Clark delivers $4 million for Wonderland Connector

Special to the Journal

Assistant Speaker Catherine Clark (MA-5) visited the site of the future Wonderland Multimodal Connector July 14 to tour the facility and discuss the economic and social benefits of the project. The planning and design of the station will be paid for by a community project funding request made by Assistant Speaker Clark for $4 million that was recently included in the FY22 budget. Clark was joined at the tour by Revere Mayor Brian Arrigo, State Senators Joe Boncore and Brendan Crighton, State Reps. Jessica Giannino and Jeff Turco, Revere City Councilors, and local supporters.

“From the transit benefits of modernizing the Commonwealth’s commuter rail network, to the environmental justice impacts of reducing traffic and congestion on our roadways, to the economic benefits of unlocking economic growth, it’s essential that we build the Wonderland Commuter Rail and Multimodal Connector in Revere,” said Assistant Speaker Clark. “I am proud to have secured $4 million in community project funding in the House Appropriations bill to plan and design the new commuter rail and multimodal center at Wonderland, and am grateful to everyone who has spent years advocating for this project.”

The funding will be used for planning and design for a new commuter rail platform and multimodal transportation connector in the City of Revere, linking the Newburyport/Rockport commuter rail

Bianchi’s at the Sandbar holds grand opening on the beach

By Cary Shuman

Last Thursday’s ribbon-cutting celebrated the grand opening of Bianchi’s at the Sandbar, but it also marked 70 years of pizza-making excellence on Revere Beach for the Bianchi Family. Bobby Bianchi is continuing in his role of running the famous pizza shop at 381 Revere Beach Boulevard, while the bar is a separate entity.

“We started on Revere Beach in 1952,” proudly stated Bobby. “Before my time, we used to have three spots and we consolidated with a shop underneath the Wild Mouse (amusement ride). We moved in 1974 to the spot where there are now condominiums. We moved here [formerly Renzo’s] two years ago.” Bobby credits his uncle, the late Anthony Bianchi,

MASSPORT'S SUMMER JOBS PROGRAM CELEBRATES 30TH ANNIVERSARY

The Massachusetts Port Authority (Massport) is celebrating the 30th anniversary of its Community Summer Jobs Program, which has supported thousands of local students through partnerships with community organizations. This year, 25 organizations are receiving grants to support nearly 300 seasonal jobs.

The annual program is designed to help civic and social service agencies by providing funds to hire youth workers in Mass-port's neighboring communities including Bedford, Charlestown, Chelsea, Concord, East Boston, Lexington, Lincoln, Revere, South Boston, Winthrop, and Worcester. Without the assistance of Massport's Community Summer Jobs Program, many local organizations would not be able to offer affordable summer programs to local residents. Since 1991, close to 8,000 local students have gained valuable work experience in various jobs, such as camp counselor, office assistant, maintenance worker and lifeguard, paid for by the grant.

"Massport is proud to partner with and support the great work of these non-profit groups and community organizations, especially as they recover from the impacts of the pandemic," said Mass-port CEO Lisa Wieland. "These summer jobs provide a great opportunity for young people to learn important life skills, gain professional experience, and earn a paycheck, while giving back to their communities."

The 2021 program will support the following local organization:

Revere Recreation Department

Massport also supports local youth athletic and enrichment programs throughout the year and offers scholarships for graduating high school seniors. For more information on Massport's community initiatives and youth programs, visit massport.com.

BIASELLA CAMPAIGN KICK OFF AT SAMMY'S PATIO JULY 22

The Committee to Elect Vanessa Biasella for Revere School Committee presents a fun night of dancing on Revere Beach at Sammy's Patio 63 Revere Beach Blvd. on Thursday July 22 at 6pm. A $20.00 suggested donation at entry.

Come meet Vanessa and have some fun with the Biasella Committee at their kick-off fundraising event.

All are invited and welcomed to attend.

THE COMMUNITY FAMILY AWARDED GRANT

The Community Family is pleased to announce that it has been awarded a grant from the Foundation Trust for weekly exercise programs at its Everett and Wakefield adult day health centers. The Community Family's Everett and Wakefield centers offers stimulating day programs for elders and disabled adults living in the community but in need of some supportive services.

The Foundation Trust's generous grant will provide a year of weekly exercise programs through Forever Fit, LLC. Forever Fit designs exercise programs for seniors to increase strength and flexibility while reducing the risk of falls. The exercise program at the Everett and Wakefield centers can be done while seated making it possible for everyone to participate.

"There is such a need for safe and engaging spaces for our disabled and senior community members. The Foundation Trust is proud to enter into this partnership to support the social, emotional, and physical well-being of participants at The Community Family," said Lauren Liecau, Manager of the Foundation Trust.

Through this grant the Foundation Trust is im-

REVERE FARMERS' MARKET OPEN FOR SEASON

The Revere Farmers Market, under the management of Revere on the Move, had its opening day of the 2021 season last Friday on the American Legion Lawn. Several vendors participated in the Market which will be held every Fridays, from noon to 6 p.m., through the end of October. "We're always looking for additional vendors," said Dimple Rana, director of community engagement for Revere on the Move. "We welcome vendors to contact us and be a part of the Revere Farmers Market each week." Shown above, the Revere Summer Eats program booth at the market offers free food for kids and teens each week from noon to 1 p.m. along with other goodies and information on healthy eating and upcoming programs in the City. In the front row, Director of Revere Summer Eats program Pauline Lyons, Tricia Turner, Joanne Kirk, and Asst. Director Kitty Adams. RMV CAUTIONS CUSTOMERS TO BE AWARE OF TEXT PHISHING SCAM

The Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles (RMV) is cautioning customers to be aware of a text phishing scam that has been reported in the Commonwealth and in other states. The scam reportedly involves customers receiving text messages, claiming to be from the "DMV," that direct them to click on a provided link to update their personal identifying contact information. Customers can identify this type of text as a phishing scam because it includes "DMV" and in Massachusetts DMV is not the name of the Registry of Motor Vehicles; in Massachusetts, the name of the Registry is abbreviated as "RMV." Any text using the phrase "Department of Motor Vehicles" or "DMV" should be deleted.

Please note that the RMV does not send unsolicited requests for personal and/or contact information to customers by text. Any communication by text from the RMV would be as a result of a customer-initiated request or transaction.

For the latest Registry updates and information, please check Mass.gov/RMV or follow the RMV on Twitter @MassRMV.

Logistics Specialist 1st Class Soeun Chea, from Revere, Massachusetts, fires a saluting battery during morning colors aboard USS Constitution. USS Constitution, is the world's oldest commissioned warship afloat, and played a crucial role in the Barbary Wars and the War of 1812, actively defending sea lanes from 1797 to 1855. During normal operations, the active-duty Sailors stationed aboard USS Constitution provide free tours and offer public visitation to more than 600,000 people a year as they support the ship's mission of promoting the Navy's history and maritime heritage and raising awareness of the importance of a sustained naval presence. USS Constitution was undefeated in battle and destroyed or captured 33 opponents. The ship earned the nickname of Old Ironsides during the war of 1812 when British cannonballs were seen bouncing off the ship's wooden hull.

Happy 125th Anniversary to Revere Beach! It was quite the foggy night, but the celebrations still went on. RevereTV covered this event live last week. You could have watched it as it happened on the Community Channel, YouTube, and Facebook. If you missed it, highlights of the night are posted to YouTube and are playing on television in between programming throughout the week. A special thanks to the RevereTV interns who assisted with production.

Interns, Arianna and Isabella, worked in the control room last week to help record the weekly public service announcements for the city. The main studio roles during these recordings are directing on the control board, and operating the teleprompter. Since these PSAs are not streamed live, they are the perfect opportunity to practice these skills. Each week, a PSA is recorded in English, Spanish, Portuguese, and Arabic, and all are posted to RevereTV's YouTube and Facebook pages.

The Rossetti-Cowan Senior Center held a few events that are now playing on the RTV Community Channel. One is a History of Revere Beach Presentation by Bob Upton. The other is a Barbra Streisand concert by Lori Z. Coverage of both events can also be found on the RevereTV YouTube page to be played at your convenience.

The Revere Farmers Market began last Friday on the lawn of American Legion Hall on Broadway. The market will continue every Friday through October. RevereTV interns, Isabella and Angie, took the reins on field reporting at the event as they led interviews and featured the vendors and activities of the day. Chris finds interest in editing and has been taking the lead on post production for the most recent intern coverage. Check out the highlights from the Revere Farmers Market playing on all RTV outlets.

RevereTV is beginning to cover some other live sporting events in the city. The latest is the Women's Football Alliance tackle football team, the Boston Renegades. The Renegades took on the Tampa Bay Inferno at Harry Della Russo Stadium on Saturday, July 10th. Boston defeated Tampa Bay with a final score of 63-3. Full coverage of this game can be viewed on YouTube, but is also scheduled to play some weeknights on the RTV Community Channel. This would be channel 8 or 1072 on Comcast and 3 or 614 on RCN.

Fenley Street home is recognized as Revere Beautification Committee's Beautiful Home

Staff report

The Revere Beautification Committee (RBC) named the D'Addario/Duncan home located on Fenley Street as the latest recipient of its "Beautiful Home" award. The first thing that is noticed as you approach the property is the lovely entrance. A neutral colored stone wall surrounds the property and it is capped by lighter stone. Between the wall is a set of granite stairs and this motif is carried through the walk to the front door brick stairway. Flanking the entry are two black urns filled with Bright red New Zealand impatiens. In addition, there is a small circular flower bed chock full of red, pink and white mini petunias, peach sweet williams, and purple salvia on each side of the entry way. The manicured lawn extends to the house that has many different bushes along flanking it. The bushes are multi-colored; some are deep green, some are light green, some have a yellow hue, and some are reddish in color. There is even a pine tree among the others. All of these have been well pruned. But the special tree that is on the left side of the yard is the hydrangea tree that the owner told me produces white flowers that turn to a bright red in the fall. The owners, John D'Addario and Terry Duncan, do all of the landscaping themselves and are understandably extremely proud of the result. The RBC congratulates John and Terry on their beautiful home and encourages all residents to emulate them by beautifying their own property.

SENATE CONTEST

Morabito considering run for state senate

By Cary Shuman

Councillor-at-Large Steven Morabito is continuing to weigh the possibility of running for state senate in the First Suffolk and Middlesex District. Morabito has pulled papers for the councillor-at-large race. He said if he were to enter the senate race, he would resign from his position as councillor-at-large. Morabito received close to 5,000 votes in the 2019 at-large race to earn re-election, taking second place overall among the nine candidates in the final election.

D'Ambrosio moves toward Senate run

By Cary Shuman

Revere School Committee member Anthony D'Ambrosio has taken several key steps toward running for the State Senate seat in the First Suffolk and Middlesex State district that includes Revere, Winthrop, and parts of Boston and Cambridge. State Sen. Joseph Boncore of Winthrop is a finalist for a high-level position at the Massachusetts Biotechnology Council. D'Ambrosio has formalized a state senate committee campaign account with the Office of Campaign and Political Finance and named a campaign treasurer, Ben Martello, who is an expert in campaign compliance. D'Ambrosio has also hired Chris Keohan, founder and principal of the award-winning consulting firm CK Strategies. D'Ambrosio has scheduled a campaign fundraiser for July 27 at the Cut 21 restaurant, Revere. "I'm enthusiastic at the prospect of running for state senate," said D'Ambrosio. "Should the campaign become a reality, I'll be focusing all my time and efforts to becoming the next senator for the First Suffolk and Middlesex District. I firmly believe that all candidates in this race should appear on one ballot, and one ballot alone – that's why I will remove my name as a candidate for Revere School Committee, should the campaign become a reality."

Former councillor Al Fiore will run for Ward 5 seat

By Cary Shuman

Al Fiore, a former councillor-at-large who topped the ticket in four of his five elections to the position, will be a candidate for the Ward 5 seat in this year's municipal election. Fiore, a three-time Council President, pulled his nomination papers last Friday at Revere City Hall and has begun his campaign. The son of the late Albert and Maureen Fiore, Al is a 1986 graduate of Revere High School and 1991 graduate of Salem State University with a degree in Finance and Economics. He served as Assistant Clerk of Suffolk Superior Court prior to his retirement in 2020. Fiore was first elected to the City Council at the age of 22 in 1991, finishing first in the race. His immense, citywide popularity in those days would seem to match that of current Councillor-at-Large and State Rep. Jessica Giannino, who won election while a student at Salem State University and has also been a prolific vote-getter. "I was humbled that the people of Revere embraced me during that period of time," said Fiore, who left office when he was appointed assistant clerk of court in 2000. Fiore said he has received a tremendous response to his decision to run for the Ward 5 seat. "The support that's coming my way from the entire ward has been overwhelming," said Fiore. "I'm humbled by it." He has begun knocking on doors in the ward. "The reception has been amazing," said Fiore. "People are upset with the overdevelopment, the traffic, the congestion, the parking meters, and the [Point of Pines] fire station issue." Fiore said he looks forward to talking with voters about those issues and other concerns during his campaign.

COUNCILLOR POWERS’ VISION COMES TO FRUITION

Robert F. Kennedy often was quoted as saying, “Some men see things as they are, and say why. I dream of things that never were, and say why not.”

Bobby Kennedy’s words came to mind this past week with the announcement by our Congresswoman, Assistant House Speaker Katherine Clark, of a $4 million federal grant for the design of a commuter rail station at the site of the old Wonderland dog racing track.

Although Congresswoman Clark’s announcement is the “headline” news, the real story is the decade-long effort by Ward 5 Councillor John Powers, who almost single-handedly has been the driving force behind advocating for a commuter rail station at this site.

Throughout the process, Councillor Powers has pointed out the benefits of a reduction in traffic on Routes 1A and 107, as well as the much-lower price tag of this project when compared to some other ideas that have been floated by Lynn officials.

In addition, John has outlined the specific benefits to local residents, who will be able to take a commuter train as far north as Rockport and Newburyport or directly into the city to North Station, offering an excellent alternative to the Blue Line for many Boston-bound commuters.

The design unveiled by Clark calls not only for a commuter rail station, but also for an easy-walking bridge connecting it to Wonderland Station on the Blue Line, thus providing Rapid Transit access to southbound commuters from the North Shore, for whom a ride all the way into North Station is not as convenient. The Wonderland commuter rail stop thereby effectively serves as an indirect connection for the so-called missing link in Boston’s rapid transit system, especially for a trip to Logan Airport for commuters from the north.

As Councillor Powers often has pointed out, there currently are 18 stops on the commuter line branch from its northern terminuses in Rockport and Newburyport en route to North Station. After making stops in nearby Swampscott and Lynn, the train just zips through Revere, totally bypassing our community before making another stop in Chelsea.

Councillor Powers often has asked, “Why shouldn’t Revere have a commuter station as many of the neighboring cities and towns have?”

That always has been a good question -- and now it looks as though we finally might have a great answer -- thanks to the foresight, persistence, and determination of Councillor John Powers.

NOT VACCINATED? COVID-19 WILL GET YOU -- AND YOUR FAMILY

When we were writing about COVID-19 last year at the height of the pandemic, we often put it this way: COVID-19 is a hunter and we, the human animal, are its prey.

In the summer of 2021, another way to think about it is this: COVID-19 is a microscopic version of the alien monsters in the popular sci-fi movies A Quiet Place or The Tomorrow War in which the aliens have invaded Earth and are seeking to exterminate the human race.

In both of those films, the humans have banded together to fight the aliens in order to avoid extinction.

In particular, the heroes in those movies do whatever they can to protect their families.

However, unlike in the movies, many of the humans on our planet, especially here in the United States, are not acting with the same degree of rationality and unity in fighting COVID-19.

Virus infections and hospitalizations are rising sharply across the United States thanks to the Delta variant, an updated version of the virus, that is both more transmissible and causes more serious disease.

However, as President Biden succinctly put it, the new surge in cases is occurring almost entirely among those who are not vaccinated.

More than 160 million Americans have received vaccinations, roughly half of the country. However, the vaccination rate varies widely depending upon the geographic region. In the Northeast and the West Coast, vaccination rates are in the range of 70 percent, compared to under 40 percent in large areas of the South and middle of the country.

Predictably, the increase in infections, hospitalizations, and deaths are surging in those under-vaccinated areas. The numbers don’t lie. It was reported last week that the seven-day moving average of new COVID-19 cases across the country increased by 16%, but that 93% of those cases were among counties with low vaccination rates.

In states with high vaccination rates, new infections are occurring almost solely among the unvaccinated. In the state of Maryland, which has a high vaccination rate, 99% of new COVID cases are occurring in persons who are not vaccinated.

The Delta variant that is now prevalent in the U.S. and across the globe is more than twice as transmissible as the original version of COVID-19. Fortunately, all three of the vaccines being used in this country (Pfizer, Moderna, and J&J) are highly-effective against infection by the Delta variant.

In addition, we have more than enough of the vaccine to inoculate every American against this dreaded disease. America is the richest country in the world and we have used our wealth to encourage the development and production of vaccines and to purchase a supply sufficient to immunize every American.

The incredible success in developing successful vaccines has been the equivalent of a 21st century Manhattan Project, which was the scientific effort to develop the nuclear bomb that eventually ended World War II.

So why are so many of our fellow citizens hesitant to get the vaccine?

President Biden noted that misinformation -- and outright disinformation -- on social media platforms are killing people. He also should have added that disinformation campaigns on certain so-called mainstream news networks similarly are contributing to vaccine hesitancy.

If you are relying on your Facebook friends or some other on-line (or mainstream news network) to persuade you from getting the vaccine, then you are a victim of bad information that can harm you and your families.

In short, the simple -- but brutal -- truth is this: If you and your loved ones are not vaccinated, it is inevitable that COVID-19 will find you, just like those science-fiction aliens in the movies. And just like the movies, for all too many of the unvaccinated, the outcome will be deadly.

LOOKING FOR AN EXPLANATION

Dear Editor:

Both members of Revere’s State House delegation, Jeff Turco and Jessica Giannino, recently voted “no” on proposals that would: 1) institute term limits for Speaker of the House; 2) require all representatives’ votes in committees to be made public, as is the case in a majority of states; 3) require at least 48 hours notice after a bill is published before voting on it, so that legislators and the public have time to review it, give feedback, and have a thoughtful debate about amendments.

It would be wonderful if the Representatives offer their reasoning as to why they voted “no” on these proposals. I am sure the public would appreciate hearing their representatives explain their thought processes behind these votes, and I hope our representatives would feel it’s their responsibility to explain their reasoning to the voters.

Joe Gravellese

THE IMMIGRATION AGENDA

Dear Editor,

Why is the Biden Administration allowing masses of immigrants at our Southern boarders and transporting them by buses and planes to other parts of our country, while warning persecuted Cubans that if they attempt to cross the sea to our shores near Florida they will NOT be allowed in? Is it because the Cuban People who have been oppressed by a Communist Socialistic government value American Freedom and most likely as future citizens would vote Republican? While the immigrants flowing in our southern boarders who have been promised free shelter and health-care (like in California) would feel allegiance to the Democratic Administration for giving them a “free to enter card” so to speak?

Make no mistake, this is all a politically driven scheme to change the voting demographics of our country! Democrats wish to change red states to blue. They don’t care about the individuals involved! If they did, they would not have encouraged masses of humanity including children to be victimized by traffickers and drug cartels to overrun our Southern boarders! The Cuban people would not support the current Administration’s Democratic Socialistic agenda! That’s why they are not allowed in!

Wake up Massachusetts! The Democratic Party is not what the Kennedys belonged. The platform that supports freedom and the American Dream is the Republican Party. But the party that is against voter integrity laws and supports the unlimited killing of unborn babies cannot be trusted to govern the living in America!

GUEST OP-ED

Fast Track to Turmoil

“I don’t want to wait until I’m old to have a nice house.” Or, “I don’t want to wait to enjoy the finer things of life.”

An old acquaintance bought an expensive house in California a few years back and remarked, “I couldn’t wait to get into that incredible house and then I couldn’t wait until we sold it.” Another friend remarked, “The greatest day in my life was when I bought my boat and the second greatest day was when I sold it.” Our view of life’s wants and needs change throughout life. We look at some things as if we can’t live until we get them. After awhile we realize life was simpler and more manageable before we had them.

Consider pacing yourself. Remember this word as much as possible – afford. Try to buy, drive and live with the afford word as your ongoing theme. If you can’t afford it you certainly don’t need it, whatever it is. Don’t overbuy on your house. Buy what you can afford now and maybe soon you can sell and buy greater. If you are living beyond what you can afford you will end up losing ground. Getting behind with making payments on property or having to file bankruptcy will only put the things you want out of reach. Destroying your credit rating only dismantles what you will want to buy next.

So, take your time. Trying to spend more and buy more than you can afford does not make you a greater person in anyone’s minds or eyes. Keep in mind that it’s your life and there’s nothing better than living life with peace of mind. If you can be comfortable, eat well and have a good daily life of health then what more do you really want? If you want more, then take your time, do good and more will probably become available to you. The wisdom writer of Proverbs said in 15:16, “Better a little with fear of the Lord than great wealth with turmoil.”

"The Colonel," Teddy Roosevelt, disembarks a train. Though not in Revere, this photo was probably taken around the time he came to the Point of Pines during his unsuccessful Bull Moose campaign for the Presidency.

The Colonel comes to Revere

By Stephen F. Olivieri

ON AUGUST 7, 1912, Jane Addams, a social reformer and leading advocate of women's suffrage, walked onto the speaker's platform at the Progressive Party's first national convention in Chicago and seconded the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as the party's presidential candidate.

Addams' role at the political convention, at a time in American history when women were not yet guaranteed the right to vote, symbolized the radical beliefs of this new third party headed by the former two-term Republican president Roosevelt.

In the following three months leading up to the national election, Roosevelt would cross the country to campaign for what would become the strongest challenge in American history to the two-party system.

The second stop on that historical campaign trail was a resort at one end of Revere Beach on August 17. On that day, Roosevelt gave two speeches at McPeake's Lynnway Club Hotel, also known as the Point of Pines Hotel.

In 1912, the real Rough Rider arrived at the Pines during his Bull Moose run

In the speeches - one at an afternoon rally, the other an evening banquet - Roosevelt outlined the Progressive Party platform, criticized the two major parties, and ridiculed his opponents, Democratic nominee Woodrow Wilson and Republican President William Howard Taft.

BY 1912, AMERICANS had developed a deep affection for "Colonel" Roosevelt - as the war hero had been called since leaving the White House in 1908.

His fellow countrymen viewed him as the Manhattan cowboy who tamed the Dakota Badlands, the police commissioner who conducted late night patrols of the mean streets of New York City, the Rough Rider who took San Juan Hill, and the two-term commander-in-chief who emphatically declared, "No President has ever enjoyed himself as much as I."

In February 1912, Roosevelt, bored with his Long Island retirement and believing Taft - who had succeeded him in 1908 - was moving too slow on needed reforms, decided to challenge the president.

Roosevelt sought the Republican nomination but was unsuccessful at the convention, despite winning almost every primary. Roosevelt was certain, and most historians agree, that he was a victim of "naked theft."

Colonel Roosevelt and his followers bolted the Republican convention and started the Progressive, or "Bull Moose," Party. Roosevelt was scheduled to come to Revere on August 17, 1912, the day after his first campaign stop in Providence, Rhode Island.

He was sure to be on friendly ground here. Shortly after Roosevelt bolted from the Republican party, Revere Republicans established a Progressive Party Town Committee. A canvassing of Republicans revealed that seven in eight supported Roosevelt over Taft.

Even two amusement rides on the famous Revere Beach Boulevard would come to be named for the 26th president - the Rough Riders and the Teddy Bear.

ON THAT PERFECT summer day, just before noon, a crowd began to gather on the piazza of McPeake's Hotel, awaiting the former president.

At 3:30 p.m. Roosevelt came out onto a balcony facing a ball field and tennis courts to address the crowd of 10,000, which had passed the time by singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

"It was a remarkable gathering in every respect and the biggest political meeting ever held in this section of the country," The Revere Journal reported.

The newspaper reported that 20 percent of the audience was women, "an unusually large proportion of that sex at a political gathering."

As he started his speech, Roosevelt addressed that faction of his audience by noting, "We Progressives have the right, in view of our platform, to make the same serious and sober appeal to the women that we make to the men."

Roosevelt went on to detail the Progressive Party Platform, which he guaranteed to put into law if he were elected.

"We regard it as a contract which we wish to enter into with you American people," he said.

The platform seems mundane by today's standards, but for the early 20th-century it was considered radical reform.

It called for direct election of United States senators, women's suffrage, initiative petition, recall of public officials, unemployment insurance, old-age pensions, pure food laws, and the abolition of child labor.

"In these matters that I have named, we do not intend to allow our representatives to decide for us what we want; we intend to have them put into effect what we have told them we want," he said.

Still bitter over being robbed of the Republican nomination, Roosevelt blasted the two-party system.

"We are absolutely and definitely cut off and refuse all connection with the machines of both the old parties," he told the crowd. "We regard both the old party machines as hopelessly corrupt and incompetent..."

Roosevelt, who had been the youngest American president ever, showed the physical wear of eight years in the White House and hundreds of hard-fought battles.

The Colonel's close-cropped, light-colored hair was turning gray and his muscular body, which he obsessively perfected after a sickly childhood, had turned portly around his waistline.

But when he addressed the crowd, Roosevelt still had - as one colleague phrased it - "that quality that medieval theology assigned to God - he was pure act."

Swinging his fists as if striking an unseen opponent and flashing his giant toothy grin under a droopy mustache, Roosevelt lambasted the political system.

"The other two parties are really both of them wings of the same party, the party of privilege, of political and industrial privilege, and ours is the party of the people themselves."

Roosevelt's deep and raspy voice would often turn shrill and falsetto when he got excited, and some of the 10,000 had to strain to hear him over the passing Narrow Gauge railway cars.

Roosevelt said little of Wilson, except that the Democratic nominee didn't support his own party platform which was filled with "impossible and conflicting promises." Regarding President Taft, his former secretary of war, Roosevelt said nothing.

When a spectator yelled, "What about Taft?" Roosevelt shot back: "I never discuss dead issues."

The Journal reported, "The big crowd were (sic) in a mood to welcome everything he said, and to welcome it with a fervor which was half of the political variety and half of the gospel variety."

When a spectator yelled, "What about Taft?" Roosevelt shot back: "I never discuss dead issues."

Working the concessions at Revere Beach

By Camille Minichino
RHS Class of 1954

I was almost 13 when I started my first job, on Revere Beach, at a stand under the Cyclone. It was 1950 and the Boulevard was alive with food and entertainment.

I started at one end of the concession, twirling cotton candy—10 cents for a small, 15 cents for a large—and worked my way up to pepper steaks at the grill. I worked all summers through high school and most of college, graduating to the deep fryer at the far end of the stand. I can almost smell the clams and fries!

I wish I could thank my bosses, an Armenian couple who were so kind and supportive of a shy girl making her way to adulthood. I've had many bosses over the last decades, but none I remember as fondly as Lil and Fred.

Celebrate like it's 1896!
Happy Anniversary to America's Seashore!
— Mayor Brian Arrigo & Family

By Marianne Salza

Families and friends gathered around the Reinstein Band Stand, singing and dancing cheerfully to the live music of Country That Rocks during Revere Beach's 125th Anniversary, on July 13. The fireworks display celebration, presented by the City of Revere, DCR, and Revere Beach Partnership, commemorated 125 years of the first public beach in America. Even through the mist, visitors were elated to stand along the seawall to watch the fireworks light the fog with twinkling bursts of color. "This has been a very challenging and difficult year-and-a-half," said Mayor Brian Arrigo about the Covid-19 pandemic. "To have a celebration like this tonight is a testament to the work that you've all done to get us here. Revere Beach has been a destination for families for those 125 years. The one thing that is constant is this beautiful view."

Governor Charlie Baker, who has helped revitalize the beach, and drives past it on the way home from Boston, declared July 13 as Revere Beach Day in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. "This is an extraordinary landmark," said Governor Baker. "And a big statement about how many generations who have lived, grown up, and worked in Revere, made sure this jewel along the Atlantic Ocean stayed a jewel for over a century."

The Revere of yesteryear

Written by Evelyn Morris,
40 Year teacher in Revere

I remember going to the beach every day with my mother and sisters and a scratchy wool blanket and a metal cooler full of water and saltines and peanut butter to snack on. We sat across from fascination. My sister called it "vaccination." MDC policemen walked on the beach to keep a watch on everyone. I do not remember lifeguards. Of course, we never went when it was "too hot to go to the beach". That made no sense at all.

We all worked on the beach which opened officially on Easter Sunday but stands would open if there was a warm spell before Easter.

People would come to the beach dressed in their Easter clothes and eat at every stand. Hot dogs, fudge, popcorn, cotton candy, frozen custard, Pizza. Bianchi's opened under the wild mouse. It was new to me. It caught on.

My first job was at kohr bros frozen custard. They had 4 stands on the beach. One between Shirley Ave. and Beach St. Another next to Sandy's Rides. Another in front of the double ferris wheel. And one under the Cyclone roller coaster.

To go to work on the beach, you had to have working papers. You went to the superintendent of school's office in the old high school and saw Mary Wall and got the papers which had to be filled out by your employer and then get a ss# at the social security office on Broadway Chelsea.

Every so often, a state employee would come to our stand to make sure we had working papers.

I worked under the roller coaster from 4 to 7 while my boss had supper

REVERE THROUGH THE YEARS

10 years ago
July 20, 2011
House Speaker Robert DeLeo has announced that he is planning to have an expanded gambling bill on the governor's desk for his signature in September. He made this announcement at the annual legislative luncheon in Winthrop, which was held by the Winthrop Chamber of Commerce earlier this week. Speaker DeLeo was accompanied by State Senator Anthony Petrucci who said he believed the state senate will likely sign off on the legislation as well. For Revere and East Boston and for all the surrounding cities and towns, this comes as great news because a casino at Suffolk Downs, which is thought to be a prime site for a casino hotel, would create thousands of jobs, bring hundreds of millions of dollars of private capital investment, and when it is up and running, a new revenue stream for the state which will return a portion of it to the host cities of Revere and East Boston.

By every standard of measure, this past week's Revere Sand Sculpting Festival was a great success. The weekend event drew an estimated 300,000 people, attracted mainly by the spectacle of first-class, world-class sand sculptures and by music, food, and the camaraderie of family members and friends. A good time was had by all and the fireworks on Saturday night were a wonderful display in front of an enormous crowd. In many respects, this was Revere Beach at its finest modern incarnation for a weekend.

Two significant aesthetic pieces to the new Wonderland Station redevelopment project have been eliminated because of a bid by Suffolk Construction that came in much higher than anticipated. Though Suffolk wasn't the lowest bidder on the project, they were chosen because their preliminary proposal was far superior to that of the other bidders. However, their bid was much higher than the $20 million project ceiling. In order to get the project going, Mayor Tom Ambrosino and a spokesperson for the MBTA acknowledged that a grand entrance to the public pla-as the actual founder of Bianchi's. "When Anthony retired about 30-40 years ago, my father, [Robert "Butch" Bianchi], took over, and we've been keeping the same tradition alive," said Bobby.

One well-known tradition that customers are carrying on is ordering pizza at the Bianchi's takeout window and walking across the boulevard to enjoy the pizza and the atmosphere while sitting on the beachwall.
"Our customers in particular love the beachwall," reports Bobby.
Bobby Bianchi, 54, grew up in Revere and Lynn and graduated from Lynn Vocational Technical Institute in 1984. "I specialized in graphic arts, nothing to do with pizza - I wanted to be a cartoonist," said Bobby.

What has made Bianchi's a year-round destination for the best in pizza? "We're very family oriented," said Bobby. "We love the community. We love the people both in the city and people who visit the city. We have one simple product: we do pizza. We don't do salads or subs or calzone. We do one thing, and we try to do it better than anybody. If there's a secret, it's to keep it simple."
Cheese pizza remains No. 1 on the customers' list of favorites, followed by pepperoni, according to Bobby.

ceremony, Mayor Brian Arrigo presented a Certificate of Commendation to Bobby Bianchi and his parents, Butch and Carolyn Bianchi, in recognition of Bianchi's being an asset to Revere Beach and for bringing so much joy to Revere residents and their customers for the past 70 years.
Then and now, Bianchi's holds a special place in the history of Revere Beach eateries.

Angela ‘Dolly’ Soroka

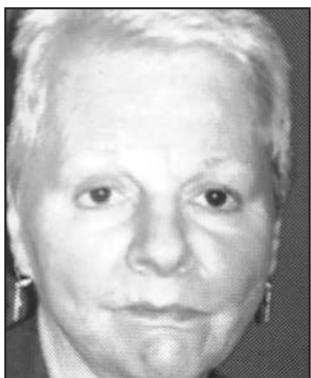

Well known for her baking

Family and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Funeral Mass today, Wednesday, July 21 at St. Anthony of Padua Church, 250 Revere St., Revere at 11 a.m. for Angela L. “Dolly” (Fischer) Soroka, 78, who passed away peacefully on July 13. Interment will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

Angela, or “Dolly” as she was affectionately known as to many, was born in Everett to the late Lucille and Freddy Fischer. She spent most of her life in Revere and she was a graduate of Revere High School.

Dolly enjoyed many things but one of her favorites was baking for which she was known. She spent a number of years living in Chelsea and was the former wife of the late Robert J. Soroka.

She leaves behind her daughter, Melissa Soroka of Saugus, her daughter, Lorie Heckley, who cared for her until the last days of her life and her son-in-law, Richard Heckley of Revere and her son, Robert Soroka of Everett. She was the loving grandmother of Samantha Heckley, Emily Heckley and Sydnee Bruce and is also lovingly survived by her brother, Joseph Fischer of Malden.

Michael DiCologero

Lifelong Revere resident

Michael E. DiCologero, 22, died unexpectedly on Sunday, July 18 in South Carolina.

Born in Melrose and a lifelong resident of Revere, he was the beloved son of Eric DiCologero and Katherine Mansfield of Revere.

Michael was skilled at artistic drawing and enjoyed skateboarding and lake fishing; most of all, he had a great sense of humor.

In addition to his parents, Michael is survived by his two sisters, Caitlin Romero and Erica DiCologero, both of Revere and his niece, Jaylah.

Services will be announced shortly. Please visit www.BisbeePorcella.com for information.

Michael Luongo

U.S. Postal Service retiree

Michael Longo, 74, of Everett, formerly of Revere, passed away most expectedly in the comfort and consolation of his home on July 14.

Michael gave 25 years of service to US Postal Service (Cambridge Central Branch) retiring in 2012. A late member of the US Army National Guard, Michael held a membership with St. Andrew’s BBC Club of Chelsea for many years.

The beloved husband of 49 years to Jerri A. (Hall) Longo, he was the devoted father of Michael J. Longo and his wife, Pamela of Chelmsford; adoring grandfather to four grandchildren: Tiberius B., Maxfield D., Dezlan S. and Vivienne C. Longo; dear brother of Josephine Piccardi and her late husband, Hugo of Revere and Salvatore Longo and his wife, Linda of Somersworth, NH. He is also lovingly survived by many nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grand-nephews.

All services were held privately in accordance with Michael’s many instructions and directives to his family and extended family.

Remembrances may be made to Tuft’s Medical Center, (Cancer Center), 800 Washington St., 7th Floor, Boston, MA 02111.

line to the MBTA Blue Line. This project will benefit not only the City of Revere but the entire region by alleviating regional congestion for commuters into the City of Boston and local congestion along Route 1A. The project will also increase connectivity for the low-income communities of Revere, East Boston, Chelsea, and Winthrop to major transit hubs.

Mayor Brian Arrigo thanked Congresswoman Clark for securing the Federal funding for the Wonderland commuter rail project, stating, "With this Federal assistance, we are one step closer to yet another transformation of our landscape, and one that will nourish our communities, our City, and most importantly the regional as a whole. And we have one person to thank for that – and that is Assistant Speaker Clark and I can't thank you enough for the partnership and the friendship that we've developed over the years."

State Sen. Joseph Boncore, chair of the Senate's Transportation Committee, said, "When this opportunity for funding became available, Congresswoman Clark immediately contacted and coordinated with local leaders to secure infrastructure funding that this city really needed. She reached out. She listened. And her staff collaborated. But at the end of the day, Assistant Speaker Clark delivered for this community."

Residents reminded of upcoming VaxMillions Giveaway deadlines

Staff Report

The Baker-Polito Administration and the State Lottery reminded residents of upcoming deadlines for the Massachusetts VaxMillions Giveaway, which opened for registration on July 1.

VaxMillions Giveaway Drawings will be held once a week for five weeks beginning Monday, July 26 and continuing every Monday through Aug. 23. Registration for the first drawing closes on Thursday, July 22, with the first drawing occurring on Monday, July 26. Winners will be announced later in the week following each drawing.

Massachusetts residents ages 12 and up and who are fully vaccinated prior to each drawing are eligible to enter the giveaway. Residents ages 18 and older who are fully vaccinated prior to each drawing will have the opportunity to enter to win one of five, $1 million cash prizes. Residents between 12-17 years of age who are fully vaccinated prior to each drawing may enter for the chance to win one of five $300,000 scholarship grants.

Eligible residents are able to enter the giveaway at VaxMillionsGiveaway.com. For residents who do not have access to the internet or require assistance, a call center can be reached by calling 2-1-1 during the below hours:

•Monday-Thursday: 8:30 AM-6:00 PM

•Friday: 8:30 AM-5:00 PM

•Saturday-Sunday: 9:00 AM-2:00 PM

Live call center workers are available in English and Spanish, and 100 additional languages are available through translators.

Residents are reminded that they have time to get fully vaccinated in order to enter the drawings. An entry before one of the weekly entry deadlines makes you eligible for all of the weekly drawings that take place after you register.

Residents must be fully vaccinated before registering, but if they are not vaccinated by the registration date for a certain drawing, they will still have the opportunity to complete vaccination and register for subsequent drawings. Residents will only have to enter once to qualify for all drawings occurring after the date of their registration.

Massachusetts residents 18 years of age and older who have received two doses of the Pfizer or Moderna vaccine, or one dose of the Johnson & Johnson vaccine, will have a chance to win one of five, $1 million cash prizes.

Massachusetts residents between 12 and 17 years of age who have received two doses of the Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine will have a chance to win one of five $300,000 scholarship grants via a 529 College Savings Plan managed by the Massachusetts Educational Financing Authority (MEFA). Funds in a 529 plan can be applied to cover tuition, room and board, and related expenses at any college, university, or technical or trade school or other post-secondary educational institution eligible to participate in a student aid program administered by the U.S. Department of Education. Winners with a qualifying disability may elect instead to receive an equivalent financial contribution to a special needs trust or federally qualified ABLE account to cover qualified expenses.

Only legal, permanent residents of Massachusetts who are fully vaccinated can enter the drawings. Residents must have received their vaccine doses within Massachusetts. Residents must be fully vaccinated prior to submitting their entry.

Residents can email support@vaxmillionsgiveaway.mass.gov or call 2-1-1 to report any instances of fraud or suspicious activity associated with the VaxMillions Giveaway Promotion. Residents are reminded that official prize notification emails related to the VaxMillions Giveaway will come from a Massachusetts Department of Public Health email address ending in "@mass.gov."

Donations from Revere residents of aluminum kitchenware to support national defense have exceeded the city's goal, as young and old have contributed aluminum goods they no longer use in support of the country's rearmament effort.

William Patrick DeOrio became the first Revere young man to have his number drawn from the historic fishbowl by War Secretary Stimson in Washington last Thursday evening. DeOrio is one of 207 local men who learned of their place in the draft.

The Mass. House rejected a bid by city and state officials to take over the former roadbed of the defunct Narrow Gauge Railroad to build a new roadway from East Boston to Point of Pines.

A building boom is underway in the city, with the dollar cost of new construction projects already exceeding all of last year's.

Greater Boston Stallions start off season with a win-by-forfeit

Photos and story by Bob Marra

The Greater Boston Stallions began their New England Football League season with a “victory”

READY TO CHEER FOR DAD: Greater Boston Stallions player Richard Bynum of East Boston had his daughter Zamyrah ready to cheer him on in the Stallions New England Football League home opener Saturday at Harry Della Russo Stadium. The Stallions return on July 31 to face the Worcester Wildcats.

Players honored during RHS softball awards banquet

By Cary Shuman

The Revere High School softball program held its awards banquet Monday at Prince Restaurant in Saugus.

“We have a nice crowd here for the GBL champs,” said event organizer Denise Anderson, at the outset of the program.

After having its 2020 season canceled due to the pandemic, Coach Joe Ciccarello’s RHS team captured the GBL Cup this spring with a dramatic 5-2 victory in 10 innings over Lynn Classical. All-Star pitcher Adrianna Fusco struck out 13 batters to lead the way for the GBL champion Patriots.

“To win that GBL title the way we did, I thought it was a tremendous win and a combination of a lot of different things that grew over the last 3-4 years,” Ciccarello told the gathering. “There will be a banner in the gym for them.”

Coach Ciccarello individually thanked the ten seniors for their outstanding contributions to the program over the past four years. Several of the Revere players had been competing together in softball since youth and middle school.

Saturday’s 6 p.m. kickoff, they discovered that their opponent the New England Bearcats could not field a full team and were forced to forfeit.

Many of the Stallion players expressed an “a-win-is-a-win” attitude, but were clearly disappointed that they would have to wait another week for game action. “We were psyched to get out there and playing,” said Winston Jeune, a safety for the Stallions. Jeune commented that he played at Harry Della Russo Stadium when played for Malden High School years ago. “It was only my first year at Malden, then Revere moved to another (Northeastern) conference and we didn’t play them anymore.”

Jeune noticed the vast improvement at the Stadium since his last gridiron experience in Revere. “Oh yeah, it looks great,” he said. “I’m looking forward to playing here.”

As distant thunder and lightening suggested that the game would have been delayed if not washed out altogether even had an opponent taken the field. players mingled with family and friends. Some played catch with youngsters until the rains arrived.

“Bummer!” a fan yelled as he entered the stadium, only to learn that there would be no game.

“We’ll get out here. We’ll play some football soon enough,” said Stallions assistant coach Brad Yancey.

The Stallions travel to the Roberts Sports Complex in Holyoke this Saturday to face the Western Mass. Blitzzin’ Bears. They’ll play their first home game at Della Russo Stadium on Saturday, July 31 at 6 p.m. against the Worcester Wildcats.

The Stallions are part of the New England Football League. The League notes on its website that it is a nonprofit organization to provide men, eighteen years of age and older, the opportunity to play full contact amateur football in a controlled, organized and structured environment at various levels of skill while being neither exclusionary nor discriminatory towards any person or persons wishing to participate. It is recognized by the NCAA as a true amateur adult football league, meaning college eligibility is not lost by playing in the NEFL. The New England Football League games are played under NCAA rules with certain modified rules to further enhance play. Since it’s humble beginnings in 1994, NEFL has become one of the largest, most successful and competitive semi-pro, minor football leagues in the United States.

A GOOD STRETCH, ANYWAY: Greater Boston Stallions player Garrett Nelson led the team in a pre-game stretch before officials determined that Saturday’s opponent the New England Bearcats were undermanned and forced to forfeit.

REVERE POLICE DEPARTMENT CELEBRATES THE RETIREMENT OF LT. GRAFF

Lt. Jeff Graff a 28-year veteran, was a dedicated public servant deeply committed to the community and the police department. Lt. Graff worked his way through the ranks at Revere Police. During his tenure, he had the opportunity to work in various roles to include the Traffic Division, the Warrant Apprehension Team and a Commander of the night shift.

Lt. Graff was a tremendous asset to the community and well respected by everyone. The department will miss him.

Giannino secures necessary funding for Triangle, Inc.'s School to Career program

Staff report

Rep. Jessica Giannino and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts reaffirmed their commitment to supporting the disability community by funding the expenses for Triangle, Inc.'s School to Career Program line item in the FY 2022 budget. The two-hundred thousand dollar line item allocation will allow for sustainable services to those most in need.

School to Career (STC) is a vocational program for young adults between the ages of 18 and 22 looking to expand their career experience with the goal of securing competitive employment. Triangle currently partners with several school districts, including Chelsea, Marblehead, Randolph, and Stoughton, to offer STC to 20 students before they age out of school-supported programming. The organization is actively seeking out additional school partners to disrupt entrenched, systemic problems related to disability employment.

“At Triangle, Inc we believe a job is the greatest equalizer. This year the disability community has seen some of the highest numbers of unemployment. Our members are eager to go to work - but like everyone, they just need a little guidance in getting prepared, knowing what to expect in the workforce, connecting with the right opportunities for their skills, or getting the skills needed for their career ambitions,” said Triangle CEO Coleman Nee. “Now more than ever we know there are many priorities for our state leaders to consider and we are more than grateful for their continued support and recognition in knowing that we are all people with ability.”

representatives including the Lead Sponsors Representative Dan Ryan and Senator Sal DiDomenico; Rep. Steven Ultrino; Rep. Kate Lipper-Garabedian; Rep. Sean Garballey; Rep. Paul Tucker; Mark Cusack; Rep. Denise Garkick; Rep. Bill Driscoll; Rep. Daniel Hunt; Rep. Christine P. Barber; Rep. Jessica Giannino; Rep. Michael Day; Rep. Jerald

A. Parisella. State Senator Rush; Senator Brendan Crighton, Senator Walter Timilty, Senator Michaels Brady, Senator Joan Lovely, and Senator Jason Lewis worked tirelessly during this budget process to support the disability community. Together with Governor Baker, in signing this budget, they are helping bring the dignity and respect of employment to all people of the Commonwealth.

Since 1971, Triangle, Inc. has empowered people with disabilities and their families to live rich, fulfilling lives. With a strong focus on employment, empowerment, independence, and community engagement, Triangle, Inc. reaches more than 4,000 people across eastern Massachusetts each year. Through all of its efforts, Triangle, Inc reminds our communities that we are all people with abilities. Learn more about the organization and their impact at triangle-inc.org.

THE WALL THAT HEALS ROLLS THROUGH REVERE

Last week, “The Wall That Heals” was met at Suffolk Downs to be escorted by several police departments and a huge turnout of veterans and their families on motorcycles, trucks, and jeeps. All the vehicles were adorned in American Flags and patriotic symbols, showing their support of our Vietnam Vets and their families.

The semi that carried the replica of the Vietnam

Memorial Wall in Washington, D.C. left Suffolk Downs, headed towards Revere Beach, along the boulevard, through Lynn and over to Nahant, where it was staged for a four-day exhibition, 24 hours a day. The exhibit was free to enter, but donations of any denomination were gratefully accepted. For more information on the wall or to make a donation visit, VVMF.org.

MAYOR ARRIGO PROCLAIMS COLOMBIAN FLAG-RAISING DAY

By Cary Shuman

Mayor Brian Arrigo proclaimed Tuesday, July 20 as the first annual Colombia Flag-Raising Day in the city.

Arrigo made the announcement during a celebration at City Hall that commemorated the Colombian Declaration of Independence that occurred on July 20, 1810.

“Today we gather to recognize not only the nation of Colombia, which declared its independence from Spain on this day in 1810 in a revolution that would reverberate throughout Latin America, but we also recognize the Colombian people who have made the United States and Revere their home,” said Arrigo. “The Colombian-American community has made our city even greater and I am proud today to not only raise this flag but to have a proclamation for the first annual Colombian flag raising day in the City of Revere.”

Mayor Arrigo presented the Proclamation to Diana Cardona, an employee of Revere 311, who helped coordinate the event.

Mayoral Aide Juan Diego Jaramillo, who is of Colombian descent and attended the Ivy League’s Columbia University, delivered the mayor’s remarks in Spanish.

Mayor Arrigo thanked Carolina Mejia of the Consulate’s Office of Colombia in Boston for her presence at the impressive ceremony.

Chelsea Theater Works to showcase immersive Shakespeare play in Chelsea Square in August

Special to the Journal

The age-old vendetta between the Capulets and the Montagues erupts this August in Chelsea Square. Shakespeare’s beloved romantic tragedy will be staged in the streets, parks, and by the fountain, as well as in the windows of the Chelsea Theatre Works. Audiences will move with and be creators of the action of this immersive production.

The evening begins at 6:00 with Live Music, Street Performances, and Craft Brews at the pop-up BearMoose Beer Garden on Winnisimmet Street by the Chelsea Theatre Works. Guests are encouraged to enjoy dinner via take-out or delivery from Chelsea’s exciting culinary delights. Romeo & Juliet, performed in a bilingual adaptation (English/Spanish), begins in front of the Chelsea Theatre Works at 7:45. The production is designed to engage English speaking and Spanish speaking audiences alike.

Composer Demetrius Fuller, best know to Apollinaire audiences for his compositions for Chelsea People, is creating the soundtrack for the production, which he will perform live with musicians Nate Fuller and Emi Nishida. Sound Designer/Music Director David Reiffel rounds out the musical team. This is David’s 25th show with Apollinaire- standouts include A Midsummer Night’s Dream (Norton nominee- Outstanding Fringe Production) and A Beautiful Day... and Stupid Fing Bird (Norton winners- Outstanding Fringe Production). His work has also been heard coast to coast from the Oregon Shakespeare Festival to Boston’s SpeakEasy Stage and Commonwealth Shakespeare Company. He won the Norton award for Outstanding Musical Direction.

The cast of 25 is helmed by newcomers Mishka Yarovoy and Emma Laird, both current BFA students at Boston University, as Romeo and Juliet, and Apollinaire favorites Brooks Reeves (The Strange Undoing of Prudence Hart, A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Three Sisters) as Friar Lawrence and Ann Carpenter (The Strange Undoing of Prudence Hart, The Visit, Uncle Vanya) as the Nurse.

LOCAL STUDENTS EARN ACADEMIC HONORS

GONZALEZ TABARES GRADUATES FROM RIT

Camilo Gonzalez Tabares of Revere graduated from Rochester Institute of Technology with a BS in software engineering.

Some 4,000 degrees were conferred in the 2020-2021 academic year at all of RIT’s campuses. Due to New York state COVID-19 occupancy restrictions, commencement was celebrated May 14-15 in smaller ceremonies by college and were live-streamed for graduates’ family and friends.

Rochester Institute of Technology is home to leading creators, entrepreneurs, innovators and researchers. Founded in 1829, RIT enrolls about 18,600 students in more than 200 career-oriented and professional programs, making it among the largest private universities in the U.S.

The university is internationally recognized and ranked for academic leadership in business, computing, engineering, imaging science, liberal arts, sustainability, and fine and applied arts. RIT also offers unparalleled support services for deaf and hard-of-hearing students. The cooperative education program is one of the oldest and largest in the nation. Global partnerships include campuses in China, Croatia, Dubai and Kosovo.

Red Cross needs blood donors now

Staff Report

While donors across the country have rolled up a sleeve to give this summer, the need for blood and platelets remains crucial for patients relying on lifesaving transfusions. The American Red Cross continues to experience a severe blood shortage and donors of all blood types – especially type O and those giving platelets – are urged to make an appointment to give now.

Right now, the Red Cross needs to collect more than 1,000 additional blood donations each day to meet current demand as hospitals respond to an unusually high number of traumas and emergency room visits, organ transplants and elective surgeries.

To thank donors who help refuel the blood and platelets supply this month, all who come to give until July 31 will receive a $10 Amazon.com Gift Card via email, and will also receive automatic entry for a chance to win gas for a year (a $5,000 value). More information and details are available at rcblood.org/fuel. Also, all those who come to donate throughout the entire month of July will be automatically entered for a chance to win a trip for four to Cedar Point or Knott’s Berry Farm. To learn more, visit rcblood.org/CedarFair.

Donors who give now will help stock the shelves for the rest of the summer season. Schedule an appointment to give blood or platelets by using the Red Cross Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enabling the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device.

In most cases, those who have received a COVID-19 vaccine can donate. However, knowing the name of the manufacturer of the vaccine they received is important in determining donation eligibility.

State advises residents to report dead birds in light of new disease

Staff Report

In late May, wildlife managers in Washington, D.C., Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and Kentucky began receiving reports of sick and dying birds with eye swelling and crusty discharge, as well as neurological signs. More recently, additional reports have been received from Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana.

While the majority of affected birds are reported to be fledgling common grackles, blue jays, European starlings, and American robins, other species of songbirds have been reported as well. No definitive cause(s) of illness or death have been determined at this time.

While there is always an increase in reports of dead birds at this time of year due to natural high mortality rates of young birds, MassWildlife is encouraging the public to report any observations of sick or dead birds (with unknown cause of mortality) as a precaution to help track this widespread mortality event. However, the mystery disease is not known to be in any of the New England states at this time. It is not necessary to report dead birds where strong evidence links the mortality to collision with glass or vehicles or predation by cats. Please email reports to mass.wildlife@mass.gov and include your location, number and species of birds, symptoms observed, and any photos.

As another cautionary measure, MassWildlife and Mass Audubon are also recommending the public to stop using bird feeders and bird baths at this time. Birds congregating at bird feeders and bird baths can transmit diseases to one another. MassWildlife, as well as other affected states, recommend taking the following precautions:

Cease feeding birds until this wildlife morbidity/mortality event subsides.

Clean feeders and bird baths with a 10-percent bleach solution (one part bleach mixed with nine parts water), rinse with water, and allow to air-dry.

Avoid handling birds unless necessary. If you do handle them, wear disposable gloves and wash hands afterwards.

If picking up a dead bird, place an inverted plastic bag over your hand to avoid direct contact with the bird. To dispose of dead birds, place them in a plastic bag, seal, and discard with household trash or alternatively bury them deeply.

Keep pets (including pet birds) away from sick or dead wild birds as a standard precaution.

At this time of year, birds are able to find plenty of natural foods on the landscape without needing bird seed. MassWildlife advises that seed from bird feeders can draw the unwanted attention of squirrels, chipmunks, turkeys, mice, rats, and even black bears. Wild animals that become habituated to human-associated foods like bird seed can become a nuisance, spread disease, and cause problems. You can learn how to attract birds to your yard naturally throughout the year using native plants.

The Boch Center announces 2021 holiday programming

A Christmas Story, the musical comes to the Boch Center Wang Theatre Dec. 7 – 19

Staff report

From the songwriting team behind the smash hit Tony Award-winning musical Dear Evan Hansen and the Academy Award-winning film La La Land, A Christmas Story, The Musical, brings the classic 1983 movie to hilarious life on stage in Boston at the Boch Center Wang Theatre, December 7 – 19, 2021. The Boch Center Wang Theatre continues its tradition as the premiere destination for live holiday entertainment in Boston. Tickets for A Christmas Story, The Musical are now on sale.

"We are excited to announce one of the first pieces of holiday programming this 2021 season with A Christmas Story, The Musical," said Joe Spaulding, President and CEO of the Boch Center. "It has been a challenging year for our entire community, and what a great way to look forward to the holidays than with a classic live stage show – we are thrilled to welcome back one of our favorite family holiday productions."

Expanding on health guidelines required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and City of Boston, the Boch Center has adopted a comprehensive program of health safeguards designed to assure audiences of maximum protection against pathogens including the virus that causes COVID-19.

The Boch Center is the first Massachusetts-based performing arts venue to integrate ActivePure Technology as part of its COVID-19 protection protocols. ActivePure Technology, backed by extensive independent testing, is the fastest-acting, most powerful surface and air disinfecting technology available. The system evolved from the NASA space program and is now used by thousands of schools, hospitals, restaurants, event facilities, businesses, places of worship and residences worldwide. It inactivates up to 99.9 percent of surface and airborne contaminants within minutes or hours of operation (including SARS-CoV-2, the virus that causes COVID-19, bacteria, mold, fungi and more) without the use of chemicals or ozone.

A Christmas Story, The Musical chronicles young and bespectacled Ralphie Parker as he schemes his way toward the holiday gift of his dreams, an official Red Ryder® Carbine-Action 200-Shot Range Model Air Rifle ("You'll shoot your eye out kid!"). An infamous leg lamp, outrageous pink bunny pajamas, a maniacal department store Santa, and a triple-dog-dare to lick a freezing flagpole are just a few of the distractions that stand between Ralphie and his Christmas wish. Chock-full of delightful songs and splashy production numbers, A Christmas Story, The Musical, has proudly taken its place as a perennial holiday classic for the whole family.

Hailed by The Associated Press as "a joyous Christmas miracle," The New York Times writes "I was dazzled. You'd have to have a Grinch-sized heart not to feel a smile spreading across your face." A Christmas Story, The Musical premiered on Broadway in 2012 and was a critical and commercial success. The musical was nominated for three TONY Awards® including Best New Musical, Best Original Score, and Best Book of a Musical.

A Christmas Story, The Musical features a festive and nostalgic holiday themed score by composer/lyricist team Benj Pasek and Justin Paul (Tony Award for Dear Evan Hansen, Oscar for La La Land), with a book by Joseph Robinette, based on the writings of radio humorist Jean Shepherd and the 1983 holiday film favorite. The tour features direction by Matt Lenz, with casting by Alison Franck. TONY Award® winner Warren Carlyle's Broadway choreography will be reset for the tour by Jason Sparks. A Christmas Story, the musical features scenic design by Mike Carnahan, with costume design by Lisa Zinni and lighting design by Charlie Morrison. The hounds will play themselves.
