hard everyone worked and how much time they were willing to spend to make great memories, even during the pandemic.

Lucas did not run for office again this year because he wanted to try something new. He joined Revere's Community Ambassador Team. As a youth ambassador he helps combat the spread of the coronavirus through social media outreach and raising awareness of resources like COVID testing sites. He's an asset to the city.

Lucas is in my Black Literature elective. He arrives every morning at 8:05 with a kind greeting. He's ready to get down to business. His enthusiasm sets the tone for the whole class; he wants to know about Gullah Geechee culture, who Alice Dunbar Nelson is, and how the Harlem Renaissance got started. And because he spends so much time researching things on his own, he's able to contribute lots of enriching facts and ideas.

Now, I don't want to paint Lucas as an overzealous kid who dominates class time, because he's not. Lucas is cool. His favorite part of class is actually hearing others' perspectives, again out of a desire to expand himself. There is no brashness or arrogance in him, only openness and confidence. I admire that about him. And I wholeheartedly feel that with his passion for life and learning, Lucas Hurtado has got a bright future.

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

By Joseph Polidoro Class of 2021

Elizabeth Mirasolo

In school, you get to know and meet a lot of people. Some stick with you for life, some not. Same can go for teachers. They play a big role in helping to shape our lives, and always push students to the best of their abilities. But if there was one teacher that has definitely played a big role in not just my life, but many others, it would be Lisa Mirasolo, an English teacher at Revere High School. To many she is considered one of the best teachers in the school. Ms.Mirasolo, does not just make learning interesting but fun at the same time. She works diligently to make sure all of her students are on the path to success. She does not hesitate one bit to offer any help to a student if she knows that either something is wrong, or a student is struggling. She has that strong work ethic to help meet the needs of any student. She listens to what her students have to say, engages and connects with all. She is caring and respectful for every person, whether you are a student of hers or not.

From not just my perspective, but also classmates, Jarrod Natola, Julianna Raffa and Erica Anderson, being in her class was one of our best experiences at Revere High School. In class she has made many memories for students that will last a lifetime. When I had Ms.Mirasolo as a teacher she allowed for my class to put together something not many had thought about. We were reading the book "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", when she had asked our class if we wanted to create a game board about the book for kids to play. The class's intention was to have kids at a younger grade level play this game. But then unfortunately that hadn't happened due to school being shut down because of COVID-19.

And now as a senior at Revere High School, remote learning is not the ideal situation. But Ms.Mirasolo continuously reaches out to students to ensure that if there is anything she can do to help, that she would be right there helping. And I know as many others do too, that even after high school and later down the road in life, if you ever needed anything, Ms.Mirasolo would be there for you.

NEWS FROM AROUND THE REGION

AVELLANEDA REMAINS COUNCIL PRESIDENT

CHELSEA - Council President Roy Avellaneda received a unanimous, 6-0, vote to likely serve a second term as Council President, that coming during an organizational meeting of the Council on Dec. 21.

Councillor Damali Vidot voted 'present,' as did Avellaneda - which is customary in Chelsea for the candidate not to vote for themselves. Absent were Councillors Giovanni Recupero, Melinda Vega-Maldonado and Enio Lopez. Still, Avellaneda received the required six votes, which propelled him to a likely second term. The official vote will take place on Jan. 4 at the first Council meeting of the year.

"I know all of us when we pulled papers last year back in May 2019, and we had what we thought was an agenda and a platform and were elected in Nov. 2019 - none of us expected to experience what this community, this country and this world went through," he said. "Of course, all of those plans, ideas and agenda got shifted aside and COVID-19 response was front and center. All of that, this City had to adapt and struggle with the community that, more than many, got hit hard."

He also praised the City Manager, public safety officials, Council staffers and many other City employees for keeping things together and serving in one of the most difficult times in the City's modern history. He also praised the City's IT Department and Chelsea Cable for being able to pivot and, nearly seamlessly, hold hybrid online meetings that allowed the City Council to move forward in a normal fashion.

"At the City Council we had to adopt to meeting in a much different way," he said. "The ability to Facetime has been available for a while but until this year I never used it. I never warmed up to it, but I used it this year and I know many of my other colleagues have done it...I read with satisfaction how other cities have struggled to accommodate their colleagues so they could safely meet from their homes. They didn't have the infrastructure and technology. I know it wasn't easy and I remember that beginning where we had to figure it out. You MacGyver-ed it with Ricky of Chelsea Cable and it was to our benefit and our constituents' benefit..."

Councillor Calvin Brown said Avellaneda stood up when the chips were down last year, and he is glad that he will be president again.

"I want to thank the president of this City Council for really standing up in 2020," said Brown. "I'm sure when he was elected president, he didn't realize we were going to get hit with a pandemic that would last his entire term. Roy Avellaneda has dedicated himself to being on the front lines...He helped us and supported us and at times he was the only one here. I know it took a lot of his personal time. I'm glad we re-elected him as Council President in 2021 as well."

Councillor Vidot, who did not vote for Avellaneda, still gave him accolades for keeping the meetings going and keeping everyone in the loop.

"As the immediate past president...I feel spoiled to have had Paul Casino by my side and we were able to meet in person,"

she said. "It was just a lot smoother and I recognize how much work it took for you to be able to chair these meetings remotely, reading your orders when Paul couldn't come in. I think it's absolutely commendable. I have an autoimmune disorder and cannot come in because I am vulnerable. I want to thank everyone for making sure I could still attend these meetings and kept me in the loop as much as possible...It has not been an easy year."

In other election news, Councillor Judith Garcia was elected to a second vice president term as well, getting a unanimous 7-0 vote.

The School Committee representative was not voted, but it will be taken up on Jan. 4 and filled at that time.

The new voting order drawn - as tradition dictates - for 2021 will be:

Vidot, Avellaneda, Recupero, Garcia, Vega-Maldonado, Leo Robinson, Yamir Rodriguez, Todd Taylor, Lopez, Brown and Naomi Zabot.

The new order of seating for 2021 - chosen as tradition dictates on Dec. 21 - is the following:

RENOVATIONS CONTINUE AT GARDEN CEMETERY

CHELSEA - The historic renovation program for the Garden Cemetery in Chelsea continues on this winter with restoration crews now working on restoring and setting the old tombstones in the cemetery - a key part of Phase 3.

EVERETT BANK MAKES GENEROUS DONATION

The Everett School Department received a generous donation from Everett Bank on Friday, December 18. The following schools received a $1,000 donation: Adams School, Albert N. Parlin School, George Keverian, Madeline English, Lafayette, Webster School, and Whittier School. "I am truly grateful for the generosity of Everett Bank," said Mayor Carlo DeMaria. "The Everett School Department will use these funds to help support our students during these uncertain times. It is with the help of local businesses and community members such as Everett Bank that makes us Everett Strong." Principals from the schools were in attendance to receive the donations along with Mayor Carlo DeMaria, Superintendent Priya Tahiliani, and Everett Teacher's Association President Kim Auger. The City of Everett is proud of the relationship between the City and Everett Bank.

The Garden Cemetery is an historic property, designed by Frederick Law Olmstead, but has fallen on tough times over the last decade or more. About one year ago, the City's Planning Department unveiled a multi-phase project to fully restore the cemetery, and now Phase 3 is underway. The current phase includes restoring some of the older stones, and also building a retaining wall.

"We're planning to fully fund this and we have at least three more years of work there to do," said City Manager Tom Ambrosino.

The project has been headed up by Planner Karl Allen.

Recently, preservationists restored the stone of Capt. Olsen, who was lost at sea in 1862.

Meanwhile, the hard work in this part of the project is finding all of the broken pieces for many of the stones, and then getting them re-assembled. Most are broken, and many of the pieces are scattered about the cemetery. The contractor uses a previously completed inventory of the monuments and grave markers to locate, sort, and assess each one, before beginning the careful restoration of each feature.

Right now, the contractor is seeking to continue monument restoration throughout the winter.

DEMARIA DISTRIBUTES MASKS TO RESIDENTS

EVERETT - Mayor Carlo DeMaria announced that last week the City mailed masks to Everett residents to help prevent the spread of COVID-19. Each resident will be receiving a reusable mask with the City of Everett "E" printed on it

"It is important that we are all being safe during these uncertain times," said Mayor Carlo DeMaria. "I am truly grateful for all the sacrifices our community has made throughout the year and these masks are a small token of my gratitude. We need to continue to fight this virus and stay safe. I hope residents will wear these masks with pride."

The mask includes a QR code printed on the inside that can be scanned by using a smartphone camera. Once this code is scanned, residents will be brought to the COVID-19 resources section of the City of Everett's website.

For residents who did not receive a mask or for residents who would like additional masks, please email your name, address, and phone number to mask@ci.everett.ma.us.

DAV SCHOLARSHIP IS SECURE

EVERETT - City Councillor and Everett attorney Fred Capone met with Supt. Priya Tahiliani earlier in December to cement the future of an annual scholarship program that celebrates a great American service organization and equally dedicated Everett residents.

The Everett Disabled American Veterans Chapter 51 (DAV), which was formed in 1937 and merged with Malden Chapter 85 in 2012, has long awarded an annual $1,000 scholarship to an Everett High School senior. The Everett chapter was led by the tireless direction and supervision of George Desiderio and Richard F. Horgan for many years. Richard Connolly and John Troy were also instrumental in the chapter's earlier work and charitable efforts. Mr. Capone has served as the organization's legal counsel for more than two decades.

The trustee, pursuant to the terms of the trust, recently decided that coordinating the scholarship fund is best left to the Everett Public Schools, which can carry on this tradition every June by awarding the “Disabled Veterans’ Camp Corporation/Janet Connolly O’Neil Memorial Scholarship.” The late Janet Connolly O’Neil was a beloved Everett educator and a former Webster School assistant principal.

“Naturally, it will be our honor to maintain this scholarship program well into the future,” Superintendent Tahiliani said. “While the membership of Chapter 51 has dwindled in recent years, the mission and core values of the DAV will endure. I know I speak for everyone in the EPS when I say it will be a privilege to recognize this organization and the memory of Ms. O’Neil as part of our annual scholarship awards night.”

Attorney Capone expressed sincere appreciation, on behalf of the scholarship fund trustee and former Everett Chapter, that the School Department will continue the Everett DAV’s proud tradition.

The Disabled Veterans’ Camp Corporation/Janet Connolly O’Neil Memorial Scholarship will be presented to an EHS senior who has maintained a minimum of a 4.0 grade point average and is planning to attend a four-year college or university to pursue a career in medicine and/or the health sciences.

DINNER PROGRAM IS A SUCCESS

EAST BOSTON - Back in February before COVID, the Shah Family Foundation (SFF) partnered with the Salesian Boys & Girls Club to revamp the club’s kitchen.

The SFF outfitted the Boys & Girls Club’s kitchen on Byron Street with Welbilt ovens that can not only reheat, but cook and steam fresh foods. At the time, the Boys & Girls Club served more than 130 meals at the club each day the new kitchen allowed the Salesian to prepare hot, freshly cooked meals.

An added bonus was the meals were being prepared daily by Cunard’s Executive Chef and former Boys & Girls member Anthony Pino.

However, the pandemic cut down the Salesian afterschool and annual summer camp enrollment numbers in order to safely practice social distancing.

While the Boys & Girls Club may not be serving 130 meals in house as the pandemic continues, they are still able to feed all club members thanks to a recent Boston Resiliency Fund grant.

The Boys & Girls Club received the grant from the Boston Resiliency Fund to run a ten-week dinner program for club members and their families to enjoy at home.

A hot nutritious delicious meal is prepared by Pino on Wednesday evening to help families prevent food insecurity.

“Since the Club was closed for the holidays, bags of food were provided so families would not be without a meal last Wednesday evening along with extras to help families prepare for their holiday meal,” said Salesian Executive Director Michael Triant. “The food packages were made available with funds provided from the Boston Resiliency Grant. We are sincerely grateful to the Boston Resiliency fund for their hard work and generosity in providing needed resources for the children and families in our community during this very challenging time.”

Triant said Pino was a Club kid and staff member while attending Savio Prep and Johnson & Wales University.

“He’s brought his amazing talent back home and our kids are the winners,” he said.

Pino said he will go to the club each Wednesday before heading to his regular shop at the Cunard at 4 p.m. Pino will prepare all the food for the day and Salesian staff will simply use the new kitchen equipment provided by the SFF to reheat and distribute the meals to Club members so they can enjoy the food at home.

“I grew up going to and working at the Salesian in high school and college,” said Pino. “It’s pretty cool being back in the building a few hours a week and seeing the smiles on the kids faces again.”

COVID RATE SHOWS DECREASE

EAST BOSTON - Last week the cumulative COVID-19 positive test rate in Eastie as well as the weekly positive test rate decreased for the first time in weeks.

According to the latest data released by the Boston Public Health Commission (BPHC), Eastie residents testing positive for COVID last week decreased 43.5 and the weekly positive test rate dropped 19.5 percent.

Of the 29,855 Eastie residents tested for COVID, 16.7 percent overall were found to be positive for the virus, a 43.5 percent increase from the 29.6 percent reported two Fridays ago.

Last week 2,406 Eastie residents were tested and 10.3 percent were positive--a 19.5 percent decrease from the 12.8 that tested positive two Fridays ago.

Citywide 34,463 residents were tested and 7 percent were COVID positive--a 4 percent decrease from the 7.3 percent testing positive two weeks ago.

At his daily press briefing last week, Mayor Martin Walsh noted that on Tuesday, December 29, the City of Boston surpassed 1,000 deaths from COVID. He said that every number represents a person, with family and friends who are grieving their loss and missing them every day.

“My prayers are with everyone who has lost a loved one or continues to suffer from this terrible virus,” said Walsh.

He acknowledged residents are all tired of living with the virus, and that it’s tempting to let one’s guard down but the virus is still with us, and will be in 2021.

“In Boston, we remain concerned about an increase in COVID activity following the holidays,” said Walsh. “Our hospital numbers are higher than we’d like them to be. We have more people hospitalized right now due to COVID than we’ve had since early June. We all have a role to play in protecting each other, especially our most vulnerable, and helping to prevent further loss. That means staying vigilant -- and continuing to follow the public health guidance.”

Walsh said the city and public health officials continue to encourage everyone to get tested -- especially if you were traveling during the holidays.

“There are more than 30 testing sites in the City of Boston, including mobile testing sites which are free and open to all, regardless of symptoms,” said Walsh. “To learn more about these, or any of our testing sites, go to boston.gov/coronavirus or call 3-1-1.”

Walsh added that the city continues to be in communication with healthcare partners as the federal and state governments work on distribution of the COVID vaccine.

“This week, Boston EMT’s began getting vaccinated,” said Walsh. “Since day one of this crisis, they have been on the frontlines, risking their own health for the health and wellbeing of all Boston residents. Our EMS providers have encountered more than 3,500 COVID-positive patients in Boston.”

He also said that vaccine distribution to long term care facilities across Boston, like the Don Ori-one Nursing Home, began this week and this will help protect Boston’s most vulnerable people, in the city’s most vulnerable settings.

You can visit the State’s website at Mass.gov to see the full schedule of when vaccines will be available.

“I encourage everyone to get the vaccine, when your time comes,” said Walsh. “It’s safe, it’s free, and it’s the best way you can protect yourself and those around you. It’s how we can help get life back to normal sooner -- and get back to doing all the things and seeing the people we love.”

Eastie’s infection rate rose by 6.1 percent according to the data released by the BPHC last Friday. Eastie’s COVID infection rate went from 1,040.5 cases per 10,000 residents to 1,104.9 cases per 10,000 residents. The citywide average is 593.5 cases per 10,000 residents.

An additional 302 Eastie residents contracted the virus and there are now 5,185 confirmed cases, up from the 4,883 reported two weeks ago.

The statistics released by the BPHC as part of its weekly COVID19 report breaks down the number of cases and infection rates in each neighborhood. It also breaks down the number of cases by age, gender and race.

Citywide positive cases of coronavirus increased 11.9 percent percent last week and went from 37,366 cases to 41,847 confirmed cases in a week. Thirty-two more Boston residents died from the virus and there are now 1,020 total deaths in the city from COVID.

LYNN NATIVE HAS A NEW INVENTION

LYNN - Lynn resident William B. Lott Jr. is well-known locally as the interim executive director of the Community Minority Cultural Council (CMCC) on Union Street.

In that organization, Lott has worked closely with community leaders such as Darrell Murkison and Andrew Burton to help create opportunities and jobs for Lynn residents while strengthening the community overall. The CMCC’s annual the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast has become the city’s foremost celebration in honoring the outstanding civil rights leader.

Lott is also a retired senior IBM computer software engineer, a licensed pilot, and a veteran of the United States Air Force.

Through his work as a pilot and his service in the U.S. Air Force, Lott feels he “gained a unique perspective on oxygen and air delivery systems.”

And Lott believes those experiences make him eminently qualified for his “ambitious undertaking” of creating a Portable Powered Air Respirator (mask) that was initially designed to combat the coronavirus.

“I have developed a PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) that we (LottoGraphs Company – LGC) call a PPEE (Personal Protective Equipment for Everybody) – because everybody needs to wear a mask during the pandemic,” said Lott, who is the founder, creator, and CEO of LottoGraphs. “I have invented a mask that’s based off an inspirational thing I saw. The mask is as easy as putting on a baseball cap and it covers all three vital areas: your mouth, your nose, and your eyes.”

Lott said he is putting together a public relational campaign to raise awareness for his invention, help him fund his project, and begin production “and help with the fight against COVID-19.”

He has launched a GoFundMe campaign “to help support, a small minority-owned, veteran business.”

“The GoFundMe drive will fund the formation of a corporation and the IP, which is the Intellectual Property rights – patents, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, utility patents and all that stuff,” said Lott.

He has been reaching out to the Lynn community for its support. “I’m just trying to help the cause.”

Lott said he has five prototype masks ready for the initial phase in the production process. He explained the exact design and function of his invention.

“Basically, it’s a mask that you slip on. There are powered fans that push nice, clean fresh air,” said Lott. “So instead of wearing a stuffy mask all day, you have a nice breathing environment. I’ve looked at the industry, looked at what the doctors and experts are saying, and incorporated some of the best technology and features into my design. Even with the vaccines, you are still going to need to wear a mask. Wearing a mask is going to be around for a while. It’s not going away.”

Lott grew up in Sudbury and attended Lincoln-Sudbury schools before moving to Danvers.

“In my sophomore year of high school, my dad moved us to Danvers, Massachusetts,” said Lott. “My dad was a doctor. He was the VP for years at the Family and Children’s Services Agency in Lynn. I used to work at General Electric and knew a lot of people in Lynn. I attended North Shore Community College and studied in the Professional Pilot Program. I got my pilot’s license at Beverly Airport. In fact, I used to live right behind the Beverly Airport on Burley Street in Danvers. It was a stone’s throw away from the airport.”

DUKE DOHERTY OFF TO NAVAL ACADEMY

WINTHROP - Duke Doherty went back to the place where his parents purchased his first football gear.

And with his proud parents, Rob and Joanie Doherty, looking on at the Winthrop Pro Shop, Duke signed his letter of intent to attend the U.S. Naval Academy and compete in the Midshipmen’s Division 1 college football program. The All-Scholastic quarterback will enter the prestigious service academy next fall.

“I’m really excited to be attending the Naval Academy,” said Duke. “I love the school. They have made me feel very welcomed. It’s like a brotherhood and they really preach that you become family and it’s more than just a game.”

Sports career began in Winthrop

Duke said he wanted to have his signing ceremony at Jimmy Gillis’ Winthrop Pro Shop because “I grew up here and the Pro Shop always had my sports stuff. It’s like family over here.”

“We just wanted to be at the Pro Shop with Coach Gillis where it all began,” said Duke’s father, Rob Doherty, a former four-year Winthrop Viking football player who played in the Super Bowl at Miller Field in 1993. “Coach Gillis has been putting Duke in sports attire and uniforms since his first day of football and Little League.”

Duke made his debut on the gridiron for the Winthrop Youth Football organization in second grade. His skills improved steadily in the program that was led by President and Coach Peter Caggiano.

“I actually played running back and linebacker and a little bit at safety when I first started in Winthrop football,” recalled Duke. “I remember my father was coaching the fifth-grade team and he brought me up from the second-grade team. I was taking some hard hits, but it helped me become a better player.”

Duke moved to the QB position in seventh grade and helped pilot Winthrop to a berth in the Cape Ann Youth Football League Super Bowl. He also quarterbacked Team Massachusetts to victory in a U.S.A. national All-Star Game in Naples, Fla.

Having transferred to Winthrop High in September, Duke said he can’t wait to take the field with his Winthrop High teammates, some of whom he competed with in Winthrop Youth Football.

“Coach [Jon] Cadigan has created a close-knit bond with this team and I already feel like I’m a part of that,” said Doherty.

“We’re really excited obviously to have him on our team,” said Cadigan. “We’re excited to get back into the swing of things starting in February. It’s great that the winter sports are starting now and hopefully in late February we’re kicking the ball off and ready to go.”

A star at EHS

Duke Doherty made his debut for the Everett High varsity football team as a freshman. He would lead the Crimson Tide to one Super Bowl title and three Greater Boston League championships. In the 2019 state playoffs, Duke’s EHS team fell to Central Catholic in a controversial 39-37 loss in overtime. During a crucial point in the game, the Red Raiders were given a “fifth-down” play after the officials lost track of the downs.

One of the career leaders in touchdown passes and rushing yards for a quarterback at Everett High, Duke twice earned All-Scholastic recognition. One of his favorite targets at wide receiver was Mikey Sainristil, who now plays football at Michigan.

Mass. Legislature passes landmark climate change bill

Special to the Journal

Rep. RoseLee Vincent and Senator Joseph Boncore joined with their colleagues in the Massachusetts Legislature this week in passing breakthrough climate legislation that overhauls the state's climate laws, drives down greenhouse gas emissions, creates clean energy jobs, and protects environmental justice communities.

The bill, An Act Creating a Next-Generation Roadmap for Massachusetts Climate Policy (S.2995), sets a 2050 net-zero greenhouse gas emissions limit, as well as statewide limits every five years; increases the requirements for offshore wind energy procurement bringing the statewide total to 5,600 megawatts; requires emission reduction goals for MassSave, the state's energy efficiency program; and, for the first time, establishes the criteria in statute that define environmental justice populations. The legislation also increases support for clean energy workforce development programs including those targeting low-income communities and improves gas pipeline safety.

"This legislation takes a historic step in the fight against climate change, putting Massachusetts on the path to creating a cleaner, greener and healthier future for the next generation," stated Senate President Karen E. Spilka (D-Ashland). "I am thrilled to see this legislation codifies our shared goal of reducing harmful carbon emissions to zero by 2050, and creates new energy initiatives and standards to help us reach that target. I want to thank Senator Barrett, Representative Golden and their fellow conferees for their advocacy and hard work, as well as Speaker Mariano and former Speaker DeLeo for their partnership in seeing this bill through to fruition. I'd also like to note how much the Senate has been inspired to action by the energy and determination demonstrated by the young people of this Commonwealth. Your commitment to protecting our planet is inspiring and I welcome your continued collaboration as we move forward together in addressing our climate crisis."

"This legislation represents a major piece of climate legislation that will set the course of the Commonwealth for the next three decades," said House Speaker Ronald J. Mariano (D-Quincy). "Today we send a message loud and clear that Massachusetts will empower our environmental justice communities, achieve net zero emissions by 2050, continue to lead on offshore wind, increase equitable access to our clean energy programs, and create pathways to clean energy jobs for underserved and low-income communities."

"As the sun sets on my time in the House, I am particularly proud of the steps the Legislature took to codify the concept of 'Environmental Justice' into our general laws. The Environmental Justice provision included in this final bill will provide stronger protections from pollution, and a greater public process for communities like Revere, Chelsea and Saugus that are overburdened by polluters. The codification of EJ into our general laws will amplify the community's voice, and give populations in EJ neighborhoods a bolder seat at the table. Seeking Environmental Justice for my district has been something I have advocated for during my nearly seven years as a member of the House, and I could not be more thrilled that one of the final votes I took as a member of the Legislature will truly make a difference to the people of Revere, Chelsea and Saugus," said Representative RoseLee Vincent (D-Revere). "Overall, as the state representative of a district who has seen firsthand the effects of climate change during severe coastal storms through my tenure, I am glad that the Legislature is taking action on this front. Specifically, I want to express my appreciation to former Speaker DeLeo, Speaker Mariano and Chairman Golden for their work in getting this critical piece of legislation over the finish line."

"By creating unique protections for Environmental Justice communities, we center our policy around those most impacted by climate change," said Senator Joe Boncore (D-Winthrop). "Similarly, recognizing the impact of the transportation sector on climate change, this legislation takes key steps to limit greenhouse gas emissions and set benchmarks for the adoption of electric vehicles and vehicle charging stations."

"Amid the unprecedented public health and economic challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic, I'm proud of the Legislature's ongoing commitment to protecting our environment," said former House Speaker Robert A. DeLeo (D-Winthrop). "The actions the House and Senate took today will keep Massachusetts on-track to lead the nation in clean energy and environmental policies. Thank you to Speaker Mariano, Chair Golden and my colleagues in the House for their commitment to legislation that will help to grow our clean energy economy, address environmental justice concerns, and bolster our efforts to address the effects of climate change."

"This bill steps up the pace of our collective drive to contain climate change," said Senator Mike Barrett (D-Lexington), Senate Chair of the Joint Committee on Telecommunications, Utilities, and Energy. "It's the strongest effort of its kind in the country. With the tools the Legislature assembles here, we're constructing the response we need and providing a blueprint to other states."

"It has been a pleasure to work with my House and Senate colleagues on the conference committee on this historic climate bill," said Representative Thomas A. Golden, Jr. (D-Lowell), Chair of the Joint Committee on Telecommunications, Utilities, and Energy. "I owe a special debt of gratitude to Speaker Mariano for his invaluable mentorship over my six years as House energy chair. It is his long-standing recognition of Massachusetts' opportunity to play a leadership role in offshore wind and his fearless commitment to push forward when others hang back that have led us to advance legislation as ambitious as the Next Generation Roadmap bill."

"This bill continues our commitment to reducing harmful carbon emissions, and enacting policies of environmental equity. We have made sure to include enforceability and compliance rules, so we reach our net-zero goals," said Senate Majority Leader Cindy Creem (D-Newton). "I am so pleased that we also require public hearings on whether classifying biomass as renewable can actually be scientifically justified. And I am proud we will now regulate natural gas as the damaging fossil fuel that it is and strengthen policies to prevent gas leaks and encourage renewable geothermal alternatives."

"As the birthplace of the offshore wind industry in the United States, Massachusetts sets an example to the nation for its leadership on climate policy and today's action by the legislature further cements that legacy," said Representative Patricia Haddad (D-Somerset). "The House, along with our colleagues in the Senate, took steps today to increase the use of renewable energy, cut greenhouse gasses and create clean energy jobs in Massachusetts. I thank Speaker Mariano, former Speaker DeLeo and Chair Golden for their leadership and work on these important issues."

"This is an historic day for Massachusetts. We have long been one of the clean energy leaders in our country, but today, we've strengthened the foundation that we have built upon and chart a course that has been long discussed but never codified or fully implemented," said Senator Patrick O'Connor (R-Weymouth).

"Climate policy can't wait – that's why this bipartisan legislation sets aggressive and practical goals in the areas of emissions reduction, green energy, environmental justice, and grid modernization. I am proud to have served on this conference committee and thank my colleagues for their hard work and collaborative spirit in crafting this legislation."

"The climate change bill takes a comprehensive approach to reducing greenhouse gas emissions, including recognizing how forests and other natural and working lands can be used to promote carbon sequestration and help Massachusetts reach its goal of net-zero emissions by 2050," said House Minority Leader Bradley H. Jones, Jr. (R-North Reading). "It also incorporates municipal lighting plants as partners in these efforts by setting greenhouse gas emissions standards and establishing an equal playing field for these facilities. I'm proud to have served on the conference committee that produced this historic bill which reaffirms Massachusetts' role as a national leader on clean energy issues."

The legislation includes, among other items, the following provisions.

- Sets a statewide net zero limit on greenhouse gas emissions by 2050 and mandates emissions limits every five years, as well as limits for specific sectors of the economy, including transportation and buildings.

- Codifies environmental justice provisions into Massachusetts law, defining environmental justice populations and providing new tools and protections for affected neighborhoods.

- Requires an additional 2,400 megawatts of offshore wind, building on previous legislation action and increases the total to 5,600 megawatts in the Commonwealth.

- Directs the Department of Public Utilities (DPU), regulator of the state's electric and natural gas utilities, to balance priorities going forward:

system safety, system security, reliability, affordability, equity, and, significantly, reductions in greenhouse gas emissions.

- Sets appliance energy efficiency standards for a variety of common appliance including plumbing, faucets, computers, and commercial appliances.

- Adopts several measures aimed at improves gas pipeline safety, including increased fines for safety violations and regulations related to training and certifying utility contractors.

- Increases the Renewable Portfolio Standard (RPS) by 3 percent each year from 2025 – 2029, resulting in 40 percent renewable energy by 2030.

- Establishes an opt-in municipal net zero energy stretch code, including a definition of "net zero building."

- Prioritizes equitable access to the state's solar programs by low-income communities

- Establishes $12 million in annual funding for the Massachusetts Clean Energy Center in order to create a pathway to the clean energy industry for environmental justice populations and minority-owned and women-owned businesses.

- Provides solar incentives for businesses by exempting them from the net metering cap to allow them to install solar systems on their premises to help offset their electricity use and save money.

- Requires utilities to include an explicit value for greenhouse gas reductions when they calculate the cost-effectiveness of an offering of MassSave.

- Creates a first-time greenhouse gas emissions standard for municipal lighting plants that requires them to purchase 50 percent non-emitting electricity by 2030 and "net zero" by 2050.

- Sets benchmarks for the adoption of clean energy technologies including electric vehicles, charging stations, solar technology, energy storage, heat pumps and anaerobic digestors.

The bill is now with the governor.

Comprehensive, first of its kind, police reform legislation signed into law

Staff Report

Gov. Charles Baker signed "An Act Relative to Justice, Equity and Accountability in Law Enforcement in the Commonwealth," a controversial piece of legislation that creates a mandatory certification process for police officers, increases accountability and transparency in law enforcement and gives police departments a greater ability to hire or promote only qualified applicants.

"This bill is the product of bipartisan cooperation and thanks to the Black and Latino Caucus' leadership on the hugely important issue of law enforcement accountability, Massachusetts will have one of the best laws in the nation," said Baker. "Police officers have enormously difficult jobs and we are grateful they put their lives on the line every time they go to work. Thanks to final negotiations on this bill, police officers will have a system they can trust and our communities will be safer for it."

Former Speaker Bob DeLeo added, "I am proud that the House lived up to its vow of listening to folks with lived experience in enacting one of the most comprehensive approaches to police reform in the United States since the tragic murder of George Floyd. My unyielding gratitude to Speaker Mariano and Chairs Cronin, Michlewitz and González for their persistent effort to improve our law enforcement system. I am confident that the House of Representatives will build on this achievement in the time ahead and am humbled that legislation which promotes fairness and equality are part of the House's legacy."

"I am grateful to the Governor and key leaders in the House and Senate for their wisdom in coming together to carry this bill across the finish line," said Sen. William N. Brownberger (D – Belmont). "I believe that within five years, the Commonwealth will be a significantly better place as a result of this legislation."

"This law represents a mile-marker, not an end," said Sen. Sonia Chang-Díaz (D – Boston). "Among the 50 states, it will create the first civilian-led police oversight board with subpoena power and decertification authority; it will ban chokeholds and limit no-knock warrants; it will create a duty-to-intervene for police officers and a duty to de-escalate; it will ban racial profiling and put enforcement powers behind that ban; it will end the requirement of police officers in schools. But no one bill will dismantle structural racism—in policing, or in all the other places it exists. As much as we celebrate these hard-won steps forward today, we must equally resolve to keep walking the road of racial justice in 2021."

"The members of the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association are eager to turn the page on what has been an unprecedented and incredibly difficult and enduring year on so many different levels," said Chief Edward A. Dunne, President of the Massachusetts Chief of Police Association. "We are extremely confident that this comprehensive legislation signed into law by the Governor today will serve to renew an elevated sense of faith, confidence, and trust that the residents of the Commonwealth will have in their law enforcement agencies across the state. The MCOPA fully realizes and wholeheartedly agrees that the general public deserves nothing less than the highest level of professionalism, accountability and transparency in their respective police departments and this legislation will assist in enhancing our long-standing position as what are viewed by many national experts as model police departments across the entire country."

This legislation will, for the first time, create a mandatory certification process for police officers through the Massachusetts Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission (POST). The Commission, through a majority civilian board, will certify officers and create processes for decertification, suspension of certification, or reprimand in the event of certain misconduct. The nine-member commission will include six individuals from outside of law enforcement, and will also be responsible for investigating and adjudicating claims of misconduct, maintaining databases of training, certification, employment, and internal affairs records for all officers, and certifying law enforcement agencies. By creating a central entity to oversee officer certification, the Commission will ensure that those officers' training and misconduct records are available both to the Commission and to those officers' current and future employers, improving accountability.

Gov. Baker amended the bill to strengthen its due process protections for law enforcement, added police labor representation on the commission, and strengthened the bill's facial recognition provisions ensuring law enforcement agencies can continue to access these potentially lifesaving tools responsibly.

The new law identifies the general circumstances under which police officers can use physical force, and specifically bans the use of chokeholds and prohibits firing into a fleeing vehicle unless doing so is both necessary to prevent imminent harm and proportionate to that risk of harm. The bill also generally precludes officers from using rubber pellets, chemical weapons, or canine units against a crowd. Violations of any of these provisions may provide grounds for an officer to have their certification suspended or revoked.

The bill places strict limits on the use of so-called "no-knock" warrants, requiring such warrants to be issued by a judge and only in situations where an officer's safety would be at risk if they announced their presence and only where there are no children or adults over the age of 65 in the home. The legislation provides for an exception when those children or older adults are themselves at risk of harm. In addition, the bill requires law enforcement to seek a court order when conducting a facial recognition search except in emergency situations.

The legislation includes key provisions of the State Police reform legislation the Administration filed in January that provide new tools to improve accountability and discipline within the Department and to enhance diversity in the Department's recruitment and promotional practices. Those key provisions include establishing a State Police cadet program, enhancing the Colonel's ability to address and correct misconduct, updating rules governing promotions of uniformed members to officer positions, removing the requirement that the Governor look exclusively within the State Police when appointing a colonel, and creating a new criminal offense for police officers who knowingly receive payment for a fraudulent claim of hours worked.

FRESH & LOCAL

Dining Chair Travel — a safe way to explore new places during the pandemic

By Penny & Ed Cherubino

At Lucy Ethiopian Cafe, we shared a meal with friends using pieces of lovely injera bread to scoop up bits of food.

A Visit to Spain

For example, one virtual visit to Spain found us planning a menu around paella. Even a complex dish like this is easier with more minds to read the how-to and hands to execute the steps.

On that particular day, our shopping trip took us to Formaggio Kitchen for their recommended Spanish wines, cheeses, cured meat, spices, and accouterments to add to the flavor of the experience. From there we visited New Deal Fish to pick up the seafood for our main course.

When wine, cheese, and cured meat is part of a foodway, we try to begin the day in the kitchen by pouring a glass of wine and setting up a serving board of goodies for nibbling while we work. (If it's a culture without these items, we might start with the street food of the area. In some cases we make it, in others, we order take-out.)

In this instance, the other couple had a patio and grill. That made our main course more authentic by cooking it over glowing coals. The delicious pan of paella with its crusty bottom was placed in the center of the table where (in pre-COVID days) we all ate the section in front of us in proper Spanish communal fashion. We all shared what we'd learned about the dish, the wine, the cheese, and the flan we made for dessert over hours of table conversation.

Other Options

If cooking is not your passion, you can still learn about the food and beverages of a specific place and choose a local restaurant to taste what appealed to you. If you are open about wanting to learn and it is a small family-owned and operated spot, you have built-in teachers.

On our first visit to Lucy Ethiopian Cafe near Symphony Hall in Boston, we ordered the food our gracious host recommended and shared it with friends using pieces of lovely injera bread to pick up and bring bits of food to our mouths.

As the host came by to see if we were happy with his food, he told us about the cafe's role as a social center for the local Ethiopian community and the role of coffee and cafes in his culture. It was a memorable afternoon of enjoyment and education.

Cardinal O'Malley gets vaccine, encourages others to do so

Staff Reprint

Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley received the first of the two-dose protocol of the Moderna vaccine approved for COVID-19 last week.

The Cardinal received the dose on December 24, 2020 at St. Elizabeth's Medical Center in Brighton. The second dose is scheduled to be administered in late January 2021 at St. Elizabeth's. Cardinal Seán, who is 76 years old, hopes to demonstrate that the vaccine is safe and wishes to encourage people to be vaccinated when possible.

The vaccine is approved for Catholics to receive.

"I am very grateful to Dr. Joseph Weinstein, Chief Physician Executive of the Steward Health Care Network who, noting that I qualified for the COVID vaccine, very kindly offered to facilitate my inoculation at St. Elizabeth's," he said. "With recognition of the importance that all persons be vaccinated when possible I was very happy to receive this invitation. Mr. James Terwilliger, President of St. Elizabeth's Medical Center, one of the Steward Health Care hospitals in the Archdiocese and Chaplain Elizabeth Goeke, Director of Spiritual Care, welcomed me to St. Elizabeth's, where highly skilled nurses and medical personnel are directing and overseeing the vaccination process. I am grateful to have been in line for the vaccine and encourage all people to be vaccinated as the opportunity is presented, as an important action of care and concern for our loved ones, our communities and our nation. With the help of God and the excellent medical care provided at St. Elizabeth's and many other hospitals, we will make our way through and beyond the pandemic."
